PREFACE

There has been an intense desire of mine to piece together even a rather incomplete compilation of Bharata Kshetras as propounded by various beliefs of the generic Hindu Thought and its fall-outs. Some believe that the Supreme is Singular, many believe that such a Unique Power is manifested in various Swarupas and as such worship to specified Forms would be appropriate, some conclude that Paramatma and Antaratma are subtle and unified, others are convinced that existence of body organs and senses with all of one’s own pluses and minuses defies that logic of the Supreme and the Inner-Consciousness being identical. Indeed the Kshetras and Places of Worship would as such vary and are obviously conditioned by the Beliefs of one’s own pursuance.

The specified Swarups being worshipped are by themselves diverse; they could be Shiva or Vishnu or Shaktis, or Ganesha or Subrahmanya, Nava Grahas and so on. The concerned Kshetras are varied and some of these lend themselves of popular faith and belief. It in such a maze of the Kshetras of significance and boon-bestowing nature, any compilation would be not only incomplete but subjective. I have taken out relevant excerpts from another earlier script of mine viz. Essence of Pradhana Tirthas, as already released by the website of kamakoti.org.

Despite the normal precepts of Dharma and Nyaaya or Virtue and Justice of the Core Hindu Philosophy, as descended by the Scriptures of Veda- Vedanga- Purana-Upanishads are well defined, the emphasizes on such Principles are kaleidoscopic and staggering. Pioneers like Acharyas-Nimbaka, Shri Natha-Gouda-Swami Narayana sects apart, certain well defined Jaina- Bouddha- and other Practioners are in strong positions too and accordingly, the Kshetras, Mandirs and Places of worship are interminable.

Hence the desire to compile the Essence of Bharata Yatra Smriti is truly incomplete and perhaps very limited, yet the attempt is genuine and squirrel like endeavor of ‘Setu Bandhana’. Appropriately enough, annexing Lord Shri Rama’s Setu bandhana as an integral part of the present effort is perhaps not out of context.

I am ever grateful to the constant encouragement of HH Vijayendra Saraswati especially to highlight the aspects of Tirtha Giri Pradakshina and on Jain Sacred Tirthas.

I do dedicate this honest effort to the everlasing memory of Maha Swami theWalking God as my entire family is totally committed to his blessings.

Introduction

The length and breadth of the ‘Akhand Bharat’ is dotted by every inch of Sacred Land Tirthas. This presentation initiates with Dwadasha Jyotir Lingas, Upa Lingas, Prasiddha Shiva Lingas, Shiva Murtis and Ashtottara shata Shiva Kshetras, Divya Shakti Sthalaas and Devi Shakti Peethas, followed by Ganapati Kshetras, Subrahmanyaa Kshetras, Navagraha Kshetras, Divya Vishnu Kshetras, Siddha-Shradha Sthalas, and various other Sanctified Places of Yatra Mahima of Basic Hindu Belief. The nuances of basic Hindu Thought as highlighted by the pilgrimage kshetras of successive Acharyas are highlighted too viz. Shankaracharya, Ramanujacharya, Nimbaka, Ananda, Madhva, Gouda, Nadha, Swami Narayana beliefs. Then there are highlights of Jaina and Boudha Tirthas of basic Hindu fall out are described. At the end, details of Shri Rama Bharata Yatra are detailed.

Dwadasha Jyotir Lingas

Kedaro Himavatprushthe Daakinyaam Bhimasankarah /Vaaranaasyam cha Viswesvarako Gautami thatey/ Saurashtrey Sommanathasva Srisail Mallikarjunah /Ujjainyam Maha Kala Omkare cha Amaresvarah / Vaidyanathaaschitha bhumo Nagesho Daaruka aananey/ Sethu bandhe cha Ramesho Ghrusneswara Siva lingo/Avatara Dwadasakamethchhambhoh Paramatmana/

Nandiswara in Shiva Purana described the Most Celebrated Twelve Jyotirlingas of Maha Deva as follows: Kedarnath in Himalayas, Bhima Sankar in Dakinya, Visveswara in Varanasi, Triambaka on the banks of River Gautami, Somnatha in Saurashtra, Mallikarjuna in Sri Sailam, Maha Kala in Ujjain, Amareswar at Omkara, Vaidyanatha in Chitha Bhumi, Nageshwar at Daruka, Rameswara at Setu Bandhana, and Ghrishneswara.

[ Kedarnath in Uttarakhand, Bhima Shankar near Pune in Maharashtra, Visveswara in Varanasi, Somnath in Gujarat, Srisailam in Andhra Pradesh, Maha Kala in Ujjain in Madhya Pradesh, Omkara also in Madhya Pradesh, Vaidhyanath at Deogarh (Bihar), Nageshawara near Dwaraka in Gujarat, Rameswara in Tamilnadu, and Ghrishneswar near Ellora Caves in Aurangabad in Maharashtra]

There are some claims and counter claims of the geographical situation of some of the Jyotirlingas and one might possibly visit these Places too possibly!

Kedarehwara:

Flanked by breath taking views of snow-clad peaks of Himalayas at a height of 3585 m from Sea level on the banks of River Mandakini, Kedareswar is the highest point where Maha Deva’s presence is indeed felt in the manifestation of a famed Kedareswara Jyotir Linga as spread out as a fairly large expanse of black stone with an inclined elevation in the middle portion. Being inaccessible excepting by a difficult 14km trek by foot, or horse back or ‘dolis’ (palanquins) carried by two or four humans from Gaurikund, the Temple is open only during end April through November since residents, let alone pilgrims, have little access to the Mountain Top Temple during heavy snowfall in the intervening period. [A helicopter service is available now from Agastya Muni to Phata to reach Kedarnath]. The incarnations of Lord Vishnu in the form of two Sages Nara and Narayana meditated to Bhagavan Siva for several years and as the latter appeared and said that the incarnations of Vishnu Himself executed the penance without any basic reason excepting the welfare of humanity and thus agreed to manifest Himself as a Jyotir Linga at that hallowed place. Nara and Narayana are believed to have assumed their forms as hallowed mountains nearby. According to Puranas, Pandavas performed penance at the Temple and even in the opening Hall of the Temple at the entrance of the Sanctum, there are idols of Pandavas, Lord Krishna, Nandi and Veerabhadra. The belief is that Pandavas were chasing a Bull- Lord Siva Himself- and Bhima continued the chase to subdue the animal by holding its tail and the Pandavas attained Salvation finally from the Temple surroundings. It is also believed that Adi Shankara attained His Salvation from this Place and there is a ‘Samadhi’ of His behind the Temple. A distinct feature at the entrance gate of the Temple is the head of a man carved in a triangular stone as facia and a similar triangular facia is displayed in another Temple where Siva-Parvati wedding was fabled to have taken place. ‘Udakmand’ is mentioned in Siva Purana as a union of Seven Seas and its water is everfresh. In fact the Homa Kund of the Wedding is also visioned alive. On way to Kedar a number of Pigrimage Centers dot the route including Agastyamuni, Ukhimath, Phali-Pasalat Devi, Kalimath, and Triguni Narayan not far from Sonprayag. Vamana Purana explained the Origin of Kedara Kshetra vividly: Maha Deva performed deep and extensive tapasya on the top of Himalayas to refresh himself as also for Loka Kalyan or to ensure propitiousness to the entire Universe. During the Tapasya, there were fiery sparks from his ‘jatajutas’or the thick layers of his hair and fell as huge and heavy boulders on Earth. From the boulders that fell, Kedara Tirtha got materialised and Rishis commenced to reside there and by the grace of Mahadeva a Shiva Linga got materialised. Yatris visited the Kshetra atleast for six months a year since it was difficult and unworthy of stay due to heavy snow and cold. Mahadeva blessed and granted fulfillment of devotees who observed fastings, snana, daana, homa, japa and pitru shraddhas and worship and their acts resulted in multiplier returns. In fact Devas came to worship the Shiva Lingan aftaking holy dips in Kalindi River (Yamuna) the daughter of Surya Deva. There after Maha Deva disappeared deep inside the depths of the River for a very long time and various Lokas and Samudras got disturbed and even Nakshatras dropped down from the Sky. Devas approached Maha Vishnu in Yoga Nidra on Ksheera Sagara. Meanwhile a Danava named Mura, who was the son of Kashyapa Muni and Danu the daughter of Daksha Prajapati, performed such unusual Tapasya to Brahma and secured a peculiar boon that whosoever would touch would die. Deva and all other Celestial Beings like Gandharva, Yakshaadis got rattled and Mura challenged Yama Dharma Raja who in turn directed him to challenge Jagannadh Chatur Murti resting on the Ocean of Milk. Danava Mura reached Jagannadh who asked Mura to enter into a duel. Mura never expected this defiant reply and got confused with Vishnu Maya and muttered: ‘how, where and who’. Swifly enough, Sudarshana Chakra sliced off the neck of Mura thus earning the encomium of Murari. It was at that juncture that Devas arrived at Ksheera Sagara stating that Maha Deva’s whereabouts were unknown. Vishnu along Devas enquired of Devi Parvati, Ganesha, Kumara, Nandi and so on. Then he instructed Devas to observe Tapta Krucca Vrata for three days each by consuming hot water, hot milk, hot ghee and on the last three days only Vahu bhakshana followed each day by Abhishakas to Maha Linga at KedaraTirtha with sixty five pitchers of curd, thirtytwo pitchers of ghee, sixteen full of pitchers of Pancha gavya, eight ghadas of honey, two hundred pichers of Kalindi’s sacred water, one hundred eight pitchers of Gorochana, Kumkuma, chandana, butter as also puja of Mandara, Harashringara, Agaru, dhupa, naivedyas with the recitation of Rigvedantargata pada krama of Shata Rudreeya. At the end of such severe penances, Indra and Devas visioned a Unified Shiva-Vishnu Swarupa!! Having realised their folly that Shiva and Vishnu were one and the same, Devas and even Brahma moved back to Kurukeshtra and discovered Parama Shiva inside the water and hailed the Sthaanu Maha Deva and prostrated before him to withdraw from the Tapasya and bless them all and the Lokas!

Most of the Yatris do not invariably halt over at the intermediate places like Gangotri, Yamunotri, Deva Prayag, etc. and after Haridwar and Rishikesh proceed to Badari/Kedar. This is particularly so since there is a motorable road from Jyoshimutt. It is in respect of those Yatris intending to visit Badrinath that halt at Jyoshimutt while those going to Kedar first prefer halting at Rudra Prayag and trek up to Kedar generally. Of course the context differs in respect of trekking from Rishikesh to either of the destinations first. From Deva Prayag to Srinagar-different from Srinagar of Kashmir-there is a Kamaleshwar Maha Deva Mandir and the legend states that Devi Durga terminated a cruel Kolasura with her ‘Dhanush’(Bow and arrow) and there still is a bow shaped Dhanush Tirtha; Lord Rama worshipped Devi Durga here with Sahasra Kamalas or thousand lotuses but Shankara hid the thousandth lotus but Rama replaced it with his right eye in the worship unhesitatingly! From Srinagar to Rudra Prayag just away by a mile is the famed and picturesque Sangam of Alaknanda and Mandakini Rivers.It is at this point, that the ways to Badari and Kedar depart from each other where Sage Narada is stated to have eulogised Parama Shiva with his prowess in ‘Sangeeta’ where a Shiva Mandir is in place. From Rudra Prayag to Kedarnath the path along Mandakini are the places named Chatouli / Suryaprayag or Surya Deva’s meditation point- Agastyaa Muni Mandir-Chhota Narayana mandir with Rudraksha trees- Chandrapuri with Chandrashekhara-Durga Mandir-Bhiri with Bhim Mandir-Gupta Kashi where King Banasura the son of Bali Chakravarti of Vamanavatara fame and Banasura’s daughter Usha signified by Ushimutt nearby and Usha’s husband was Aniruddha the son of Lord Krishna and Devi Rukmini. Gupta Kashi is also the abode of Ardh-Naareshwara Shiva seated on Nandi Deva and there is a flow of Kunda or pond nearby stated to be a mix of Ganga and Yamuna. In Nala, Lalitha Devi Mandir is popular and this Devi was worshipped by King Nala. Narayana koti just away by a mile from Nala on the banks of Saraswai River are Narayana Mandir and Kalimutt the latter as worshipped by Kalidas the Scripter of Abhijnana Shakuntala, Kumara Sambhava, Megha sandesa and such immortal classics in Sanskrit. Maikhanda which is two miles from Narayana koti is known for Mahishasura Mardini Mandir. Rampur is the next halt three miles away to the trekkers good for night rest with woollen blankets etc even to carry and return basis to Kedarnath. Up the mountain top at Rampur by a four mile difficult terrain is situated the Mandir of Triyugi Narayana with his two consorts Bhu Devi and Lakshmi Devi; this is right along with River Saraswati with its four Maha Kundas called Brahma Kund, Rudra Kund, Vishnu Kund and Saraswati kund. It is stated that Achamana, Snaana, Marjana, Tarpana be performed at the respective Kundas. At the Triyugi Narayana there is an Akhanda Dhuni or Uninterrupted Fire Place where Homa Prakriyas are continuously performed and twigs are fed in the Agni Kunda. Despite the high significance of this Triguni Narayana Mandir which is very tiring to reach, yatris of normal stamina excuse themselves and avoid the peak height, and proceed further to Soma Prayag and reach Gouri Kund. The major halt before the eight and odd mile ascent up to Kedarnath is Gauri Kunda where there is a natural hot water Kund to refresh the yatris.

Kedarnath is one of the Dwadasha Shiva Maha Linga Abodes as these are as follows: Kedaro Himavat prushthe Dakinyaam Bhimashankarah, Vaaranaasyaamcha Vishwesraambako Gautami tatey/ Saurashtre
Somanathaswa Shrishaile Mallikarjuna, Ujjainaam Maha kaalaa Omkarecha Amareshwarah/
Vaidyanadhaschha Bhumo Nagesho Daarukaananey, Setu bandhe cha Ramesho Ghrushneshwara Shiva Lingovtara Dwadashakametcchambo Paramatmana/ (Nandishwara described in Shiva Purana the Most Celebrated Twelve Jyotirlingas of Maha Deva as follows: Kadarnath in Himalayas (Uttaranchal), Bhima Shankar in Dakinya (Near Pune in Maharashtra), Vishwaswara inVaranasi (Uttar Pradesh), Triambika on the banks of River Gautami (Maharashtra), Somanath (Saurashtra / Gujarat), Mallikarjuna in Srishaila.(Andhra Pradesh), Mahakala, Ujjain (Madhya Pradesh), Amareshwara at Omkara (Madhya Pradesh), Vaidyanath at Deogarah (Bihar)/ Parli (Maharashtra); Nagesha near Dwaraka (Gujarat) or Naganadh (Aoudhya, Maharashtra)/ Jageshwara near Almora, (Uttaraakhanda); Rameshwara (Tamilmadu) and Ghrishneshwara, Aurangabad, Maharashtra).

Kedar Linga is known from times immemorial: In Krita or Satya Yuga, Maharshi Upamanyu is stated to have worshipped Kedara Linga and attained salvation; in Dwapara Yuga Pandavas are stated to have performed Tapasya. Bhagavan MahaDeva assumed the form of Mahisha or a Buffalo and confused Pancha Pandavas at the same time as they were engrossed in Tapasya at different locations of Kedar now reputed as Pancha Kedar by displaying different body parts of the Mahisha viz. at Tunganath displaying hands, Rudranath the face of Mahisha, Mada Maheshwara displaying naabhi or middle portion, and Kalpeshwar his ‘jataajuta’or the coarse head hair; the Prishtha bhaga or the hind body part is stated to have displayed at Kedar nadha proper. One legendary account states that Bhima of Pandavas in the course of his Tapasya got disturbed by the appearance of the hind part of the Buffalo, chased it and tried to forcibly hold its tail but the ever potent Maha Deva eluded him and succumbed with severe injuries.
Pashupati Nath Temple in Khatmandu in Nepal is stated to have displayed the Maha Mahisha’s head portion. In Kedar there is no built up Murti swarupa as such but a raised and reclining dome basically a trikona mountain black stone is worshipped with ‘Abhishekas’or oblations with Milk, flowers, fruits, honey, agarbattis or perfumed sticks and so on. Kedar Mandir appears very oriental and typically mountainous with imposing locale surrounded by places like Bhrigupantha (Maghna ganga), Ksheera ganga called Chora thadi thaal, Vasuki thaal, Gugukund, Bhairava Shila. The Mandir displays Pancha Pandava Murtis, Bhima cave and Bhimashila. The half broken exit gate is fabled as the Sacred Gate from which Adi Shankara baled out and flew up to Kailasa. Beatuful white stone life size idols of Shankaraacharya addressing his disciples in the rear portion hall of the Kedar Mandir is in place. Apart from the Murtis of Pandavas, those of Usha and Aniruddha, Lord Krishna, Shiva Parvati and so on too.
Around the Mandir in a Parikrama are noticed Amrita Kund, Ishana Kund, Hamsa kund, Retasa Kund, and such other Tirthas.

Most unfortunate havoc of torrential rains, floods, mountain quakes caused thousands of Pilgrims to perish from all over Bharata Desha recently. Indian Air Force deserves kudos for their endless helicopter sorties and saved countless Yatris and so did yeoman service by various Defence Forces and their Wings to have extended the trekkers. Happily the entire Bharat stood up as one to help the survivors as per one’s own resources and sincere assistance. May Bhagavan Shankara who assumed a spurt of momentary fury for whatever was his own reason but essentially of the nature of interminable mercifulness, take the victims in his own fold and bless them as Kailasa Vaasis!

Right on the expanse of Himalayas are Nanda Devi and Maha Mrityunjaya in the Gadhwal region.
Mountain Nanda Devi’s top is the world’s highest Mount Everest named Gouri Shankar. Yatras are conducted to Gaurishankar every twelve years and enterprising men and woman do join the yatra coinciding Bhadrapada Sukla Saptami. On way are Nandakesari, Purna, Triveni Deval, Nandapeeth etc. The Legend states that Bhagavati Nanda Devi uprooted several Asuras and purified herself by bathing in Rupkunda. Maha Mrityunjaya of Gadwal region again which is of some fifteen miles hike from Karna – ganga suffered a massive earth quake in the remote past at the time Adi Shankaraacharya in mid 18th century and a Shivaratri Festival has been celebrated there ever-since.

Bhima Shankar:

Located some 110 km from Pune in Maharashtra State in the Ghat region of Sahyadri Hills near the head of Bhima River which merges with Krishna River too, the fifth Jyotirlinga Bhima Shankar is the appearance Maha Siva who exterminated Demon Bhima, son of Kumbhakarna (Ravan’s brother). Demon Bhima on knowing from his mother Kartaki wanted to avenge the death of his father by Lord Rama, who was Maha Vishnu’s incarnation and performed penance to Lord Brahma to receive boons to conquer even mighty opponents. He defeated Indra and Devas and what provoked Lord Siva most was the tormenting of a great Siva Bhakta King Kamarupeshwara insisting that the latter should pray to himself rather than Siva Linga. As the Demon was about to destroy the Sivalinga by his sword, Lord Siva appeared and destroyed the Demon and His mighty anger caused sweat which flowed as River Bhima. The Jyotirlinga thus manifested is a powerful representation of ‘Ardhanariswara’ in the Temple provides proof of instant fulfillment of all desires thus attracting thousands of devotees, especially on all Mondays and definitely on Sivaratri festivals. As in certain other cases like at Ujjain, the Swayambhu Jyotirlinga is set at a level lower than the normal Ground; also there is a speciality here that there is a constant flow of water from the Linga! The Bhima Shankar Temple is also associated with the killing of Demon brothers Tripurasuras along with Devi Parvati in Her manifestation as Kamalaja whose temple is also nearby the main Temple. Devi Kamalaja was worshipped by Brahma and hence She was called so. Sakini and Dakini were among those whose contribution was significant in the battle against Tripurasuras and their worship too is performed at the Temple. ‘Mokshakund Tirtha’, the Holy Waterbody adjacent the Bhimashankar Temple is associated with Sage Kausika. [Maratha Rulers especially Nana Phadnavis who built the Temple ‘Sikhara’ and Sivaji who made donations to its maintenance were intensely associated with the progress of this illustrious Temple].

While the above version of the location of Bhimashankar is convincing, Siva Purana which is relevant in the context of the current source states in Rudra Samhita: ‘Dakininam Bhimashankara’ while outlining the broad references of the Dwadasa Jyotirlingas; more clearly the Koti Rudra Samhita states:

*Bhimashankara sanjnaastu Shashtha Shambho Maha Prabho/ Avataro Maha leeloBhimasuravinashanah/ Sudakshinabhida Bhaktam Kamarupeshwaram vrisham / yogaraaksha sadhnutam hatvasaram th ha bhakta duhkhadham/Bhimashankara naamaa sa daakinyam samshhitaha swayam/ Jyotirlinga Siva rupena prarthesena Sankarah/ The sixth incarnation of Shambu and His ‘Leela’ (miracle) was the killing of Bhimasura and saving of King Sudakshina of Kamarup whose grateful prayers resulted in the manifestation of Siva at Dakini. The belief is the Bhimashankar Temple at Bhimapur Hill near Guwahati in Assam is the one where the King Sudakshina was saved and the Jyotirlinga was consecrated. Sivaratris are celebrated with pomp and Show in this Temple. Yet another version relates that the Temple of Bhimashankar Jyotirlinga at Kashipur near Nainital which was noted as a Dakini Country in the past is the one where the Jyotirlinga appeared. The legend in the Region was that Bhima of Pandava brothers married a Dakini woman named Hidimba and that Lord Siva appeared in that Place as a Swayambhu Jyotirlinga in that Temple area.In this Temple too, there are Idols of Bhairavanath and Devi Bhagavati as also a Temple Tank, called Sivaganga. Siva Ratri Jagarans and Worship are observed with religious fervour and devotion in this Temple too.

Varanasi: Famed as the Place of Devas that was founded by Bhagavan Siva Himself, some five thousand years ago, Kasi has a hoary legend with age-old reputation worldwide. Varun and Ganga and also Ganga and Assi, flowing in different directions, confluence in ‘Varan-Assi’ or Varanasi. Euologised in several Scriptures like Rig Veda, Puranas and Epics, Varanasi was the Capital of Kasi King three thousand years ago and was reputed even by then as the capital of Religion, Education and Arts. The City covers some five kilometers of the Holy and Everflowing Ganges on its banks attracting lakhs of Pilgrims every year as the Ultimate Destination of Salvation for Hindus of all faiths and several other religions especially Buddhists and Jains. This is the Sacred Spot that Bhagavan Visveswara manifested as Avimukta Jyotir Linga in the renowned Golden Visveswara Temple. It is stated that Lord Brahma executed such severe Tapasya (meditation) here so much that Maha Vishnu moved His head across fast in disbelief and the latter’s ear ring fell at a place on the bank of the River and was since then named ‘Manikarnika’. When Brahma was once chanting Vedas in praise of Siva in the form of the Jyoti Linga with the former’s ‘Panchamukhas’ or Five Heads, some pronunciation slips rolled by and becoming furious of the chanting mistakes which changed the sense of the words, Lord Siva opened the third eye and burnt one of Brahma’s heads which fell and found a permanent place in the Temple. Viswanath Temple is also considered as a ‘Shakti Peetha’ and it is believed that Devi Sati’s ear-rings fell at the spot where Devi Visalakshi’s shrine stands. Durga Temple, nick-named as Monkey Temple owing to large presence of monkeys, is considered as a shrine built originally by Durga Herself and during ‘Navarathras’ of Dussera festival comes fully alive and heavily crowded by devotees. Sankata Vimochna Hanuman Temple is frequently visited, especially on Tuesdays and Saturdays. The Shrine of Annapoorni is stated as the place where Devi Annapurna Herself distributed ‘Anna’ (Rice and so on) to devotees when there was a famine and Lord Siva Himself asked for ‘Anna’ in the disguise of a Beggar! There is a Neelakantha Temple with Deities of Vishnu, Avikuntha Vinayaka, Virupakshi Gauri, Saniswara and clusters of Five-some Lingas. A separate shrine dedicated to Kala Bhairava is present too in the courtyard. On the five km long banks of Ganga are situated hundreds of ‘Ghats’ or areas specified for many purposes like Sacrifices or Yagnas and Homams, some for bathing, or some even owned privately. For eg. ‘Dasasvamedha’ Ghat where Brahma performed Yagnas and even now Brahmanas perform Agni Sthomas, Homas to please Devas and so on; ‘Manikarnika Ghat’ where Brahma executing penance and Vishnu’s earrings were lost at the disbelief of the former’s streng to do it so seriously and shook His earrings fast and lost these while Devi Parvati pretended that Her earrings were lost so that Siva would stay back to search the lost earrings forever and thus tie Him up to Kasi and such other beliefs. Besides the Manikarnika Ghat, where dead bodies are brought for the favour of cremation to attain mukti (salvation), there is the Harischandra Ghat where the Illustrious King Harischandra was posted as a slave and cremated dead bodies with the same belief of attaining salvation. It is common knowledge that the King stood for truthfulness and endured the most severe tests of life of selling off his family and Son, became a life-long slave and finally attained Salvation.

There are many other Ghats like ‘Man Mandir Ghat’ near Someswara Linga Temple, Lalitha Ghat near by Pasupatinath Temple, Tulasi Ghat where Tulsidas scripted Ramayana and so on. Ranging from Kings and Queens, Foreign Plunderers, Great Saints like Adi Shankara, Ramakrishna Paramahamsa, Vivekananda, Dayananda, Tulasidas and GuruNanak; Educationists, Artistes, Disbelievers, Non Hindu Followers, and even modern Pandas-anybody be named and be found- are all attracted to this Memorable City for their reasons of Salvation, Religion, worldly fulfilments, mischief or mere curiosity: but Maha Deva Blesses them all whatever may be the motive!

Tryambakeshwara: Located thirty kilometers away from Nasik in Maharashtra, the renowned Jyotirlinga of Lord Siva’s materialization called Tryambakeswar attracts thousands of Pilgrims round the year providing boons of material and spiritual nature. The ‘Punyakshetra’ or the Hallowed Land is the source point of the Holy River Godavari basically owing to the Bhagiradh-like efforts of Sage Gautama and his highly pious wife Ahalya. By virtue of the Sage’s penance and prayers, Lord Varuna was pleased to supply water and food grains in abundance but this boon turned out as a basis of jealousy of co-Sages and their spouses who created a cow to plunder the grains. Sage Gautama destroyed the cow, but as a result of a sin in killing the cow, the Sage-couple was banished to a hermitage on the mountain of Brahmagiri. Gautama Muni made relentless ‘Tapasya’ to Bhagavan Siva who endowed Gautama with the double desires of bringing River Ganga near his hermitage and also stay on its banks along with Bhagavati in the form of a Jyotirlinga. Lord Siva granted both the wishes that Ganga was brought near Gautama’s hermitage as River Godavari and His manifestation as Tryambakeswara Jyotirlinga in the vicinity of the River Godavari / Gautami. In parallel to this, another legend related to the formation of a Jyotirlinga at Brahmagiri was the interface of Lords Brahma and Vishnu vis-à-vis an appearance of a Fire Column whose height and depth could not be ascertained by both of them; Brahma’s cover-up story was that he found out the height of the Column and cited a Ketaki flower as a witness. Bhagavan Siva gave a curse to Brahma that there would not be worship of the former and Brahma gave a return curse that Lord Siva would be pushed underground. Hence the manifesation of Tryambakeswara under the Brahmagiri. The Jyotirlinga is of a small size in a depression on the floor with water oozing out constantly from the top. The force of waves of the River appears to be as per the intensity of the prayers of Sage Gautama according to the conviction of devotees in the Temple! Major Tirthas (Tanks) in the Temple are named Gangadwara representing the source of Ganga (Godavari), Varaha Tirtha where Lord Vishnu had a bath in the River in Varaha Rupa (appearance as Boar) and Kushvartha Tirtha considered as the most significant as Sage Gauthama spread across Kusha or Darbha Grass while securing the waters of Ganga. There are also other Tirthas like Gangasagara, Bilva Tirtha, Indra Tirtha, Vishwanath Tirtha, Mukund Tirtha, Prayag Tirtha, Rama Kund, Lakshmana Kund and so on. Among the Shrines are Kedarnath, Rameshwar, Gauthameshwar, Kasi Viswanatha, Jareswar, Kanchaneshwar, Tribhuneswar, Venkateshwar, and Hanuman. There are daily worships at the Main Temple thrice and the nightly ‘arthies’ are special. On Mondays there are special ‘abhishekas’ and ‘arthies’ as also ‘Parikramas’. Kartika month worships are important, especially Kartika Purnima. Gangavataraana is celebrated in the month of Magha. Simhasta Parvani is held once in twelve years.

Somnath: Prajapati Daksha married away twenty seven of his daughters to Chandra Deva (Moon) but Chandra had great infatuation for Rohini to the neglect of other wives. Daksha warned Chandra about this but to avail. Finally Daksha cursed Chandra who appealed to Lord Brahma, and in turn asked to perform Tapasya to Bhagavan Siva. Chandra observed penance at Prabhasa on the banks of River Sarasvati. On His appearance Lord Siva sorted out the problem with a compromise that the first bright fortnight of a month (Sukla Paksha) Moon would wax and the ‘Krishna Paksha’ Moon would wane. He also blessed Moon to be near Him and Parvati always. Being a ‘Sparsha’ (Touch) Jyotirlinga-Somachandra- stated to be the first in the series, it would remove away all physical ailments particularly tuberculosis and leprosy and bathing in the Water body ‘Chandra kund’ washes off all the sins committed by human beings. Known as Prabhat Kshetra [near Veraval in Kathiawad District of Saurashtra in Gujarat], Lord Krishna is believed to have performed his Leelas (Miracle Acts). [An ever burning light in a cave of the Temple is witnessed till date].

Srisailam: Stated to be the Second in the Series of Jyotirlingas on the Sri Parvat (in Andhra Pradesh, some 230 Km. from Hyderabad) on the banks of River Krishna, Lord Siva’s manifestation as Mallikarjuna along His Spouse Devi Bhramaramba is famed mythologically as the place of penance when Kartikeya was unhappy and felt cheated as Ganesha was wedded earlier despite the Agreement that whoever arrived first after full ‘Bhu Pradakshina’ (circumambulation of the World) would win, but Ganesha took advantage of a Provision of the Scriptures and performed a ‘Pradakshina’ of his parents and attained the advantage of the Pradakshina. Siva and Parvati visited the Krouncha Mountain to pacify Kartikeya but to no avail and thus moved over to the Mountain from Kailasa. As Vrishabha Deva – Siva Parvati’s Carrier-did Tapasya to the Maha Devas, they appeared as Mallikarjuna and Bhramaramba at this Holy Spot. Lord Rama is said to have installed a Sahasralinga and Pandavas set up Pancha Pandava Lingas in the Temple surroundings. In a tiny hole inside the temple of Devi Bhramaramba, one could still hear the buzz of bees as the Devi assumed the form of bees all over Her Body and killed Mahishasura. Adi Shankara is reputed to have scripted his well known Work named ‘Sivananda Lahari’ at this Temple.

Ujjain: The only ‘Svayambhu’ (Self-born) Jyothirlinga of Lord Siva in the form of Mahakal originating ‘Mantra Shakti’ (Power of Mantras) from within is indeed a unique specimen among all the Jyotir-lingas on the banks of River Kshipra. This is the only Temple of various Jyotirlingas maintained on Tantrik Principles. While Mahakaleswar faces south as a Dakshina murthi, the Idols of Ganesh, Parvati, Kartikeya and Nandi are installed on West, North, East and South respectively. Shree Yantra is perched upside down at the Ceiling of Garbha Griha where the Main Linga is situated. The Temple has five levels including an underground and on the third level is installed the idol of Nagchandreswar open for public view only on Nag Panchami days. Experience at the time of very early morning ‘Bhasmabhishekhas’ or the spread of ash along with the loud chanting of Mantras of the Deity and with the thrilling and reverberating sounds of various percussion and bronze gong instruments takes one to devotional ecstasy. [It is stated that the Bhasmabhishekhas are performed by using the ashes of the first dead bodies of the previous day, sanctified by Mantras from the holy waters of River Kshipra. Ladies are not allowed to enter the Sanctum at the time of the Bhasmabhishekhas although they could witness the proceedings on Close Circuit TVs.] The mythological background of the Temple was that there was a pious Brahmana well versed in Vedas and Scriptures had four learned sons named Devapriya, Priyamedha, Survita and Suvrata. A demon named Dushana lived nearby on a hill Ratnamala who could not tolerate the very concept of Vedas and its applications and particularly hated the Brahmana brothers. One day the Demon decided to destroy the brothers who were unfazed and continued their worship of Maha Siva. As the Demon and his cruel followers were about kill the brothers there was such a ‘Hunkar’ or roaring sound of Mahakal which itself took away the breath of the entire band of Danavas headed by Dushan instantly. The Brahmana brothers prayed to the Lord who appeared on the spot and implored His manifestation of ‘Mahakala’ to stay put for the greatest benefit of posterity and conducted daily worship from generation to generation. [Ujjain, the erstwhile Capital of Avanti, had considerable importance of India’s ancient history ruled in the past by Mauryas and Guptas. Memories of King Vikramaditya still linger in the City till date. His Nine Gems of Poets especially Kalidasa who scripted famed Works like Megha Sandesam, Abhijnana Shakuntalam and so on, the other Gems being Dhanvantari, Kshapanaka, Amarasimha, Sankhu, Vetal Bhatta, Ghatakopara, Varahamihira and Vara Ruchi. Bhartruhari the step brother of King Vikramaditya became an ascetic and the Caves of Bhartruhari are on the tourist map of the City as many believe that a person entering the maze of the Caves seldom returns! Kalbharava Temple too is an interesting feature; as much of liquor poured as Naivedya (offerings) in the Deity’s throat (in the form of a Dog), half of it is returned as ‘Prasad’! Ujjain is one of the Seven ‘Mukti Sthalas’ (Salvation Places) of India, besides Ayodhya, Mathura, Haridwar, Benares, Kanchipuram and Dwarka.

Omkareswar: Situated in the banks of River Narmada on the Mandhata (Shivapuri) Island formed in the shape of OM in Sanskrit, Omkareswar is one of the Jyotirlingas besides another Amareswar Linga. The Legend was that Sage Narada visited Vindhyha Raja and the latter bragged that Vindya was the highest and most powerful Mountain in the entire World. Narada replied that perhaps Meru was the greatest in terms of height and might. Vindhyha Raja felt jealous and executed severe ‘Tapasya’ and pleased Maha Siva and requested that He should always be present in the Vindhyas and establish a Linga of Bhagavan on the banks of Narmada near to Vindhya. Hence the Omkara Jyotirlinga there. Puffed by Siva’s presence there, Vindhya Raja grew taller and taller to compete with Sumeru. This obstructed Sun God’s routine circumambulation of the Universe and He had to return half way turning half of the Universe dark.

Bhagavati asked Sage Agastya from Kasi to visit Vindhya Raja who out of veneration bent down to touch the feet of Agastya who asked Vindhya to be in that position till he returned and he never came again from the South!

Vaidyanath (At Deogarh / Parli?) The legendary background of Vaidyanath Jyotirlinga is related to Ravanasura the Epic Villain of Ramayana. The King of Lanka carried out a relentless meditation to Bhagavan Siva at Kailash Mountain for mighty supremacy and indomitability in the Three Worlds. But as Siva was still not responsive, he moved out from Kailasa to Vrikshakandhaka towards south of Kailasa.
He dug up a pit and worshipped a Sivalinga even by sacrificing his ten heads, one by one and at the end
Lord Siva became visible and gave away boons of supremacy as also to let a Sivalinga to carry to his Kingdom on the condition that he should reach Lanka directly without even a single halt, lest the Linga if kept down would never be pulled out! Devas became afraid that once Ravana turned unquestionable, there would be chaos in the Three Lokas and Dharma would be wiped out. Thus Devas prayed to Devi Parvati and Ganesha to somehow avert the risk of the Sivalinga to reach Lanka. Parvati appeared on way to Ravana in disguise and in collaboration with Varuna, tempted pure waters of major holy Rivers to quench Ravana’s thirst. The King’s stomach got bloated and he wished to stop over urgently for a relief and luckily for him, there was a lad whose assistance was sought to hold the Linga for a few moments without placing it on the Ground. By the time Ravana returned, the lad- Lord Ganesha-disappeared and the Linga was stuck to the Ground and no force applied by Ravana was a match to Bhagavan’s decision.
That was the Jyotirlinga of Vaidyanath who was a ‘Vaidya’ (Physician) and he helped to piece together the slashed heads of Ravana at the time of his sacrificing them one by one.

‘Baidyanathdham’ (Baba dham) at Deogarh (Jharkhand) is some seven km from the Jasidhi Junction on Howrah-Delhi main line. It is 220 km away from Patna. The Baidyanath Shrine attracts lakhs of pilgrims from all over a year normally, but they were in millions during the entire ‘Shravan’ month (July-August).
Several of them carry Ganges water from Sultanganj to Deogarh- a distance of about hundred km-to perform ‘Abhishekams’ to the Jyotirlinga, and many saffron clad Sadhus carry the Ganges water by walk barefooted covering this distance! Pilgrimage to ‘Babadham’ is considered incomplete without visiting Basukinath Siva Temple some distance away. A well maintained Nandi Temple edging the Nandan Pahad (hill) faces a beautiful lake on one side and the Siva Temple on the other. Sivaganga is a pond very near the Main Temple, where Ravana desired to wash but since there was no water nearby, he used his fist and hit the Earth and a pond appeared. Other places of interest at Deogarh include Naulakha Mandir, Satsang Ashram of Radha Swami, Tapovan with many caves where Valmiki is said to have stayed for penance, Rikhia Ashram of Yoga, Hamira Jori where Ravana handed over the Holy Linga to Ganesh before his ablutions and Trikut Parvat with a Maha Deva Temple. Inside the huge complex of Babadham itself are situated some 22 Temples viz. Neelkantha and Parvati before Babadha and on either side a cluster of Shrinces devoted to Sri Ram, Ananda Bhairavi, Ganga, Gauri Shankar, Tara, Maha Kali, Annapurna, Lakshmi Narayana, Surya Narayan, Bhavani, Sandhya, and so on.

There is a controversy about the location of Vaidyanatha Jyotirlinga at Parli in Maharashtra called Kantipur (Madhyarekha Vijayanti or Vijayanti), which is some 26 km from Ambejoga in the Beed District. One legend of this Temple often heard in the vicinity was that Amba Yogeshwari of Ambejoga wedded Maha Deva Vaidyanadha and the marriage party arrived late after the ‘Muhurtha’ (the precise time) for the wedding and Devi was waiting for long; She cursed the members of the Party to turn into stone statues. Another Story was that after the churning of Ocean for Amrit (nectar), fourteen gems emerged among which were Dhanvantari and Amrit which were hidden inside the Shivalinga, but as Demons tried to take them forcibly, huge flames came out and they had to retreat. Till date, devotees have strong faith that Amrit and Dhanvantari or disease killing medicinal flows emerge from the Abhisheka waters. Thus Lord Lingamurthi is called as Amritamurthi and Dhanvantari. In fact, all the devotees irrespective of caste or creed are allowed touching the Linga and performing Abhishekas by themselves. Daily Rudra Parayana Mantras are reverberated in the entire Complex. This Sacred Temple is also believed to be the Place where Lord Vishnu as Mohini distributed Amrit to Devas, and hence is called Vijayanti. The other legend associated with the Temple is that of Ravana’s carrying the Linga as described above. Incidentally, the surrounding mountains, forests and rivers are stated to abound medicinal sources. Over the last hundred years or so, considerable construction was made around the Swayambhu Linga by way of strong walls, Enclosures, ‘Mahadwara’ (the Main Gate) and several other Gates, a number of windows (one of which allows morning Sunrays inside one Enclosure by means of which Sun God is worshipped), minarets, lighting and various facilities to lakhs of Visitors. This Temple is a hallowed place particularly to Vira Shaiva Lingayats and devotees of Lord Harihara. There is a Harihar Teertha in the vicinity. Many festivals connected with Siva, Krishna and Bhagavati are celebrated with fervour; Mondays, Fridays, Ekadasis, Chaitra Padava, Dussehras, Tripura Pournami, the entire Kartika month, Sivaratris, Srawana month and so on are observed with reverence. A Pond in the Area is associated with Markandeya’s extraordinary devotion to embrace the Linga firmly defying Yamaraja’s order of death and Bhagavan’s subsequent appearance giving His blessing of immortality to the devotee. A Vateswara Temple reminds the devotees of a ‘Vata’ or Banyan Tree around which was the Story of Satyavan and Savitri over Yama’s sanction of long-life to the couple.

Nageshwara (Dwaraka/ Naganath/ Almora) Nageswaraavataarasthu dasamahapariketritithah /Aaavirbhutah swabhaktartha dushtaanam danda sada / Hatva Daruka namaanam Rakshsah Dharmaghatakum / Swabhkata Vaishvyanama cha prarakshat Supriyabhidam /

Bhagavan’s tenth manifestation (of Jyotirlinga) is popular in save His devotees; a Demon named Daruka who obstructed virtue was destroyed to save His devotee Vaishaya Supriya. While this was the Statement of Siva Purana’s ‘Koti Rudra Samhita’ establishing that Nageswara Jyotirlinga was no doubt evident but there are atleast three claimants of Its Location viz. Nageswara Temple at Dwaraka, Gujarat; Naganath Temple at Aoudhya, Maharashta; and Jagasewara Temple at Almora, Uttarakhand. Happily, all are winners! The legend was that there a demon couple named Daruka and Daruki and the latter secured a grant from Devi Parvathi that wherever the Demoness went, the entire forest would accompany her. The Demons were spoiling Yagnas and all Spiritual tasks, there were protests from the harassed Brahmanas to Sage Ourva and the Sage cursed the demons and followers that they would all be destroyed on earth; the Demons had thus no alternative excepting to move into the Sea. Daruki’s boon from Parvati became ineffective since the forests were all submerged in the Sea. The Demons thus restricted only in the Sea and resorted to pirating the Ships moving in the Seas and one of extremely devoted Bhakta of Lord Siva named Supriya-a Vaisaya- was thrown into a prison on the ship. Bhakta Supriya who was a staunch devotee of Lord Shiva made sincere prayers and Bhagavann appeared, killed all the Demons and released the prisoners especially Supriya. Commemorating this joyous moment, the Lord blessed that a Swayambhu Nageswara Jyorirlinga be manifested on the Sea Coast as the memorable Nageswara Jyotirlinga.

Dwaraka (Gujarat): Some 18 km from Dwaraka, the Temple is situated in a large scrub landscape with a huge Siva idol beckoning outside the Holy Shrine with high Sikha. The Sacred Linga of raw yellow stone is quite small of size (40cm high and 30cm dia) set underground of 3-4 steps in a spacious Hall of pillars; the Linga which could be touched by all Hindus. The Sivalinga is facing South and a Gomukham (Face of a Cow) is facing East. Sant Namdeva desired to sing a Bhajan while simultaneously Rudra Parayana (Recital of Rudra Hymns) was being performed and thus the Namdeo party was asked to go to the back of the Temple and when they did so, the Lingam turned towards where the Sant was singing and as this miracle happened the Brahmanas begged the Sant for forgiveness. It is said that as the Temple closes, live snakes hover with their hoods open around the Sivaliga as though they were guarding the premises. Naganatha linga is believed to possess supreme Spiritual Powers; a Naga (serpent) is indicative of the nerves of human body. The ‘Sushumna Nadi’ or ‘Naganatha’ indicates the energy channel under the spine. The power of Kundalini which normally lies inactive in Mula Dhara Chakra or the Root Chakra at the bottom of the Vertebral Column is also known as ‘Naganatha’. The snake-like Kundalini Shakti is akin to the brilliance of Soul (Lord Siva) Himself. Thus the Jyotirlinga is the symbol of Spiritual Radiance. Also the Temple of Dwarakadhish dedicated to Lord Krishna is quite popular in Dwaraka; it is some five hundreds old, remodelled and renovated from time to time. It is granite-built beautiful structure of seven stories of 51 m. height and is a tall land mark in the Township. Krishna and His entire clan shifted to Dwaraka from Mathura although the vestiges were submerged in the Arabian Sea.

Naganath (Maharashtra): Situated at Audha in Prabhasa Kshetra [Prabhasa Railway Station on Manmadi-Nanded Line] Naganath Jyotirlinga was referred to as follows by Adi Shankaracharya: Yame(South)Sadanga ( old name of Audh) Vibhushitangam vividhaischa bhoga bhogai/ Satbhakti muktipradameesa mekam /Sri Naganatham saranam prapadye / The legend of Aunda Naganatha Temple is that during ‘Aranya Vasa’ (Forest life of twelve years) by Pandavas pursuant to their defeat in a Game of Dice with Kauravas lived in a hermitage and their cows taking water from a river nearby were automatically giving milk back into the same river and finding this miracle act, Bhima found that the middle part of the River was hot compared to the rest of water. Bhima with his mace broke the middle portion of the River seeking to find out as to how had this happened; there was blood gushing out and when dug up to the great surprise Pandavas discovered a Jyotirlinga full of radiance. The Story of Demons Daruka and Daruki as also of Supriya the great Devotee of Bhagavann was also ascribed to Nageswara Temple at Dwaraka in Gujarat was referred to Naganath Temple at Audh in Maharashtra also. The architectural beauty of the Audha Temple of Prabhasa is distinctive, as was built by Pandavas.
originally with heavy stones and spacious corridors and halls. The Court Hall is oval shaped supported by strong pillars and the Jyotirlinga of Naganatha Deva is in a Garbhagriha which is in a small internal area. While there is no Idol of Nandi before the Main Deity, there is a separate Shrine for him behind the Main Temple. On all the four sides of the Main Temple are separate shrines dedicated to Twelve Jyotirlingas, besides Vedavyasa linga, Bhadreswara,Nilakantheswara, Ganapati, Dattatreya, Murali Manohar, and Dasavataraas- totalling 108 Shiva Temples and 68 Shrines, interestingly including Mothers in law and Daughters in law! Also interestingly, there is a picturisation of a Scene depicting a sulking Devi Parvati and a pacifying Lord Siva! It is said that Aurangzeb ordered to plunder the Temple and swarms of bees drove away the soldiers.

Jagdeshwar (Almora): Till date, devotees pray to Bhagavan Siva as Bal Jagdeswar as connected to a legend of the Area. In Daruka Vana, there were ‘Balakhilyas’ a group of Sages of dwarf size performing severe penance for years. Bhagavan Siva sought to test the depth of the Dwarf Sages and appeared as a tall, hefty and handsome personality, a ‘Digambara’ or completely naked, covering His body with snakes. The house wives of the Area were so attracted to the Stranger that they were not only inquisitive but got hypnotised neglecting their house chores. The Sages got frustrated and approached Devas to save the confusion. When Devas meditated Lord Siva in desperation, He manifested as a Bal Jagdeswar, who has no Physique, Gunas (Characretistics), Tatvas, Sex, Age, Time, Distance, yet, He has all of these too! Thus materialized as a ‘Swayambhu’ (Self-born) Linga eversince! The Main Temple in the Complex is dedicated to Tarun Jagdeswar and the Dwarpalakas are Nandi and Skandi. The Sanctum is of two parts, the larger area being of Jagdeswara Jyotirlinga and the smaller area being of Devi Parvati. There is an ‘Akhanda Jyoti’ or Everlasting Lamp. The biggest Shrine in the Main Temple is dedicated to Mritunjaya or the Saviour of Death. The distinction of this Linga is that it has an opening of an Eye. Recitation of Mrutunjaya Mantra would yield immediate reliefs of troubles, health problems, mental disturbance and Spiritual solace. The Mantra is from Sukla Yajur Veda:

\text{Aum Trayambakam Yajamahe / Sugandhim Pushti Vardhanam / Urvarakamiva Bandhanaan / Mrityor Mokshiye Maamritaat - We pray to Lord Siva whose eyes are the Sun, Moon and Fire. May He protect us from disease, poverty, and fear and bless us with prosperity, longevity and good health. Another important Shrine in the Complex is of Pushthi Bhagavati. Outside the Complex are Vinayak Kshetra, Jhanker Saim Mahadev (who was meditatated and instructed His Ganas to destroy the Demons who were disturbing His Tapasya), and Briddha Jagadeswar (in the Form of Old Jagadeswar).}

Rameshwaram: The Temple town of Bhagavan Siva’s emergence of the penultimate Jyotirlinga of Ramalingesa happens to be celebration point of Lord Rama’s glorious victory over Ravana paying Rama’s dutiful homage to Bhagavan. Having crossed ‘Setu Bandhan’ across the Sea on the triumphant return journey from Lanka en route Ayodhya, Lord Rama despatched Hanuman to visit Varanasi to pray Visweswara and bring a replica of the Linga from Kasi for consecrating it on the Sea coast but since Hanuman could not return by the appointed auspicious time, Sita Devi improvised a Sand Linga and installed it formally amid Vedic Mantras. Hanuman was upset and wished that the Linga blessed at Kasi Viswanadha be substituted instead and tried hard to pull it out but the so called temporary Sand Linga was ever lasting, blessing millions of devotees eversince. The Kasilinga or Hanumanlinga too was installed nearby which too is worshipped by devotees. It would be appropriate therefore that worship to Rameswara or Rathnaswami be performed after the homage to the Kasilinga or Hanumanlinga. Spread over some 15 acres of land, the Temple could boast of rich architectural heritage of high Raja- Gopurams on the East (126 feet high) and the West side, massive walls, a huge Nandi (18 feet tall and 22 feet long) and a 4000 feet long Corridor with 4000 carved granite pillars on raised platforms on either side- perhaps the longest in the World. [It is gathered that in the initial stages, the Rameswara Jyotirlinga was kept in a thatched abode till the 12th Century but royal patronage of passing centuries of the Kings of Travancore, Ramanadha -puram, Nagercoil and Pudukkotai helped improve the Temple Complex.]There are some thirty six Teerthas (Water Springs) with considerable medicinal and mineral properties - twenty of them being in the Temple Complex itself- most of the devotees bathing bucketfuls in all the twenty two Wells dotted all over the surroundings and walking along into the Sanctum drenched and then only perform the worship to the Jyotirlinga in queues! Festivals at the Rameswara Temple are celebrated in ‘Ani’ Masa (June 15- July 15) signifying Lord Rama’s victory worship to Bhagavan Siva and two ‘Brahmotsavas’ or Annual Principal Celebrations are observed in ‘Adi’ and ‘Masi’ months as per local customs. Six worships commence from 5 am each day and Special worships are on Fridays. [Among the experiences include a memorable journey approaching or leaving Rameswaram across the Ocean preferably by train or by a road journey over a high bridge and a commanding view of Area atop the Gandhamadan Hill where a Shrine and Rama’s revered foot-prints are witnessed as also a Place in the vicinity of the Temple a heavy mineral-laden stone floating on water, apparently due to its high phosphatic content; the stone was a sample with which Setu bridge was constructed by Vanara Sena or Monkey Brigade! ]

Ghrishneshwar: On a mountain called Devagiri, there were a pious Brahmana named Sudharma and his wife Sudeha but she was barren and had no child. Sudeha proposed that her younger sister, Ghushma or Kusuma who was a staunch devotee of Parameswara be wedded to Sudharma. Sudharma agreed and in course of time, they had a male child due to Lord Siva’s blessings. Ghushma was in the habit of daily worship by creating Sivalingas of clay and immerse them after Puja and Abhisheka in a pond nearby. Sudeha got jealous of her younger sister as she was blessed with a son. One night Sudeha killed the child out of jealousy and threw away the child in the same pond where the Sivalingas were immersed by her. The latter no doubt wept over the tragedy but continued her daily worship of Siva none-the-less. The dead body of the child floated in the pond where Ghushma used to immerse the lingas and there was commotion in the family and indeed in the village. Ghushma still continued her prayers to Lord Shankara who finally stood before her and desired to kill Sudharma, but she requested not to do so out of her extreme kindness. Lord Siva brought back the child from death and also asked Ghushma for any boon and she requested Him to stay in pond and the Lord agreed to do so and hence the formation of Ghrishneswara as a Jyotirlinga. Alternative names of the Place are Ghushmeswar or Kusumeswar. This Temple is situated in the Village of Verul or Yelur where River Yala flows and is some 30 km from Aurangabad. [From Aurangabad, Ellora is 30 km, Ajanta is 106 km and Shirdi is 130 km.]

The Temple Complex is quite spacious (240 X 185 feet) enclosed by strong outer walls and the Garbha griha (Sanctum) admeasuring 17 feet X 17 feet are the Jyotirlinga of Lord Ghrishnaswara and Idol of Goddess Ghrishneswari; a Nandikeswara is facing the Deities in the Court Hall of the Sanctum. It is believed that long ago, the Patel of the Village discovered a treasure in a snake pit and the amount was spent on the basic construction of the original Temple and the Holkar Royal family renovated with Dasavatara and various other carvings in red stone were added besides a lake named Sikharashingarapur. [Ellora and Ajanta caves which are World Heritage Sites are firmed up on the Tourist map of India].

Prasiddha Shiva Lingas

*Krouncha Giri is 10 km away from Sandur in Bellari District of Karnataka, where there is a Kumara Swami Temple Complex and near by the Swami Malay Forest Range full of Peacocks and serpents, with Devi Parvati and Ganesyha Idols too were installed by Chalukya Kings; but women are strictly forbidden to enterb the Concecrated Temple!

Upa Lingas

While describing The Upalingas at the beginning of Koti Rudra Samhita, Suta Muni explained the Upali which emerged from Someswara linga is Antakesh where Earth and Ocean converge. The Upalinga of Srisailam’s Mallikarjuna is Rudreshwar and that of Ujjain’s Mahakal is Dugdheswar. Kardameswar is the Upalinga of Omkareswar while Bhuteswar is that of Kedareswar.Upalingas of Bheemashankar, Nageshwar, Ramaseshwar and Bhumeswar respectively. There are other significant Sivalingas like Kirtikaveshwar, Tilmandeswar, Bhukteswar, Pureswar, Siddha Nateswar, Shringeswar, Gopeswar, Rangeswar, Rameswar, Ganeswar, Sukreswar, Chandrasekhara, Kumtinatha and Andhakeswar.A few other Upalingas are mentioned herebelow:

Atrishwar Linga: Sage Atri and Sati Anasuya performed atonement of rigorous nature in a forest named Kamda at Chitrakuta moutain when they decided to save people from the grip of a prolonged drought for some fifty years. They did not take a morsel of food during the period of penance. Once Atri felt almost fainted because of thirst and Anasuya went in search of water; Devi Ganga appeared and offered water from a spring dug up by Anasuya into a pit which was taken by Anasuya in a “kamandalu” for storing water and rushed it to quench Atri’s thirst. It was this pit from where water sprang up and became the origin of River Mandakini. But Devi Ganga demanded the full ‘Punya’ (Virtue) of Anasuya in return and the latter sacrificed gladly to save the suffering people. Lord Siva was impressed as Atri conducted a Maha Yaga and appeared in the form of Atriswar Linga recognising the sacrifices of the Atri- Anasuya Couple. Mahabaleshwar Linga: The Holy Place Gokarna (Ear of the Cow) in Karnataka State is believed to have been formed as Earth’s ear was squeezed soon after her Creation by Mahadeva Siva. Ganesa tricked Ravanasura to place down on Earth the ‘Atmalinga’ of Mahadeva which was secured by the latter after severe penance to the Lord. Once fixed on the Earth, it became impossible for Ravana to pull it out and in the process of pulling it forcefully by breaking it, three parts fell down and got scattered mainly at Gokarna and also Murudeswar, Dhareswar and Gunawanthe where too the Temples are venerated. Mahabal Linga’s presence of a devotee at Gokarna, especially on the eighth or fourteenth day of ‘Arudra Nakshatra’ falling on a Monday destroys all sins and opens Gates of Kailasa after one’s demise. It is believed that worship of Mahabal Siva on ‘Magha Krishna Chaturdasi’ is highly fruitful and devotees in large crowds are attracted to the Temple on this particular day. Obeisance by Puja and ‘Abhisheka’ by milk and Bilwa leaves at the Temple on that day is said to be a sure step towards Salvation. Batukanath Linga: A Brahmana named Dadhichi was a relentless worshipper of Lord Siva everyday unfailingly but had to entrust the worship to one of his sons Sudarshan for some time. Sudarshan too was performing the ‘Pujas’ dutifully. On a ‘Sivarathri’ which is the most sacred night for Bhagavan too, along with his entire family kept fast and performed the Pujas. But he did the sinful union with his wife that night and even without observing physical cleanliness continued the worship on that most Sacred night. Lord Siva was furious and there were frequent hurdles in the Pujas all through the Sivaratri. Sudarshan’s father realised this most unfortunate happening. Sudarshan performed the most rigorous penance possible for years and Devi Parvathi asked the Lord to pardon, absolve the sin and liberate Sudarshan. Pleased by his sincere self-punishment, the Lord manifested Himself in Batu linga and directed the devotee to worship it. [It is no doubt unconfirmed but came to light that Batuknath Temple and linga of 1.2 meters height was worshipped at Tahab Village, district Pulwama some 32 km of Srinagar, Kashmir, nearby a 40 feet square spring called Vatuksar Nag, along with a Jagannath Bhirav Temple nearby-now under Muslim domination]. Unfortunately, it was gathered that the high linga which was worshipped in the years of yore, was pulled out and used by Muslim women of the villages around to pound grains to split from the husk! Haatakeshwara Linga: This Linga is a manifestation of Purusha-Prakriti combine. A group of Sages were observing worship to a Sivalinga very religiously at a Siva Temple in Daruka forest and a few of them including their wives visited the forest interior to locate firewood, darbha, flowers, fruits and such other Puja material when they encountered a hefty person who was completely naked. When they questioned about his whereabouts, he did not reply. The Sages cursed the person that his phallus would fall on the ground. There was an earth quake and rumbling storm broken with loud thunders and lightning as this incident happened and such oppressive heat was produced like an inferno. The Sages ran to Lord Brahma out of fright and guilt and the latter confirmed that the Personality who gave the curse was Bhagavan Himself and no power in the Three Worlds could save them as also the very existence of the Universe was threatened. The only possible way out could be to meditate Devi Parvati and for sure she might ease the situation. The Sages prayed to Devi Parvati who manifested as a female part on the spot and the Haatkeswar Linga as well. Eversince then worship of Phallus as a manifestation of Bhagavan Siva came into vogue. At Naimisharanya (Uttar Pradesh) near Lucknow, there is a Rishishwar Linga, which is worshipped by Rishis; those who were alleged murderers or who actually committed murder but regretted having committed would be free from their troubles. At Mishra Tirtha, there is a Dadhikeshwara Linga which was worshipped by Sage Dadhichi. At Devaprayaga on way to Kedareswar, Laliteshwara Linga is worshipped by devotees in the transit on either way up or down.

In Nayapalpuri [Khatmandu, Nepal] the very famous Pashupatinath Linga attracts lakhs of devotees which has the distinction of being called a ‘Linga Sirsha’ and the Temple doors are four-sided thus enabling four separate queues of devotees simultaneously manned by four priests. Not far from Pashupatinath Temple is Mukti Linga which is worshipped for mental peace and happiness.

The formation of Harishwar Linga was a consequence of Lord Vishnu’s worship to Bhagavan Siva by thousand lotus flowers each of these by chanting the ‘Siva Sahasranamas’ or Thousand Names of Siva. During the Worship Siva was desirous of Vishnu’s concentration and stole one of the lotus flowers and there was a shortage of one flower in the count. Unnerved by the lapse, Lord Vishnu gave away one of His eyes in sacrifice and completed the worship. Bhagavan Siva was thrilled and fully satisfied; He asked Vishnu for a boon and as desired, Lord Siva gifted a very powerful Sudarshana chakra which is put to great use often as a last resort to annihilate powerful Demons. Besides the Chakra, Bhagavan Siva was pleased to materialize Himself as Harishwar Linga for the benefit of generations to come.

Ashtottara Shata Shiva Kshetras

Following are hundred and eight Shaiva Kshetras and names of the respective names of Shiva Murtis:

Shri Shiva’s Ashta Murtis: Aham Shivah Shivaschaayam twam chaapi Shiva eva hi, Sarvam Shivamayaam Brahmanshivaat param na kinchana / (Brahman! I am Shiva, this is Shiva, you are Shiva and every thing is ‘Shiva mayam’ too as there is nothing beyond Shiva)- So said Shiva in Maha Shiva Purana.

The Pancha Bhutas or the Five basic Elements of ‘Prithivi-apas- tejas- vayu-akaasha’ or Earth-Water-Fire- Air and Sky, along with Surya-Chandra and Jeevatma or Existence of a Being and their mutra forms stated to be the eight Ashtamurtis of the Basic Eight Forms of Creation. Shiva Purana further states: Tasyaadi Deva Devasya Murtyashtakam jagat, Tasmin vynaaya shitam Vishvam sutre maniganana iva/ Sharvaam bhavastathaa Rudra Ugro Bhimah Pashupatih, Ishaanaascha Maha Devo Murtaschyaashta vishrutaah/ Bhumyabhogni marudvaayomakshetrajna arka nishaakaraah, Adhishthita Maheshasya Sharvaadeththa murtibhih/ Ashta murtyaatmanaa vishwam, adhishthaaya shitam Shivam, Bhajasva sarva bhavena Rudram parama kaaranam / (This whole Universe is cherished with Eight Magnificent Forms of Creation like the diamonds strung with a sacred thread; these are the eight embodiments of Parama Shiva viz. Sharva, Bhava, Rudra, Ugra, Bhima, Pashupati, Maha Deva and Ishana; these Ashta Murtis represent Earth, Water, Air, Sky, Kshetrajna or Jeevatma, Surya and Chandra. May we worship these eight glorious incarnations as follows: Om Sharvaaya Kshiti Murtaye namah/ Om Bhavaaya Jala Murtaye namah/ Om Rudraaya Agni murtaye namah/Om Ugraaya Vaayu Murtaye namah/Om Bhimaaya Aakaasha Murtaye namah/Om Pashupataye Yajamaana murtaye namah/ Om Maha Devaaya Soma Murtaye namah/ Om Ishanaaya Suryamurtaye namah / (While the Basic Five Elements like Earth, Sky etc are stated as subtle, Jeevatma is the Kshetrajna, or the Yajamani or the Master. Since Jeevatma is stated to be the ‘Pasu’, Paramatma Shiva is the Pashupati who is the reliever of the drudgery of living due to the Maya or the illusion of Life; and what Pashupati in His Mercy does is the Act of ‘Pashu Vimochana’ by way of ushering Relief from Life and possibly Bliss without rebirth!)

Ashta Murti Puja: *Atmanschaashtami murtih Shivasya paramatmanah, Vyapaketaramurtinam vishwam tasmaacchiva –ashtakam/ Deho Devaalayah prokto jeevo Devah Sadashivah, tyajedagjnaana nirmalyam soham bhavena pujayet/ (One indeed has to perform worship the Ashta Murtis with the unique faith and determination of the omnipresent ParamaShiva and then only there could be release from the cycle of deaths and births. The worship in several temples should spring from one’s heart and soul and truly experience the Atma Linga right within thus sprinkling the waters of faith and true dedication thereon.)

While so worshipping one needs to reflect within the Ashta Murtis as integrated in Parama Shiva, Aradhha yaami Maniannibhamatmalingam mayaapuri hridaya pankaja sannivishtham/ Shraddaanadi vimala chitta jalaavagaaham, nitya samaadhi kusumairpunar bhavaaya/(Let us worship in such a manner that the Atma Linga or one’s own Lotus like Inner Concsiousness is washed off by the flows of devotion and remove the blemishes and all physical impurities due to the cover of Maya the Illusion) *Adityamcha Shivam Vidyacchivamaadiiya rupinam, Udbhayontaram naasti hyaadityasya Shivasya cha/ Indeed there is no difference of Shiva and Surya the Pratyaksha Devata and as such there is no difference of a Surya Mandira and Shiva Mandira Similarly, as regards the Somnath Mandira in Gujarat and Chandranath Mandir in West Bengal, no differentiation be observed between Chandra and Shiva. There is another Chandranatha Mandir in West Bengal too atop a mountain near Chatgaon which is stated as the Thirteenth Jyotirlinga as mentioned in Devi Purana with several Tirthas around some of which even emit fiery flames. Besides there are Kshiti Linga at Ekamreshwara in Kanchi, Apu Linga at Jambukeshwara in Tamilnadu, Vayu Linga at Kala Hasti in Andhra Pradesh, Akasha Linga at Chidambaram in Tamilnadu again, and Agni Linga at Tiruvannaamalai in Tamilnadu.

PRADHANA SUBRAHMANYA KSHETRAS

Swami Malai: One of significant six Subrahmanyka Kshetras worthy of visit in Dakshina Bharat viz. Tiruttani, Palani, Tiruchendur, Tirupuramkunnam and Palamudircholai is Swami Malai-literally meaning God’s Hill- some 30 km near Kumbhakonam at an elevation of 82 ft. totally dedicated to Swami Nathan, called locally as ‘Tagapan Swami’ or Father God! The legendary background was that the Lord taught the true meaning of OM or Pranava to Maha Deva himself! As Brahma Deva failed to interpret the word adequately to Kumara Swami, he chided him; when Maha Deva asked Kumara to explain in a convincing manner, he analysed the depth of the meaning he did so even as the father learnt it intently as though a Teacher to a Vidyarthi! The Swami Malai Temple performs ‘shat kaala dainika puja’ or six worships a day round the year, besides celebrates many festivals like Krittikai every month, Rathotsava in April, Vishakha in May, Navaratris in May, Kanda Shashthi in October, Kartikai Utsav in November, Taipuccham in January and so on. The Golden Chariot utilised for all the festivals are made of 7 kg of gold and 85 kg of silver-copper alloy with sparkling illumination. There is a SwetaVinayaka Temple made of white foam of Sea representing Ksheera sagara that created Amrit!

Palani: Some 38 km from Trichy and 100 km near Coimbatore is another Subrahmaya Kshetra of the reputed Six as mentioned above, the Abode of Dandayudhapani. There are two mythological references to this Temple; one is that since this Palani Hill was of the ‘amsha’ or of relationship with the highest mountain of the Universe viz. Meru, Sage Narada provoked Vindhyachala that the latter was, after all, not taller than Meru; this hurt Vidhya and tried to grow even taller as one side of the Universe was bright but the other side remained dark for ever since Sun became unreachable to the side at all. Parama Shiva asked Agastyu Muni who was a resident of Kashi to teach a lesson to Vindhya; the Muni reached Vindhya who as a reverence to the Muni bent down and the Muni asked Vindhya never to stand. Agastyu then moved to Dakshina Bharat to stay at Palani Hills for long before moving down further down to other Southern parts of Bharat. Another explanation about Palani Hills was that Sage Narada visited Kailasa to pay respects to Shiva and Parvati and gifted a Fruit of Jnana or Knowledge; he requested to conduct a test between Ganesha and Kartikeya viz. pradakshina or circumambulation of the Universe. Kartikeya instantly flew by his Peacock Vehicle while Ganesha performed a pradakshina and was rewarded with the Fruit. Kumara on return got furious and made Palani his abode as an ascetic assuming danda or a staff and ‘koupeena’ or loin cloth. Subsequently the parents Shiva and Parvati reached Palani to cajole the Dadaayudhapani saying: Gnaana paam nee Appa! Or ‘Indeed you are the personification of the fruit of Knowledge yourself, darling son!’ There are daily worships including Kaala and Shanti Pujas-Alankaras-Aariti-Deepa- Swarna Raratha/ Golden Chariot Darshana. Festivals like Thai-Poosam/ Purnima, Tirtha Kavadi Yatras, Diamond Vel or Shula (javelin) yatras, Pankhuni Uttiram, Vaishakhas, Soora samhara etc. all drawing large crowds, especially due to the rope way facility up the hill, although many climb by steps owing to vows with or without foot wear or by Kavadis slung on shoulders!

Tiruttani: Yet another among the six Subrahmanya Tirthas is of Murugan Temple at Tiruttani, near by the border of Andhra Pradesh and distant by 84 km from Chennai up a hill of 250 ft elevation connected by good hill motorable road. Besides the Sanctum of Muruga, there are Temples of MahaShasura Mardini, Veera Anjaneya, Arumuga Swami, Narasimha Swami, Mangaleshwara Shiva and so on. Beides Trikala Pujas and Deepa-aradhanas, festivals as observed at other Subrahmanya Tirthas as at Swami Malai are celebrated, especially Kanda Shashti, Nava Ratras, Krittikas and Vishakhas as also Shiva Ratri penances.

From Madurai to about 3 km is Tiruppuramkkundam and nearby there is a small mountain and up there is a cave inside which a Sarovar and a fairly big Mandir with a high rise gopura dedicated to Lord Subramanya, besides Murtis of Shiva-Parvati-Ganesha Idols; the belief is that Kumara’s wedding was celebrated here and a row of Peacocks with Shiva-Parvati-Ganesha Murtis present as the audience! This is one of the six Subramanya sthalas of Dakshina Bharat. Passing by near the southern side of Vaigai river, one encounters a large Sarovara where the Ratha Yatra of Meenakshi-Sundareshwara Parikrama terminates at the Marymann Koil. Palamoodicholai hardly 2km from Alagar Koyil up the Mountain and this too is one another six Abodes of Lord Kumara as a Tiruppuruk kundam. This too is one of the six Subramanya sthalas of Dakshina Bharata.

Tiruchendur is among the Five most famous and Sacred Subrahmanya Tirthas in Bharat, viz. Swami Malai, Tiruttani, Tiruchendur, Palani and Tirukundram. Tiruchendur is on the shores of the Sea and normally yatris perform Samudra Snana before entering this Sacred Kshetra, which has a large Mandapa after crossing which only the Main Temple unfolds the Lord’s darshan. The Golden Murti of the Lord Swami Kartikeya is indeed brilliant both in terms readily arresting features and shape as also the artistic attraction readily experiencing inner vibration of feelings.

Vaitheeswara Koil of Angaraka: Dharani garbhasambhutam Vidyurkanti sama prabham, Kumaram Shakti hastam tam Mangalam pranamaamayaam/ Being the son of Bhu Devi Mangala Deva is of the flashy brightness of a Lightning and he too like Lord Subrahmanya the embodiment of Power and Courage ever worthy of worship. The Temple of Lord Vaiyeeswaran the Supreme Deity of Healing and of Medical Treatment as the key to Arogya or Health is situated some 27 km of Chidambaram and 52km from Kumbhakonam. Built by Kulottunga Chola of 11th century, Vaiyeeswaram Temple encompasses large precincts with a 5tier Gopuram with its principal Sanctum dedicated to Vaiyeeswara Linga and a metal image of Muttukumara Subramanya, besides those of Nataraja, Soma Skanda, Angaraka as also stone sculptures of Durga, Dakshina murti, Surya, Katayu, Vedas and Sampatti. Temples of Taila Nayaki standing with medical oils to cure diseases and another of Dhanvantari and Angaraka are in Place, besides a Vrika Vstha with medicinal properties in the vicinity Nadi Jyotisha written in Tamil Script is practised in Vaiyeeswaran extensively and near the Temple. Brahmotsavas during January-February, Kartigai Festival during November and Kanti Shashtis at Muttukumara Temple are big draws besides on Tuesdays.

Subrahmanya Kshetra: Within the State of Karnataka in South Kanara District is the renowned Koumara Kshetra where Parashu Rama established a Mukti Kshetra like Mookambika, Udipi, Gokarna etc. Mangalore is the nearest Railway Station from where Subrahmanya is some 40 km although the roads are through forests and dusty and rather difficult to reach in rainy season but recommended from November till May. Main Mandir is of Lord Subrahmanya as seated on a Mayurasana or on a Peacock. On the platform up at the Temple He is a Shadaanana Murti or of Six Heads, with a Pratima of Sarparaja Vasuki in the middle and at the bottom is Sesa Bhagavan and facing the temple is a Garuda Dhwaja stated to offset the impact of poisonous flames emitted by the Sarpas. There is a Bhairava Mandir to the South, a Mandir for Uma Maheshwara in the northern side, a Veda Vyasa Samputa Nrisimha Mandir in the Southern side of the Main Mandir, besides a Parashurama Mandir again in South. In Kerala, the main places of worship are Kasargod, Payyanur, Haripad etc. In Andhra, Skandagiri in Hyderabad is famed while in East Godavari’s Bikka volu is well known for worship of Subrahmanya Swami just as Karnataka has exclusive Temples venerated Him as Kukke Subrahmanya. Apart from the famed Subrahmanya Khetras in Southern India, there has been a considerable following in North too. Pehova in Ambala of Punjab is the famed Swami Kartik Mandir near Prithishwar Maha Dev who is of Four Faces. Pilgrims worship him with oil and sindur as also perform Pitru Karyas on the banks of Sarasvati River. Swami Malai in New Delhi too has acquired great name for daily abhishakea pujas daily twice to the imposing figure of Lord Murugan at Vasanta Vihar. Worship of Kartikeya especially during Devi Navaraatras and all through the Kartika Month in West Bengal and Odisha is extensive In Sri Lanka, there is a huge following of Murugan, especially at Jafna. Batu Caves in Kaula lumpur and ardent worship of Dandapani on Tank Road of Singapore are widely popular and so are in the Subrahmanya Temples in London, Midlands and Liester. Murugan worship is also widespread in USA, Canada, Australia, not to mention of Mauritius and South Africa.
NAVAGRAHA KSHETRAS

While Navagraha Kshetras are spread out all over Bharat, Kumbhakonam in Tamil nadu alone has a large concentration; it is some 40 km from Tanjore and 275 km from Chennai and it literally denotes the Kona of Kumbha or the nozzle corner of the giant jar or container named Universe within which the seeds of Charaachara Srishti or Creation of all Living Beings are enveloped and preserved by Brahma the Supreme Creator, at the time of Pralaya the Great Dissolution with a view to resume Creation thereafter! This Mystic City of Dakshina Bharat is aptly called the City of Temples and is bound by two Rivers viz. Cauvery and Arasalar, celebrating Maha Magha once in twelve years in the Maha Magha Sarovara right in the heart of the City. Kumbheshwara Temple is stated to be the foremost one in the City with a high rise gopura and large area around with Kumbheshwara Linga as the center piece of the shape of a Kumbha or a Pot and within this large Temple itself is enclosed another Mandir of Devi Parvati with the name of Mangalambika, while the Murtis of Ganesha, Subrahmanya and other Shiva Parivara are also in the Parikrama or Pradakshina.

The concentration of the Nava Graha Temples at Kumbhakonam in Tamilnadu is detailed as below: Japaau kusamyu sankaasham Kaashyapeyam mahaad dyutim Tamorim, sarva paapaghnam pranatosmi Divaakaram/ This is how one prays to Surya Narayana at one’s first darshan of Sun early morning as Divakara the Day long Deity and the proud son of Kashyapa Muni who shines day long with the brightness of the hues of Japakusuma flowers demolishing darkness and all kinds of sins. Surya Narayana Koyil which is near Kumbhakonam by 18 km is famed for the Sun-worshipping Chola Kings in 10th century built with stone as Surya depicted in a seven horse drawn flying chariot faced west, along with other shrines of Kasi Vishwanatha, Devi Visalakshi, Brihaspati and Kol Tirtha Vinayaka in the vicinity demanding nine Pradakshinas of the complex. It is stated that before paying respects at the Suryanarayana Kovil, one is required to pay homage at Tirumangalakkudi Shiva sthalam near Mayladutturai at Pranateshwara and Mangala Nayaki as Devi Parvati was rid of a curse to become a parrot and got re-wedded as Mangala on Makara Sankranti day and hence the Place known as Mangala Kshetra celebrating festival there. Makara Saptami / Ratha Saptami in Maagha Month- coinciding with Tamil Thai month-is an important festival at the Suryanarayana Koil. Tingalur Chandra/ Kailasa natha Temple some 18 km away from Kumbhakonam, where the main Idol Shiva as Kaisasha natha but is basically dedicated to Chanda Deva. Dadhi shankha tushaaraabham ksheeraarnava samudbhavam, Namaami Sashinam Somam Shambhor makuta bhushanam/ Materialised from the Ocean of Milk and adorned as Maha Deva’s shining headgear ornament, Chanda Deva is hereby venerated; indeed Chandra is the Lord of Heath and Medicines as also of Peace and Tranquility. There is a separate Shrine of the Lord Chandra at the Kalasha natha Temple. The legend of this Chandra Kshetra reveals that a Nayanar was a great devotee of Appaar viz. Parama Shiva and one day he decided to worship at his residence with piety and pomp by calling his friends, associates and neighbours at an appropriate function. Unfortunately, the son of the Nayanar was bitten by a poisonous snake during the puja. The Nayanar family was shattered at the misfortune but instead of blaming Appan for the misfortune, intensified his prayers undaunted even while the son was almost dying. Appar directed Chandra the God of Medicines and Good Health to cure the child and reverse his condition of sinking due to the effect of poison. The ever grateful Nayanar broke into tearful prayers and in the company of the co-devotees sang praises of Chandra Deva and the Adi Deva Appar and celebrated the devotional function.
Vaitheeswara Koil of Angaraka: Dharani garbhasambhutam Vidyurkanti sama prabham, Kumaram Shakti hastam tam Mangalam pranamaamyaham/ Being the son of Bhu Devi Mangala Deva is of the flashy Lightning and he too like Lord Subrahmanya the embodiment of Power and Courage ever worthy of worship. The Temple of Lord Vaideeswaran the Deity of Healing and of Medical Treatment as the key to Arogya or Health is situated some 27 km of Chidambaram and 52km from Kumbhakonam. Built by Kulottnuga Chola of 11th century, Vaideeswaran Temple encompasses large precincts with a 5tier Gopuram with its principal Sanctum dedicated to Vaideeshwara Linga and a metal image of Muttukumara Subramanya, besides those of Nataraja, Soma Skanda, Angaraka as also stone sculptures of Durga, Dakshina murti, Surya, Jatayu, Vedas and Sampatti. Temples of Taila Nayaki standing with medical oils to cure diseases and another of Dhanvantari and Angaraka are in Place, besides a Vriksha Sthala with medicinal properties in the vicinity. Nadi Jyotisha written in Tamil Script is practised in Vaideeswaran extensively and near the Temple. Brahmothsavas during January-February, Kartigai Festival during November and Kanti Shashtis at Muttukumara Temple are big draws besides on Tuesdays. From 10 km from Sirkali and 60 km from Kumbhskonam is Bhuddha Temple viz. Swetaarayaneshwara-Brahma Vidya Devi Temple at Tiruvengadu as Priyangu kalikaa Shyamam rupenaar pratimam Budham, Soumyam Soumya gunopetam tam Budham pranamaamyaham/To you the ever lovable and pleasing faced Budha Deva with placid and cool temperament, as the blessed son of Chandra Deva, our warm Salutations! Agora Murti the placid and tranquil manifestation of the usually angry antithesis of the Tamasika Swarupa of Maha Deva; like Budha among the Nava Grahas, Maha Deva assumes a form of High Learning and Unparalleled Maturity. Yet, even of smooth and saucy temperament, He like Budha Graha, deals with the evil with coolness and unmistaken precision. This was how like of Aghora qualities eliminated Padmasura who unnecessarily clashed with Rishis and the virtuous Brahmanas and interfered with their yagnas and acts of virtue as puffed up by egoism and selfishness. The Chariot Festival at this Aghora Shiva Temple, is a natural phenomenon of the determintation of Maha Deva to punish the evil but with the composed temperament typical of Budha, notwithstanding the fact that Agora a Swarupa of Veerabhadra still sustains maturity with a purpose! Alangudi Guru Sthalam: Devanaamacha Risheenamcha Gurum kanchana sannibham, Buddhi bhutam Trilokesham tam namaami Brihaspatim/ (I salute Brihaspati the Grand Guide and Mentor to Devas and Rishis who is like the molten gold with which to create Celestial Ornaments of Virtue and Existence; he is the One who leads to Knowledge and Mental Sharpness with which to lead to Supreme Realisation). Well within a distance of 18 km. the Apat Sahayeswara Temple of Parama Shiva who was the ‘Garala Kantha’ or the Singular Devourer of Deadly Poisonous Flames called ‘Haalaahala’ that engulfed the Universe and saved the very Existence or Creation as Deva Danavas ventured to materialise Amrit! Indeed He is the Saviour of Dangers and Obstacles in human life! Besides the Temple of Apat kaala Sahaaya or the Unique Refuge Point to Devotees, Alangudi Guru Sthala is also the Abode of Dakshina Murti the Unparalleled Advisor of Virtue and Righteousness viz. Brihaspati. Indeed the Illustrious Nayanars or Shaivite Poet Saints were never tired of the glories of Maha Deva. Shukra as Agnishwaraar Temple at Kanjanor some 20 km. from Kumbhakonam is popular since Shukra is identified as Parama Shiva himself in the Linga Swarupa which is omnipresent and all-pervading: Himakunda tushaaraabham daityaanaam paramam gurum, Sarva shastra pravaktaaram Bhargavam pranamaamyaham/ Built by late Chola Kings and renovated by Krishna deva Raya of Vijayanagar Empire, this famed Shukra Temple is stated as Shukra within Maha Deva. Maha Deva represents both the virtuous and vicious aspects of Srishti and seeks to balance shades of darkness and brightness alike. Universe as created by the Supreme is indeed a mix of Satwa-Rajasika-Tamo Gunas and if there were a Deva Guru, there ought to be a representation of a Shukra too as the Danava-Daithya-Rakshasa Guru and between the two, transgression of limits neither way is permitted; after all in the scheme of events complete perfection is not possible and to err is human but the playful Almighty ensures that the frontiers of Good and and Bad are ably guarded with built-in checks and balances! The legendary belief of Agnishwarar Temple at Kanjanor is that Shiva obliged Parashara Muni with a performance of Cosmic Dance at this Temple, bringing out this aspect of Srishti to balance the impulses of life! Shaneshwara Temple at Tirunallar is 55 km away from Kumbhakonam called Darbhaaranyam in the past or the Forest of Darbhas or kusha grass, utilised in all Sacred Acts or Deva-Pitru Karyas. Darbhaaranyeshwara Linga is the Prime Deity worshipped at this Temple which is essentially of Shaneshwara or Shiva as Shani Deva. Neelaanjana samaabhasam Ravi putram Yamaagrajam Chaayaa Martaadassambhutam tam namaami Shanaishacharam/ (My salutations to you Shani Devata! You are of the spendour of blue saffires and as the illustrious son of Surya Deva and elder brother of Lord Yama Dharma Raja; you are also the son of Chhaya Devi, the alter form of Sanjana Devi). Sanjana Devi the daughter of Vishvakarma was unable to withstand the oppressive heat and radiance of Surya Deva and could see him excepting wobbly and unsteady eyes. Their union gave birth to Vaivaswata Manu and Yama Dharma Raja. But the annoyed Surya cursed Sanjana that she would give birth to a female as a river whose course was uneven and unsteady. Then Sanjana created a Chhaya Sanjana (her shadow), briefed her and left for his father and since the latter too was upset, assumed the form of a mare to perform Tapasya to reduce the severity of Surya. Then meanwhile Shanaischara was born to Chhaya Devi. Surya on knowing the truth assumed the form of a horse and their mating led to the birth of Revanta. Later on the Sanjana-Chhaya combine gave Surya the blessing of the birth of Ashwini Kumars, the physicians of Devas. The Shani Shiva Temple at Tirunallar mainly displays the Dharbhaaranyeshwara stated to have been made of Darbhas and is essentially embodied as Shaneshwara. Worship and Abhishekas to Darbheeswara are learnt to represent those of Shaneshwara as Maha Deva represents the aspects of Lord Shaneshwara as well. Both the Temples of this and that of the neighbouring Tiruvallur’s Temple-as built in 7th century by Chola Kings-highlight two principal aspects of retribution-reward of Shanaischara and of Sangita-Natyaa of Fine Arts represented by at Nataraja do signify the two features of Maha Deva. Rahu Sthala or Tiru Nageswaram is the Sacred and widely acclaimed Abode of Rahu Graha as embodied in the Maha Naga Natha Linga is hardly 6 km away from Kumbhakonam right on the banks of Kaveri River prayed to as follows:Artha kaayam Maha Veeram Chandraditya vimardanam Simhika garbha sambhutam tam Rahum pranamaamyaham/ (Rahu Deva! You possess half divine and half serpent physical form. You are the son of Simhika Devi the daughter of Hiranya kashipu; a valiant and resourceful champion of Ksheera Sagara Mathana leading to the emergence of Amrita and the punisher of Surya and Chandra even! My sincere salutations to you!) This Rahu Sthala is also called earlier as Sanbagaranya or the wild forest of Senbaga Trees infested by poisonous serpents. This is thus the habitat of Naganatha Linga and Devi Parvati as Giri Gujambal to whose Swarupas that Indra performed deep Tapasya to, to absolve a curse by Maharshi Gautami since he tricked and molested Ahalya the latter’s wife. Tiru Nageshwarar is also distinguished as the hallowed Place where the illustrious Maha Sarpas like Adi Sesa, Karkotaka and Takshaka lined up for Tapasya to Maha Deva and secured their blessings. The Temple complex is a master piece of typical Cholan Architecture stated to have been built in 10th Century with excellent campus of four gates, with the Main Naga natha Linga, and separate shrines for Piramani Parvati, Giri Gujamba Parvati, Rahu Deva with his spouses, Vinayaka with Ganesha Yantra as per inscription, and of course Nandi before Naga natha. The Rituals are regular six times daily and highly crowded daily Rahu Abhishekas as per respective Rahu Kaala Prathamas; holiday Rahu Kaala Abhishekas are extraordinary. A fantastic feature of the Rahu kaala Abhishekas is the clearly visible sight of white milk turning blue and crowds crave to see the same! The easy and traditional way of learning one-and-half duration of daily Rahu Kaala is on the basis of the following viz. Mother Saw Father Wearing The Two Socks to count 7.30 to 9 Am, 9 - 10.30 Am, 10.30 to noon, 12 to 1.30 pm, 1.30 pm-3 pm, 3 pm- 4. 30 pm and 4.30-6 pm. Ketu Sthala: is 57 km from Kumbhakonam and just 2 km from Pompuhar at Keela perumalpaalam as the Temple of Naganatha Swami and Soundarya Nayaki ie. Shiva and Parvati Swarupas. Palasha pushpa sankasham taarakagraha mastakam, Roudram Roudratmakam ghoram tam Ketum pranamaanyaham/ Ili Vyasamukod geetam yah pathetsu samaahitam Divavaa yadivaa ratrou avighna bhavishyati/ (Our salutations to you Ketu Deva! You are of the brightness of Palasa flowers placed on your hood which is at the top of Stars and Grahas. You are indeed frightening, breathtaking and spiteful. Do kindly pardon my shortcomings and be forgiving! If one recites the entire Navagraha Stotra from Surya Deva onward to all the Nava Grahas sincerely as Scripted by Veda Vyasa himself day and night then there would never be obstacles in daily life but would get fulfillment of wishes and contentment). At this Temple, ‘vidhi poorvaka snanas’in the Naaga Tirtha woud indeed bestow happiness and peace of mind with the blessings of Naga natha and Soundarya Naayaki well settled in this Temple.

Quite apart from the established Nava Graha Sthalas near Kumbhakonam and around, Pradakshninas are performed in the Sub Temples at most of the Devi-Deva Temples all over Bharat, most especially in Kerala, Tamilnadu, Karnataka, Andhra and specified pilgrimage points all over in North too. Shani Shinga pur some 70 km away from the Saibaba Temple at Shirdi and Mandapalli near Rajamandry as also Rahu-Ketu worship at Kalahasti in Andhra too are significant. Invariably among the Vishnu-Shiva-Devi Temples all over Bharat, Navagraha parikramas have become an integral part of the worship as subsidiary Nava grahas Temples are distinctly designated albeit in a remote part of the Sanctum Sanctorum.

DIVYA VISHNU KSHETRAS

Ashtottara shata sthaanepyavaivopbhutam jagatpatim, Namaami Jagataameesham Narayanamanayadhih/ (May I prostrate before the most hallowed Places of worship with intense concentration and dedication to Jagatpati Narayana!) The details of the 108 Maha Punya Kshetras as counted by Vaishnava Alvars are stated as forty in Chola desha, eighteen in Pandyadesha, thirteen in Kerala, two on Madhya desha, Tundeera mandala or Kanchi Pradesha as many as 22, Uttara Desha eleven and additionally Vaikuntha and Khseera Sagars. But this count by Alvars are far more in Bharat. Thus retaining what the Alvars had counted, additional Vishnu Kshetras are given as follows:

1) Shri Rangam at Tiruchinaapalli as dakshinaabhi mukha Shri Ranga -natha shaayi and Shri Ranga Lakshmi on the banks of Kaveri River along with Chandra Pushkarini and Punnaga Tree in the premises of the Temple. Shri Rangam Temple is perhaps unique in terms of its largest and most sprawling area in Bharat. Situated right on River Kaveri as an island, its length is approx. 16 miles and width some three miles. The actual Temple has seven ‘prakaaraas’ or boundary wall constructions, eighteen big or small ‘Gopuras’and a middle street and four sub streets with houses reserved for pandaas or priests, brahmanas and others. Inside the fourth circle, there is a very big ‘Mandapa’ or a raised platform with a ‘Sahasra Stambha’ or a thousand pillars—actually 960—on which are figures of horses and ‘Muthis’ as horsemen. In the fifth enclosure on the southern side there are two gopuras and on the northern gopura there is a beautiful Garuda mandapa with a sizeable Garuda Murti. There is a circular shaped Sarovara named Chandra pushkarini where devotees take bath regularly. Near to the Pushkarini is situated a tree named Kalpa Vriksha, and old idols of Lord Shri Rama and Vaikunthanatha. There behind is the famed Shri Ranga Nayaki Lakshmi Temple, opposite which is Kamba Mandapa, where in the olden times, Poet Kamba himself used to recite the Glorious Kamba Ramayana. In the sixth enclosure there is a western gate leading to the seventh enclosure and to its north is the Shri Ranga Nayaka’s own temple. Behind this Mandir are kept under a shaded low ceiling a number of Deva Murti Idols. Yet another such shaded ceiling there are the Idols of Acharya Ramanuja, Vibhishana and Anjaneya vigrahams. From there itself Shri Ranga Mandira Shikhara could be seen. In fact there are stairs leading to the Shikhara and there atop, one could witness the Idol of Vaasudeva. Shri Ranaga Nayaka in his Mandir is witnessed lying as ‘shesha saayi’ as the latter spreads out five of his hoods as the umbrella to the Lord. Near at the feet of Ranga Nayaka are the Devi Ranga Nayaki and Vibhishana as seated. There besides, the Vigrahams of Sri Devi and Bhu Devi as the Utsava Vigrahams or Idols meant for Parikrama are placed too. Significantly enough, the southern side of the Main Mandir flows River Kaveri’s principal flow and all the flows are reachable by well laid straired steps. From the Shukla Pratipada Tithi till Ekaadashi of every Pousha month there are splendid celebrations with special pujas and allied activities as climaxed with Vaikuntha Ekaadashi. The background of this world renowned Sri Ranga Temple was that Lord Brahma himself presented the most hallowed Vigrahams of Sriranga Nayaka and Nayaki to King Ikshvaaku the son of Vaivaswata Manu pursuant to an extreme Tapasya; originally, Shri Ranga Nayaka /Nayaki Vigrahams were installed at Ayodhya and that Mandir became the most sacred descendant Kula Vigrahams for generations. In Treta Yuga, Cholaraja Dharma Varma was invited once by Emperor Dasharatha to Ashwamedha Yagjna and being greatly impressed by the Shri Ranga Nayaka returned to his Kingdom to perform severe Tapasya; a gathering of Maharshis approached the Chola King and sensitised him that Sri Ranga Nath was himself coming down to his Capital. Meanwhile, Lord Shri Rama killed Ravanasura at Lanka and returned to Ayodhya in connection with Rama Rajyaabhsheka Celebrations. As Lord Rama distributed send off gifts, King Vibhishana desired to receive the gift of Sri Ranga Nayaka Nayaki. As Vibhishana was returning to Lanka, several Devas strongly felt that the just ravaged Lanka after the Battle was not suitable for the installation of the Vigrahams and selected the island of Kaveri river; Vibhishana was no doubt disappointed that he could no longer perform the daily worship but Devas suggested that he could visit the selected spot daily for the worship; more so the King Dharma Varma conceded to grant the gift of Dasaratha that Sri Ranga Nayaka be shifted to the ideal Kaveri Island. Vibhishana reconciled to the proposal that he might visit Sri Ranga as so shifted to Kaveri; during one of his chariot rides to the New Temple from Lanka, Vibhishana’s chariot hit a Brahmana and as the latter died, the co- Brahmanas caught hold of Vibhishana and were about to kill him while the latter prayed to Lord Sri Rama as the Lord granted long life till the end of the present Kalpa even as his mortal body would disappear so that his immortal self could serve the Lord’s another Swarupa as Sri Ranga Nayaka till the Kalpaanta! Hence his presence along with Sri Raga Nayaki as a shasha sayi at ri Ranga Mandir! But Devarshi Narada at once gave the news to one and all in Ayodhya and Lord Rama appeared before the Brahmana in distress facing death and assured that a blunder made by Vibhishana was of Rama’s too. As such, the deceased Brahmana got immortalised as an Alwar and till date there is a Shankara Guru kula and Vani Vilas Mudranaalaya at Sri Ranga!
2) Koliyur-Nichulaapuri or Vorayyur near Trishirahpalli where Sundarraja and Vaasa Lakshmi wed in the presence of 33 crore Devas on the banks of a rivulets of Kunmurutti and Kalyana Tirtha. 3) Tiruvellaarai or Shvetagiri 10 miles north of Shriranga is the divine temple of Pundarikaaksha with his wives Pankajavalli and Champakavalli Lakshmi Swarupas; this is also the hallowed birth place of Padmaksha or Uyyakkondaar and Vishnuchitta or Aaingaallvar. In fact, Alwar Bhaktaanghrirenuka was born at Tirumandi-kkudi some four miles away from Kapilasthalam. 11) Pullabhudungudi is another sacred Place very near to Tirumandikkudi where Vallinvala Rama or Rama with very strong bow and arrows along with Pottamaraiyal / Lotus Lakshmi visioned as sesh saayi or in lying condition. Alwar Sant Shriparakala had done the consecration of this Temple. 12) Aadanur ( Gopuri) is hardly a mile away from Pullabhdungudi where devotees witness Aandalakkamaayan or Bhaktaananda Murti Raghunadhda along with Devi Ranganaayaki Lakshmi even as Bhagavan was in lying position. Alwar Sant Shri Parakaala sanctified the Temple along with hundred cows. Interestingly, this Temple of Nambi-Nambakkai is famed for the killing of an Asura who had forcibly taken away the daughter of Muni Medhavi and restored her back to the Sage. Another episode of this Temple related to a Rakshasa who stole the ‘Vairamudi’ or Pearl headgear of the Lord but Garuda Deva confronted the Rakshasa and in the scuffle, the ‘Manimukta kireeta’ fell down in a waterbody which became popular as Mani mukta River. Till date, on significant festival days of the Temple, the Kireeta is taken in a procession, but each time the ‘Vairamudi’ is weighed, it weighs very differently. There is a Garuda Idol worshipped in the Temple. Incidentally, this hallowed temple is more popular as the Nacchiyar Koel or the Lakshmi Devi’s Temple even more than the Nambiar’s Temple! Alwar Parakala was unable to sanctify this Temple as he did to many others and interstingly enough he got absorbed on his end as with the Nayika bhaava or with the unique mindedness of the Devi herself! 16) Tirucherai also called Saarakshtetra is just three miles way from Sugandhagiri Temple and Saaranatha Bhagavan along with Saara Laksmi is worshipped as in erect position of standing; Devi Kaveri as the River worships the Main Deities at the time of Tula Sankranti in the month of Kartika stated to praise Saara Lakshmi as of far greater Mahatmya than that of Ganga Devi! It is stated that the illustrious Shibi Chakravartthi visited this hallowed place and had the ‘saakshat- kaara’ or actual vision of Maha Vishnu[ Sibi was tested by Agni and Indra assuming the forms of a pigeon chasing a kite and when prevented by Sibi, the kite demanded the pigeon as its food but the pigeon demanded safety of its very life. Finally, the King measured an equivalent flesh from his thigh as of the pigeon’s meat and settled the noble principles of Dharma and Nyaya-Virtue and Justice and became the most ideal King ever!] Similarly Nandi Deva too was blessed by Nathanadha and immortalised the title of Nandapuri Vishnu! There is a scar on the face of the Shourira Bhagavan as the Chola King Kumikantha out of vengeance took to a spree of converting Vishnu Temples destroyed replacing with Shiva Mandiras and a singer at this Kannapura Temple sang very emotional songs meaning as to why Shourira tolerated this betrayal of Vishnu Devotees and threw the cymbal at the Bhagavan’s idol and even now that scar on the Idol’s face continues even as the King was punished for his misdeeds! 23) Tiru Krishnamangai or Krishna Mangalapur near Tiruvaayur is the sacred Temple of Bhaktavatsala Bhagavan along with Abhisheka Valli Lakshmi. Bhrugu Yogi Alwar, besides Parakala Alwar had dancified the Temple. 40) Tilla Tiruchitratukam near Chidambaram-the city otherwise popular for the Akasha Linga as Nata Raja- is also the sacred temple of Govinda Raja Bhagavan and Devi Pundarika Valli in shyanaya or lying position. There is a Pundarika Sarovara too at this Temple. Maha Deva and 3000 dikshitaas besides Kanva Maharshti had ‘saakshatkaara’ of the Deities in the Temple. Alwars Shathagopa and Parakaala did mangalaashasana at this temple. 42) Tirumailiramcholai or Vrishabhadri is some 12 miles from Madurai being the famous Alagar Koil. References to this Mandir are made in a number of Puranas including Varaha Purana, Vanamala Purana, Brahmada Purana and Agni Purana! Yama Dharma Raja performed Tapasya to Maha Vishnu by assuming the form of a Vrishabha or a bull and secured his Darshan and thus this Mountain is known as Vrishabhaadri. When in his ecstasy as Maha Vishnu appeared before Yama, the latter danced and from the ‘nripura maala’ or a string of trinket bells tied around his feet fell out a bell that materialised a water spring called Nripu Ganga, stated to be a wash out of sins by taking bath in it. One needs to purify by the body bath and enter the Temple of Bhagavan Alagar and the original installation of Sundara Raja Narayana / Kalagar along with Sridevi and Bhudevis on either side was performed by Yama Dharma Raja himself. None knows as to when the construction of the Temple was made but the belief is that Shri Poigai Alwar, Bhutatalwar and Payalwar are traced back to have venerated the Idols even during Dwapara Yuga times as given in Vaishnava Scriptures. Even Pandavas along with Draupadi Devi visited the Temple and stayed in the cave of the mountain worshipping Alagar Bhagavan and till date there is a Pandava Shayya or the bed rocks in the cave during their ‘Agjnata Vaasa’ or Living In-cognito following their agreement with Kauravas as they lost the bet in a dice game. The daily abhisheka of the Main Deity continues to be performed by the Nripura Sarovara water only since any other type tends to disolour the Deity. Karuppu Swami is venerated with daily pujas as he is the guardian of the entire establishment at the Temple. A grand festival is celebrated now for five days on Chaitra Shukla Chaturdashi as Bhagavan Sunderraja on the Purnima day commences his Yatra from Madurai reaching Nanduiyur after crossing Vegavati River, rest overnights there, reach Tenur , Ramaraya Mandapa, Mysore Raja Mandapa and return to Vrishabhadri on the fifth day. At the Sanctum of the Temple are the Idols of Ranganatha and Godamba. At this Temple itself is situated another Mandir underneath which is the Murti of Bhagavan Nrisinha and on the upper level is Seshashayi Vishnu with Devi Lakshmi at his feet, besides Vatapatrashaayi Murti in the company of Garuda Deva and of Maharshis like Durvasa. Nearby the Rangmannar Temple is a Sarovar where Andal Devi used to bathe. Some distance away is Shiva Linga Vishwanath and a separate Parvati Mandir, where Shiva Ratri Festival is observed. More so, this hosts the famed Tirukoshtiyur Temple where Lord Perumal is worshipped in a four tier structure in distinct postures as Bhagavan Krtishna in dance form, Soumya Narayana as in shayana / reclining posture, Adheeshta Narayana and the final one as Paramapada natha. It was at the top tier that Ramanujacharya was administered the Ashtakshari Mantra Namo Narayanaya namah by his Guru Nambi Adar in the presence of Swami Narasimma. To learn this mantra, Ramanujacharya is stated to have visited 17 times from Srirangam but the Guru declined to meet him each time; as and when he knocked at the Guru’s door, he introduced himself as ‘Ramanuja has arrived’ but there was no response and finally on the 18th time he announced saying ‘your beloved Ramanuja has arrived and the Guru opened the door. The legend is recalled that having conferred like wise at Ahobilam another famed Vaishnav Sthala for planning the termination of Hiranyaakshpa by Vishnu’s ‘Varahavataara’ in the past, this would be another ‘Goshti’ or serious discussion since Hiranyakashpu achieved the boon of non-execution of a species of neither a man nor animal and not even a Deva. At the Goshthi finally it was decided that the Asura could be killed by a special species viz. Nara + Simha or Narasimha! Hence the solution arrived was that Hiranyakashipu could be killed despite the boon received by the demon. The festivals observed at the Temple are Chitrai Tiruvila (April-May), Maasi Magham (Feb-March) and Adipooram (July-Aug) each for 10 days. Before launching the program of Ravana Samhara, Samudra Setu bandhana was the very first step and thus the worship to Samudra Deva was performed. As Samudra Deva did not initially respond even as Rama requested the Samudra Deva by spreading a bed of Darbha grass, Rama lied on the bed conveying his protest. Finally he had to threat the Samudradeva that he would destroy the Seas as Samudra appeared and apologised to Rama and as a result, the high tides subsided and the Sea waters lost their pounding speed and roar. Hence the fame of the Darbha shayana Kshetra and the importance of the Mandir with the big Idol of Kodanda Rama with his Dhanush! This Place too is worthy of snaanam, dana and puja especially in Hema Tirtha and Shukra Tirtha besides an Ashwatha Vriksha. Maharshi Darbharani had his celestial vision of Rama as darbha shaayi. Devipattana also away some 12 miles is where barren women are blessed with progeny as also Jagannadha Shrine where Ravana’s brother Vibhishana surrendered to Rama and was made the King of Lanka later on. As the Swami found the boy subsequently wandering on the Sea Beaches, a Fisher woman heard a shouting at a boy whom the Swami identified; she was threatening to throw the boy into the forest near Anantankadu Nagaraja Temple ie the place infested with poisonous serpents. Having got a clue, the Swami discovered the mischievous boy at the Temple forest; as expected the boy was hanging on the top of a ‘Illuppa’ Tree; even as he saw the boy, the tree branch got broken and suddenly he manifested himself as huge figure of Anantashayana Murti the Vishnu Swarupa with Ananta as his head at Tiru Vollom, nabhi at Tiruvanantapuram and lotus feet at Tiruppadapuram! Swami was dazed as he never ever even in dreams was that boy full of pranks! He broke down in a trance and having recovered somewhat, prayed to the Lord in ecstasy and beseeched him to shorten his alarmingly big swarupa to that of thrice his ‘danda’ or staff. Even so, the figure got shortened in three parts viz. Tiru mukham, Tiru vudal and Tiruppaadam- that is: Mangala Muhka-Mangala Deha-Mangala Paada or Lotus Feet of Auspiciousness. 82. Hastigiri / Varada Raja Temple in Kanchipuram is the most famed Kshetra of Vaishnavasampradaya besides Tirumala Balaji and Srirangam. The Varada Raja Temple is encircled by three broad enclosures with its east facing eleven storyed gopura with the west facing main entrance and the sanctum of Varada Raja Swami. Its passage from the gopura gate to the sanctum is from the Shata stambha mandapa where the procession of the Utsava Vigrahas commences. Near to the Mandapa is the Koti Tirtha Sarovara also called ‘Anantasara’ leading to a bridge and a Madapa and the Temples of Bhagavan Varaha, Sudarshana and Yoga Nara Simha on one side and on the other side is the Ramanujacharya Vigraha and the Vaishnava Peetha Complex, being renowned Eight Maha Peethas like Shri Rangam, Tirukoshthi, Melkote, Udipi and so on. Ahead the Guruda Stumbha in the second enclosure is the Lakshmi Mandira of Sri Perum Devi and Vishnu Vahanas like Hanuman, Elephant, Horse, Garuda, Mayura, Tiger, Lion, Sharabha etc. In is in the third enclosure is the Varada Raja Temple within a high rise platform called Hastagiri like ‘Iravata’ as also Yoga Nrisimha, Vishwaksena. Varada Raja Swami is in the posture of a Sesa Shaayi even as lying on a float of water as presumed. The Sanctum of Varada Raja is called Vimana approachable by a staircase of 24 steps and inside the dvara he is Shyama Varna Chaturbhuja with shalagrams as his garland along with his Utsava Murti also. Having had their darshan, yatris take down the staircase and down the sanctum in a parikrama sight the Idols of Andal, Dhanvantari, Ganesha and others. Detailing the Varada Raja Mahatmya, Maharshi Markandeya recalls in Kamakshi Vilasa that Lord Brahma after the conclusion of his Ashwamedha Yagna at the Hari Kshetra on the Hasti Shaila Shikhira extolled Varada Raja Swami as ‘Jagan Mohanaakara’ or the Universal Mesmoriser with his ‘Chaturbahu’ Shankha-Chakra- Gadaa- Padma Mudra with his appearance as ‘Jagadarakshra’. Markandeya then narrated a legend about the origin of Varada Raja as quoted: Lakshmi and Saraswati asked Brahma to give his honest opinion as to the superiority between them and almost immediately Brahma favoured Lakshmi Devi. Saraswati was highly disappointed and even annoyed with Brahma and took away the ‘danda’ or an Insignia that Vishnu once gave to her which was the power of Brahma enabling the latter to undertake Srishti or Creation of ‘Charaachara Jagat’or of the Moveable and Immovable Beings. Thus the action of Brahma to create was disabled. Brahma did not wish to entreat Saraswati to return the Srishti Danda but left for Himalayas to perform penance to Vishnu to request for an Emblem with Vishnu Amsha to Create instead of a Saraswati-oriented Crest. Vishnu was pleased with Brahma’s Tapas and directed Brahma to perform hundred Ashwamedha Yagnas. Brahma then decided that instead of performing hundred such Yagnas it would be sufficient to execute one Yagna at the Hari Kshetra and asked Vishwakarma the Architect cum Builder of Devas to construct a huge Yagna Shaala right opposite the Idol of Narasimha; he discarded Saraswati as his partner at the Yagna but preferred Buddhi Devi as his ‘Yagna Patni’ to share the duties of a wife as prescribed. Brahma invited Devas, Devarshis like Narada, besides Gandharva-Yaksha- Kinnara-Apsara; Siddha- Saadhya-Muniganaas and decided to perform a Year-long Yagna; he worshipped Ganeshwara first to facilitate the Yagna without obstacles and then worshipped Yoga Narasimha Swami and initiated the Yagna with formal Mantras by appointing Kumara Swami as Adhavarvu, Maheswara as Udagaata, Varuna as Prastota, Yama Dharma Raja as Hota and Indra who performed hundred such Yagnas in the past as the Yagna Brahma. Since Brahma did not invite Saraswati to participate, she was furious and created powerful flames with her Maya Shakti with a view to destroy the Yagna but the Saviour of the Hari Kshetra viz. Vishnu arrested the Maya Shakti’s both the hands and disabled her. Saraswati took it as a challenge and released Kapalika Shakti but Vishnu in the Form of Nara Simha destroyed the Shakti. Enraged by her discomfiture, Devi Saraswati released ‘Daithyaastra’ but Daityaari Narayana made the Astra futile. Vagdevi then created ‘Karaala Vadana Kalika’ and instructed the Maha Shakti to demolish the Yagna but Vishnu assumed an Eight-Hand Swarupa and having suppressed the Shakti sat firm on her shoulders. Finally with all her powers being overcome, Saraswati was humiliated and swooned out of anger and frustration and took the Form of ‘Pralaya Swarupi’ called Vegavati River with disastrous speed from Brahmaloka down to Earth heading towards the Hari Shaila. Vishnu sensed the impending danger and decided to resort to her ‘maanabhanga’ or assault her physically; having become nude he stood before the lightning flash of gushing waters and like a huge Log lay across against the flow. Saraswati having visioned Narayana’s nudity was thus put to shame and without being able to face him entered a ‘Bhu bila’ or a big fissure of Earth and escaped. Then the Yagna commenced without any hindrance; the Yagna Pashu or the Sacrificial Horse was let loose and returned invincible and at the successful completion of the year long Yagna, the ‘Purnaahuti’ or the Ultimate Offering to Agni as the climactic Homa of Cow’s ghee was accomplished and Brahma visioned a Massive Flood of Illumination on the Eastern Sky and offered wide and palmful of concentrated homage to that Spendour. That was the most awaited Moment of Sweta Varaha Kalpa’s Vaivasva Manvantara- Krita Yuga- Nrisimha Bhagavatmika Samvatsara- Vaishakha -Shukla Paksha-Chaturdashi’s Hasta Nakshatra Suryodaya when Devadhi Deva the Supreme Lord of the Universe manifested himself from the Yagna Homaagni’ as Varadaraja Swami and handed over the Insignia of Srishti to Brahma Deva. The latter went into raptures and placed the Insignia on his chest with tears of joy and got non-plussed momentarily. After recovering from the pleasant shock, Brahma Deva installed Bhagavan on the Hasti Shaila on a ‘Suvarna Simhasana’ or a Golden Throne in the presence of Devas and other Celestial Beings and Maharshis; in order to cool down the charged and excited atmosphere as also to supposedly quench the thirst of Narayana who was just manifested from Agni, Brahma performed ‘Abhisheka Sanaa’ to Varadaraja with potful thousands of Kamadhenu’s ghee with chantings of Sacred Veda Mantras and offered ‘Shodashopcharaas’ or the traditional Sixteen Services such as Aasana-Vastra-Yagnopaveeta-Gandha-Dhupa-Deepa-Pushpa- Phala-Naivedya-Tabula-Mantra Pushpa-Sangeeta-Veda Pathana-Tabula-Chhatra-Chaamaraas. The formal Puja was followed by bhojanas (Hearty Meals) served to Special Invitees with Bakshya- Bhojya-Lehya-Chokshya-Paneenias to all concerned in the Maha Yagna. Also Anna Santarpana or Free Meals were organised to the entire citizens of Kanchipura. Vishwakarma made a ‘Pratibimba Swarupa’ or Replica of ‘Aalaya’; and ‘Nagara’ Pradakshinaas were also organised eversince. Pleased by all these arrangements, Varadaraja Swami addressed ‘Brahmaadidevaas’ and Munis: Yathaaham Virajaan teerey mama Vaikuntha pattaney, Jagadvyapaatnaa sheelaavaad Vishnurityabhidhaayutah/ Prasiddho nivasaamyatra tathaa Kaanchi- purottamey, Harikshtram samaashritya Sarvaabheeshta pradaanatalah/ Varadaabhidhayaa khaayaato nivasaami nirantaram, Sarvey bhavante madbhakaatassada maddarshaney rataah/ Sarvadaatraitaiva tishti tathantu Vaikunthaadadat paavaney, Varshy Varshey Meshamaasi mama Janmadiney Shubhey/ Ghridadhaaraa sahasraabhishechanam mama pujanam, Utsavamcha prakurut Viprabhojanaa purvakam/ (My Bhaktaas! Just as I had settled in Vaikuntha on the banks of River Viraja and got spread all over the Universe as Vishnu, I will now reside in the Hari Kshetra of Kancheepura; hence those desirous of visioning me could do so with my name as Varada or he who would be the Bestower. In fact I will stay here for good thus making Hari Kshetra as significant as Vaikuntha if not even better! You may therefore even reside at this Kshetra. Every year on my birthday during Mesha month you should all therefore perform ‘Goghrittha dhaaraa sahasra -abhishekaa’ or thousand Abhishakaas of Cow Ghee ( bathing) of my Murti and celebrate this day as a Festival and of ‘Brahmana Bhojana.’) Then Brahma Deva addressed all the Invitees of the Yagna to follow the instruction of Varadaraja Swami and assured that those who would participate in the Festival on the lines as instructed would secure ‘Maha Phala’. Maharshi Markandeya narrated to King Suratha one telling instance about a devotee who actually experienced this kind of Maha Phala : In the past, one Vaadaadhyayi Vipra named Bhanuvarna of Gokula on the banks of River Yamuna visited Kanchipura and happened to perform ‘Ghritaabhisheka’ most coincidentally on the ‘Janma dina’ of Varadaraja Swami at the Hari Kshetra and on return to Gokula after some time passed away; Bhanu varna was being flown to Swarloka by Devaganaas to honour him with the status of Indra but ‘Haridootas’ intercepted his Soul and took it away to the Everlasting Vishnupada; such indeed was the graceful gesture of Varadaraja Swami! Whoever recites the above account of Varadaraja Swami would certainly secure Varadaraja Darshnana, as assured by Maharshi Markandeya.
83. Venkatachala Mahatmya:

Venkataadri samam sthaanam brahmande naasti kinchana, Venkatesha samo Devo na bhuti na bhavishyati/ (There indeed is no God like Lord Venkateshwara on Earth and none else like the self-manifested singular Deity worthy of faith, commitment and total dedication for now and for ever!)

Crossing the Seven Hills of Vrishabhadri named after Nandi, the Shiva Vahana; Anjanaadri of Lord Hanuman; Neeladri named after Shakti Neela Devi; Garudadri the Vishnu Vahana; Seshatri named after Lord Shesha the comfortable serpent bed- abode of Vishnu; Narayanadri named after Lord Narayana and finally the Venkatadri the hallowed Temple Tirumala Venkateshwara is the ‘Deva Sthana’ of Andhra. This is one of the wealthiest and most visited Hill Shrinames of Hindu Pilgrimage at a height od 3200 ft or 976 m approx. approachable by foot, road, rail and Air, beckoning the glittering ‘Suvarna Shikhara’ or Golden Top, par excellence! Around the Temple, the most significant places of interest included are Axakasha Ganga, Srivari Sacred Feet, Paapa vinashana, Shri Ramanuja Shrine, Swami Pushkarini, Varaha Swami Temple and down the hills the famed Shri Padmavati Temple.

Being the Outstanding and World famed Tirupati-Tirumala Divya Kshetra, the most Sprawling Temple Town of Balaji literally elevates the yatris to heights of Sacrifice and Faith on the bedrock of Dharma. Magnetising devotees from far and wide, the torrential flood of yatris is perennial here. Indeed Lord Venkateshwara is the wealthiest God of the World, crossing the hopes of the Pope in the Vatican City!

Shrinivasapuraa Vedaah Shri Nivasaparaa mahaah, Shrinivasa paraah sarvey tasmaadanyatra vidyhat/ Sarva Yagna Tapodaana tirtha snaane tu yat phalam, Tat phalam koti gunitam Srinivaasasya sevaya/ Venkataadri nivasam tam chintayan ghatikaaadwayam, Kulaikavinshatim dhutwaa Vishnu loke maheeyate/ (All the Vedas do merely propose Bhagavan Shrinivasa only exclusively. All the yagna karyas do target Shrinivasa only. Indeed, all kinds of Bhakti or devotion merge into and identify with Shrinivasa alone. The totality of Yagina, Tapa, Daana, Anushthaana and Tirtha Snaanas falls far short of Shrinivasa seva! Those residents of Venkatachala engrossed in the true service of Venkateshwara shall liberate the souls of the previous twenty one generations and qualify themselves too to Vishnu Loka). The yatris invariably halt over at Tirupati down the Tirumala’s Seven Hills where Govinda Raja Temple set up by Ramanujacharya with the Shesha saayi Narayana is the Main Attraction with some 15 smaller Deva Mandiras in and around the Sanctum. One of the Asha Peethas of Ramajucharya is also significance here. Tirupati is also the Abode of Kodandra Rama, Devi Sita, Lakshmana and Huanuman. Once up the Seven Hills, the prime destination no doubt is that of Lord’s Divya darshanam, yet the priminaries are the Kalyana gattaa for the Hair Sacrifice, Swami Pushkarini followed by Varaha Swami darshanha and then to the Q complex to Vaikuntha for the climactic experience of bliss. Most significant Tirthas up the Hills are Akasha Ganga, Paapa nashana Tirtha, Vaikuntha Guha dhar, Pandava Tirtha, and Jaabali Tirtha. In the ‘Vaishnava Khanda’ of Skanda (Kartika) Purana, Varaha Deva gave ‘Upadesha’ (instruction) of the Sacred Mantra Om Namah Shri Varahaya Dharanyu Uddharanaya Swaha to Bhu Devi and its significance; the Mantra fulfills all desires and leads to liberation. A Manu called Dharma recited the Mantra persistently and attained Moksha; Indra chanted it and regained his throne that was occupied by demons thereafter and Anantha the Chief of Serpents secured such extraordinary strength as to hold the weight of Prithvi (Earth) on his hoods. Bhu Devi expressed her gratitude to Varaha Deva to have saved from the grip of Demon Hiranyakasipu as also taught the Great Mantra. She admired Varaha Deva for providing the power and perseverance to hold the weight of huge mountains and desired Him to describe to her the names of some of the illustrious Mountains the weight of which was borne by her.
These include Sumeru, Himachal, Vindhyachal, Mandarachal, Gandhamadhan, Chitrakoot, Malayavaan, Pariyatrik, Mahendra, Malay, Sahya, Simhachal, Raivat and Anjana; in the South of Bharat the most significant are Arunachal, Hasthiparvat, Grudhrachal, Ghatikachal and most importantly the Narayana Giri or Venkatachala which possesses the Seven Tirthas in the Mountain Range viz. Chakra Tirth, Daiva Tirth, Akasha Ganga, Kumaradhari Kartikeya, Papanashani, Pandava Tirha, and Swami Pushkarini.

Varaha Deva affirmed that in Krita Yuga, the most important Mountain Range was that of Anjanagiri; in Treta Yuga it was Narayana Giri; in Dwaper Yuga was Simhachal and in Kali Yuga again the most sacred mountain range is Venkatachala. In Magha month when Surya Deva is in Kumbha Rasi on Purnima day coinciding with the Makha Star, Skanda worships Venkateswara on the banks of Swami Pushkarini Tirtha at the noon time and devotees performing ‘Snaan’ and Puja as also ‘Annadaan’ are blessed by the Lord. Similarly, Snaans, worships and charities at Venkatachala are highly beneficial on the auspicious timings when Surya is in Meena Rasi on Purnima with Uttaraphalgini in Thumbha Tirtha; when Surya is in Mesha Rasi on Purnima with Chitra Star in Akasha Ganga at early mornings; when Surya is in Vrishabha Rasi in Visakha Shukla / Krishna fortinights on Dwadasi Sunday / Tuesday at Pandava Tirtha on evenings; on Sundays of Shukla / Krishna fortinights, coinciding Saptami at Papanashana Tirtha; on Brihaspati / Vyakteeta Yogya, Star Pushya / Sravana Mondays etc; Varaha Deva described to Bhu Devi that Emperor Akash decided to perform a Grand Yagna on the banks of Arani and while tilling, he found a girl child and as he was issueless, brought her up as their own, named as Padmavati. Once Sage Narad met Padmavati as she was grown up as an eligible bride and predicted that she would be the wife of Lord Srinisas of Venkatachala. Almost immediately she met a Stranger in the Royal Garden and introduced himself as Anant or Veerapati from Venkatachala Mounta and that he was hunting a wolf. Padmavati’s companions rebuffed Ananta Deva that hunting was prohibited in their garden. Anantha returned but desired intensely that Padmavati should become His life partner and sent Vakulamala to the court of Emperor Aakash to negotiate their wedding. The Emperor had no bounds of joy and the holy wedding of Lord Venkateswara and Padmavati took place in style and grandeur when Devi Lakshmi was present to make Padmavati happy and comfortable, whereafter they all resided in Tirumala bestowing boons to lakhs of Devotees till date. Varaha Deva narrated the background of Padmavati’s earlier birth as Vedavati to Bhu Devi. Vedavati was a companion of Devi Lakshmi and when the latter became Rama’s spouse as Sita, she left for forests to perform Tapasya, but demon Ravana misbehaved with her and she ended her life by jumping into fire and cursed Ravana that his entire clan would be wiped out because of a woman.

Sita was abducted by Ravana by creating such circumstances that Maricha was converted as a Golden Deer; Sita took fancy for it and prevailed Sri Rama to chase the animal which deceitfully wailed as though Rama was in trouble and Lakshmana had to leave Sita alone even by drawing a Lakshman Rekha that none could cross. The vily Ravana dressed as a Tapsvi revealed his real form as soon as she was prevailed to cross the fiery Lakshman Rekha and forcibly took her to Lanka. After Rama killed Ravana, there was ‘Agni-Pariksha’ (Proof of Purity / by Fire), Sita came out unscathed. But the real fact was that Agni Deva hid real Sita in Patala and Agni’s wife Swaha assumed the role of Maya Sita; in fact Vedavati’s earlier birth was of Swaha Devi! Thus, Vedavati / Swaha turned to Maya Sita was Padmavati. Devi Prithvi enquired of Bhagavan Varaha as to where and how to secure the ‘Darshan’ (Vision) of Lord Venkateswara and the former replied that He would mention of those future happenings as recorded in the past. There was a Nishad (Hunter) in Shyamak Jungle named Vasu and his wife Chitravati and Son Vira. Nishad was the Chief of his clan living honestly and peacefully by eating cooked rice and honey. Both his wife and he decided one day to a nearby forest to search for additional stock of honey and entrusted the responsibility of looking after his followers and daily chores to Vira, their son. The daily practice was that the family cooked rice and mixed with honey, offered the same as Naivedya to Venkatachalapati and ate the Prashad. But, Vira in their absence for the day offered some portion of the honeyed rice into Agni, some to tree bushes and the rest was consumed. On return from the other forest, Vasu became furious to learn that no offer of the honeyed rice was made to Venkatachalapati but gave it away as described above. Vasu felt agitated and remorsefully guilty and even tried to kill his son for what was considered as Sacrilege. Lord Ventatachal appeared before Nishad in full glory with His four hands, fully ornamented and armed and stopped Vasu from harming his son; he was completely taken aback. The Lord said that the acts of his son Vira were in fact worth emulation and not condemnation for he did a homam (Offering to Agni); homage to Nature and only the remainder was consumed with dedication as ‘prashad’. Nishad was so happy that he heard this from Bhagavan Himself! Varaha Deva also narrated an incident related to King Tondaman and Nishad. As an ideal Prince, he imbibed all the qualities required of a King, viz. of nobility, intellect, valour and devotion to Almighty. Once he took King’s permission for hunting in Venkatachal forests, chased an elephant, crossed the River Swarnamukhi and reached the Ashram of Brahmarshi Suka and an Idol of Goddess Renuka nearby. As he proceeded further, he found a ‘Pancharangi’ (Five Coloured) Parrot screeching the name of ‘Srinivasa, Srinivasa’ and followed the bird till the mountain top. There he met Nishad who informed that the parrot was very dear to Suka Muni as also to Bhagavan Srihari and hovered around the Pushkarini Tirtha; by so saying the Nishad desired to have a Darshan of the Lord and the Prince too accompanied him. Thondaman was indeed thrilled with the Darshan and witnessed the ‘Naivedya’ of Cooked rice and honey performed by Vasu Nishad. He was overpowered by the magnificent experience of the Lord and there after met Suka Muni and secured his blessings that soon he would become a King after his father’s retirement and serve Srinivasa for long time to come. A few days after Thondaman’s return to his Capital, he was made the King and started settling in his throne. Suddenly after a few months, Vasu the Nishad approached the Palace in an agitated manner and told the King that he dreamt chasing a ‘Varaha’ which entered a thick bush, that he started digging up and swooned, that his son was also near him, that the Varaha entered his mind and body and made him say the following: ‘Nishada! You must reach King Todarman and ask him to perform ‘Abhishek’ with lots of milk to a ‘Shila’ (Stone) underneath this thick bush, pull it out and ask a ‘Shilpi’ (Sculptor) to prepare an Idol of my features with Bhu Devi on my left lap, set up plants of Tamarind and Champa as are loved by Vishnu and Lakshmi repectively and invite learned Sages and Brahmanas to attend a grand function to be hosted by Tondaman and wait for my further instructions. The King followed the instructions as conveyed by Nishad and called Sages and Brahmanas to a Grand Puja of Varaha Deva and Bhu Devi through an underground passage and continued the daily practice of taking bath, worshipping the Murthis of Varaha and Bhu Devi and arranging ‘Prashad’ or the left-behinds of Naivedya to Brahmanas and visitors. As this practice got routinised and the interest of Bhaktas snow-balled gradually, a Brahmana stranger approached the King that he was on way to Kasi, Prayaga and a few prominent Tirthas but his wife was unable to travel as she was in the family way; he requested the King to provide accommodation and food to his wife and generally supervise her welfare. The Brahmana returned very late after several months but unfortunately the wife had a miscarriage and died just a couple of days before the return of the Brahmana after visiting several Pilgrimage Centers and Tirthas. The King got frightened at the tragedy as he gave a surety to the Brahmana’s wife and approached Srinisasa, who instructed that the Queens as well as the body of the Brahmana’s wife should be made to take bath in the Asthi Sarovar Tirtha and as the queens took dips in the holy water and came out, the Brahmana’s wife too would emerge. The Brahmana was thrilled at the miracle witnessed by co-devotees! Raja Todarman followed the practice of worshipping Srinivasa with golden lotuses daily. He found one day some Tulasi leaves pulled out from muddy plants and wondered how this indiscretion happened. As the King was wondering about this, there emerged a voice saying: “There is a pot maker (Kumhara) who also did daily Puja to me with the muddy Tulasi leaves from his house and that I have accepted his worship too!” The King reached Kurmapuri in search of the Kumhara, who replied to the King that he never ever did any puja to Srinivasa! But when the King said that there was a voice which said these words, the Kumhara and his wife recalled the voice of Srinivasa in their earlier births that as and when a King would knock their hut, and then a Pushpa Viman would arrive to pick them to Vishnuloka! Indeed that had just happened! The King returned to Venkateswara Temple to perform worship again after this unusual happening and Srinivasa appeared before Tondam and bestowed him the blessing of a lasting Abode of bliss.Parikshit, son of Abhimanyu of Pandavas, was no doubt a noble and virtuous King, but unfortunately did the unpardonable sin of hanging a dead serpent around the neck of Samika Muni who was in deep Tapasya and his son Shringi cursed Parikshit that he would be dead within a week as a result of a snake bite. Takshak was assigned the task of killing Parikshit but Brahmana Kashyap who could indeed have prevented the tragedy and even demonstrated his ability to do so, was won over by dubious means by Takshak and Kashyap who did the sin was sought to be washed off by a bath in Swami Pushkarini and worship to Srinivasa, as advised by Shakalya Muni. Indeed the sin of Kashyap was eradicatd by the Grace of Lord Venkateswara. Another illustration of the Sanctity of Snaan in Swami Pushkarini was given by Sutha Maha Muni to Rishis at a Congregation at Naimisharanya (The forest of Naimisha). A King of Chandravamsa called Dharmagupta was a rare example of nobility and virtue. He went hunting and by the evening desired to perform the Puja of Gayatri and was delayed to late hours and had to stay back on a tree. A lion came running after a wolf and ascended the same tree; it asked the King not to worry and would not hurt him in any way. It asked the King to come to an understanding that it would sleep off half night and he might sleep off the other half. The lion tempted the wolf to drop the King down but the wolf rejected the proposal outright as ingratitude was a far heinous sin than the ‘Panchapatakas’ or the Five known major sins. During the other half of the night when the King was to guard the wolf, the lion gave a similar proposal to him; he accepted and tried to drop the sleeping wolf. But luckily, the wolf was saved and preached the King against ingratitude and gave a curse to the King to become a mad man. It said that he was a Sage, named Dhyanakashtha, who could take any form and told the lion that in his earlier birth he was a Minister in the Court of Kubera and was cured by Gautama Muni to become a lion as he was standing naked in the Sage’s garden with his woman. As regards Dharmagupta’s curse for ingratitude, Sage Jaimini suggested a bath in the Sacred ‘Swami Pushkarini’ on Venkatadri on the banks of River Suvarnamukhi, followed by worship of Lord Venkateswara. Suta Maha Muni described that those who purify themselves in the Pushkarini would surely avoid hells named Tamisra, Andhamisra, Rouvar, Maha Rouvar, Kumbhipak, Kaalsutra, Asipatran and such others. On the other hand, the devotees attain the ‘Punya’ of performing Aswamedha Yagna and achieve Buddhhi (Intelect), Lakshmi (Wealth), Kirti (Fame), Sampatthi (Prosperity), Gyan (wisdom), Dharma (Virtue), Manoshuddhi (Purity of mind) and Vairagya (Other Worldliness). Krishna Tirtha is a Tirtha named after a deeply devoted Brahma whose Tapasya was so severe and extensive that his body developed mole-hills (Valmikas) and Indra rained forcefully to wash off the mud. Lord Srinivasa was impressed by the relentless and highly dedicated devotion and blessed him with His Darshan, created a Tirtha after his name, declared that those who have the fortune of bathing in it would become as learned and focussed and bestowed Salvation to him. Paapanaasha Tirtha is such a powerful place that even merely uttering its name, sins of the past and present get vanished. There was a Brahmana named Bhadhramatni who had enormous knowledge of Vedas and Scriptures but was acutely... impoverished having six wives and several children. His each day was a harrowing experience of poverty with several mouths to feed. One of his wives named Kamini told him one day that her father met Sage Narada who described Tirtha called Papanashana lying on the Venkateswar Mountain cluster was a big draw and a bath, preferably after giving away a small token ‘bhudaan’ to a deserving Brahmana followed by a darshan of the Lord would abolish poverty, and fulfil all human desires. This emboldened Bhadramati to travel along with his family to the Srinivasa Mountain. He was fortunate to obtain on way a token of five feet of land. The entire family took bath in the Papasahana Tirtha and gave away charity of the five feet of land to a deserving Brahmana. Bhagavan Vishnu had instantly appeared before Bhadramati; the latter was extremely thrilled at the darshan and eulogised Him as follows: ‘Namo Namasthekhila karanaaaya, Namo namasthekkhila paalakayaa/ Namo Namestheyemaramayyaa Namay Namo Daithyaa vimardanayaa/ Namo Namo Bhaktha janapriyaya, Namo Namah Paapavidaaranayaa/ Namo Namo Durjananashakhaya, Namasthesthu Tasmai Jagadeeshvaraya/ Namo namah Karanavamayyaa, Naraayanaathivikramayaa/ Shri Shankha chakraa chakravartayaa, Namasthesthu tasmai Purushottamayaa/ Namah payoraaasi nivaasaakaaya, Namasthesthu Lakshmi pathayavyayaa/a Namasthesthu Suryadyamithaprabhaaya, Namay Namo Punyagathaagathayaa/ Namo Namokyonduvilochnayaa, Namasestheude Yagna phalapradaya/ Namastesthu Yagnagangavilochnayaa, Namasthesthu thye Sajjanavallabhaaya/Namo namah Kaarana Kaaraanaayaa, Namestheute Yagnarajyitaaya/ Namasthethutheybhheesta sukhaapradayaayaa, Namo Namo Bhaktha -manoramaaya/ Namo namaahsdbhuta karanaayaa, Namasthestuthy Manda radhaarakaya/ Namesthestuthy Yagnavarrahanaagney, Namo Hiranayakshavidaarakayaa/ Namasthesthuthy Vaamana rupabhaajayaa, Namasthethuthey Kshatrakulaanthakaayaa/ Namasthethuthey Ravana mardanaayaa, Namasthethuthey Nanda sutaagrajaya, Namasthey kamalaakaantha Namasthey Sukha daayiney, Ashritarthi nashiye bhuuyoo bhuyo Namo namah’/. As Bhadramati praised Lord Srinivasa, He blessed him to enjoy full-swing prosperity to him and family and attain Moksha to him thereafter. ‘Akasha ganga Tirtha’ was well known for bestowing boons to the highly erudite and dedicated Brahma called Ramanuja.He did Tapasya of rigorous nature on the banks of Akashganga by standing with ‘Panchagni’ (Five flames) around him during the hot summer mid-days and under the sky in heavy rains fully exposing chanting the Ashtakshari Mantra ‘Om Namo Narayanaya’; he ate dry leaves fallen from trees for years together, for some years by drinking water and many other years by consuming air only. Finally, Bhagavan appeared and Ramanuja who was almost dying with the severity of his Tapasya became fully normal and healthy instantly.He received the boons that the Place of Akasha Ganga where Ramanuja had the fortune of discovering Vishnu in person would be an Eternal water-spring and those who performed ‘Snaan’ would change his entire life style and become an ideal Bhakta and at the end they would have no other birth and would get salvation. In an another context, Akash Ganga was immortalised as the Tirtha where Devi Anjana executed penance, since she and her husband Vayu Deva were not blessed with a son. Vishnu Bhakta Sage Matangi directed Anjana Devi to reach River Suvarnamukhi, far south of Vindhya Mountain, reach Vrishabhachal on whose top was situated the famous Swami Pushkariini, worship Varaha Deva and Venkateswara, proceed to north, find Akashaganga and perform Snaan in a formal manner along with Vayu Deva. The Sage confirmed that if the couple did so, a Son of unparalleled prowess and ‘Swami Bhakti’ (Loyalty to the Master) would be born, to be called Hanuman who was invincible by Devas, Raakshasas, Sages, Brahmans, Celestial and human beings. As Anjana Devi followed the instructions to the last letter and spirit, Bhagavan Venkateswara appeared before her and blessed that such a Son would be born that his parents would indeed be proud of and play a pivotal role in Treta Yuga as the most powerful personality of ‘Shiva Amsha’. Besides the above, Venakatachala has quite a few other Tirthas like Chakra Tirtha where a Maha Muni Padmanabha prayed to Srinivasa to chase away the dread of Rakshasas and Bhagavan stationed His Sudarshan Chakra known for dispelling the fear of Evil Spirits; Varaha Tirtha, Pandu Tirtha, Tumba Tirtha, Kapila Tirtha, Kumara Tirtha, Jaraharaadi Tirtha Traya, Phalgungi Tirtha, Deva Tirtha, Jabaali Tirtha, Sanaka Sanandana Tirtha, Asthi Sarovara Tirtha, Kataha Tirtha and Manvadyashottottara Tirtha. Thus the outstanding significance of Tirupati-Tirumala Deva’s unparalleled magnificence of Lord Venkateswara!

84) Tiruvekka or Yatthottakari: This is very near to at Kanchipuram Varada Raja Bhagavan’s Temple. Shri Yatthothakhari Bhagavan and Devi Komalavalli Lakshmi are presented at a Temple as the former is in a shesh saayi posture. In this temple, there is a Saroyogi Pushkarini as Sant Saroyogi was born here. Brahma and Devi Saraswati had their divya darshanas. 85) Ashtabuja also near Varadaraja Temple in Kanchi is dedicated to Bhagavan Adikewshava Chakradhara and Devi Alarmelangai where King Gajendra had his divya darshana. 86) Tiruttanka near Varadaraja Temple presents Valukkoil Perumal or Deepa Prakash Deva and Devi Marakavalli Lakshmi. Acharya Vedanta Deshika was born here. Devi Saraswati had her “sakashatakaara’ at this Temple. 87) Uragam / Trivikrama is in Shiva Kanchi Kshetra being a distinguished Avatar of Vishnu as Vamana Deva, the Vighraha is oversized almost hitting the ceiling with one of his feet lifted up. This form of Trivikrama Vishnu is just like a hooded serpent.

88-89-90) Neerakam or Neerakara again near Kanchi at the surrounding sub-temple of Uraga Trivikrama temple is Aradhya Deva Bhagavan Jagadeesha accompanied by Neelamangaivalli Lakshmi; likewise at the sub-temple of Uraga Vaamana is Kaarakam presenting Aradhya Deva Karunaakara and Devi Padmaamani; and Kaavarnam too as the surrounding main Trivikrama temple presents Shri Kalwar or Meghaakaara and Devi Kamalavalli Lakshmi. Similarly the fourth sub temple is Aaradhya Deva Adi-Varaha and Devi Anjillaivalli. These four sub temples were celestially visioned by Akrura-GarhaRishi-Devi Parvati and Ashvatta Narayana respectively.

92) Paatakam or Pandavadoota is in the Main Kanchi itself where Bhagavan Pandava doota and Devis Rukmini- Satyabhaamas are visioned. Alwars Bhutayogi, Mahayogi, Bhaktisaara and Parkaala had performed mangala shaasana, while King Janamejaya and Maharshi Harita had their divya darshanaas.

93-95) In the Main Kanchi itself, there are the small sized temples viz. Pravalavarnam, Parameshwara Vishshnugaram and Tirupukkulli but of far reaching significance. Bhagavan Pravalavarna Bhagavan and Devi Pavalavalli who blessed Ashvini Devatas with their divine vision. Just nearby is Haritavarna Bhagavan and Maratavalli Lakshmi who granted saakshaatkaaraa to Bhrigu Maharshi; Vishnugaram with Paramapadanath and Vaikunthavalli as actually visioned by King Pallavaraya; and at Tiruppukkulli or Gudhra Kshetra with Vijayaraghava Bhagavan and Marakavalli as visioned by Jatayu which fought with Ravana and sacrificed its life to save Devi Sita.

96) There is a famed Kshetra named Singavelukutram on Kadapa- Guntakal Railway Line, very popular as Ahibila. Aho veeryam aho shouryam aho bahu parakramam, Narasimham para daivam aho bilam aho balam/Ahibila Kshetra is a popular Vaishnava (Vadakala) Kshetra split at two levels called in the Telugu local language as ‘Eguva’ and ‘Diguva’ or Upper and Lower levels- in the ‘nallamala’ forests of Kurnool District of Andhra Pradesh at the distance of 40 km from Nandyala or 150 km from Hyderabad at the Nallamala forest range at an altitude of 1000 ft. plus. That is the fabled Abode of Lord Narasimha or Prahlada Varada, the fourth incarnation of Maha Vishnu to terminate Hiranya Kashipu the demon who rescued Prahlada the illustrious Vishnu Bhakta. Amrita Valli is the corresponding Devi Lakshmi of the Godedess. Ahibila Kshetra opposite theAkshaya Tirtha where devotees purify themselves with snanas, before entering the Sacred Place portrays nine forms of Narasimha spread among nine Temples viz. Bhargava Nrisimha bestowing Lakshmikara siddhi or excellent prosperity as incarnate at the lower level of Ahobila, Yogananda Nrisimha also at the lower level signifying the aspect of compassion and overcoming problems of one’s life; Chatravata Narasimha representing Ketu Graha bestowing comforts of Life and expetise in Fine Arts; Ugra Nrisimha Temple at the upper level along with Chenchu Lakshmi or a Goddess as of a local Tribe Leader’s daughter who sought to cool down the fierce form of the Lord and eventually married to her representing Dei Lakshmi herself and teaching devotees the qualities of courage and timidlessness yet of maturity; Varaha Nrisimha Swami at the upper level again along with his consort of Lakshmi; Malaava Vara Nrisimha along with Shri Lakshmi at Lakshmi Hill granting total fulfillment and auspiciousness to devotees; Jwala Nrisimha as had just annihilated Haranya kashipu since a pond of brick colour with which the Lord had just washed his hands with the blood of the demon called Rakta gunta Tirtham; Paavana Nrisimha or Kshetra Ratna Nrisimha or Pamulati Nrisimha Swami who provides safety and succor to devotees and finally Karanja Nrisimha or He who represents Shadvidha or or six types of austerities and purities viz. those of ‘Kara- charana- vaak- kaaya-karma- shravana- nayana’or by hands, legs, tongue, mouth, body, actions and mid- borne nature!At the Ahobila Complex, the significant Festivities are Phalguna Month celebrations, Janma Nakshatra (Swati) Mahotsavas, Gramotsavas, Monthly Celebrations and Tirumanjana Sevas. Simhachala Tirtha: Some 16 km near Vishakapatnam in Andhra Pradesh is another significant Nrisimha Kshetra in Bharat is at Simhachala or the Lion Giri viz. Varaha Lakshmi Nrisimha of 15th century built by Gajapati Raja of Kalinga, the present part of Odisha State and King Krishnadева Raya of Vijayanagara also attended the Opening Ceremony Brahmostavas as given in available Inscriptions. The Legend about this incarnation of Nrisimha is due to the curse to the Gate keepers to Maha Vishnu’s Vaikuntha by Brahma Manasa Putras viz. Sanaka Sanandana Sanat Sanatana Kumaras who were stopped entry; the respective Danavas were Harayaksha in Varaha; Ravanasura and Kumbhakarna in Shri Rama Avatara, and Kamsa and Shishupalain Krishnaavatara, besides Hiranya kashipu in Nrisimha Avatara. The Bhakta saved from Hiranya kashipu in the Nrisimha Avatara was Prahlada. Special Festivals at Simhachala are of Akshaya Triteeya with Chandana Lepana or Alankara with Gandha and during Vaishakha Month. The main attractions at the Temple are a fantastic Stone Ratha and a 16 pillored Mandapa depicting Dashawataras and many Nrisimha Swarupas.

\[ Api keetapatangaadyaah Pashavoya sarisrupaah, Vimuktaah Paapinah survey Dwarkaayaah prabhavataah/ Kim punarmanavaa nityam Dwarkaayaam vasantite, Yaa gatih sarvajantunaa Dwarkaaya pura vaasinaam saa gatiurdurlahaa nyunam Muninaamutheretasam/ Dwarkaaya vaasinam druhteewaa sprushtaa chaiva visheshataah, Mahaa paapa viniirmuktaaah svartiga loke vasantite/ Paamsavo Dwarkaaya vai vaayunaa samudiritaa, Paapinah muktidaah proktaaah kim punardwaaraabhuvi/ (By the grace of Dwarka, all kinds of sinners born as krimi keetakas or flies, pashu pakshis or serpents- all attain salvation; what else one has to say about those who visit or reside there and become surfeit with Bhagavan Shri Krishna’s darshan and worship! Those residents of Dwarka should attain such kind of salvation as even illustrious Maha Munis with extraordinary control of physical organs and senses might possess! Dwarka vasi’s darshana or sparshana or mere touch, would destroy human’s gravest sins and bestow long stay in Swarga. Even the sand flown by the wind of Dwarka would destroy all the sins; why talk of residence in Dwarka itself!) Such is the narration by Markandeya Maharshi in this Purana! He further describes that those persons who spend time at Lord Krishna’s idol at Dwarka are blessed and fulfilled deserving to be saluted and prostrated to. Further those devotees of Shri Krishna have the opportunity of bathing his sacred head with milk should reap the fruits performing Ashwamedha Yagna. But those devotees who, with no return favour from the Lord, perform affectionate yet devotional bathing to him should be blessed with Moksha. After the saana, those who dry and wipe his body with a clean cloth would have his or her past and present sins. Those after bathing and dressing up, decoration of him with a fresh fragrant flower garland while the sound of conch shell is rendered and recite his sahasra naama with faith and dedication, then each word of the ‘namaavali’ would fetch him the fruit of giving away the daana of a kapila cow per each stanza of it. Additionally the recital of Gita, Gajendra moksha, Bhishma stava, or any of the Stotras by Maharshis would have the same benefit: Yoga Shastraani Vedantaan yoginah Krishna sannidhou, Pathanti Ravi bimbam tu mithwaayaanti layam Harey/ Gitaa Naama shasram tu stavaraajastavanu smritih, Gajendra mokshanam chaapi Krishnasyaa staviya durlabham/(Those Yogis recite Yoga shastra and Vedanta in the presence of Krishna shall break the barriers of Surya mandala and enter right into Vishnu Dhaam. The Five Maha Stotras viz. Shrimad Bhagavat Gita, Vishnu Sahasra naama, Bhishma Stava Raja, Anusmriti and Gajendra Moksha are indeed the dearmost Stotras of Bhagavan Shri Krishna. As briefly narrated the Mahatmya of Dwaraka from Skanda Purana, the basic and immediate cause for Lord Krishna headed by Yadavas is explained in Maha Bhagavata Purana, Vishnu Purana, Maha Bharata etc. Maha Bhagavata describes as follows: Pursuant to the termination of Kamsa, the tyrant King of Mathura-who had the discredit of imprisoning his own father Ugrasena out of ill justified ambition as well as his own sister Devaki and brother in law Vasudeva out of fear that their son Krishna yet unborn might kill him- the two Queens of Kamsa, named Asti and Prapti, approached their father Jarasandha the evil Monarch of Magadha. Jarasandha attacked Mathurawith some twenty three ‘akshouhinies’of infantry, cavalry and elephantry and challenged Krishna and Balarama. But as Krishna was to fight with massive opponents even with a minor number of Army basically with Kamsa’s carry-forward loyalties, he called for his (Vishnu’s) Saaranaga Dhanush with limitless arrows or his mace/ gada named Koumidi while Balarama’s Hala or Plough and Musala. Thus Jarasandha despite his huge Army was no match and ran away from the battle. But he regrouped and strengthened his army again and again, each time getting routed. There were such attacks by some seventeen times. When Jarasandha was expected to attack for the eighteenth time, his allies viz, the alien mleccha forces called Yavanas headed by Kalayavana attacked Mathura with a massive thirty million barbarians of desperation and cruelty. Then Krishna and Balarama calculated that no doubt they could face the combined Army of Jarasandha and Kalayavana too but discretion being the better part of valour, especially since Yadava Army should not be hurt at all even in small number, they thought of a Master Stroke: one to eliminate Kalayavana by tricking him and another to shift their Capital of Yadavas from Mathura to Dwarka. They planned to build a new Capital City named Dwarka on the West Coast, a modern City with 12 gates and all amenities and asked Vishwakarma, the Architect-cum-Builder; the latter created a beautiful and well structured fortress touching the western Sea. By means of His mystic Yoga Maya or the power of Illusion, the citizens of Mathura got transferred lock-stock and barrel, over night to Dwarka and found themselves in their own luxurious Palaces. Even as Balarama was defending Mathura, Lord Krishna attracted the attention of Kalayavana, passing singly by foot, by the main gate of Mathra; Kalayavana followed Krishna closely but always unreachable with some distance apart and led the Mleccha into a Mountain Cave. Thinking that Krishna known for his tricks had himself assumed a new form as an old and haggardly man inside the dark cave kicked him forcefully as the old man was fast asleep. Indeed, the old man was none other than Muchukunda, the son of Mandhata of Ishvaaku dynasty. He was the defender of Demi- Gods from Daityas for long in TretaYuga and Lord Kartikeya the Commander-in-Chief appreciated Muchukunda’s efforts and granted him rest and sleep till Lord Vishnu Himself as his Avatara named Krishna would bless him at a later date in Dwapara Yuga. As Kalayavana forcibly kicked Muchukunda, the former burnt off Kalayavana by his angry looks and realised Krishna as his Saviour when Krishna instructed Muchukunda to perform Tapasya. Thus Krishna got rid of Kalayavana even all the Mathura resident Yadavas got nicely transported to their new Capital Dwaraka! Incidentally, Jarasandha finally got killed by Bhimasena, thanks to Krishna’s finger-sign advice to Bhima to tear Jarasandha’s body into two and throw the two parts apart topse-turvey; after Bhima killed Jarasandha some thousands of Kings defeated in wars besides countless youthful girls kidnapped were liberated. Skanda Purana prescribes the method of Yatra to Dwaraka Dhaam; after satisfying with wholesome meals to good Vaishnava Bhaktas, the yatris need to sleep on the ground peacefully observing Celibacy and while travelling keep reciting Vishnu Sahasra naama, Purusha Sukta, Shrimad Bhagavatam etc. Then having taken bath in Gomati Nadi, Chakra Tirtha etc. enter the Dham with extreme devotion and total faith. The then Dwaraka township got drowned in the Sea anyway as soon as Lord Krishna disappeared and assiduous researches over considerable time reveal- though contradictory- that the ancient Dwaraka is perhaps under Arabian Sea at Kathiawad. The newly constructed Dwaraka- some 450 km from Ahmedabad- is stated to be on the banks of Gomati River but one version is that this is not Gomati but an extended body of Sea water, and that is why some call Dwaraka as Gomati Mukha where nine ghats have been constructed viz. Sangama Ghat, Narayana Ghat, Vaasudeva Ghat, Go ghat, Parvati ghat, Pandava ghat, Brahma ghat, Suravana ghat and Sarkari ghat. The Main Mandir called Dwarakaadheesh ( also called Ranchodrai Mandir but one of the devotees was stated to have transferred the earlier Shama Sundara Chaturbhujya Murti took it away to Dhakor and another similar Murti appeared in a Well at a Ladwa village and thus got replaced here); this Mandir is said to have been built in 6th or 7th century. As it stands now has a shikhar height of 170 ft. its entry gate named Swarga Dwar and exit gate as Moksha Dwar. Besides other Mandirs around Dwarakaadheesha Main Mandir, near Moksha dwaar there is Kusheswar Shiva Mandir which is significant as the legend prescribes that in case the Yatris not obtaining the Darshan of Kusheswara Linga, half of the Dwaraka Yatra Phala is taken away by Daityas. Sharada Mandir is another highlight of Dwaraka as Adi Shankaracharya established one of the Main Peethas as at Puri, Badari, Shringeri and Kanchi.

Bet (Island) Dwaraka/ Shankho dwar: is some 15 km from Dwaraka which in the past was a full-fledged Port before the development of Okha Port. On way from Dwaraka to the Bet is the famed Rukmini Devi Mandir some 2 km near the Main Temple stated to have been built in the 12th century. In the ‘Bet’ itself is the old Shamkho Narayan Mandir and the Idols of the Queens of the Lord viz. Lakshmi, Radha, Satyabhama and Jambavati. Shri Krishna Mahal also earlier called Pradyumna Mandir, besides Ranchod and Trivikrama Mandir are ther too on the Bet. In fact, there are Shivalayas, Vaishnava Temples, Hanuman and Devi Mandirs are scattered all over. The well known Gopi Talaab is nearby where Gopikas were stated to bathe often.

98) Ayodhya: Akaaro Brahmatha proktam Yakaaro Vishnuruchyate, Dhakaaro Rudra rupascha Ahodhayaamaa raajjate/ Sarvopa Paataakairyuktair rhmahatyadi pataakai, Na yodhya sahaktate yasmaattaam yodhyaam tato viduh/ (Skanda Purana, Vaishnava Khanda Ayodhya) Ayodhyaas is defined as ‘A- kaara is Brahma, Ya-kaara is Vishnu and Dha-kaara is Rudra Swarupa; thus Ayodhya is a composite form of Tri Murthis. Maha Pataakas too are demolished by naming the Name of Ayodhya!) Valmiki Ramayana in Bala kaanda exclaims: Manunaa Maanavendra saa Puri nirmitaa swayam/ (Manu confirms that he himself constructed Ayodhya himself!) In his opening introduction of Ayodhya Kaanda of Skanda Purana, Maha Muni Suta greets Bhagavan Shri Rama saying: Namaami Parama-atmanam Ramam rajiva lochanam, Atasikusuma shyamam Ravanaantaka mavyayam/ (My greetings to Lord Shri Rama the Paramatma who is lotus eyed and of blue colour the terminator of the cruel and vily Ravanasura). Ayodhya puri is so sancrosanct that sinful beings could ever enter it, let alone reside there! From his right foot thumb emerged Ganga and Sarayu river got manifested from left foot thumb. That is why both the Rivers are Sacred and worthy of prostrations and bathing in these rivers is as effective as destroying Brahma hatya sin.Even before the Avatar of Shri Rama, Ayodhya was the Capital of Surya Vamsha Kings of Ikshwakу; the latter was the son of Vaivashwata Manu and to this dynasty belonged to the illustrious Bhagiratha, Ambarisha, Nahusha, Yayati, Nabhaga, Ajan and Dasharatha. Skanda Purana in Vaishnava Khanda, Ayodhya Mahatmya gives the account of Veda Vijnana Vishnu Sharma whose severe Tapasya attracted Maha Vishnu darshana and the Pandita’s request to him him the boon of constant Vishnu darshana; in turn Maha Vishnu instructed Sudarshana Chakra to dig up Bhumi and bring up Ganga from Patala Loka and the resultant Sacred Water flow was materialised as Chakra Tirtha. Earlier, Brahma himself resided at Ayodhya even before the incarnation of Shri Rama and hence the emergence of Brahman Kund. Brahma conveyed to Devas about the significance of this Tirtha -as given in Skanda Purana- would be such that as that whoever performed formal snaana at the Kund and gave away daana would have been deemed as securing Ahwamedhya yagna phala and blessed to fly as clad in Divya Vastras to Braham Loka for residing there till the ensuing Pralaya. From Brahma kunda to the not too far Sarayu River is Runa Vimochana Tirtha where Muni Lomasha popularised specially among his followers who were delighted as the debts of one’s very existence by way of births and deaths to parents and sons and the teacher, quite apart from the material debts of the current and past ‘janmas’are cleared by snaanas at the Tirtha. To the east of the Runa Vimochana Tirtha is the Paapa mochana Tirtha. Skanda Purana narrates the story of Panchala desha Brahma was Maha Paapi who became conscious of his heaping stocks of sins and casually heard the conversation of a Group of Sadhus visiting Ayodhya. He visited Paapa Vimochana Tirtha along with them and happened to bathe on a Maagha Krishna Chaturdashi and also performed daana karyas and he realised an unusual transformation in his psyche and was surprised to vision a Viman beckoning him and flew to Vishnu dhaam. Ahead of the glorious Paapa machana Tirtha is the Sahasra dhaara Tirtha which is known for demolishing all obstacles in life and overcoming enemies by mere snaana with faith and mental discipline. This indeed was the very Tirtha where after the close of the entire Ramayana, Lord Shri Rama instructed Lakshmana to bathe and by his own Mantra Shakti assume the Form of Adi Sesha! Actually, the background was that when Shri Ram who had once had an important visitor viz.Kaal Devata about which even Lakshman was unaware and instructed Lakshman not to enter and allow any visitor to enter either. Lakshman was faithfully guarding the entry of Rama Nivas by taking sincere rounds up and down the ‘dwaar’. Meanwhile Maha Tapaswi Durvasa Maharshi who is noted for his short temper arrived and affectionately asked Lakshmana to let Ram inform of his arrival for Rama darshan. Lakshman being aware of Duravas’s shaapa shakti alerted Rama of the Muní’s arrival. With a view to protect his own Satya Vak Paripalana of Lakshman’s disobedience despite his instruction, Rama had to resort to the extreme step of asking Lakshmana to perform Prana tyaga of Lakshmana. As Lakshmana took the form of Adisesha and visited Indra Loka even as the Sahasra Manis and their luster vanished, the lest the Tirtha place on Sarayu diminish significance, Indra and Devas arrived on the Spot ensured and in fact doubled its glory and sanctity and named it Sahasra Dhaara Tirtha and Lord Shri Rama blessed the title too for the benefit of posterity and Loka Kalyan. Swarga dwara dhaara: Skanda Purana further describes as follows: Every Tirtha darshana has one’s own benefits yet Swaga dwara Tirtha has its own: Pratah kaala snana, japa-tapa-havana-upavasa-darshana-dhyaana- adhyana- daanas have their distinct results and those beings like the Chatur varna humans, mriga-pakshi-jala chara-krimi keetakaadi pranis happen to die at this Tirtha are qualified to direct access to Swarga and Vaikuntha dhaam. Bhagavan Vishnu in his Avatara Swarupas, especially of Shri Rama with his wife and brothers are stated at this Tirtha to select beings for their respective Punya Phalas and decide their ‘nirnayas’ based on their own past karmas overshadowing their contributions at the Swarga dwaar snanaas and punya karma mix. And so does the presence of Kailasha Vaasi along with Devi Parvati and their followers woul oversee the process of selection of Beings for the Higher Loka Prapti, asserts the Skanda Purana. Near Swarga dwaara is the Nageshwara nath Mandir; it is stated that originally this Murti was originally made of Kusha grass but later King Vikramadiyta resurrected and re-established the Idol with Veda mantras in a move to revive several ‘Praachina’ or age old Mandirs in Ayodhya. Yatris perform Pinda daana at Swarga dwaar Ghat with great devotion and bhakti. Chandra Sahasra Tirtha where Chandra sahasra vrata Udyapana is performed as also Argha danas are done on every Purnima Tithis to Chandra-Rohini Devis. Swarna Tirtha where Maharshi Vishwamitra’s sishya Koutsa Muni called on Raghu Rama once and said that he wished for so much of wealth which he desired to give to his Guru which Rama too might not possess. Shri Rama thought for a while and requested the Muni to please stay back in his court of Ayodhya overnight. Then Shri Rama invited Kubera Deva to bring considerable gold and on receiving it gave it away to Koutsa Muni. Next morning, Rama gave away all the gold given by Kubera and kept up his word by redonating the same to the Muni and truly satisfied him. This Swarna Tirtha had thus attained a gold-bestowing reputation and fullfill the material desires of who ever performed worship by way of snanaa- daana-Japas with utmost faith. One of Ayodhya’s major Mandirs is Kanak Bhavan which is quite big and mention worthy whis was supposed to be of Shri Ram’s ‘antahpura’ or the interior palace hall where Devi Sita resided too. There are big sized Sita Rama Idols seated on a throne together in the Mandir as also the idols of the very past which were however smaller. From Kanaka Bhavan away is the most famed Shri Rama Janma Sthaana which was stated to have been rebuilt as Masjid Babri ; this Masjid which became the hot controversy was partially destroyed to make way for the original now albeit as a small make believe Mandir.Near to Raa Janma Sthaana are Sita Rasoyi or kitchen, Kopa bhavan or the Place where the love-fight Rama- Sita couple stayed; Ratna Simhasan or the Royal Throne made of jewels, Ananda Bhavan or the Palace of Joy, Ranga Mahal or the Hall of Music and Dance etc. The other Places worthy of visiting in Ayodhya’s Sarayu River banks include Lakshman Ghat with a five feet Lakhmana Swami in the Mandir exclusively dedicated to him; Ahalya Ghat where Lord Rama is stated to have performed Yagna; Hanuman gadhi on an elevated sixty steps an Lord Hanuman in seated form; Darshaneshwar, Mani Parvat where the love-fight Rama-Sita couple stayed; Ratna Simhasan or the Royal Throne made of jewels, Ananda Bhavan or the Palace of Joy, Ranga Mahal or the Hall of Music and Dance etc. The other Places worthy of visiting in Ayodhya’s Sarayu River banks include Lakshman Ghat with a five feet Lakhmana Swami in the Mandir exclusively dedicated to him; Ahalya Ghat where Lord Rama is stated to have performed Yagna; Hanuman gadhi on an elevated sixty steps an Lord Hanuman in seated form; Darshaneshwar, Mani Parvat with Ashoka Stupa of broken 200 ft; Dantana Kund where Rama was stated to have had his mouth wash, where also Gautama Buddha, while in Ayodhya too rested. Dasharatha kund was the Place some few km. away on Sarayu River banks where King Dasharatha’s ‘Antya Dahana’ was stated to have been performed. A mini- Parikrama of some 4 km around Ayodhya touches Ramaghat, Raghunadha Das gaddi, Sita kund, Agni Kund, Vidya kund, Mani Parvat, Kubera parvat, Sugriva parvat, Lakshman ghat, Swarga dwaar and back to Ram ghat. While no doubt Shri Rama Navami Celebrations on Chaitra Shukla Navami are famed for several days every year, Shravana Shukla Paksha festivities and Sarayu River snaaas are considered as very sacred, especially on Kartika Purnima.

99) Naimisharanya: The 41st Adhyaya of Uttarakanda of Kurma Purana makes a detailed reference of Naimisharanya when Suta Muni in his address to Rishis and Brahmanas said as follows: Idam Trailokyavikhyatam Teertham Naimishatanyamuttamam, Maha Devapriyakaram mahapaatakanaashaanam/ (This Naimisha Tirtha is reputed all over the Trilokas as the most beloved of Maha Deva and the demolisher of all kinds of blemishes and sins.) The Purana further states that Lord Brahma materialised this Tirtha to facilitate the Tapasya of Maha Munis like Marichi, Atri, Vasishtha, Kratu, Bhrigu and Angira and their generations as these Maharshis made express supplication to this effect. Brahma told the Maharshis:

Satram sahasramaasadhwam Vaangmanodosha varjitaah, Deshamcha vah pravakshyaami yasmin desho charishyathal/ (Maharshis! Do perform thousands of Yagjnas by sacrificing all kinds of vocal and mental shortcomings; I shall specify a Sanctified spot where you could perform these deeds of virtue) So saying Brahma materialised a Manomaya chakra or Mind borne wheel and asked the Maharshis to follow it soon. He further said:

Yatrasya nemih sheeryet sa Desha Purusharshabhaah, Tatovuvaacha tacchakram te cha tatsamauvrajan, Tyasa vai vrajatah kshipram yatra nemirashershayan, Naimisham tatsmrutam naamna punyam sarvatra pujitam/ (Where-ever the Manomaya chakra’s outside circle would break off, that specific spot would indeed be worthy and highly auspicious of executing all deeds of virtue like Yagjnas and so on). That Spot indeed has eventually become famed as having been frequented by Deva, Gandharva, Yaksha, Naaga, Rakshasas too besides Maharshis and Brahanas who all seek Parameshwara. Anna daanam tapastaptam snaanam japyaadikam cha yat, Ekaikam paavbayet paapam sapta janmakrutam Dwijaah/ (What ever Punya Karyas like Danas, Tapa, Snaana, Japaadis are executed here should indeed root out all types of sins for seven previous births with retrospective effect). In the days of yore, Vaya Deva himself narrated the Brahmanda Purana as scripted by Brahma to Rishis performing yagjnas here. Also Rudra Deva along with Pramatha Ganas was in the habit of freely moving about this hallowed Naimisharanya! Atra praanaam paritayaja niyamena Dwijaatayah, Brahma lokam gamishyanti yatra gatwaa na jaayate/ (At the last stages of life the prescribed regulations are to eke one’s life and indeed be eligible to pack up for Brahma Loka itself and would not have to have a rebirth!). Besides Kurma Purana, Chapters of Shiva Purana, Maha Bhagavata, Maha Bharata and so on are devoted about the Naimisharanya Tirtha where Suta Maha Muni rendered discourses to congregations of Sages headed by Shaunaka Muni about the Eighteen Maha Puranas after performing daily Yagjnas at this hallowed Naimisharanya where the Kala Chakra’s paridhi or the circumference or outer circle called ‘nemi’collapsed here and hence the Hallowed Place has been called Naimisha on the banks of Gomati River, off 160 km from Luknow the Capital of Uttar Pradesh. Naimisha is also one of the major 51 Sacred Spots for Pitru Sthaanatah and the practice of Somavati Amavasya Tarpanas are still organised. During Dwapara Yuga, Balarama Deva perfomed Yagjnas here, besides Veda Vyasa divided the single Veda to four distinct Vedas, scripted Maha Bharata here too and various other Scriptures. Lalitha Devi’s worship is performed at the main Mandir here while Chakra Tirtha is of legendary background. This Tirtha attracts thousands of devotees to perform ‘snaanas’ till date especially on Pournamis and Solar/Lunar eclipse days. Chakra Tirtham maha Punyam sarva Paapa pranaashanam, Vateete madiya bhage tu prithvyaaah sarvanathakam/ Kurukshetre tu yatpunyam Rahugrassita Divakare, Tat phalam labhate naiva Chakra Tirthasya majjananaat/ Naimishe Chakra tirtheshu snatwa Bharata sattama, Sarvavyaadhi vinirmukto Brahma loke maheeyate/- Maha Bharata Shanti Parva. (Chakra Tirtha is Maha Punya Prada and Maha Paapa vinashaka; the Tirtha is as significant as that of the Chakra created by Brahma’s heart; the maha Phala that is accrued to snaanas at Chakra Tirtha is stated to be that one attains at Kurukshetra on Solar Eclipse day when Rahu devours Surya. Snaanas at Chakra Tirtha are such as the unique smasher of all sins) It is believed that Chakra Tirtha is fathomless and delegations of British swimmers and navigators desirous of disproving the myth organised experiments by diving upto 1000 mts or 30,000 feet depth and gave up for want of oxygen reserves. There is also a 18 ft high Hanunan Idol carrying Rama and Lakshmana on his shoulders as having rescued them from Mahi Ravana hidden in Patala Loka. The local belief is that when Indrajit the son of Ravanasura was killed in the Ramayana Battle, Ravana asked his brother Mahi Ravana the King of Patala; a conspiracy was hatched to some how abduct Rama Lakshmanas and despatch them to Patala so that the brotheres could be sacrificed to Chandi Devi. Vibhishana now in Rama’s camp came to know of the plot and warned Hanuman to be vigilant but assuming Vibhishana Rupa, Ravana succeeded in abducting Rama Lakshmana in deep sleep and despatched them to Patala. Hanuman realised the deceit and reached Patala and with the help of Makaradhwaja who was Hanuman’s sweat born son helped entry into Patala and destroyed Mahi Ravana and carried them on his shoulders to Chakra Tirtha at Naimisha. Devi Bhagavata describes the significance of Lalitha Devi Mandira at Naimisha as that of Vishalakshi Mandira at Varanasi:

Varanasyam Vishalaakshi Gauri Mukha nivasini, Kshetre vai Naimishaaranye proktaa saa Linga dharini/ It may be recalled that 51 Shakti Pithas were given in detail in the earlier pages of this Script, but actually 108 Shakti Peethas are stated and the Linga Dharaini Lalitha Devi’s heart in part [besides at Baidhyanath Dham as Jaya Durga in Jharkhand] also fell of Devi Sati’s mortal body at Naimisha. Apart fromVyasa Shukadeva Sthaana afore mentioned, Swayambhu Manu and Devi Shatarupa ‘Tapothaana’ too is mention worthy as the lineage of Fourteen Manus including the current Vaivaswata Manu got initiated since then. The famed Dashaashwamedha Yagna or the tenth Ashwamedh performed by Shri Rama, Devi Sita and Lakshmanaadi brothers and wives was a memorable success here at Naimisha on Treta Yuga. Annapurna andVishwanatha mandir at Naimisha is known for devotees executing Pitru Karyas. Dadhichi Kund Snana is stated to be of great importance as that is the Sacred Place where Dadhichi Muni donated his backbone and body with which Indra made Vajrayudha and many other armoury of Devas with which Vritrasura was executed for Loka Kalyan or Universal Relief and Auspiciousness. Suta Muni Gaddi and Pancha Prayaga on the banks of which Akshaya Vata Vriksha are worthy of not missing by yatris. Naimisharanya Parikrama of some 4-5 km covering most of the Sacred Places mentioned is possible. More than this organised tours are conducted from far off Places upto Lucknow for Yajina karyas and Bhagavata Saptahas for week long stays at Naimisha which provides unique spiritual solace and fulfillment. Hardly 5 km from Naimisha is Gomati River known as Dhoutapaapa and Sita kunda Tirthas too, where Devi Janaki was bathing getting ready for Ashmamedha Yagnas!

100) Mathura : Puranas signify the Uniqueness of Mathura which is called with varying names like Madhupatra, Madhupuri, Mathura or Madhura as this was described in Itihasas was rid ofthe torments by Madhu Daitya by Shatrughna the younger brother of Lord Shri Rama of Ramayana and more so as the Sacred Place of Bhagavan Krishna. Varaha Purana describes: Na vidyate cha Patale nantirikshe na maanushe, Samaanam Mathurayaahi priyam mama Vasundhare/ Saa ramyaa cha sushastaa cha jannabhuministathaa mama/ (There is no other more beloved Tirtha like Mathura for me even better than those in Patala, Antariksha or Bhuloka) Maha maghyam Prayage tu yat phalam labhate Narah, Tat phalam labhate Devi Madhuraayaam dine dine/ (The same fruitful results that one could reap at Prayaga the Sangama Place of Three Holy Rivers of Ganga-Jamuna-Saraswati on Magha Month’s Pournami is normally available each day at Mathura) Purna Varha sahasram tu Varanasyaam hi yat phalam, Tat phala labhate Devi Madhraayaam kshanamna hi/ (Residing thousand years at Kasi is considered as fruitful as a ‘Kshana’ or a moment at Mathura). Similarly, the visit to Pushkara Tirtha and stay there on Kartika Pournami is indeed fruitful and that would bless a person to accomplish with Mathura Yatra. Vishnu Purana also describes that snana and darshana of Mathura Krishna on Janmashtami, Yama Dwiteeya, and Jyeshta Shukla Dwadashi are considered to be of great consequence. Vajramandali has twelve Sacred ‘Van’ viz. Madhunvana, Kumudavana, Kamyakavana, Bahula vana, Bhadravana, Swadiravana, Shravana, Mahavana, Lohajinghvana, Bilvavana, Bhandiravana, and the most popular Brindavana. While each of these Vanas have their own significance, indeed Brindavana is of utmost prominence. Padma Purana underlines the special status of Bridavana: Guhyad guhyatamam ramyam Madhyam Brindaavanam Bhuvi, Aksharam Paramanandam Govindasthaanamavyayam/ (Brindavana on Earth indeed is the body of Bhagavan Srikrishna itself and is seat full of joyof and even the touch of the dust would pave the way for salvation. When asked about the way to attain ukti, Bhagavan Krishna smilingly replied that let ‘Vraja raja’ or the dust from Vraja Bhumi may fall on your head! The old name of Madhura was Madhuvana where in the days of yore Swayambhu Manu’s grandson Dhruva who sparks on the sky as a Star was directed by Narada Muni to perform severe Tapasya stating Punyam Madhuvanam yatra saamnidiyam nityadaa Harey! and Bhagavan Vishnu blessed him to attain stardom! Madhura on its banks flows Yamuna River and as many as twenty four main ‘ghats’ are spread out like Vishrama Ghat, Prayaga ghat, Kankhala ghat, Bindu ghat, Bangali ghat, Surya ghat, Chintamani ghat, Dhruva ghat, Rishi ghat, Moksha ghat, Koti ghat, Brahma ghat, Ganesa ghat, Manasa ghat, Dashashwamedha ghat, Chakra tirthha ghat, Krishna ganga ghat, Soma tirthha ghat, Brahma loka ghat, Ghantaabharana ghat, Dharapatanaghat, Sangama Tirthha ghat, Nava Tirthha ghat, and Asikunda ghat Each of these Ghats has an episode to describe such as Vishrama ghat where Krishna and Balarama rested for a while King Kamsa was killed; Asikunda Ghat is renowned as Varaha Kshetra and so on. On all the four sides of Mathura are four Shiva Mandiras viz. Bhuteshwara in the Western side, Pippaleshwar on the Eastern side, Rangeswar on the Southern side andon the Northern side is Gokarneshara. Dwarka-dheshwara is the most well known Mandir.Besides the other Mandirs are Gatathama Narayana, Vaaraaha, and Govinda Mandirs. Mathura Parikrama is applauded in Varaha Purana: Mathuraam samanuprapya yatsu kuryaat Pradaksinam, Pradakshin pruta tena Sapta Dwipa Vasundhara/ (Those who perform parikramas of Mathura are stated to have done so around Sapta Dwipas from Vasundhara/ Earth).

Brindavana: About 8 km from Mathura is Brindavan comfortably reachable by motor and on way one could see Gita Mandir. Many perform Parikrama to Brindavan daily too. Brahma Vaivarta Purana details the origin of Brindavan that in the Satya Yuga King Kedar’s daughter Brinda performed intense Tapasya to attain Krishna Bhagavan [ mortal Krishna was an Incarnation in Dwapara Yuga] and Bhagavan blessed Brinda with his darshan and Brinda Devi was the principal figure in the Rasa Leelas stated to have been performed with Brinda at Brindavana by Lord Krishna the Avatar in Dwapara Yuga. The significant places on the banks of the Sacred Yamuna River are Kaliya Hrada at Nandanavana where Bala Krishna punished Kaliya serpent; Yugala ghat where Yugala Kishora Mandir with Radha Krishna Idols are present; Radhavallabha Mandird with swaambhu Shalagrama shila, Shri Ranga Mandir, Govinda Deva Mandir, Shahji Mandir, Bihari Mandir of Thakur, Krishna Balarama Mandir (Iscon), Madan Mohan (Chaitanya Maha Prabhu) Mandir, Garud Govinda Mandir, Jaipur Mandir, Radha Damodar Mandir, Radha Ras Bihari Ashta Sakhi Mandir, Kesi Ghat where Krishna decimated Kesi demon etc. Not far from Brindavan are Gokula, Mahavana, Baladeva, Nagadaon and Govardhana some 10 km from Mathura. Vraja Desha Parikrama stated to be of 84 kms of distance with a duration of 16 days would witness among others Madhuvan, Talavan, Kumudvan, Danvaktra dhwamsa, Vallahbavana, Radhakund, Govardhana, Paraseeli which Vallabhachaya followers consider this Place as Bridavana, Kamavana, etc. 100) Tiruvaayippadi: This is a Shri Krishna Leela sthal. Lord Nava Mohana Krishna along with Devis Rukmini and Satyabhama are visualised as standing together viewing Nanda Deva. Alwar Vishnuchitta and Goda Devi had their divya darshana

101) Badarika Dhaam: Narayanah prabhu Vishnuh shaswatah Purushottamah, Tyasyaatisasah Punyaam vishaalaeam Badarimana, Ashramah khyaataye punyastrishu lokeshu vishrutah, Anyatra maranaan muktih sadharma vidhipurvakaat, Badari darshanaadeva mukthih punsaam kare khyaatam/ (Maha Bharata) ( Bhagavan Narayana who is eternal and all pervasive Purushottama and is stated to get concentrated in Badari without exaggeration as its Ashramas are stated to be seats of Maha Punya of universal renown; deaths in all other Punya Kshetras are known for bestowing mukti to any human being especially on practice of one’s own Varna dharma but Badari Darshana in itself would suffice to achieve the goal.) There is a detailed chapter on Badarikaashrama Mahatmya in Skanda Purana of Vaikuntha khandha. Harati hridaya bandham karma paashaadimtaanaam virati padamucchhairalpa janmaika bhaajaam/ Janana marana karma shranta vishraanta hetu trijagati manujnaanaam durlabhah satprasangah/ ( In all the Trilokas ‘Satsanga’ or Ideal Company of persons of virtue is rare to secure, but once they are fortunate then their KarmaPaasha or shackles of Samsara would free their hard knots of heart get loosened and facilitate the hard screws of the ever rotational wheel of births and deaths get released) This being so, the Parama Tirtha Badari is replete with Maha Sadhus as that indeed is the Seat of Narayana and their ‘sahavasa’ is certain to get the process of snapping the shackles referred above.

Maha Bharata also describes similarly: Yatra Narayano Devah Paramatmaa sanatanah, Tatra kurustram jagat sarvam tirthhyaayatanaaani cha/ Tat punyam paramam Brahma tat Teertham tat tapovanam, Tat param pramam Devam bhutaanaam Parameshwaram/ Shasvatam paramam chaiva dhaataaram paramam padam, Yam viditatwaa na shochanti vidwamsah shastra drushtyah/ ( Where Narayana Himself is, that indeed is the Parama Tirtha or the Outstanding Place in the entire Universe and Tapovana where Parabrahma-Paratpara-Parameshwara who is the Ultimate Spot totally devoid of anguish, anxiety, and everlasting bliss as strongly believed with conviction by Shastra Vettas). Varaha Purana states: Shri Badarashramam punyam yatra yatra sthitah smaret, Sa yaati Vaishnavam snaanam puraraavritta varjitah/ (From any where any person merely thinks of Badari Kshetra which is the unique Vaishnava sthaana would be redeemed of punarjanma) Reveting back to Badari khanada of Skaanda Purana, Skanda Kumara was enlightened by Maha Deva himself that Agni Deva’s curse that he would be sarva bhakshaka as the latter performed intense Tapasya after purifying himself in Ganga snana and on obtaining Vishnu darshana extolled him in a trance and Narayana replied that even on a stay for a while at Badari Kshetra would suffice to demolish patakas and due to his benevolence for sure Agni’s curse as Sarva bhakshaka would be negated and further more the Tirtha to be henceforth would qualify human beings taking bath in the Agni Tirtha would also be qualified to demolish his or her patakas too. Bhavagan Narayana further asssured that the Pancha Maha Patakas that normally humun beings are subjected to-not to mention of minor blemishes- would be washed off by snanas at Five Shila Swarupas of Narayana himself viz.

Naradi-Naara simhi-Vaaahi-Gaarudi and Markandeyi; he awarded three boons to humanity viz. to those who who stay put at any one of these Shilas; or who reside there for long; or who would perform darshana- sparsha- snaana and achamana. Besides the afore mentioned Shilas are also famed for performing snana- Narayana puja are Kapala Tirtha, Brahma Tirtha, Vasudhara Tirtha, Pancha Tirtha, Soma Tirtha, Dwasashaaditya Tirtha, Bramha kunda, Meru Tirtha, Dandapushkarini Tirtha, Ganga sangama, Dharma Kshetra and so on. Besides these Scriptures descriptions on Badari Maha Kshetra are given in Devi Bhagavata, Varahokta and so on. Hardly a few steps down the Main Entrance of Badarinath Mandir is the Adi Shankara Temple in which Linga Murti Shiva is situated and futher down is Adi Kedara Mandir; in fact, it is stated that these two be first visited before Badari Narayana beneath which is situated the Tapta Kunda or the Agni Tirtha; right nearby are the famed Pancha Shilas viz. Garuda Shila, Narada Shila, Markandeya Shila, Nara Simha Shila and Varaahi Shila. From Tapta Kunda where Yatris enjoy a refreshing bath in hot water of about 45 degree heat and then reach the most renowned Brahma Kapala a fairly large platform signifying Lord Brahma’s skull of one of his heads relieved by Lord Shiva as he was annoyed with Brahma as the latter got attracted to the beauty of his own creation Saraswati fit to be his own daughter. It is at this Kapala Vimochana Tirtha where Brahma performed severe Tapasya for atonement of his sin that yatris profer Pitru Shraddhas. From Brahma Kunda as Ganga flows and Alaknanda takes a turn from the mountains alongside Brahma Kapala. Then there are Atri-Anasuya Tirtha, Indrapada Tirtha, Mata Mandir, Nara Narayana Parvata, Chakra Tirtha, Satpatha and so on. From Satpatha upward the mountainous terrain is extremely difficult to ascend and once one could do so would find a circular shaped Soma Tirtha might be visible but probably as a sheet of ice and its vicinity one might find if fortunate the Nara Narayana Mountain. On way from Satpatha to Badarinath occurs Alaknanda’s another bank and Vasudhara which is about five miles from Badarinath is the Sangam Place of Sarasstati leads to Keshava Prayag and Manaagrama where Veda Vyas cave is accessible inside which Vyas scripted Eighteen Maha Puranas; a few meters away is situated Ganesh Guha /cave. The Legendary background states that while Veda Vyasa was mentally scripting the Puranas, Ganesha agreed to write with his trunk on Taala Patras on the mutual agreement that Vyasa should pronounce in a non stop flow while Ganesha should write down in a non stop manner too simultaneously with no slips or interruptions on either side! There is also the Muchukunda Guha or cave: here again a legendary background is attributed to it: Muchukunda of Iskshavaku Dynasty helped Devas in a tough battle with Daityas under the commandship of Lord Kartikeya; being pleased with the help, Kartikeya asked Muchukunda for a boon and the latter desired to have long rest. Kartikeya granted long rest which lasted from the then Treta Yuga end to Dwapara Yuga and blessed that Lord Vishnu would assume the Avatar as Krishna and till when he would enjoy uninterrupted sleep and would find Krishna but on opening his eyes a Daiya called Kala Yavana would be burnt to death. Exactly on these lines, Krishna, when faced with a battle with Kala Yavana and Jarasandha, misled Kalayanana to chase Krishna and led into the same mountain Cave near Dwarka where Muchukunda was sleeping and in darkness of the cave made Kalayavana trample Muchukunda who was disturbed and with vision Kalayavana was burnt to death. On recognising Krishna Muchukunda prayed to him profusely and Krishna instructed Muchukunda to stay at the Cave near Managram near Badari Tirtha!

102) Deva Prayaga: Distance from Rishikesh to Devaprayag is 28 km. approx. possible by motor cars etc. where River Bhagirathi the Ganga flow from Gangottari and Alaknanda from Badarinath merge together and is just less than a km. ascent away from Lakshmana Jhoola at Rishikesh adjoining three mountains known as Gruddrachal, Narasimhachal and Dashyarahchal. This is also called Sudarshana Kshetra popular for offering Pitru shraaddha and Pitru pinda dana. This is the straight run to Badarinath.

103) Jyotishmutt: This Vishnu Kshetra is some 103miles away from Haridwar where Parama Purusha Bhagavan along with Parimalavalli Lakhmi is lying as shesha saayi and Devi Parvati had their darshan.

104) Shaalagraamam or popular as Muktinarayana is famed in Nepal, some 100 miles from Gorakpur where Sri Murti Bhagavan and Shri Devi Lakshmi is standing northward. This Kshetra is situated on the banks of River Gandaki and the Temple is also signified with Chakra Tirtha. This is indeed the hallowed place where Saalagramashilaas are available aplenty. Brahma, Rudra and all the Devas had their divya darshanas at these magnificent banks of Gandaki.

105) Haridwar: Swarga dwarena tattulyam Gangadwaram na samshayah, Tartaabhishekam kurvita kottirithe samahitah/ Labhate Pandurakamcha kulam chaiva samudbhavet, Tatraika ratri vasena gosahasraphalam labhet/ Saptagange trigange cha shakraavate cha tarpayan,Devaan pitruscha vidhivat punye lokey maheeyate/ Tatah kankhale snatwaa triratro poshito narah, Ashwamedhaapnoti Swarga lokam cha gacchati/ -Padma Purana, Adikanda, Tirtha Yatra Parva (Haridwara is undoubtedly akin to Swarga Dwara. Those who bathe at the Ganga there are as good as taking bath at Crores of Tirthas, reaping the fruits of performing Pundarika Yajina and bringing to repute one's own Vamsha. Staying at Haridwar over night bestows the return of charities of Sahsra Godaana. Performing Sacred Snanas at the banks of Sapta Ganga, Tri Ganga and Shakravarta and offering Deva Pitru Tarpanas would establish themselves with name and fame in these Lokas; thereafter performing sacred baths at Kankhala and observe fasting for three successive nights shall indeed reap the benefit of Ashwamedha Yagna and after the termination of life shall take to the path of Swarga

Haridwar is also called Haradwar, Ganga Dwaar and Mayapuri. It is stated to be a combine of Five ‘Puris’ viz.Mayapuri, Haridwar, Kankhal, Jwalapur and Bhimgoda. It was at this Place that Brahmarshi Narada was enlightened by Sapat Rishis by way of a Maha Bhagavata Saptaha in a large gathering of Munis and Vishnu Bhaktas. The most significant spot in Haridwar is Brahma Kund or what is popularly known as ‘Hari ki Pairi’. Besides Ganga Dwor or Brahma kund or Hari ki paidi are situated in Haridwar another four Tirthas viz. Kushavarta, Bilwakesara, Nila Parvata and Kankhal - Gangadware Kushavarte Bilwake Nilaparvate, Snaatwa Kankhale Tirthe punarjanma na vidyate/ (Vidhi poorvaka Snaana and Darshana of Bhagawan Vishnu would certainly qualify for no rebirth and Vaikuntha Prapti at each of these.) These Five Sacred Places represent Pouranic Significance as follows: Brahma Kunda or Hari ki Pairi or Vishnu’s foot steps: Chakravarti Bhagirath had the outstanding reputation of bringing down Ganga from Vishnu’s feet in Vaikuntha down to Kailasha as absorbed in the ‘Jata jootas’ or Maha Deva’s course head-hair pleats. As Bhagirath further did Tapsya to Maha Deva, the Holy Ganga flowed down to Earth and another King Sweta prayed to Brahma Deva to let parts of the River to flow to his Kingdom and the flows came upto Brahma Kund. Since Bhartruhari the brother of King Vikramaditya performed penances to Maha Deva on the banks of Brahma Kund and achieved Salvation, Vikramaditya constructed steps of the Kunda famed subsequently as Hari ki Paidi. This has come down as the legend of the yore. Gavu ghat: The southern side of Brahma Kund has come to acquire the popularity of redeeming Go hatyhadi patakas by the Sacred Bathings at the Gavu ghat. Kushavarta ghat: Once Dattatreya performed severe ‘Tapas’ on the banks of Ganga not far from Gavu ghat as he kept his belongings viz. Kusha or the mat of Kusha grass, clothing and kamandalu or the water vessel on the banks of Ganga; one fierce wind blew away these items in the banks in circular fashions and since then the Ghat was then christened as Kushavarta. ‘Pitru Karyas’ and ‘Pinda Danas’ especially on Mesha Samkranti days are stated to go a long way resulting in ‘Punar janna naasti’ or no rebirth again. It is at this Ghat there is the Mandir of Shravana nath. Vishnu Ghat, Maya Devi Mandir, Ganesh ghat, Narayani Shila, Niladhara and Nileshwar, Kalimandir, Chandi Mandir, Anjani Mandir being that of Hanuman’s mother, and Gouri shankar Mandir are all lined up there. Bilwakeshwar: Not far from ‘Hari ki Paidi’ the Bilwakeshwar Mandir is stated to the erstwhile abode of Maha Ashwatara Naga of Patala who frequented it for Maha Deva darshan and ‘snaanas’ at this Tirtha is stated to bestow the Shiva Tulya status. Kankhal: This is the Sacred Tirtha which is the joint flow of Niladhara and Kankhal where nomad Munis used to necessarily halt and wash off all traces of ‘Khal’ or wickedness. Daksheshwar Maha Deva Mandir assumes outstanding significance in view of its Pouranic background of Daksha Prajapatis’s Brihaspati Yagna to which his daughter Sati Devi’s non invitation due to his hatred to his son-in-law Parama Shiva but still she attended the Yagna and was extremely offended by her father and as such resorted to the extreme step of self immolation in ‘Yogaagni’ when Maha Deva went berserk with fury, totally destroyed the yagna and beheaded Daksha Prajapati. With a view to mitigate the unusual fury of Maha Deva, Vishnu had to use his Chakra and quietly sliced off Sati Devi’s mortal remains and threw away into fifty one pieces which eventually came to be famed as so many Shakti Peethas signifying Devi Sati’s body parts as are venerated till date with awe and wonder. As Devas prayed to Maha Deva in torrential ‘Stutis’, He gradually cooled down and being a known embodiment of mercy and forgiveness, relented to the Prayers of Devas and allowed to the beheaded Daksha to replace the latter’s head with that of the goat meant for sacrifice at the ruined yagna and revived the Prajapati back to life! That is why this Holy Place is of unusual Mahatmya and yatris to Haridwara and is stated that their yatra would be futile without worship at Daksheshwara Maha Deva! This Holy Tirtha attracts unprecedented yatris on Shiva Ratri for its legendary background! Besides the above Tirthas, Haridwar has other Tirthas too like Sati Kund, Kapila Sthaana, Bhima Gouda, Saptadhar, Satya Narayan Mandir and Veerabhadreshwar each of which has their own background! From Haridwar to approx. forty miles is situated Shuka taal where Vyasa Maharshi’s son Shuka Deva taught Maha Bhagavata Purana within a week’s time to Panadava’s descendant King Parikshit on the banks of Ganga. Devaband or Devivan some 8 km near Mujaffarnagar off Shaharanpur is known for Durga Mandir where Durga Saptashati was recited first as believed by ‘Vidwamsas’ of erudition.

106) Rishikesh: Hrishik-isha or Vishnu is the Supreme Lord of senses or alternatively Rishik-isha the Over-Lord of Rishis who controls senses. One view about the origin of this Holy Tirtha is that Rishi Raihvya’s severe tapasya culminated in Maha Vishnu’s darshan at Kubjamrika or Mango Tree (Skanda Purana) while another legend refers to the Tapasya of Brahmana Devadutta to Maha Vishnu as he had staunch faith in the identity of Vishnu as distinct from Shiva. Meanwhile, Indra commissioned Apsarasa named Pramlocha to test the Brahmana’s ability to control his senses but failed and the result was their daughter named Ruru who on realising the background of her birth pursued Tapasya to ‘Shiva Kesava’ and Vishnu appeared and blessed. Varaha Purana thus states: Maamevaavehi Vishnum swam maa pashyaswaantaram mama, Awaamekena bhaavena pashyastvam siddhamaapyasi/ Purvamantara bhavena drishtavaanasi yannama, Tena vighnobhavad yena galitam swattapo maha/ (Do realise that Vishnu and Ishwara are just the same and in order to attain siddhi or Salvation soon, this basic identity be underlined. In the past the severe tapsya performed failed and ended up in obstacles) Another legend about the origin of Rishikesh signifies that once Maha Deva was annoyed about Agni Deva’s indiscretions and there were severe flames that destroyed the area; Agni atoned for his sins at this Tirtha and thus resulted in the Agni Tirtha. Popularly known as Muni Reta or the Sands of Rishis, this highly Sacred Land was also the Place where Lord Shri Rama performed penance to achieve the abilities to terminate Ravanaasura and the land marks which enabled Rama Lakshmana to cross the Holy Ganga into deep forests are still existent as hanging concrete bridges converted from jute rope bridges-popularly named as Lashman and Ram jholas. This Sacred Kshetra is also acclaimed as the Universal Capital of Yoga.

107) Shri Vaikuntha or Paramapada: Shri Vaikuntha is the Ultimate and Eternal where Vaasudeva Narayana along with Maha Lakshmi lies gloriously on the Ananta Naaga. That is the Sacred most Sthala where Viraja flows, Soma Savana vriksha grows and Shripalha is tasted ever. Anantha, Garuda, Vishvakarna and such others have their ‘nithya darshana’. Alwars Saroyogi, Maha Yogi, Bhaktisaara, Shathagopa, Kulashekha, and all the rest of Alwars performed mangalaashasana to this Vishnu dhaam!108) Ksheera Sagara or Tiruppaalakadal: The Ocean of Milk flows among with Sapta Samudras. Ksheerabdhdi Nayaka and His Consort Kasheeraabdhi Nayaki is in yoga nidra on the bed of Shesha right on the AmritaTirtha.Brahma, Rudra and all the Devas are enjoying their ‘Saakshatkaara’, while Alwar Sanths are in constant meditation.

Thus concludes the Account of the Prakhyaata Vishnu Sthalas by the Glorious Alwars across Bharata!
Other Famed Punya Kshetras (72)

Following are the Punya Kshetras highlighed alphabetically:

Amarnath Yatra (Jammu and Kashmir): Situated some 16000 ft high from Sea level in Himalayas is the Holy Cave of Amarnath sprawling some 60 feet of length, 25-30 feet of width and 15 ft. of height, is the natural formation of awe inspiring Ice Linga of Maha Deva. The general feeling that the Ice formation which would commence from Amavasya the Moon fall day of a month, grows by days till Pournami the full Moon day and completely gets dissolved there after but eye witnesses challenged this that the Linga totally disappears. The cave becomes inaccessible during extreme winters but total extinction is stated not to ever occur. The land routes to the Holy Cave are either through Baltal or Chandanwadi. Through Baltal the way from Shrinagar to Baltal covering 115 km within 3-4 days viz Sonamarg and from Baltal trekking of about 14 km involving about 12-14 hours. The alternate route is from Srinagar to Pahalgam of about 96 km on the banks of Lidder River covered by road transport. Normally Yatris who intend trekking from Pahalgam could stay overnight at Jammu/Srinagar. From Pahalgam by trekking or mini bus available upto Chandanwadi, or horse back or human carriers called ‘pittus’ etc, the route is of some 16 km. There has to be an overnight halt. At Chandanwadi is a Shakti Peetha being one the 51 body parts or ornaments of where Sati Devi’s self-immolated body at Daksha Yagna; as Maha Deva got furious at the incident created Veerabhadrha who was asked to destroy Daksha Yagna and soon followed to the Place and picked up the body of Sati Devi performing Shiva Tandava in frenzy and Vishnu sensing trouble of Maha Pralaya commissioned Sudarshana Chakra to slice off the body of Devi to small parts that numbered over fifty one; the throat of Devi was thrown off at Chandanwadi and is now famed at the Maha Maya Shaki Mandir and the Bhairava Swarupa of Maha Deva is famed as Trisandheshwara at that Mandir. The further route to Amarnatha Linga is as follows: Pissu Top where Bholenath Shiva Mandir is visible and the legend states that Maha Deva killed so many Rakshasas as had formed a mountain with their bodies!- Sesa Naag is the next overnight stop over as this Mountain has seven Peaks resembling seven hoods of the Maha Sarpa Sesha Naag the Sacred bed of Maha Vishnu and the distance of the trekking involved is 12 km from Chandanwadi through Pissu Top to Seshanag; the flowers at Seshanag are of typical nature as the resemble serpents! The picturesque view on way to Seshanag with blue water flowing on the slopes of the Mountain tops is indeed so exhilarating as life time memories; even as the dusk of the day approaches camp fires invite the pilgrims as there is no electricity as moonshine envelops them through till the next day break. From Seshanag to Maghaguna Pass there would be steep climb of 14000 feet down to Panchatarani of about 12000 ft. descent to inviting green pastures but the dizziness of the mountain tops would normally affect even normally healthy persons due to vagaries of climate, lack of oxygen, skin cracks, stomach upsets, nausia, dizziness and as such one has to carry the required medicines and preventives. Panchatarani would be the next night halt before Maha Bhairavanath as Five Most Sacred Flows emerging from His Jatajoota or the coarse head hair clusters descend from the Holy Cave. The final trekking of some five km after a restful night is up towards the Holy Cave itself at the early morning purifying snaana / bathing at the Sangam of Panchatarani and Amaravati and commence the ascent of some 6 km till the steps of the Cave Mouth for the Life Achieving Darshan of Maha Bhairava Amarnath Ice Linga! On way one would have visioned two minor Lingas of Mother Parvati and Ganesha Bhagavan before one joins the Queue of Pilgrims. Incidentally, there are helicopter sorties available from Srinagar/Baltal taking flat 5mts minus of course the waiting time of hours subject however the variations of clear skies! These sorties are normally available till noon time from early day - breaks. Normally no overnight stay is advised at Amarnath proper for fear of sudden change to ice cold rains and facilities to yatris overnight are few and far between, although ample free and tasty food is available from several munificent agencies! There is a vivid and detailed description of Amarnath Yatra in the Bhrigu Samhita of Skanda Purana covering the Surya Kshetra of Anatanag Mountain up the ascent enroute to the views of Sarala Narayana Khilya Tirtha, Mamaka Linga and Gananaadha Kshetra, River Lambodari signifying the magnificence of Ganeshwara, Bhrigu Maharshi Tirtha, Nila Ganga Sthaana Ashrama, Pesha Mountain, Sesa Naga Parvata, Vayu Daitya Vibrajana Tirtha, Sushka Sarovara or the Dried up Pond once dominated by Raakshasas but since abandoned following humkara of Maha Deva to let pass the Yatris, River Pancha Tarangini emerging from Maha Deva’s Holy Feet, Damarika Shila Garbha Giriha, Amara Ganga where Yatris perform holy bath where after finally climaxing the darshan of the mammoth and awe -inspiring Amarnatha Linga! The alternative approach to Amarnath is also available by Baltal up the Linga, where helicopter services are available too. Skanda Purana further describes the legend of some of the Damaruka Ganas turning into pigeons which are stated to fly aloft the Holy Cave, still visible to fortunate yatris blessed with the darshan of the Amarnath Linga! Indeed those yatris who secure the Amarnatha Linga darshana would certainly have their sins dissolved attain Shiva Sayujya. Besides the Maha Linga, visitors are also blessed by the Idols of Devi Parvati and Maha Ganapati Deva. Inside the cave, one truly feels ecstatic and peacefully tranquil!

Annavaram: Distant by 80 km from Rajamundry and 125 km from Vishakhapatnam on Ratna giri hills on the banks of Pampa River, ‘Anna varam’ literally meaning ‘The Boon of whatever one wishes for’ is the Temple of Veera Venkata Satya Narayana and Devi Ananta Lakshmi Satyavati- both as the Symbols of the Supreme Deity of Satya or Truth. To reach the Temple up by the hill are some 428 steps and it was conceived as of the form of a Chariot with four wheels at the corners; in front of the entrance there is a Kalyana Mandapa leading to the Sanctum up by stairs is the Main Idol and the two shrines of Vana Durga and Kanaka Durga. While the ground level presents ‘Pada darshana’ or the vision of the Feet of the Lord, the upper portion is the upper part of body part of the Lord with an impressive moustache. The legendary background of the Temple is that both Meru the tallest mountain in the Universe and his wife Menaka performed unusual penance to Lord Vishnu and the latter was pleased and granted the benediction of two sons viz. Bhadra and Ratnakara. Both the sons in turn performed Tapasya and by the grace of Bhagavan Vishnu Bharda took the form of Bhadrachalam as the personification of Shri Rama and Ratnakara as Satya Narayana. To day Annavaram has come to pick up ever growing visitorship with year round Kalyanas, Special Kalyanas in May, Devi Navaratra Festival in September, Shravana Shuddha Ekadashi celebrations, Prabha and Teppa Utsavas, and Jala torana festivity.

Bhadrapalama: Based on a dream by a female devotee of Lord Shri Rama named Pokala Dammakka that three Swayambhu or self manifested Vigrahahas of Shri Rama, Devi Sita and Lakshmana were lying in the jungles of Bhadragiri hills, Bhakta Rama Das viz. Kancherla Gopanna- the nephew of Akkanna the Financial Controller of the Court of Nawab Tanisha-built a Grand Temple in 1620 AD patly financed by donations and largely out of a loan from the Treasury of Tanisha which could be repaid and thus got imprisoned and subsequently repaid to Tanisha by two youthful Princes presumed as Rama and Lakshmana themselves. The Temple faces west to the banks of River Godavari at Bhadrachalam, some 35 km from Kottagudem, 120 km from Khammam, 160 km from Rajamandry and 325 km from Hyderabad in the Telangana Region of Andhra Pradesh. The Deity is seated in Padmasana posture with legs crossed carrying in four arms the Shankha-Chakra-Gada-Sarangas with Devi Sita and Lakshmana on either side. The Temple stands on a three pillar structure with inscriptions from Ramayana written by Ramadas. There are two Kshetra Palakas of the Temple viz. Yogananda Jwala Lakshmi Narasimha and Anna Purna sahita Vishweshwara Shiva. There are also the Shrinages of Vinayaka and of Nava Grahas. Annual Kalyanotsavas on the eve of Shri Rama Navami in March-April and Vaikuntha Ekadashi Mukkoti celebrations in Dec- Jan when the darshan is through ‘Vaikuntha dwaara’ are such huge draws of visitorship comparable only at Tirupati-Tirumala. In Bhadrachala itself are the other important Temples of Abhaya Anjaneya, Raja Rajeswari, Ayyappa, Sai Baba, Harnath Baba, Venkateswara and Govinda Raja. At Places nearby by a distance of 35 km is the Parna shala where Maricha enticed Devi Sita asking Rama to follow and Ravanasura kidnapped her. Two other Places to visit are Jataayu paaka some 2km away where the giant bird Jatayu recognised Sita being abducted and Rekka palli some 55 km far where Ravana killed Jatayu in a fierce fight. In essence, Bhadrachala is as significant a Kshetra of Shri Rama as Tirumala is for Lord Vekateshwara in terms of crowd pulling and Temple prosperity.

Chennai: The illustrious Capital of Tamilnadu is famed as the cultural hub of religion, fine arts especially of vocal and instrumental music, and the Southern way of tradition and simplicity. The city is popular for Kapileswhara Temple with Maha Linga, and separate shrines for Devi Parvati and Lord Subhrmanya besides of the idols of Nataraja, Nayanars / Shiva Bhaktas, Ganesha, Dakshina Murti, Navagraha Complex, and Mayureshwara Linga and Devi Parvati being worshipped by Mayura hence the name of Mailapura as situated in the City. Chidambaram: Located from some 150km from Chennai, Chidambaram-‘Chit Ambara’- is the reputed Shiva Sthaana hosting the unique Nata Raja manifestation of Maha Deva and the Akasha Linga, being one of the Pancha Bhutas viz. Prithivi-Aapas-Tejas-Akasha. As Akasha (Sky) is represented here, Prithvi Linga is at the Ekambareswara Temple at Kanchi pura, Aapas or Jala Linga at Tiruvanaikkaaval, Agni Linga at Annamalai- all in Tamilnadu and Vayu Linga at Kalahasti in Andhra Prades; as to why Chidambaram is the Abode of Nata Raja as also of the Shiva Linga the legend explains as follows: Once Parama Shiva decided to test the efficacy of the Mantras, Nitya Karmanas, Homa Karyas, and austerities being observed steadfastly and in extremities by Sages, even non-disregarding the ultimate objective of accomplishing the Supreme Paramatma. He donned the form of a Bhikshu or mendicant and asked Vishnu to assume the forms of two damsels of extraordinary beauty and grace of Mohini the Enchantress. The disturbed Sages from their rituals used Mantras to create poisonous snakes and released them but Maha Deva wore them all over his body as ornaments. The Sages materialised cruel animals like tigers but Shiva donned as tiger skins around his waist. They created fierce wild elephants and like killing Gajasura he smashed all the wild elephants and wore elephant skins around. As a last resort, the enraged Munis created a huge devil called Muyalakan with all their Mantra Shakti but Shiva immobilised him and having assuming a mild smile performed Tandava Dance by filling up the Sky when the Sages prostrated and realised the excessive and limitless rituals would be counter productive for Realisation. Historical references of the Chidambara Temple as evidenced in Tamil literature date back 7th century AD and available inscriptions eesablish that CholaKings were the active builders of the Temple complex over a sprawling 40 acre area in the heart of the City. The main Mandir is of Nataraja Shiva inside the fifth enclosure; at the third enclosure after the entrance has Ganesh Mandir and at the end of the fourth enclosure is large Nandi as also a few smaller Mandirs also. Facing the Main Mandir and within the fourth enclosure itself is a Sabha Mandapa around which are smaller temples and ahead of the Mandapa is a gold coloured pillar; the high rise Main Mandir’s entry gate lead one to the Golden Murti of ‘Natya bhangima’ Nataraja or dance posed Shiva, with his right foot raised posturing typical ‘tandava natya mudra’ surrounded by golden idols of Parvati also of celestial music experts Tumbura, Naradaadis. To the side of the Nataraja there is a block of Yantra and on it a blue coloured Akasha Lingas which are visible clearly at the timings of Abhisheka on the mornings and nights, one being of Sphatika and another of Nila Mani, besides which is southward Shankha: the Sphatikamani Murti is called Chandra-mouleeswara and the Neelamani Murti is named Ratnasabhapat/ As one climbs down steps at the exit and secures darshan of Nataraja, one finds Govindaraja Mandir in which Narayana is as of sesha shayi posture, besides Lakshmi and other Parikrama Idols; there is also a separate Lakshmi Mandir in which the Idol is named Pundarikavalli. In the fourth enclosure are the Murtis of Bhagavan Shankara with Parvati seated on his lap. Besides, Hanuman’s siver Murti, Nava Grahas and 64 Yoginis are placed. There is an independent Mandir of Devi Parvati in the south west of the fourth enclosure. To the north of the fourth enclosure there is another Mandir of Nataraj, before which is the Sabha Mandapa, as also many Shankara maya Linga vighrhas and among these is the Moola Vighrah of Chidambara, whose side are placed th Murtis of Sages Vyagrapaaada and Patanjali whose deep veneration led to Shankar’s appearance and the performance of Tandava Nritya or the dance of ecstasy, besides the gifting of Tandava Nataraja, since installed as the Adi Deva Shankara! Outside the two enclosures of the main Mandir is the Shiva Ganga sarovara called Hema Pushkarini and Shiva Kaami Sundari Parvati Mandir, opposite which is the Subrahmany Mandira where the Lord is known as Mayura Swai Kartikeya. Crossing the Shiva Ganga Sarovara is the Sabha Mandapa called Sahasra Stambha Mandapa. The nearby Tirtha places are Tiruvetkalam where Arjuna secured Pashupatastra from Maha Deva a two Temples of Shankara and Parvati are in Position; Varemaadevi with Varema Devi with Veda Narayana Mandiras; Vriddhachalam where Vibhoshita Rishi worshipped Maha Deva and a Shiva Linga-Parvati Temple was built; Shiayali where Brahma Purishwara Shiva Mandir where Brahma Purishwara Shiva Linga and Tripurasundari Devi Mandir are in position, where the illustrious Shaivacharya named Tirujnaana Sambandha worshipped and drank Devi Parvati’s breast milk and Maha Deva himself administered Jnaanopadesha; Vaideeshwara Koel where Vaidyanatha Linga, Bhagavati Parvati, Swami Kartika Mandirs are in position and this Place is noted for Bala Mundana Samskara for which parents from far and near take their children for the same.
Tiruvenkadu also called Swetaranya where Aghora Murti Mandira presents Maha Deva’s Roudra Swarupa is the Main Deity; Maruttwasura the son of Jalandhaasura harassed Devas who prayed to Mahadeva and the latter commissioned Nandiswara who in turn lifted up and threw away the Asura into the High Seas; the cowardly and schemy Asura made an appeal to Maha Deva without the knowledge of Nandeeshwara and the merciful Parama Shiva gifted a Trishula to him. But the wily Asura attacked Nandi with the Trishula thus gifted by Shiva receded and brought the fact of Trishula being used against Nandi himself but meanwhile Nandi found his own tail was damaged by the Trishula! On knowing of this, Shiva was infuriated on knowing this and having assumed the Swarupa of Aghora Swarupa and instantly killed the Asura. As this legendary background was dug up in the form of an ancient rock in Tamil, a Chola King raised a Mandir of Aghora Roudra Shiva and gifted a golden vessel for regular worship besides a Padmaraaga Mani chain to the Lord. Mayavaram which is about 15 km from Chidambaram also known locally as Tirumayilaaduturai is known for Mayureshwara Shiva Linga Mandir and Abhayamba Devi Parvati also called Anchala Devi. The Story believed locally is that at the time of Daksha Yagna when Rudra Ganas were devastating the Yagna, a Female Peacock got frightened and requested for the protection of Devi Sati. The latter while jumping into the Homa Kunda recalled the request of the bird and assumed the form of Mayuri or Peacock and worshipped Maha Deva. Subsequently the Mayuri assumed the form of Devi Parvati. Since Parvati had earlier assumed the form of Mayuri and provided Abhaya or Fearlessness Devi Parvati had since been known as Abhayambika

Chilkur-Balaji Temple on the banks of Osmania Sagar in Hyderabad itself popular as Visa Balaji the bestower of boons especially foreign visits attracts millions of visitors every year. The Temple is a rare example of those exceptional few in Bharat which is neither under Government control nor accepts donations in ‘hundis’ as all Temples in Bharat do and also dis-allows Special Treatment to select public personalities. The legend behind this Temple is as follows: Lord Venkatseshwara at Tirumalai Hills near Tirupati appeared in their dreams to an old couple devotees- who were regular visitors from the jungles of Andhrapradesh to Balaji all along for their lifetime but since unable to do any further- and assured that they need not do so as Balaji and his consorts Sri Devi and Bhudevi would arrive there itself near a specific mole hill area in the jungles! The couple organised search teams and dug up while they discovered to their amazement and shock of their life time hit a solid single rock which carried a Stone Idol of Lord Ventateshwara with Sri Devi and Bhudevi on either side; but there was ozing of blood near the chin and chest but the blood flow subsided gradually and the idols were installed in a thached hut as the villagers found the miracle of blood coming out of rock! The word went around the villages and reached the Akkanna Bukkanna brothers, the uncles of Bharachala Rama Das and they installed the idols in proper and befitting vedic manner in a large temple complex. Eversince then, the popularity of the Temple gained rapid momentum and as of now some thousands of visitors-reaching beyond the level of lakh plus, by weekends, get attracted. The devotees thronging the Temple usually perform 11 pradakshinas for the fulfillment of their specific desires ranging for travel overseas for higher studies and employment opportunity, matrimonials, improvement of health and so on. Once their vows are fulfilled then the visitors perform 108 circumambulations by way of thanks giving and asking for fresh favours. The numerical 11 at the request stage signifies: 1 for Soul and another 1 for Body and Soul Fullment; on achievement of the desires concerned the 108 figure signifies as follows: 1 for the blessing desired- 0 or Zero signifying Maya of human existence and the numerical 8 denotes the eight body parts. While performing 108 pradikshinas the respective Mantras to be recited are as follows: Om Namo Venkateshaya Namah/ for success in business; Om Namo Aksharaaya Namah for success in studies; Om Bhuta Bhavyaya Namah for good health; and Om Prathamaya Namah for Self-Improvement and Contentment.

Dakor: Some 90 km off Ahmedabad the Capital City of Gujarat Dakor is a great attraction to Yatris, most essentially the Rancchodraya Mandir. As to how Rancchod Krishna was transferred from Dwaraka to this Place has already been explained in describing the Dwaraka reference above. Dakor’s extraordinary devotees named Vijaysingh Bodaana and his wife Gangu bhai always used to literally measure the miles of distance from Dakor to Dwaraka back twice a year to bring ‘Tulasi Dala’ to place at the feet of Dwarakaadheesh earlier called Rancchod Bhagavan twice a year for 82 years. As the couple became too old still persisting the yatras, Bhagavan had extreme compassion and told them that then on wards there was no need to visit him but would himself come to Dakor. Then Bhagavan Rancchod travelled by a bullock cart and the royal couple installed the Pratima at Dakor itself to facilitate them to worship eversince till their final departure and absorbed them into Vaikuntha! This appears to have occurred in 1212 AD. and eversince then Kartika Purnima celebrations have never stopped there after. Meanwhile the Bodana Murti of Rancchod was stolen and was hidden locally. Once the Dwaraka Pujari visited once to Dakor and identified the Murti there but out of avarice aged to exchange it against that much of gold in weight even as it actually weight to a Tulasi Leaf and the nose jewel of the wife of Bodana Chief’s wife; simultaneously the Dwarakaadheesha appeared in the dreams of the Dwaraka Pujari and summoned him to return to Dwaraka forthwith and some six months later the Murti was recovered from a well in Dwaraka itself and that Murti was finally installed in Dwaraka Kshetra! Besides on all the Purnima days of the year, Sharad Purnima celebrations at Dakor are so significant and crowded that special buses and railways have to be organised especially from important cities, towns and villages of Gujarat, Rashasthan and Maharashatra.Besides Rancchod Mandir, the other important Places to be visited are Gautami Sarovar, Maakhani Aaro where the Bodani Chief’s wife used to tender with her own hands butter balls to Bhagavan and even now the processions from Dakor are halted at this place and naivedya is offered with sweetened butter and distributed! The processions are also necessarily halted at Lakshmi Mandir on the banks of Gomati Talaab. Galteshwar is some 15-16 km away from Dakor and its ‘Shikhar’ fell down long ago and is approachable by broken roads but the Mandir as such is full of life with a sparkling Shiva Linga and now the abode of several Sadhus and yogis with wall paintings of Murtis facing a canal called Galti merging into Mahi River. This was the famed Galva Maharshi’s Ashram, referred to in Puranas. Many visitors from not only Dakor but Anand the big township called the Milk City of India.

Dharmasthala: Situated on the banks of River Netravali originating from the Western Ghats and merging into the Arabian Sea is the Dharmam Kshetra the abode of Manjunatheshwara which is some 45 km from Mangalore. Adi Shankaracharya installed Manju natheshwara Shiva Linga originally but subsequently an ardent disciple of Udipi’s Madhvacharya who shifted from Udipi influenced the methodology of Dwaita Dharma in the various rituals and eversince the Worship procedure got transformed. In connection with the festival on Kartika Krishna Dashami through Amavasya, a LakshaDeepa danotsava is celebrated attracting Shiva Baktas in the Dwaita Siddhanta in thousands as also a Sarva Dharma Sammelan is organised too. Coinciding with Mesha Sankramana day festivities, Manjunatha Ratha Yatra is celebrated.

Gaya: A number of Puranas like Padma Purana, Agni Purana, Vayu Purana, besides Maha Bharata’s Tirtha Yatra Phala asserted: Yeshtavyaa bahuhwah putraa yadyekopi Gayam vrajet, Yajeta vaashwa – medhena neelam neelam vaa vrushamutsrujet/ (One should aspire for the births of many sons so that atleast one could perform a Horse Sacrifice or at least a ‘ Blued coloured Vrishabha Visarjana’ or a bull’s freedom, being desirous of redemption of the Pitru). Maha Bharata’s Tirtha Yatra chapter sates: Tato Gayam samasaadya Brahma chari samahitah, Ashwamavaapnoti gamanadeva Bharata/ Atraakshasaya vato naama lokeshu vishrutah, Pitrunaam tatra vai dattamakshayam bhavatiPrabho/ Maha nadyamapa-sprushya tarpayet Pitru Devataah, Akshayaanaapnuyaalokaankurlam chaiva samuddbhavet/ (Thus those visiting Gaya Kshetra, observing Brahmacharya or celibacy shall reap the fruits of executing Ashwa - medha Yagna; then at the Akshayavata there which is reputed in the Three Lokas make what ever offerings to Pitru Devas are made would have everlasting fruits. There itself after performing formal snaana in the Maha Nadi and execute Deva-Pitru Tarpanas would fetch access to Akshaya Lokas and redeem the souls of the dead pitrus of their respective ‘Kulas’. Vayu Purana in the Chapter relating to Gaya Tirtha Mahatmya asserts: Gayaayaam nahi tat snaanam yatra Tirtha na vidyate, Saamidhyam sarva tirthaanaam Gayaa tirtham tato varam/ Brahma jnaanena kim saadhyam gogruhe maranena kim,Vaasena kim Kurukshetre yadi putro Gayaaam vrajet/ ( There is no other Place or Tirtha like Gaya since all theTirthas are as though so intimate and near to Gaya Tirtha. Among the four major means of Mukti are accomplishment of Brahma Jnaana, Kurukshetra nivasa, termination of one’s life in a Cow shed and Pindadaana by one’s own sons at Gaya!) The legend of Gaya Tirtha is recalled in Agni Purana in the Tirtha Mahatmya: Gayasura, the King of Rakshasaas did fierce Tapasya to Maha Vishnu as the latter granted him the boon of materialising a Maha Tirtha by Gayasura’s name. All the human beings and Asura-Daityaaidi had the darshan of Gauasura and reached Vaikuntha as who ever had his darshan did not have to visit none else to achieve Vaikuntha. Devas and Bahma Deva approached Vishnu as the latter advised to approach Gayasura to let Brahma and Devas perform yagna over Gayasura’s huge head. Gaya was in deep sleep and did not respond but still Brahma and Devas were in the process of executing the Yagna and could not perform ‘Purnaahuti’the grand finale of the Yagna was still pending. Meanwhile when Gayasura woke up and wished to get up but could not.The Asura became shaky and tried hard to wriggle out from the fire pit, Vishnu advised Yama dharma Raja to keep a heavy boulder on Gaya’s head and occupy the Asura’s entire body of some eight km. of length till the purnahuti was over. The heavy boulder itself had a background connection: Maharshi Marichi the son of Brahma Deva was once resting in sleep and instucted his wife called Dharmavata to press his legs and not disturb his sleep other wise she would turn as a boulder. Meanwhile Brahma arrived and the wife faced a dilema whether she should obey her husband’s instruction not to disturb or announce the arrival of Brahma himself. She set aside Marichi’s curse even as she faced the eventualty of her turning as a boulder. She gave a return curse to Marichi to have created an awkward situation for her that Marichi would have to face Maha Deva’s wrath in some another connection and entered Agni and purified herself performing tapsya for thousand years. Lord Vishnu thus took advantage of the boulder which was blessed with the foot prints of Devas and utilised for Yama dharma Raja to place it on Gayasura’s head which eventually became famed as Deva Shila-Sarva Deva Swarupa- Sarva Tirtha mayi-and the unique Pujnya Shila. Even after the Shila was placed on his head the Asura was still breathing and hence Vishnu had to place on his ‘Gada’ or Mace to fully sniff him out by adding his own presence to this Gaya Tirtha. This ‘Adi Gada’ was the bakbone of Gajasura which was eventually turned by Deva’s Architect Vishwa karma. The most outstanding PitruTirtha in the Universe, to which the Pitru Loka keeps close attention to look forward to the sons of mankind looks forward to Shraddha karmas and Pinda daanas. These Karmas not only redeem the souls of the ancestors by their performance but equally to collect bags of fulfillment to the Shraddha Kartas as far higher proportions manifold. The significant Places worthy of visit at Gaya are Phalgu River which is filled up only during the monsoon season essentially and is situated under the Gada -dhara Mandira quite adjacent to its sangama with Dakshina Saraswati. Next to Mangala Gauri hill is another such hill where there is a Hanuman Sthaan and Kund which is called Akasha Ganga and underneath the hill is Patala Ganga and Kapila dhaara. Godavari/ Gautami: A legend related to the formation of a Jyotirlinga at Brahmagiri was the interface of Lords Brahma and Vishnu vis-à-vis an appearance of a Fire Column whose height and depth could not be ascertained by both of them; Brahma’s cover-up story was that he found out the height of the Column and cited a Ketaki flower as a witness. Bhagavan Siva gave a curse to Brahma that there would not be worship of the former and Brahma gave a return curse that Lord Siva would be pushed underground. Hence the manifestation of Tryambakeswara under the Brahmagiri. The Jyotirlinga is of a small size in a depression on the floor with water oozing out constantly from the top. The force of waves of the River appears to be as per the intensity of the prayers of Sage Gautama according to the conviction of devotees in the Temple! Major Tirthas (Tanks) in the Temple are named Gangadwara representing the source of Ganga (Godavari), Varaha Tirtha where Lord Vishnu had a bath in the River in Varaha Rupa (appearance as Boar) and Kushvartha Tirtha considered as the most significant as Sage Gauthama spread across Kusha or Darbha Grass while securing the waters of Ganga. There are also other Tirthas like Gangasagara, Bilva Tirtha, Indra Tirtha, Vishwanath Tirtha, Mukund Tirtha, Prayag Tirtha, Rama Kund, Lakshmana Kund and so on. Chakra Tirtha, which is some 2-3 km away from Triambakeshvara near Kushavarta is the precise origin of Sacred Godavari’s ‘pratyaksha udgama’ or readily visible origin of Godavari that flows into Nasik. Among the Shrines at Triayamakeshwara Mandir are of Kedarnath, Rameshwar, Gauthameshwar, Kasi Viswanatha, Jareswar, Kanchanpeswar, Tribhuneswar, Venkateshwar, and Hanuman. There are daily worships at the Main Temple thrice and the nightly ‘arthies’ are special. On Mondays there are special ‘abhishekas’, ‘arthies’, ‘Parikramas’. Kartika month worships are important, especially Kartika Purnima. Gangavataraana is celebrated in the month of Magha. Simhasta Parvani is held once in twelve years.

Godavari Mahatmya: Tato Gadaavarim praapya nitya siddha nishevitaam, Rajasuya maapnoti Vayu Lokam cha gacchati/ (Maha Bharata extols the Mahatmya of Gautami River as the everlasting provider of Siddhis besides the maha phala of performing Raja suya Yagna and bestowing the Vayu Loka prapti). Brahma Purana explains further: Amritam Jahnavi toyam swarnamuchyate, Amritam gobhavam chaajyamamritam Soma yevacha, Gangaayaa vaarinaajyena hiranyena tathaiva cha, Sarvebhyop yaa - dihikam divyamaritam Goutami jala./ (It is stated that Ganges water is like gold, it is also said that pancha gavyas, Soma Yagnas are more valuable, but far more than Ganges water or gold, or even the pancha gavyas and Soma Yagnas, Godavari water is the best Amritam ever). Sapta Godavarim snaatwaa niyato niyataashanah, Maha punyamavaapnoti Devalokam cha gacchati/ (Those who bathe in and drink the waters of ‘Sapta Godavari dhaaras’- comprising Vasishtha, Kaushiki, Vriddha Goutami, Goutami, Bharadwaaji, Atreyi and Tulya- are indeed blessed with Maha Punya and attain Deva Lokas).

Details of Gautami Ganga (Godavari River) and its magnificence are detailed in Brahma Purana in a full chapter as Maharshi Gautam was indeed responsible to have meditated intensely for several years and pleased the ever merciful Maha Deva to let the flows of the celestial water come down to Earth in the form of Godavari as narrated here under:As Bali Chakravarti’s some of the Sankalpa Jala to donate the proverbial Three Feet to Vamana Deva fell on Shiva’s jataajuta, there were too recipients of that Sacred Water on Earth viz. a Maharshi called Gautama and King Bhagiratha of Surya Vamsha. Thus Ganga from Shiva Jatajuta took two manifestations, one as Ganga and another as Gautami. While Bhagirathi Ganga’s origin as was materialized by King Sagara’s descendant Bhagiratha and his tenacious efforts by meditation to Vishnu, Ganga Devi and Parameswara was well described in various Puranas, detailed account was provided in Brahma Purana about Gautami Ganga or the Dakshina Ganga. When Gautama reached atop Kailasha Mountain, he extolled Parama Shiva and the latter was pleased with the Maharshi’s Tapasya, Bhakti, Vrata and Stuti and gave Darshan to Gautama. As Mahadeva asked the Maharshi as to what was his wish, Gautama requested Bhagavan that a part of Ganga that was absorbed in Shiva jatajuta be please spared to fall on Brahmagiri so that in the interest of devotees who crave for a Sacred River, Ganga the Great Purifier should flow at least before enter the Sea and the Public would get a chance to sanitise themselves of their sins atleast at that Place. Shiva readily agreed to Gautami’s request in Public interest in that Region and affirmed that Gautami Ganga would most certainly be a very popular and Sacred River; as the prayed to Parama Paavani Ganga to descend from Maha Deva’s jataajuta, he first took her to wash Bhagavan Traimbeswara’s feet and requested Bhagavan to prescribe the Puja Vidhi of Bhagavan. At the outset a devotee was required to perform Nandimukha Shraddha, satisfy Brahmanas with Bhojana Dakshinas, and take holy bath in Godavari, distribute Vastras and cash to Sadhus and the Poor and practice japa- homa- Puja as prescribed and thus complete the Tirtha Yatra with the Parama Manthra OM Namassivaaya with veneration and faith. Also perform Snaana and Puja at the Confluence Points of Trishna, Bhimarathi and Tungabhadra. Maha Deva blessed the sprawling Gautami and hailed it as his personal favourite with several names such as Maheswari, Ganga, Gautami, Vaishnavi, Godavari, Nanda, Sunanda, Kamadayani, Brahma Teja Samaaneeta and Sarva Paapa Pranashini. Brahma described to Narada Muni about various Sacred Tirthas that came up on the banks of the long Gautami Ganga: Vaaraahi Tirtha at Triamabaka Kshetra was the gift of Varaahaavatara of Vishnu who killed a Raakhasa named Sindhusena who defeated Indra and other Devas and obstructed the performance of Yagnas-the life line of Devas, the fruits of which were discarded in Rasatala; the blood of the Daityas, Danavas and Rakshasas headed by Sindhusena was washed in the Rasatala Ganga and Maha Yagnas were conducted again where Vaaraaha Titha was originated. Another Tirtha called Kushaavarta came to be formed in Triambaka to enable worship to Pitra Shraarthas and Tarpanas that emerged from Nilaparvatas in the Region popularly known as Nila Ganga. Kapota Tirtha had the back-ground of a hunter who was in the habit of killing several animals and caged many birds for his food daily; once he was caught badly in severe rain and rested under a Banyan Tree when he saw a male bird on the tree recognized a female bird in the hunter’s net; as the male bird found that the hunter was shivering with cold and suffering the pangs of hunger. The female bird inside the net requested the male bird on the tree to collect figs and some fire from a distance by its beak holding a fig and thus producing a fig-lit fire to jump in and satisfy his hunger and warm up his body- shiver from the fire! The hunter was ashamed of his past killings and was taught a lesson as he prayed to Mahadeva to absolve him of his past sins and converted himself as a saint eventually. Later on as he died, Bhagavan granted the Kapota, the Kapoti and the Hunter-converted as Saint and a Sacred Titha came up as a Symbol of Sacrifice by the Kapota birds and the penance of the Hunter! The Kapota Tirtha snaan is till date known as a Provider of Ashwamedha Yagna Phala and Salvation. The origin of Dashaashwametha Tirtha was that a King called Bhouvan desired to perform Ten Ashwamedha Yagnas simultaneously and engaged Kashyapa Muni for the purpose but there were some hurdles or other although tried many Tirthas like Prayaga and Kashyapa made an appeal to Brahma who recommended Gautami banks in Dakshina Bharata and finally succeeded performing the Ten Yagnaas side by side and after successful completion organized Anna daanaas to lakhs of poor persons and gave away Brahmama daanaas. It is stated that till date the Tirtha continued to be famed for Yagnas and Annadaanas and those who performed sacred bathings at the Tirtha would secure Yagna Phalas. The background of Paishacha Tirtha on the banks of Godavari related to Kesari the illustrious follower of Shri Rama along with other Vaanaraas of Kishkindha headed by Sugriva. Kesari had two wives viz. Anjana and Adri, both being Apsaras cursed by Indra to become a female monkey and a female cat respectively in the form of Mountains. But for their faces both the women had attractive physiques. As both the Devis approached Agastya Muni the latter blessed them and Devi Anjana gave birth to Hanuman Deva with the blessings and Amsha of Vaayu Deva and Devi Adri gave birth to a King of Piscachaas with the blessings and of Nrruti Deva. The Paishacha Tirtha thus came to name and fame and not far from it known as Hanuma Tirtha and Vrishakapi Tirthaa which enjoyed considerable popularity as Hanuman had been a symbol of intrepidity, invincibility and unflinching loyalty who continued to be an Ever-living and legend in the Immortal Epic of Ramayana. Brahma affirmed that Pancha Tirtha was the Point of Confluence of his own progeney viz. Savitri, Gayatri, Shraddhhaa, Medhaa and Saraswati and these were all connected to Bhagavati Ganga; snanaaS in Pancha Tirtha, followed by Pujas and Daanaas would fully relieve several problems and insurmountable difficulties are overcome as though those never existed. All along the banks of Gautami Ganga were dotted several Tirthas of renown due to their association of Devas, human beings, Maharshis and of Rakshasaas, Apsaras, who were all the Great Devotees of the Almighty despite their erstwhile past or because of it. Such Tirthas included Kshudhaa Tirtha, Ahalya Tirtha, Ashva Tirtha, Bhanu Tirtha, Aruna-Varuna sangama, Garuda Tirtha, Govardhana Tirtha, Indra'Tirtha, Rumna Vimochna Tirtha, Chakra / Dadhichi Muni Tirtha, Pancha Tirtha, Pururava Tirtha, Naga Tirtha, Maatru Tirtha, Avighna Tirtha, Sesa Tirtha, Shanaishchara Tirtha, Soma Tirtha, Dhanya Tirtha, Vidarbha Sangama and Revati Sangama Tirthas, Shri Rama Tirtha and so on. All these Tirthas provide multiple benefits of self-confidence, courage, knowledge and sin-dismoothing. While the various Tirthas have been described as above in Brahma Purana, those mentioned in Maharashtra are identified include: Panchavati cluster or Rama Temples, Naroshankar Temple, Sundar Narayana Temple, Modakeshwara Temple, Gangeshwara Veda Mandir and Mukti dhaam Temple all in Nashik itself; besides Ekanatha Shrine in Paithan etc. In Andhra Pradesh, the Tirthas on the banks of Godavari are the famed Annavaram Satya Narayan a Temple, Dwarka Tirumala, Draksha Rama, Kotilinga Pushkara, exclusive Shani Temple in Konaseema, Bhadrachala Rama Mandir etc.

Gangotri and Yamunotri: Several and detailed references have been made in Brihaddhama Purana, Maha Bhatata Vana Parva, Padma Purana, Skanda Purana, Brahma Purana, Vishnu Purana, Devi Bhagavata, BrahmaVaivarta Purana, Agni Purana, Matsya Purana, Brahma Mandura Purana, Vayu Purana, Skanda Purana and so on. In fact, Skanda Purana has also provided Ganga Sahasra Naama highlighting Devi Ganga Mahatmya. Na Ganga sadrushedh tirtham na Devah Keshavaatparah/ says Padma Purana. Maha Bhagavata describes as follows: Dhatuh kamandalujalam tadurukamasya paadaavanejana pavitrayaa Narendra, Swadhurnyana –bhasi saa patati nimaarshi Lokatrayam Bhagavatovishdeva keertihi/(Bhagavati Ganga which originated from the left thumb of the Holy feet of Vishnu’s three legs spread over the total universe occupying Earth-Higher and Lower Lokas got materialised to wash off the sins of all beings). From Brahma Loka to Himalayas it appeared in streams called Sita, Alaknanda, Chakshu and Bhadra flowing in four directions; the grand and gigantic flow of Alaknanda jumped down the heights of Hemakuta and other mountains towards the southern direction and finally merges into the Great Oceans. The specific Place where Ganga is originated that is Gangotri, is the ideal Place where tarpanas and upavasas are performed and by observing these duties human beings there stated to have accrued the Vajapeya Yagna phala and acquire Brahmata: Gangodbhedam samaasadaya triratroposhito Narah, Vajapeyamaapnoi Brahma bhuto bhavet sadaar While Ganga is stated to be pure and hallowed, the three Maha Tirthas are stated to be Gangotri, Prayaga and Ganga Sagara or the exit point of merger with the Seas: Trishu snaaesu durlabha, Gangodbabhe de Prayage Ganga Saagra sangame/Talking about the dos and dont’s of Ganga Snana, Brahma Mandura Purana emphasises as follows: Achamana, Shoucha, nirmalya-mala visarjana, gatra samvahana, kreeda, pratigraha, rati, anya tirtha bhaava, anya tirtha prashamsha, samtaara or swimming, malotsarga are the twelve tasks to be avoided in Ganga. But most desirable tasks in Ganga are Pitru tarpana with tila mixed water, dahana samskara, tata nivasa or residing at the banks of Ganga Pravaha, Ganga keertana, dashana-sparsha-jala paana, mantra yuktA snana, upavaasa, Veda pathana, Purana shravana, nitya Ganga Smarana, Ganga Sahasra naama stotra, Ganga Vrataacharana, Indira nigraha, Dana prakriya, homaacharana, Sandhya Vandana, Dharmaacharana, and Bhakti bhava in general. Snaana- Tarpana-Pitru Karyaacharana on Solar and Lunar eclipse timings, janma dina worship, parva dina snaana-daana-homa kriyas are all stated to have far reaching phalas.
Conducting Yajnas would fetch outstanding results.

Yamunotri: Tapanasa sutaa Devi Tripulokeshu vishrutaa, Samaagataa Mahabhaga Yamunaa tatra nimmagaa/ Yenaiva nih suruta Gangaa tenaiva Yamunaa gataa, Yojanaanaam sahasreshu keertanaat papanashani/Tatra snaatwa cha peetwaa cha yamunaa yatra nisrutaa, Sarva paapaani nirmuktaah punaaTTYaa saptamam kulam, Praamanstyatjati yastatra sa yati paraamaam gatim/ Kurma Purana- Brahmi Samhita (Devi Yamuna the beloved daughter of Surya Bhagavan is renowned all over the Trilokas. She crosses the same path as that of Devi Ganga too. By taking her name even thousand yojanas away would bestow the devotees with destroy their blemishes. Once a person is fortunate to take bath or even drink her Sacred water would not only purify their minds and thoughts but even their entire vamsha for seven generations past would redeem their past births and souls. In case her devotees lose their lives, they would not be subjected to rebirths but would attain Salvation). Towards River Yamuna’s southern banks is situated the famed Agni Tirtha and to its western side is the sin destroying ‘A-naraka’ Tirtha dedicated to Yama Dharma Raja her own elder brother and the progeny of Devi Chhaya the alter ego or shadow of Sandhya Devi the wife of Surya Deva. A-naraka Snana ensures Swarga Nivasa and certain avoidance of Naraka after Mrityu which any way is a certainty. Those who perform Yama Tarpana on any Krishna Paksha Chaturdashi day after vidhi purvaka snana shall indeed bestow Maha Paataka Mukti. While human beings irrespective of their varnas or gunas shall reap the Phala of snanas at Prayaga Tirtha by ten thousand times more of snanas at other Tirthas, those at the A-naraka would fetch thirty crore such snanas at the other ordinary Kshetras.

Guruvayur: Some 30 km. away from Trissur is the most celebrated Krishna/ Vishnu Temple in Bharat, counted among the Pancha Maha Kesha Mandirs or the Five Outstanding Vishnu Temples viz. Jagannatha of Puri on Orissa; Dwarakaadhesha in Dwaraka, Gujarat; Nathwara Krishna in Rajasthan; and Venkateshwara Balaji in Tirupati, Andhra Pradesh and now the Guruvayur Ayyappan in Kerala. Guru-Vayu are the two Devas viz. Deva Guru Brihaspati and Vayu Deva were invoked by Sage Uddhava the close associate of Lord Krishna, at the time of destruction of the City of Maha Dwaraka as Yadava vamsha was destroyed and Lord Krishna too terminated his ‘Avatara’. Uddhava was shocked at the tide of events and more so the ancestral Pratima of Vishnu at his Dwaraka abode was found missing from his worship chamber. He was somehow able to salvage the Idol and prayed to Guru and Vayu. As per Bhakta Uddhava’s supplication they carried it along the coastal line and on way stopped over to witness the Shiv-Parvati Nrittya which was mesmerising even as they had the obligation to safe deposit the Vishnu Pratima some where properly. After theTandava of Shiva Parvati, they prostrated to them who asked them of the purpose for which they halted there. On knowing the purpose, Bhagavan Shiva heartily recommended that place where they themselves spent their soujourn at Rudratirtham the northern side of the Place they suggested the ‘Guru Vayu’ Place for the proposed Krishna Mandir suggested for installing Uddhava’s Vishnu Idol! Meanwhile Parashu Rama after witnessing the installation of Vadakkunatha Shiva Linga at Trissur was in search of a further Place for his Tapasya appeared and after prostrating Shiva Parvatis also endorsed the precise spot for the Guruvayur Krishna Temple. Rudra Tirtham eventually got dried up in parts and extended upto Mammiyur where there stands as Mammiyurappan Temple some 3 km distance away. This was because Prachetas the ten sons of King Prajinabarhi and Suvarna sang Rudra Gita a hymn in praise of Lord Vishnu and thus the Rudra Tirtham got extended till Mammiyurappan Shiva Temple. Guru and Vayu consulted Vishwakarma who created the original Guruvayur Temple. The Temple eventually became the nucleus of Dharma and magnificence of Vaishnava Karyas to such an extent that Narada Purana made elaborate references to the last days of Dwapara Yuga and Maha Bharata events: As King Parikshit died of Taksha Sarpa Raja and King Janamejaya performed Sarpa Yagna to avenge his father’s death in which thousands of serpents were called up and sacrificed till Brahmana Astika stopped the Yagna and Takshaka was saved, Janamejaya became a victim of incurable leprosy. Then Sage Atrey, the illustrious son of Atri Maharshi, counselled to visit Guruvayoor and worship Lord Krishna in the form of Guruvayurappan and fall on his feet till his cure; King Janamejaya rushed to that Temple and worshiped him for ten years. Finally he was cured of leprosy and called up Sage Atrey who showed signs of snake bite as that bite proved ineffective due to his saving the King by Ananta Maha Sarpa / Bala Rama, the brother of Lord Krishna! In course of time, the Temple was totally dilapidated and was in ruins. The King of Pandya desha was stated to have been cursed by Sarpa dosha and went on a TirthaYatra awaiting a specific day and time for his death. As he saw the ruins of Guruvayur, he decided to re-build trying to follow the original architectural grandeur and got involved so much that the day and time of what was suggested for the curse to happen was over and the Brahmans who made the calculations earlier for his death suggested that the impact of the curse was totally washed out by the fruits gained from the reconstruction of the Temple! It is also stated that Adi Shankara stayed at Guruvayur Krishna Temple for long and established the Puja Rituals since followed till date! The legend is that Adi Shankara and Sage Narada were travelling by the Sky on every Ekadashi in the Prabhata time well before sunrise and on one occasion Adi Shankara overshot and was about to miss the Temple, but the Lord pulled down the Acharya by his ears and the surprised Acharya found himself at the feet of of Guruvayurappan’s feet and the Acharya broke down into the recital of ‘Govindashtakam’. Indeed the Principles and details of Rituals laid down by Adi Shankaracharya are valid till date. The day starts with the the waking of the Lord with the melodious notes of Nadaswara followed by Nirmalya Darshana or the clearance of ‘Nirmalya’ of the previous night’s puja at 3am. Sriveli or taking the Utsava Vigraha around the Temple premises on decorated elephant is performed every day thrice. Dress code to seek darshan inside the Temple and the Sanctum is strictly enforced. Guruvayur Utsavas are for 10 days in the month of Kumbham (Feb-Mar) when Elephant race is a special draw; the Devasom maintains 45 andodd elephants donated by devotees. Guruvayur Ekadashi of Vrischika (Nov-Dec) is significant too. In fact, every Ekadashi is special, especially for Vilakku (Lighting) Puja.

Gokarna: Atha Gokarnamaasaadarya Trishu lokeshu vishrutam, Samudra madhye Rajendra Sarva loka namaskrutam/ Yatra Brahmaado Devaa Manushyascha tapodhanaah, Bhuta Yakshaah Pishasas -cha Kinnraah samagoragaah/ Siddha Chaarana Gandharvaah Maanushaah Pannagaasthadhhaa, Saritah Saagarah shailaa upaasita Umapatim/ Tareshaanam samabhyarcha Tri raatroposhito narah, Dashaaswedhaamaapnoti Gaanapatyam cha vindati/ Uposhya dwaadashaa raatram krutaartha jaayate narah, Tasminneva tu Gayatryaah sthaanam trilokya vishrutam/ Triraatramushitatatra gosahasra phalam labhet/ ( The fame of Gokarna is well known all over the Trilokaas, as greeted to all the Lokaas in the Sumudras. All the Loka are greeted to Maha Deva Shankara to whom Brahmaadi Devas, Tapodhan Rishis, Bhuta-Yaksha-Pischacha-Kinnara-Naaga-Siddha-Chaarana-Gandharva-Manushya-Saagara-Sarita-Parvataadis do always prostrate and worship. Among all these species who observe fasting for three nights at a stretch are stated to secure the performance of ten Ashwamedha Yagjna phala and a senior member of Shiva ganas and in the case of fasting twelve nights accomplish Shiva Sayuja itself! At Gokarna, the Place of Devi Gayatri who is the most revered and the most popular Deity among the three lokas and here if ove performs fasting for three nights continuously is stated to be eligible for achieving thousand Go-danaas!) The Gokarna Kshetra-one of the Mukti Kshetras acclaimed by Parashurama- which is situated in North Karnataka near Mangalore in Western India along with Karwar coast of Arabian Sea and Western Ghats, literally meaning the Cow’s ear, is the abode of Mahabaleshwar the Maha Deva of Physical strength. Lord Shiva emerged from the cow likened to Mother Earth and the shape of the Kshetra is of a ear too at the confluence of two rivers viz. Gangavali Aghanashani. Varaha Purana describes that Bhagavan Shankara assumed the form of a deer and moved around freely once; Brahma Deva, Indra and other Devas searched for Maha Deva but could not till they realised finally that Shiva assumed the swarupa of a deer. They tried to seize the horns but Shiva as the deer disappeared though the horns were caught. One horn was established at Gokarna, another at Bhagalpur, Bihar as Shringeshwara and the third at Indra Loka. Some other accounts of Puranas describe the legend that Sahyadri range of mountains at the reclaimed Sea shores lured Parashu Rama the Avatara of Vishnu from the Vindhya Range of mountains in central India after wielding his mighty axe killed Shriatriya Kings during some twenty one battles as the then Kings were ruthless disregard of the established norms of law and justice and harassed the elements of virtue and tolerance viz. their own common subjects and public. The tired Parashu Rama landed at Gokarna to rest after the bloody encounters and rested at Gokarna. Maha Bhagavata describes that Ravanasura, the Epic Villain of Ramayana, pleased Maha Deva and secured the boon of Shiva’s Atma Linga and desired to carry the Linga to his Kingdom in Lanka; Sage Narada scented about the boon given by Shiva to Ravana and got worried that the Asura would become immortal by worshipping the Atma Linga daily; he alerted Lord Vishnu who spread the net of Vishnu Maya and Ravana felt that evening was nearing for his Snaana-Sandhya Puja Vidhi; he beckoned a passer by cow herd boy to hold the Atma Linga just for a while but the boy- who actually was Lord Ganesha who was prewarned by Narada- replied that he was in a great hurry and could not wait but would call Ravana by his name thrice; even while Ganesha in disguise shouted Ravana’s name thrice, the latter just returned but the Atma Linga was kept on ground and the boy disappeared. He made all his efforts to lift up the Linga but to no avail. In the process of the struggle, only the top portion of the Linga fell at Gokarna and the rest of the pieces of the Linga were thrown away at Suratkal where Sadashiva Temple was built and other pieces fell on Sajjeshwara, Guneshwara and Dhareshwara some kms. of distances away, while the cloth covering the Atma Linga fell off at Mrideshwara called Marudeshwara at Kanduka Hill surrounded by three sides by Arabian Sea. Mahabaleshwar at Gokarna Kshetra has established great significance even as other places like Sajjeshwara.

Hampi: Near Hospet and Bellari in Karnataka on the border of Andhra Pradesh near Mantralaya on the banks of River Tungabhadra was the famed Capital of Vajyanagar Empire and the mammoth Virupaksha Temple and is well known of its architectural magnificence, especially the huge monolithic rock carvings of UNESCO World Heritage. Hampi is known for Virupaksha or Pampavati temple built in the ancient Hampi Bazar with its entrance of a staggering height of 160 ft or 49 mts. The Virupaksha Shiva Linga is indeed the outstanding attraction readily granting boons to the visitors of Hampi. The Badavi Linga, the temples of Chandramouleshwara, Raghunatha, Hazara Rama, Krishna, are notable. But the Vittala Temples is unique with a massive musical pillar mandapa or a raised platform and a of chariot carvings. Malavyaan Parvata also known as Sphatika Shila mountain, and Rishyamuka Parvata are in the vicinity. The entire atmosphere has a distinct feeling of wonder of the supremacy of the Vijayanagara Saamrajya and its inimitable pomp in the fields of art, architecture, and matchless presence of Krishnadeva Raya and his prosperity.

Harihara: On the line of Pune to Bangalore and the banks of Tungabhadra River is the ancient Harihara Kshetra known as Guharanya. In the past there was a Demon named Guha danava who used to often visit from the near by forests and harass and kill several cattle and men. The villagers and townsmen around in their daily worship to either Vishnu or Shiva as per their own faiths intensified their daily prayers since there were increasing killings of domestic animals and residents; a combined Swarupa of Hari and Hara named Harihara appeared at the specific request of Devas and Brahma and terminated the Danava to the great relief of the residents who raised a Temple at the Place with the Sacred Idol named Hari hara installed and observed ‘Rathotsava’ or Chariot Festival on every Magha Purnima, having bathed the Murti with Tunga bhadra waters as per appropriate Abhishka-Puja Vidhana in the midst of Veda Chantings. The Idol was prepared as per the Harihara swarupa that killed the demon viz. on the right side as Shiva with Rudraksha Makuta or head gear with half naked Gaja Charma or elephant skin around the waist and the left side as of Vishnu Swarupa with two hands as a raised hand adorned by chakra and on the hand below with an ‘abhaya’ mudra. On the banks of Tungabhadra are as many as eleven Tirthas like those of Brahma, Bhargava, Nrisimha, Gaalawa, Chakra, Rudra paada, Papanasha etc. Belur is situated on Harihara and Bangalore with the famed Chenna Keshava Mandir set up by Vishnuvardhana Hoysala King with a shape of a Nakshatra or Star on the sky but with a squarish open ‘Mandapa’ before the Main Deity of Chenna Keshava of some seven feet height with Bhudevi on his right side and Lakshmi Dev on his left of appropriate sizes and heights and the Lord has four hands adorned with Shankh-Chakra-Gada- Padmas. Besides the Main Mandir is that of Five Murtis viz. Ganesha, Sarasvati, Lakshmi Narayana, Lashmi Sridhar, and Mahashasuramardini.

Halebid Mandira: or by its old name of Dwara Samudra where on an elavated hill top, there is an awe inspiring, raised platform with a gigantic structure of 170 feet high, 122 feet width containing two Temple complexes dedicated to Hoyasaleshwara and Kedareshwara standing on pedestals of five feet height. The exterior walls of the structures have exquisite carvings of endless variety of depictions of Hindu mythology of animals, birds and dancing damsels. Before the Hoyasaleshwara Temple are two monolothic statues of Nandi of small size and a few steps down to the right is an Idol of Surya Deva inside a beautifully laid stone carvings on side walls of a semi-closed chamber. Some two furlongs of distance down the hillock with steps and sliding rock floor of shine are three Jain Mandirs of Parshava nath and 23 Tirtha Murtis; the second Mandir being of Adi natha and the third one being of Jai Tirthakar Shanti nath. Additionally on the hill of Yeneguda are Karikala Rudra and of Veerabhadra Mandirs. From a less than km. of distance in north west direction is a Bucheswar / Vishnu Pratimas as also a Narasimha Mandir, in North East is a Chatteshwar Mandir and so on.

Jambukeshwara: Of the Pancha Bhuta Lingas of Maha Deva viz. Chidambara, Tirivunnamalai, Ekambareshwara, Kalahasti is Jambukeshwara representing ‘Aapas’or water. Almost near Shrirangam, Jambukeshwara Linga facing a Mandapa of four hundred pillars, besides which is the ‘Teppaakula Sarovara, amid which another Mandapa is there and at the Festival of Vaikuntha Ekadashi, the Utsava Viraha of Lord Shri Ranga is taken out and seated at this Jaa Madhya Mandapa. Jambukeshwara Linga within the fifth enclosure of the Temple insalled under incessant flow of water often streaming outside the Sanctum and one could then sight only the top portion of the Jala Linga. Behind the Sanctum there is a very aged Jamun Tree and hence the Prefix Title of ‘Jambu’to Ishwara Linga. It is stated that Adi-Shankaraacharya perfomed Puja-Aaraathana to the Tree and in recen years Maha Swami of Kanchi Mutt who stayed at the Temple and on finding that this ancient tree was dried up badly, recited continuous Rudra Parayana for days and nights and ensured that the totally dried up tree gradually with small leaves and buds! Outside the Main Temple there is a Mandapa where several Murtis are kept as of Nataraja, Sumdrahamanya, Dakshina Murti. There s a separate Temple of Subrahmanyu too. Around the Main Temple there are also quite a few Mandapas like of Shulana, Shata stambha, Sahasra Stambha, Navaratri, Vasanta, Dhwaja stambha, Soma Skanda, Nataraja, Tri Murti, etc. Outside the Temple is a Jagadamba Mandira in which the Devi’s name is Akhilandeswari and right before it is a Ganesha Mandir. As the looks of Amba Devi were originally were so powerful and fierce earlier, Adi Shankaracharya during his visit here sought to lessen the looks of her by installing a Shri Yantra and install Ganesha Idol too. About the old Jamun tree at the temple, there was a legend of an elephant and a spider both of which were silent devotees of the Jambu Linga; every morning the elephant showered water on the Linga with its trunk and overnight the spider used to weave a web around the Linga Swarupa as its decoration around it. The enraged elephant tried to kill the spider but the latter entered the trunk and bit it so badly that the elephant died too. The ever merciful Jambukeshwara bestowed kailasa prapti to both the ardent devotees as both the affected parties were justified in their own ways! This story is scripted in Tamil on a pillar near tree!

Jogulamba: The Temple of Jogubamba at Alampur is indeed awe-inspiring in Andhra Pradesh which is some 27 km from Kurnool and 200 km from Hyderabad and is on the holy Sangama Sthaana of Rivers and Tungabhadra enclosing Nallamalla hills. This hallowed Kshetra is reckoned as one of the select 18 Shakti Peethas and the associated Shiva Swarupa is called Bala Brahmeshwara. It is stated that the upper jaw with the connected teeth got dropped at this very place. Devi Jogulamba is protected by the two Shaktis viz. Chandi and Mundi and is basically an Ugra Swarupa difficult to be pleased by ordinary kind of worship. She is seated as a figure of frightfulness with large and dishevelled hair punctuated with lizard, scorpion, bat and a human skull. The Vigraha which by itself is awe inspiring has accompanying Shaktis of Saptamatrikas viz. Brahmi, Vaishnavi, Maheshwari, Kaumari, Varahi, Chamudi and Narasimhi besides VeenaPanji Veerabhadra and Vighneswara. The total atmosphere is thus charged with awe and density. The Temple has other independent Mandirs of Kanchi Kamakshi, Bala Brahmeshwara Swami, and Nava Brahmatemples of Taraka, Swarga, Padma, Bala, Vishwa, Garuda, Kumara, Arka, Veera Brahma Swarupas. Yadairigutta is some 60 km from Hyderabad with the famed Lakshmi Narasimha cut out in a cave, mentioned in Skanda Purana as Rishi Aradhana Sthala popular as Vaidya Narasimha to cure chronic diseases due to adverse planetary effects. The legend states that Yadarishi, the son of Rishyshringa Maharshi did penances and the Lord appeared in five forms as Jwala, Yogananda, Gandabherunda and Ugra Swami and thus this Place is known as Pancha Nrisimha Kshetra!

Kaladi: ‘Kaal adi’ in Malayalam and Tamil literally means ‘Foot Step’ or ‘Foot Print’. The original name of Kaaladi was Shiva Rahasyam on the banks of River Purna now named Periyar. From the important Shornoor Railway Junction, Kaaladi is some 30 km via Angamaali Station, where a ‘Shrotriya’ or Vedic Brahmana couple called Shiva Guru and Aryamba. To recall a reference from Trissur Kshetra in this Script, the couple worshipped Vadukunatha Shiva Linga and prayed for an excellent son who would be an erudite Veda-Shastra Pandita; in their dreams Maha Deva gave an option of either a ‘Murkha’ or a useless and ignorant son with long life span or a very short lived but brilliant Vedic Brahmana and the combined desire was to grant the latter option. Thus was born Shankara but even at a very age, the father died even as the son’s knowledge was just flowering. The mother some how dragged a life of want and misery in bringing up Shankara against odds. One day she returned back home in fetching drinking water for the house from Purna River some distance away and fainted on return. The hapless boy Shankara prayed to Krishna, his favorite God of Miracles, whose Idol that he kept for his daily prayers and recited ‘Achyuta Ashtakam’. Lord Krishna was too pleased to slightly change the course and direction of the River whispering to the boy that Purna would be at your foot step, Shankara! And since then indeed the mother had no difficulty in collecting water as the flow touched the back yard of their house garden! Today Shankara Temple with the Pratima of Adi Shankaracharya as also of Goddess Sharada Devi at Kaaladi is run by Shringeri Mutt and manned by Smarta Brahmin from the Main Shringeri and not Nambodirs. There is also the Samadhi of Aryamba, the mother of Shankaracharya whose last rites were performed by himself! Adi Shankara Kirti Stambha Mandapa with eight sides is also erected not far from the Shankara Temple. Both Shringeri and Kamakoti Mutts too are adjacent to the Keerti Stambha. The Temples near Kaaladi are of Manikyamangalam Katayayani, referred to in Soundarya Lahari, Velamman Thuli Shiva, Shankara Narayana etc. The famed two Ghats at Periyar are Kaaladi Kadavu where the course of the Purna River changed direction and Muthala Kadavu or Crocodile Ghat where young Shankara threatened to be killed by a crocodile if she did not consent to take to sanyasa. The two major festivals are Shankara Jayanti for five days (April-May) and Navaratras climaxed with’ Rathotsava’ or the Chariot Festival.

Shri Kalahasti: Some 25 km away from Tirupati on the banks of River Swarnamukhi is Kalahasti, one of the three most Sacred Shiva Linga Kshetras installed by Nandeshwara under the express instructions stated to have given by Maha Deva at Shrishaila and Vedapuri under Vindhyas. The Kalahasteshwara Linga is also one of the Pancha bhuta Tatwa Lingas representing Vayu, besides Ekamreshwara at Kanchi representing Prithvi, Jambukeshwara near Shiriranga representing Apotatwa or of water, Tiruvannamalai representing Agni and Chidambara representing Akasha Tatwa. Interestingly even Pujaris do not like to touch the Vayu Linga which is ornamented with three Swarna Rekhas or golden lines that are clear on the forehead with three insignia of Shri for Spider, Kaala for Serpent and Hasti for Elephant-all the three creatures in Srishti as their unique devotion by way of offering services to clean, fan / hiss, and wash the Shiva Linga which is so appropiately nomenclatured! Bhagavati Parvati has her own Mandir for undertaking special pujas. There is a fantastic Dakshina Murti Vigrah drawing special attention to devotees whre before is Kala Bhairava; also during ‘parikrama’ are Ganesha, four other Shiva Lingas, Kartikeya, Sahasra Lingas, Chitra gupta, Yama Dharma Raja, Chandikeshwar, and several other representations of Deities and Shiva Bhaktas. In the Temple itself there is a representation of Gandeeva dhari Arjun and of Kirata the hunter of a wild boar chaser when Maha Deva in th form of a hunter tested Arjuna’s ‘dhanu vidya’ or expertise in archery and granted ‘Pashupatastra’! Another interpretation of this vigraha is that of the Bhakta Kannappa who was tested of his Shiva bhakti when tears trickled down the Shiva Linga’s ornamented eyes and in his devotional ecstasy tried to pull out his own eye and replace the eye of Shiva Linga itself! Special Rahu-Ketu pujas are organised in the huge Temple complex to safeguard against Sapra doshas to overcome lack of progeny, employment opportunities and such other family limitations. In the pradakshina of this boon fulfilling visits to the Temple, one also encounters an underground ‘Maniganiya ghattam’ or a rock-cave entry down a rather precarious stair- case where devotees bend down to the low lying Shiva Linga to possibly hear a whisper being the Upadesha of Taraka Mantra by Maha Deva himself as was stated to have been rendered to a dying female devotee at the time of her death as a parting blessing! Recalling the fable of Bhakta Kannappa the hunter, there is a nearby hill which could be negotiated without much difficulty where Kannappeshwara Linga Mandir is situated. In ancient times, a hunter was in the habit of hunting wild deer and such animals for livelihood during nights in the forest up the hill and per chance entered a shattered Temple with a Shiva Linga inside. The Shiva Linga readily attracted his attention and felt that animals entering the Temple might not spoil the Linga and during his hunting spree during several nights that followed spent more and more time in the Temple itself. He developed devotion to the Linga and offered grape wine and fresh raw meat as offerings and as both of his hands were occupied by carrying the dead animals, sword and the sheath of arrows, carried mouthful of water and quenched the thirst of the Linga while enjoying its meal of raw meat. On each subsequent mornings a Pujari of the Temple used to arrive for Puja-Abhisheka-Naivedya and witness the daily overnigt havoc in the Sanctum with the odours of country wine and raw meat and wash and purify the Place afresh before the daily pujas. One night Kannappa the hunter noticed blood ozing out of one the eye holes of the Linga and as understood in his village huts felt that foul skin of the affected body part of a victim if replaced by the fresh skin of another healthy person would be instantly revitalised, cut his own eyes skin and attached to that of the Linga! Then the other eye of the Linga too started ozing blood out and similarly the innocent Kannappa repeated the act; Maha Deva appeared instantly and after replacing his original eye sight embraced Kannappa and took him along to Kailasa! Hence the famed Shiva Linga acquired a new title as that of a Kaanappeshwara! Adi Shankaracharya after visiting the Temple exclaimed in his Scripture titled ‘Shivananda Lahari’ as follows: Margavartita paadukaa Pasupaterangasya kurichaayate, Gandushaaabu nishechaam puraripor divyaabhishekaayate/ Kinchidbhakshita maamsa sheshakabalam navyopa –haaraayate Bhaktih kim nakaroyaho vanacharo bhaktaavatamsaayate! (Even the wayward footwear as used for rough walking in jungles be used for wiping the dirt on the body of the Shiva Linga, the mouthful water retained and carried to wash as ‘Achamana’ and ‘Divyaabhisheka’ unto it, and the raw meat pieces offered as naivedya to it are indeed the major components of worship! Aha, what all faithful and dedicated devotion could not achieve, even as a hunter with total lack of principles could not!)

Kanaka Durga (Vijayawada): Sage Indrakila was stated to have performed severe Tapasya to Devi Durga to ward off the obstacles for his regular penances by demons and she responded positively by dwelling at the hill top as ‘ewayambhu’ and eventually killed even Mahishasura and followers. Subsequently Arjuna of Pandavas did tapasya on Indrakiladri to Maha Deva for accomplishing Pashpatastra which he succeeded. In response to the locals of the typically rocky surroundings, Maha Deva directed the hills to move over somewhat and the river Krishna likewise and as a result the entire region has become a land of fertility and greenery. To day, Kanaka Durga as an eight-armed Goddess of prowess and victory carrying weapons of defence with pleasant and cool face assuring protection and security as a four feet high Idol, bedecked with glittering jewellery of Kanaka or gold stands atop the Indrakiladri, ready to fulfill the desires of thousands of devotees every day, especially during Nava Ratri and other festival days. During different days, she is portrayed in different manifestations as Swarna Kavacha Durga, Bala Tripura Sundari, Annapurna, Lalitha Tripura Sundari, Saraswati, Maha Lakshmi, Kanka Durga, Mahishasura Mardini, and Raja Rajeswari- all to bestow auspiciousness and fulfillment.

Kanchi Kamakshi: Brahmanda Purana, in the Chapter of Lalitopakhayana is quoted as follows: Rahasyam sampravakshyami Lopamudraa pate shrunu, Netra dwayam Maheshasya Kaashi Kanchipuri dwayamu/ Vikhyatam Vaishnavam kshetram Shva sannidhyaa kaarakam, Kanchi kshetre Puraa Dhataa Sarva loka Pitaamahah/Shri Devi darshhanaarthaaya tapastepe sudushkaram,Praaduraasa Puro Lakshmiid Madhahata purassaraar/ Padmaasane cha tishthantee Vishnunaa saha, Sarva shrigaara -veshaadhyaa sarvaabharaana bhushitaad/ (Bhagavan Hayagriva told Agastya Maharshi, the husband of Devi Lopamudra as follows: ‘May I reveal a secret to you: Shankara always considers that his two eyes are two unique Kshetras viz. Kashi and Kanchipuram since they represent a Shiva Kshetra and Vaishnava Kshetra respectively. Once Lord Brahma performed a very difficult Tapasya to Maha Devi and as a result Devi Lakshmi appeared before him as seated on a Lotus along with Bhagavan Vishnu and decorated with golden jewellery with abounding grace!’) The Purana further proceeds that Hayagriva then confirms to Agastya that Lalitha Devi whom Lakshmi-Gauri and Saraswati worshipped had the re-appeared as Devi Kamakshi! Hayagriva then proceeds to describe Kamakshi as follows further: ‘Devi Kamakshi is Adi Devata: Adyanta-anutaraa saasaayaat Chitparaatva- adi karanam Ananta—(Adi Devata Kamakshi is smaller than Atom, Chit Swarupini, Adi Kaarana or the Primary Cause and also the Ananta or the Endless). Kamakshi has a Second Form which has two hands, one with a Book and another with Yoga Mudra or the Symbol of Yoga. Her third Form was pure like snow, a jasmine flower, Chandra and a white pearl; her fourth Swarupa was that of a thousand Rising Suryas with a Chandra Rekha on her head; She is ParaTripura with four hands carrying a paasha, ankusha, Ikshu or Sugarcane and Kodanda: all in the Swarupa of Kamakshi as meditated by Saraswati-Lakshmi and Gauri; She is Maha Devi’s two eyes: one as Shiva Kanchi and another as Vishnu Kanchi. Bhagavan Hayagriva further informed Agastya Muni: ‘All the Shaktis are Kamakshi’s creation. She improvised three eggs and created Tri Murtis entrusting them the duties of Srishti- Sthiti-Samhara to Brahma- Vishnu -Shiva respectively and created Satya Loka-Vaikuntha-Kailasha as also their respective Devis of Saraswati-Lakshmi-Parvati. Vishnu felt that he was the Supreme as Brahma sat atop the Lotus stem sprouted from Vishnu’s navel and resting on Ksheera Samadra, Brahma claimed superiority and the ensuing fight up as a third entity emerged as a huge Shiva Linga without beginning or end. As Maheswara made his appearance, Brahma still claimed his seniority and out of anger Shiva emerged as Bhairava and snipped Brahma’s fifth head but as Brahma Kapala was not leaving Shiva, he had to undergo the Brahma hatya sin and during his Tirtha Yatras landed at Kanchipuram. As he was on a ‘Bhikshatana’ or begging door-to-door with Brahma Kapala as his begging bowl, he encountered Devi Kamakshi who offered Jyotirmaya Bhiksha and Shiva finally got rid of Brahma Kapala that rolled down on earth. The ever grateful Shiva prostrated for her unique benevolence. Kanchi Kshetra is one of the foremost Moksha dayani Sapta puris : Ayodhya Mathura Maaya Kaashi Kaanchihiyavantika, Puri Dwaavati chaiva sapitaitaah Moksha daayani/ viz. Ayodhya, Mathura, Maya/ Haridwar, Kashi, Kanchi and Avantika / Ujjain, Puri and Dwaravati. Kanchi is Hari-Haraatmika comprising Shiva Kanchi and Vishnu Kanchi. Shiva Kanchi is stated to be one of the Shakti Peethas as Kamakshi Temple where Devi Sati’s ‘Asthi Panjara’ or skeleton fell down here. Also Ekambareswara Linga is among the ‘Pancha Tatwas’ viz. of Bhumi besides. As a part of Markandeya Purana’s Vidya Khanda as quoted in the Essence of Kamakshi Vilasa released by website of Kamakoti.org/news, Maharshi Markandeya explains that there are Three Outstanding Peethas or Seats of Beeja Mantras in Bharata Desha viz. Kamaraja Peetha called Vaakbhava Kutaa or of Vaakbhava Beeja-Aim, which was worshipped by Bhagavan Hahagriva at Kanchi; the second one named Jaalandhara Peetha being the Madhya Kuta or of Manmadha Beeja-kleem, which was worshipped by Bhriigu Maharsi called as at Jwalamukhi Kshetra at Assam or Mann near Ongole in Andhra Pradesh?) and the third named Odyaana Peetha as Shakti Kuta of Shakti Beeja-Souh, as worshipped by Veda Vyasa in Kamarupa stated in Assam. Kanchi Kshetra is indeed the hallowed place where Bhagavan Vishnu stayed and Bhagavan Shiva too resided. However Maha Shakti’s prominence is predominant; Maha Shaktipraabhaadhy6m Shakti praadhanya vaibhavaat, Vinasha rahitam kshetram tasmaat satyavrataahvayam/ (As Shakti’s influence is paramount, the Kshetra is indestructible and as such is of Eternal Truth and is thus replete with Satya Vrata). Referring to Tripura Dhaarinai Kamakshi, a legend explained in Kamakshi Vilasa that Brahma performed Tapasya and Yagna to Devi Kamakshi to secure a boon of reviving the dead beings to life and to prevent death to those who lived and the hole of privacy viz the ‘Bilwa’ surrounded by the Chatur Vedika as trifurcated with the Gayatri Mantra signifying Aa+Vu+M called Gayatri Mandapaa as also Kakaara-Akaara-Makaara or Kamakshi. In order to avoid disturbance and to safeguard the Chakra or the Place of intense concentration, he materialised two Daityas viz. Madhu and Kaitabha from Narayana’s ears. After some time, Devi Kamakshi got annoyed with the behaviour of the Daityas and assuming the Form of Narayana nipped their heads. On learning of this development, Brahma got enraged and suspected Vishnu to have killed Madhu-Kaitabhas. Vishnu denied the allegation of his involvement and pointed his fingers at Rudra. Brahma approached Rudra with great anger and the latter looked to release Pashupatastra at Brahma but Rudra meanwhile disappeared and Hari stood there instead. Brahma got utterly confused and left the Place in awe and bewilderment. Then there was an ‘Ayakta Jyoti Swarupa’ of Shiva assuming ‘Chuta Beejaakriti’ or of the Form of a Mango Seed with the Symbol of ‘Ekaamra’, while Vishnu too manifested himself as Varada from the Agni of the Yagna being executed by Brahma as the personification of Fulfillment! Thus Brahma realised as also the posterity that Shiva and Keshava were both of the same Para Shakti Swarupa as asserted by Markandeya; hence that Para Shakti materialised Kanchipura as the Abode of Ekaamra, Varada Raja and Kamakshi as Tripura Dharini! As to the paramount significance of Sri Chakra Puja, Markandeya Maharshi observed that the Worshippers should first pray to one's Guru and initiate the Puja targeting the ‘Trikona Poorvaagra’ or the top of the encircled Triangle and recite Sri Vidya or Pancha Dashi Mantra at least thousand times. Those who might not be fortunate to visit and possibly approach the Kamaraja Peetha at Kanchi, and even if Anna Daanas etc. are not executed, one might seek pardon from Kamakshi but performing the worship without reciting Sri Vidya is counter productive and derive negative effects! Successful execution of ri Vidya Chakra Puja offered solution to Brahma’s sudden blindness once as he crossed the Kamakoshta where Gayatri Mandapa beneath which Shiva built a Kundalini Griha without performing Shri Chakra Puja; Devi Saraswati explained about this lapse and Brahma made amends by visiting the Kama Koshtha and performed Shri Chakra Pua; he then had a glimpse of Hema Kamakshi and restored his eye sight. In the past, Shri Vidya Chakra puja was executed by Devi Lakshmi, Hayagriva, Manu, Dasharatha, Tunda, Kaantaara Vikrama Chola, and so on. At the time of Samudra Mathana, Vishnu who was of a naturally fair complexion turned blue and Lakshmi joked with Vishnu that she would not be fit to be her husband as she was of golden complexion; Vishnu gave a repartee to her that she was old and cursed her to turn of ‘Anjana Neela’ complexion. Then Lakshmi did ‘Shri Vidyaopaasana’ and regained her natural colour. HayagrivaMuni was engaged in continuous meditation of Shri Vidya of Devi Kamakshi when once a Rakshasa named Padma sat on the Muni and forced him to travel to Pataala Loka as a horse; Devi Kamakshi appeared in Pataala to save the Muni by killing the Asura. Hahagreeva assumed Vishnu Swarupa and tricked Rakshas Guru Shukraachaarya and took away the ‘Akshaya Kumbha of Mrita Sanjeevani’ kept with the Acharya for the revival of dead Asuras and performed Abhisheka of the Sanjeevini to Devi Kamakshi. Vaivaswa Manu assumed Manvatwa as bestowed by his father Surya Deva but he had no knowledge what so ever about the fine distinctions of Paapa-Punyas and as advised by Vasishtha Muni and visited Kama Koshtha; Durvasa Maharshni provided the ‘Upadesha’ or instruction of Shri Vidya Mantra and the Manu did Dhyana and Tapas to Devi Kamakshi for hundred years. Then Kamakshi arrived near Manu in the Form of a Brahmana Woman and performed Abhishka to Manu with the Sacred Waters of Pancha Tirtha as a mark of declaring him as a Chakravarti and imparted the Knowledge of Ideal Administration; till date the ‘Dharma Smriti’ continues as the Guide of Dharma. King Dasharatha was advised by Vasishtha Muni to visit Kama Koshtha to perform Shri Chakra Puja and there was a Celestial Voice assuring the birth of Epoch making sons of Shri Rama and others. In the days of yore, King Aakasha joined some followers of Boudha Guru and as directed by the latter stole considerable money of the Kingdom and mis-spent for wrong purposes and due to this sin became childless. He repented and abandoned the Boudha Guru and approached Gorakshanadha Muni who directed him to worship Kamakshi and taught Shri Vidya. He was then blessed with a boy like Vighneshwara as his son. As the King and Queen continued Devi worship daily, one day after the conclusion of the Puja-Homa-Dampati Puja-’Brahmana Samaaradhana’, there was a miracle of Suvarna Varsha / Rain of Gold! Although the Brahmanas and Munis at the Bhojanam were unable to explain, the twelve year old son of Akaasha explained the reason: in the meals that were normally served at the daily ‘Samaaraadhana’, there was a golden pebble in the greengram which was also cooked and served from the Bhojan consumed by an elderly ‘Sumangali’ woman who was Kamakshi herself and hence the Rain of Gold! The King’s son ate a portion of the left over remnant of what the Suvasini ate, then he became a ‘Sarva Tantra Visharada’ or an expert of ‘Tantra Gyana’; he was considered as Ganeshwara by those present and was named Tunda and was named the King of Kanchi Kshetra. In the Agneya direction of Kamakshi Temple there was an Idol of King Tunda that called for a Pradakshina lest the Devi Darshana Phala wouldreachtoKingTunda’saccount! King Vikrama Chola was dethroned by his younger brother Shalya Chola aided by his schemy friend Parjanya. Vikrama Chola and his wife roamed about aimlessly and luckily reached Kama Koshta and organised a flower garden and supplied excellent garlands to Devi Kamakshi daily. Pleased by their service and devotion, Devi blessed them a female child. As the daughter grew of marriageable age, Kamakshi appeared in a dream to the Pandya King Uddhaajit and asked him to defeat a battle with Shalya Chola and marry the daughter of the latter’s elder brother who presently was supplying flower garlands to her. The Pandya King followed Devi’s instructions and with passage of time King Vikrama Chola retired in favour of his son and devoted his time in the service of Kamakshi. Among various deeds of virtue, he developed gardens by extending them into forests thus securing the epithet of Kaantara Chola. While he was working in the forests, he had a serpent bite and he as well as the serpent attained Moksha by the grace of Devi. In the large expanse of Kamakshi Temple, just before the Main Idol is the Kamakoti Yantra in which are invoked with Nyasa the Ashta Laksmis viz. Adya Lakshmi, Vidya Lakshmi, Santana Lakshmi, Soubhagyaa Lakshmi, Dhana Laksmi, Dhanya Lakshmi, Veerya Lakshmi, and Vijaya Lakshmi. Adi Shankaracharya is stated to have revived the Temple. Besides Shasta, Ganapati, Vishnu, Lakshmi and Arupa Devi the precincts of Kamakshi are highlighted.

Kangra’s Jwalamukhi: From Amritsar to Pathankot and Bajnjath Paparola/ Jwalamukhi Rd. Station is situated the Jwamakuhhi Mandir where Devi Sati’s body part viz. her tongue; the specific name of Devi is Siddhida/Ambika and Maha Bhairava’s corresponding name is Unmatta Bhairava. The upper portion of the Mandir is of Golden make. Its rear portion has a ‘mashaal’ or torched flame originated from Earth from which Devi was supposed to have emerged; apart from the central flame, the wall mosaics, wall corners, right side and central ‘Kund’too minor flames emerge always. Behind the Mandir of Jwalamukhi Ambika Devi, there is a small well full of water as also a jala kund from which devotees lift up water. During Navaratras, continuous flow of devotees is attracted for Devi darshan and puja besides a Mela. Kangra from Pathankot of about 90 km is situated Kangra Mandir and Devi Maha Maya, also called Vajreshwari or Vidyaswari where as per local belief-if not as included in the Puranas-Divi Sati’s mouth fell at this Place and there is a Pratima or Image of the Mouth and also of ‘Vaag Yantra’on a silver base is in position. Maha Peetha Purana has included Kar nat Mandir at Kangra of Himachal Pradesh stating that Sati Devi’s both ears fell and the incumbent Devi is named Jaya Durga while Maha Bhairava is named Abhiru. Navaratra Celebrations are organised here too. Not far from Kangra Mandir at Vaijnatha Paparola is Vaidyanath Mandir which again is claimed as one of the popular Dwadasha Shiva Jyotir Lingas. This Holy Mandir celebrates Shiva Ratri and Mela.

Kanyakumari: Tatsteere Samudrasya Kanyaa tritha mapushrayet, Tattooam sprushya Rajendra Sarva paapath pramuchyate/ (After performing Snaana in the Sacred Kaveri, Yatis should proceed to the Sea and bathe in Kanya kumari Tirtha to ensure that they should purify themselves of their sins.) Thus emphasize both Maha Bharata and Padma Purana in their TirthaYatra Chapters. From Pannagudi where Chotey Narayan’s Shiva Mandir with Ramalingeswara Shiva Linga set up by Gautama Maharshi along with Devi Parvati, besides Chotey Narayan Mandir with Shri Devi and Bhudevis is Kanya Kumari by 6 km. Equally distant is Kanya Kumari from Tirukkalankudi where ironically situated is Lambe Narayan referred in MahaVaraha Purana as ‘Paripurna Sundara Narayana’; these places are to distinguish the Narayana Swarupas in the same vicinity of Graamas or small townships. Kanyakumari is the last point of Bharat and the sangama of three Seas viz. Arabian Sea, Bay of Bengal and Hind Maha Sagara where Yatris perform Shraddhas. On Chaitra Purnima evening if the Sky is clear then the Place where Bay of Bengal merges with the other Seas, the sight of Moon rise is picturesque and on the following morning when Sun rises at the same shores of the Bay, the sight is unbelievably divine! Even other wise the sights of late evenings and early mornings of Moon rise and Sun rise respectively are memorable and throngs of visitors make it a point to witness the fantastic sights! Into the Bay of Bengal, quite a few rivers like Savitri, Gayatri, Saraswati, Kanya vinayaka Tirthas merge into. From the Temple of Kanyakumari, the southern side are situated the Matru Tirtha, the Pitru Tirtha and Bhima Tirtha; towards the west of the Temple a little distance away is the Swarna Tirtha On the shores of the Bay of Bengal, normally yatris take their ‘snaanas’ and after worshipping the small Mandir of Ganesha enter into the Kanya Kumari Darshan. After the woship to the main Idol, at the exit point there is a prominent Indrakanta Vinayaka Mandir, which is stated to have been installed by Lord Indra himself. Devi Kanyakumari’s Idol is indeed very attractive with the shine of chasteful jewellery, especially her noseling diamond, which as stated is the powerful guiding radiance to the navigators and boatsmen in the darkness of nights! From the Mandir of Kanya Kumari towards its North is the Bhadra Kali Mandir, the dear friend of Kanya Kumari. Also stated as one of the 51 Shakti Peethas is the Kanyashram of Baalambika Bhagavati Temple at Shicheendram itself as Devi Sharvaani where Devi Sati’s back portion fell off while Maha deva is named as Nimisha. There is however a controversy that the same back portion fell off as Devi Shaarvani in a Temple at Chittagong of Bangla desh! From Kanyakumari Temple some distance away, there is a significant Tirtha named ‘Paapashanam’ Pushkarini where the taste of water is surprisingly sweet which is also called as Manduka Tirtha. Interestingly the colour of sand is different from that under the Bay of Bengal which is of normal sea land colour, but the sand from that under Arabian Seab is distinctly red and that of Hindu Sagar is somewhat bluish and that of Hindu Sagara is somewhat bluish. There are hawkers selling sea land of varying colours at a price as a souvenir item; in fact, there is also a belief that showering the sands of the mixed colours would provide immediate prospects of wedding to long standing spinsters! There is a legendary background of the thev Temple of Kanya Kumari metioned in Maha Bharata and Puranas: There was a demon named Banasura who performed intense ‘Tapas’ for a number of years to Maha Deva and a pleased Shiva granted him Amaratwa or Permanent Life. The Asura went berserk and destroyed mankind and Rishis disallowing the latter to perform yagnas- the life line to Devas, who appealed to Lord Vishnu. The latter stood by the Rishis to commence yagnas again and from out of the Sacred flames at the yagna, emerged Devi Katyayani another form of Durga Devi. Soon after her emergence she performed tapasya to Shankara to let her marry him and the merciful Maha Deva accepted her request and the date and auspicious ‘muhurta’ were fixed by Brahma himself. Just as the bride groom’s party was about to arrive, Devas were frustrated that if the wedding of Katyayani and Shiva were performed then the plan of killing Banasura would be a far cry and as such they made the plan of delaying the movement of the bridegroom party not moving forward from Sucheendram till the Holy Place of Sagara sangama called Kanyakumari as Sage Narada who was the musician for the wedding from the side of the bride groom. While waiting for Narada at Suchindram, the muhurta fixed for the wedding just elapsed and Maha Deva refused to oblige Kanya Kumari and the wedding got postponed till the end of Kaliyuga. Meanwhile Devi Katyayani destroyed the Demon. The Akshatas were discarded in the vast ocean was the Seas merging at that point assumed varying hues! Devi Kanya Kumari continues to bless the humanity, especially the just married or those awaiting weddings, apart from lo. Besides the Main Mandir, are of course the Indrakanta Vinayaka as afore mentioned and not far away on the Seashore is also a Kashi Vishwanatha Mandir where Chakra Tirtha is situated. The significant Festivals celebrated at Kanya Kumari are mainly the Navratratras in early Shukla paksha of Aswiyuja month, besides Chaitra Purnima, Ashadha Amavasya, Ashwiyuja Amavasya and Shiva Ratri. Across the ocean, there is a picturesque Vivekanada Shila where Sage Vivenaanda meditated after swimming the Seas and a beautiful Memorial was built drawing increasing tourist flows; visitors are carried by ferries to and fro the Memorial/There is also the famed Tiruvallar Statue of 133 ft height installed in the Sea, another tourist attraction. Valmiki Ramayana describes the power of ‘Mrita Sanjeevani’ herbal medicine to revive the dying as brought by Lord Hanuman from Himalayas to Lanka to save Lakshmana’s life as a result of Indrajit’s - the son of Ravanasa - one to one attack of Naagastra and a part of the mountain fell near Kanyakumari area as the ‘Marundu Malai’ or the Mountain of Medicine. Agastya Muni who stayed at Agastiswara Ashram up the Marutuval Mallai Hill not distant from Kanya Kumari for long spell of years was himself an expert in herbal medicines.

Karani Devi Mandir of Miracles: Right at the Bikaneer Station is the Mandir of Karani Devi the manifestation of Maya Devi. The story of the Temple is that some 500 years ago, there was a great devotee of Devi Maya named Mehoji who had six daughters but not blessed with a son. A few months ahead of the arrival of the next baby she moved out to Devi Mandir at Hingalaj and performed pujas at a Temple of Maha Maya Devi with utmost devotion and faith seeking the fulfillment of her wish. One night in deep sleep, Devi appeared in her dream and conveyed that she-Devi herself- would give birth to her but not as a boy! Mehoji was thrilled and non-plussed! She conveyed this news to all family members and neighbours as well with confidence and pride. Indeed the baby arrived at a very auspicious time and was named Rithubai or in course of time as Karani Devi who since from childhood was performing miracles; her every word and action was helpful to one and all and became famed as the ‘one who does’ without fail! The word went round and the Marvad King who was suffering from an incurable boil on his back which could not be cured by teams of top medical doctors was cured by merely touching his back. In course of time she left her mortal body; the King got a Pratima and installed amid celebrations, Anna Danas to the poor and charities besides Yagnas and religious activities. She was declared as Kula Devata and her acts of miracles continue till date attracting huge following and crowds. Karani Devi seated on a golden throne blesses fulfilling desires of all who seek her darshan and worship. One significant feature of this Mandir is that this is the haven for sheltering and protecting mice which too are believed to grant one’s wishes! The Mandir of Karani Maya is now popular as Jaisalmir Devi of miracles!

Keshava Raya Pattana: This Tirtha falls in the Kota Division of Rajasthan and is renowned for its Kartika Purnima Mela and festivities. On the banks of Charmanvati or Chambal River, there is an ancient Kshetra named, Jambukaranya and Jambumargeshwara and Vishnu Tirtha; on the hill top there is this Keshava Raaya Murti with four hands ahead of the idol being a ‘Garuda stambha’ / pillar. The legend about this Holy Tirtha relates to ‘Agjnaana Vaasa’ or the hiding place in the safe hands of Keshava raaya and in the vicinity of Vishnu Tirtha where Pandavas were performing Yagina Karyas and the old Yagna shaala is still intact. Pandavas installed four Shiva Lingas more in addition to Jambumargeshwara viz, Gupesh - wara, Kedareshwara, Sahasra Lingeshwara and so on. After this first phase of Agjnata vaasa in the care of Keshavaryaya himself, Pandavas proceeded to Virat nagar by assuming the changed Forms in the court of King Virat ie Yuddhishtar as Kanku Bhat, Bhima as the Royal cook, Arjun as Brihannala the Eunuch Dance Teacher of the Princess Uttara Devi, Nakula as Horse Doctor at the Royal Stable, Saha Deva as the Physician of Royal Cows and Devi Draupadi as Sairandhri, the Queen’s Maid! Another legend about the Mandir of Keshavaraya Bhagavan was that the Past King of the Area named Ranti Deva once had a dream that in the jungles on the banks of Charmangavati River, there were two Idols of Keshava raya with four hands in white stone and also another Shyama varna chaturbhuja in black stone would be dug up. Accordingly, the King commenced systematic digging by his soldiers and finally succeeded securing the same and installed both the idols separately as per Sacred Mantras formally. Yet another story related to this Tirtha was that even before this Mandir was built up, Lord Parashu Rama having waged 21 battles to eradicate the Kshatriya clan finally retired to forest life for ‘tapas’.

Khatu Shyama Rajasthan’s Khatu Shyama is quite popular from far off places to Ringal, Palsana for darshan of Shamji Bhagavan, as the Mandir draws unusual but orderly crowd patiently waiting for the same, especially on Jyeshtha Shukla Dwadashi, Kartika Shukla Dwadashi and Phalguna Shukla Dwadashi and in any case on all Dwadasis. The legendary background is that Bhima of Pandavas had an affair with Hidimba Devi during Pandava ‘Vanavasa’ or forest life for twelve years and begot Ghatotkacha whose son was Barbarika. Even before the Maha Bharata battle, Lord Krishna sliced off the head of Barbarika but granted the boon of manifesting as Lord Shyama himself in Kali Yuga and would be venerated by his devotees bestowing them of fulfilling all their wishes, especially on Dwadashis, the days of special significance for Bhagavan Krishna. Saalasar is another Sacred and Unique and exclusive Anjaneya Mandir of Rajasthan approachable from Seekar Railway Station on South West Railways, pulsating especially with floating but fast moving crowds from dawn till near midnight on all Tuesdays and Saturdays. The Temple known for its spick and span appearance of enlightened Yatris seeking favours for fulfillment; decent facilities for stay overnights are assured to distant yatris. This Place is well known for safety and high marks for decency and any evil doing is instantly punished by Lord Hanuman Himself!

Kheer Bhavani: Holi Spring of Tulla Mulla: Some fourteen miles away from Srinagar in Kashmir in Tulla Mulla village is situated the popular Mandir of Devi Bhavani called Kheer Bhavani since the traditional offering to her is a rice pudding with sugared milk is ‘Kheer. Her popular names are Raganya Bhaghavati adored by Kashmiri Pandits with the prayer: Namaste Sharada Devi Kashmira Pura Vasini twameham pratihaye nityam vidya daanam cha dehime/ (We offer our sincere prayers to the great Devi Sharada resident of Kashmir to bestow vidya or knowledge and power of concentration). Devi is of the Swarupa of Atma Linga inside a pond of divine spring with varying colours. The Legend described in a Kashmiri Chronicle called Rajatarangini states that Ravanasura the King of Asuras in Lanka made intense prayers to Bhavani Devi and as result of the latter was pleased to appear in Lanka and settled there but in course of time asked Hanuman to shift herself to Kashmir as she was fed up with his atrocities and immorality. She reappeared in Tulla Mulla village in floods there once and settled again in a marshy land since converted as a pond further as a water spring with violet colour but as some time to dark portending events national calamities like assassination of Indira Gandhi. Swami Rama Titha and Swami Vivekananda are stated to pay their homages at this holy Tirtha. Jyeshtha Ashtami is famed at this Tirtha drawing thousands of Kashmiri Pandits and Yatris when festivities are adorned with floral rangoli drawings and diyas or earthen lamps are arranged in the Temple and around.

Kolkatta: Besides being the Capital of West Bengal, Kolkatta is a significant Tirtha Sthala of Kali Ghat Mandir to be worthy of a Shati Peetha, on a raised platform of Kaali one one side and another of Five Shiva Lingas; Dakshinesswar where Saint Rama Krishna himself performed worship to Maha Kaali besides twelve Mandiras; Belur Math on the banks of Ganges being the handi work of Swami Vivekananda and the Seat of the famed Rama Krishna Mission; Parshva nath Jain Mandir, and so on. From Kolkatta are reachable the Ganga Sagar famed for the confluence of Ganges and Bay of Bengal as also the fall of Ganges to liberate Sagara Chakravarti’s sons from Shiva’s ‘jatujuta’ besides being the Makara Sankranti and Uttarayana Kaala Sacred Baths and to Nava Dwipa Dham, the Principal Tirtha of Chatanya Prabhu’s birth place and the Seat of Dhameshwar Mandir of Gauranga Maha Prabhu and Vishnu Priya Devi. The world renowned Shanti niketan of Rabindra nath Tagore and the Sundarban are not far off too!

Kolhapur: Described as Kollamma in Kollapura in Devi Gita of Devi Bhagavata Purana, Maha Lakshmi is settled at the Karavira Kshetra and is famed as the instant provider of propesrity of all types that Ashta Lakshmis would provide viz. Adi Lakshmi or Primeaval Shakti, Dhana Lakshmi (wealth), Dhanya Lakshmi (Food), Gaja Lakshmi ( Manifestation of Elephants or of Huge Magnitude), Santana Lakshmi (Excellent Progeny), Veera Lakshmi ( Courage and Intrepidity), Vijaya Lakshmi (Victory), Vidya Lakshmi (Knowledge), Aishwarya (Opulence and Luxury), Rajya Lakshmi (Royalty) and Vara Lakshmi or the Privider of all kinds of boons). Skanda Maha Purana states: Yojanam Dasha he putra Kaaraashtro Desha durdharah, Tamnadhye Pancha koshashaascha Kashyaadhikam Bhuvii/ Kshetram vai Mahat Punyam darshanaat paapa naashanam/ Tatkshetre Rushayah sarve Brahmana Vedapaaragah, Teshaaam darshana maatrena sarva paapa kshayo bhavet/ (Karashtatra Desha’s length and breadth is ten yojanas and is difficult to achieve it without faith and devotion. In this Karavira Kshetra the singular Tirtha which is the destroyer of all kinds of blemishes even by its visit and vision; Veda Brahmanas and Rishi ganas assure that by its mere look itself the sins are dissolved). This memorable Kolha puri Kshetra is the permanent abode of Maha Lakshmi and is also believed to be one among the many Shakti Peethas where Devi Sati’s three netras fell down. The principal attraction at Kolhapuri of course is the Maha Lakshmi Mandir, nearby which are Pancha Ganga, Padma Sarovar, Kaaashi Tirtha and Jagannatha Mandir. The Sanctum is readily approachable for worship by all males with dedication but females are forbidden to cross the threshold of the Shrine. Amba bai or Maha Lakshmi of one of the famed four Shakti Peethas in Maharashtra viz. Ambabai whose both sensitive organs viz. eyes of Sati Devi fell here, besides as Hingula or Tulja Devi, Renuka at Mahur, and Jwala Mukhi at Saptashiringi at Matrupattana/ Mahur. The legend of Maha Lakshmi Temple is also described as once SageBhrigu visited Vaikuntha and Vishnu ignored his arrival and continued to romance with Lakshmi; the enraged Bhrigu kicked Vishnu at his chest the abode of Lakshmi; instead of reprimanding the Sage, Vishnu apologised to Bhrigu and enquired whether the Sage’s feet were hurt by the kick; as Vishnu’s apology enraged Lakshmi and left him in anger to Kolahapura for long Tapasya even meanwhile she learnt that Vishnu assumed the Swarupa of Venkateshvara and married Padmavati, Lakshmi’s alternate form; it was only far later that there was the combined effort of Devas and Danavas to secure Amrit and in the process Lakshmi got re-incarnated and finally Lakshmi-Vishnu union became possible!The Statue of Maha Lakshmi at the Kolhapuri Kshetra is stated to be of 5th century AD, as adorned by precious stones of great antiquity; She has four arms, the right lower holds a Matulunga fruit of the specie of a large lemon, her right upper hand holds a shield; the lower left hand a mace, and the lower right hand a bowl to provide boons. She wears a cobra hooded crown and a Shiva linga, while behind her is a lion. The window of the western wall of her sanctum is kept open through which morning Sunrays fall on the Idol. The Temple celebrates KiranUtsavas on January 31 and November 9 when the Sunrays fall on the feet o the Idol, on February 1 and November 10 the rays fall at the feet of Maha Lakshmi and on Feb 2 and Nov. 11 the rays fall on the entire body of Lakshmi. Ratha Saptami festival for three days in January is celebrated with awe and piety.
Konarak: Some 35 km from Bhuvaneshwar is the Abode of the famed Surya Temple supported by the legendary background referred to by both Bhavishya Purana and Samba Purana. The fact clearly brought out by Bhavishya Purana is that Bhagavan Surya cured leprosy as suffered by Sambu the son of Lord Krishna under the advice of Sage Kataka and Sambu underwent penance for twelve years in Mitravana on the banks of Chandrabhaga River some 3 km away from the beaches of Sea at Konark and pleased by the devotion and worship Surya Deva cured Sambu’s leprosy the faith that Chandrabhaga snaana cures the disease continues till date. Apparently, Sambu out of gratitude was responsible to build the foremost Sun Temple at Konark on the banks of Chandrabhaga near the shores of the Sea. Now, Samba Purana describes the infatuation of Chandrabhaga with Surya Deva who also reciprocated the passion, apparently reflected in the erotic sculptures at Konark, traditionally as one of the concepts handed down in the repeated constructions from age to age depending on the themes as now followed by the changing Royalties. The sculpture as of now has the Kalinga imprint. As it stands Konark is indeed a huge piece of Art in black stone!Konark is listed among the World Heritage Sites in India, considered as one of India’s Seven Wonders.Kona literally means angle and Arka is Sun thus signifying both this Sun Temple and Jagannatha Temple in Puri, as the pride of Kalinga. This Sun Temple built in 13th century AD is basically designed as the huge and seven feet high Surya Deva’s Chariot with twelve pairs of ornamented wheels drawn by seven horses. Unfortunately, only six horses are in position as Mughal King Jehangir’s men destroyed it in 17th century. The audience hall Jaganmohana still stands and the roof of Natya Madir fell off, but despite the ruins and damages as also the ravages of wind and rains, the glory of Konark, its grand majesty and imposing awe do still sustain. Konark is still considered as the Soura Sampradaya’s / or traditional symbol and Maagha Shukla Saptami is considered as the Ratha Saptami Day and on that morning, preferably in the Chandrabhaga River, Arunodaya snaana is performed by reciting the Mantra:

Yadaa janma kritam paapam mayaa Janma janmasu, Tanme rogamcha shokam cha maakari hantu Saptami/ Yetat janmakritam paapam yacca jannaantararjitam, Manovaakkaayajam yaccha jnaataa jnatecha ye punah/ Iti saptavidhann paapam snaanaanme sapta sapti, Sapta vyaadhi samsa yuktam haramaakari Saptami/ Bhagavati Temple and Ramachandi Temple darshana - all not too far from Konark are significant but tourists flock in large gatherings only to vision the priceless thrill of Sunrise early morning on the Sea beaches nearby.

Kurukshetra: Kurukshetram gamisyaami Kurukshere vasaamyaham, Ya evam satatam bruyat sopi Paapaaih pramuchyate/ Paamsavopi Kurukshetre Vaayuna samudiritaah, Api dushkrita karnaanam nayananti paramam gatim/ Dakshinena Saraswatya drushadvidyuttarena cha, ye vasanti Kurukshetre te vasanti trivishtape/ Manasaapyaabhikaamasya Kurukshetram Yuddhishtara, Paapaani vipranashyanti Brhma lokam cha gacchati/ Gatwaa hi shraddhayaa yuktah Kurukshetram Kurudvah, Phalam prapnoti cha tadaa Rajasuyaasswamedhayoh/ ( Even the mere resolve of visiting and staying at Kurukshetra would demolish sins and the dust carried by the winds from there shall indeed purify sinners and lead them to higher planes of virtue. Kurukshetra sprawls all over the region from Rushadwiti from the north to Saraswati River in the south and blessed are those who reside in this are considered to be in heavenly surroundings. The thoughts of undertaking dutiful yatra to Kurukshetra by themselves evaporate blemishes while those who actually complete the yatra as per the regulations specified would have reaped the fruits of executing Rajasuya and Ashwamedha Yajinas-Shatapata Brahmana Upanishad). It is stated that Maharshis most initially pronounced VedaMantras at this hallowed banks of Saraswati River and it was this very tirtha that Brahma and Devas performed Maha Yajinas and indeed it was this Sacred Land where Maharshis like Vasishtha and Vishwamitra attained Brahma Jnaana. It was this very Place that the Dharma Kshetra of Kurukshetra fought Dharma Yuddha for eighteen long days and Virtue triumphed against Viciousness and vindicated Adharma for good. It was this very Place again where Lord Srikrishna delivered the eternal message of Bhagavad Gita to posterity as the Quintessence of Veda Shastra Purano -panishads put together! The origin of Kurukshetra is vividly described in the Essence of Vamana Purana which appeared vide www. Kamakoti.Org/ Articles as also on Google as follows: At the beginning of Satya Yuga, there was a King named Ruksha of Chandra Vamsha who begot King Samvarna. On assuming Kingship, Samvarna entusted his royal duties to his Guru Vasishtha and moved about carefree. While he was in a Forest named Vibhraja, he met a Deva Kanya called Tapati and both of them got mesmerised with each other. On return, Vasishtha Maharsi learnt of the King’s infatuation as the latter was neither eating nor behaving properly. Similar was the situation with the Deva Kanya Tapati. Vasishtha learnt from his Divyadrishiti that the Deva Kanya was the daughter of Suryta Deva, entered Surya mandala and requested Surya for the alliance and both of them were happily married to eventually beget a boy called Kuru who was married to Devi Soudamini. After Kuru became the King, Kuru tried all possibilities of endearing his Praja and during his ‘Dharma Paalana’ or Virtuous Administration, there were no problems of poverty, thefts, misdirected judgments and health limitations and soon became a popular King. Then he travelled to become more and famous and victorious and entered Daitavana where he saw the Sacred River Sarasvati which was called Brahma Putri, Harijihva and Sadarshana Janani. He derived extreme happiness and satisfaction in the River and towards north of the River and decided to construct a ‘Samanta Panchaka Dharmasthaan’ spread over an Area of five yojanas width and length. It was learnt that there were five such ‘Vedikaas’ where Shambhu Deva performed Pancha Yagnas, of which the Uttara Vedi on the banks of River Sarasvati was known as the most renowned; the Madhya Vedi as popular at Prayaga Kshetra, Purva Vedi was at Gaya Tirtha, Dakshina Vedi was at Jagannatha puri and the Paschima Vedi was at Pushkara Kshetra. King Puru decided to add the Panchama Vedi to be constructed as Samantaka Panchaka Dharmasthana. He procured a golden plough and a pair of animals to commence tilling the land. Indra Deva approached the King Kuru as to what was he desirous of doing and the reply was that he had decided to construct an ‘Ashtaanga Bhumi’ of Tapah Satyam Ksamaam Damaam Krushaami Shoucham Daanam cha Yiogamcha Brahmachaaritaam/ Meditation - Truthfulness-Endurance-Mercy-Cleanliness-Charity-Yoga and Celibacy which should be called Ashtanga Farming! Indra further asked: Where would be a number of ploughs and how would you procure seeds from! The reply was that Indra should not make fun of an honest endeavour as Indra left quietly. The King himself commenced tilling some four to five yojanas of land daily. Then Lord Vishnu appeared and asked the same question of Indra as to where would he secure the seeds. The King said convincingly that the seeds would emerge from his body. Vishnu asked the King to extend his hand so that the former could plough and the King could spread the seeds. The King faithfully extended his right hand and at once Bhagavan cut off his hand with his chakra to several pieces! Kuru then extended his left hand and Vishnu sliced off that hand too to thousand pieces. The King offered his thighs one by one which too were cut. Finally King Kuru offered his head and then Vishnu was convinced that the King was very serious in his resolve and asked him to ask for a boon. Kuru replied: Yaavadetan –mayaa krushhtam Dharmaksetram tadastucha, Snaataanaam cha mrutaaamcha mahapunya phalam twiha/ Upavaasamcha Daanamcha cha snaanam japyam cha Madhava, Homayagna –dikam chaayacchubham Vaapayashubham Vibho/ (May this Place which I had tilled be declared as Dharma Kshetra; may this Place become a Sacred one where bathing or even dying attain Maha Punya. May the virtuous deeds of Upavaasa-Snaa-Daana-Japa-Havana-Yagna etc be paid for with multiplied fruits!) The King further prayed to Vishnu that he along with Parama Shiva should reside at this Kshetra always. Vishnu not only granted the boons asked by the King but also blessed the Hallowed Place to be called as Kuru Kshetra, that his fame and name would be eternal as long as the Universe would last, that this Kshetra called Kurukaangala would be protected by Chandra naamak Yaksha, Vaasuki naamak Sarpa, Shankukarna naamak Vidyaadhara, Sukeshi naamak Raksheswara, Ajaavan naamak King, Mahadeva naamak Agni and so on. Some eight thousand arrows-men would ensure that sinners of extreme nature would be prevented to perform bathings in the Kshetra; there is a ‘paapa vinaashaka’ and Sacred Tirtha known as Pruthuudaka or Pohovaa Tirtha here and Brahma collected the waters of various Maha Samudras, Punya Tirthas, Rivers and Sarovaraas into it! Brahmasara Tirtha: Maharshi Lomaharshana stated that Brahmasara Tirtha was originally spread from Sannihita Sarovar at Rantuk Sthaana to Ojas Sthaana and further unto Chaturmukha Sthaana; but over passage of time, the Tirtha occupied the space from Viswasvara Shaana to Asthipura and from Vriddha Kanya to Oghavati River. Half way of the Tirtha, it was believed that Rudra attained ‘Sthaanutva’or ‘Sthiratwa’ (Solidification). Meanwhile, Maha Muni Markandeya prayed to Devi Sarasvati flowing in the form of the illustrious River obliged the Muni to accompany him wherever he wished him to lead and the Muni requested her to link up Brahmasira to Ramahlada to Kurukshetra and thus the latter assumed further significance; In the Kurukshetra Tirtha thus one secures the ‘maha phala’of bathing and worshipping in Seven Vanaas viz. Kaamuaka Vana, Aditi Vana, Vyasa Vana, Phalaki Vana, Surya Vana, Madhu Vana, and Sheeta Vana; besides nine Sacred Rivers viz. Sarasvati, Vaitarani, Aapaga, Mandakini Ganga, Madhstra, Vaasu Nadi, Koushiki, Drushdyati or Kaggar, and Hiranyavati. Kurukshetra Thirtha Yatra needs to be initiated by obtaining the permission of the Yaksha called Rastuk, proceed to Aditya Vana where Devi Aditi was stated to have performed her Tapasya in favour of her sons viz. Devatas; proceed to Vishnu Sthaan called ‘Savana’, visit Vimala Tirtha to worship Vimaleswara to reap the fruit of attaining Rudra Loka; Kaushiki sangama to wash off the blemishes stored thus far; Dharani Tirtha to seek relief for “Aparadhaas” of devotees; Daksheswara Shiva in Dakshaashrama to attain the fruit of Ashvamedha Yagna; Shalukini Tirtha; then move on to Saptirdadhi to thrash up fears of serpents; then worship Rastuk Dwarapal for an overnight stay there for Kshama Prarthana and Abheestha Siddhi; visit Panchanaada Tirtha, Koti Tirtha, and Jwaala Maheshwara. Pilgrims to Kurukshetra are advised to definitely perform ‘Pitru Devaarchana’ at the famed Pushkara Tirtha which was constructed by Parashurama Deva and it was believed that worship there would bestow fulfillment of wishes sought by the devotees. Surya Grahana Snaana at the nearby Sarovara called ‘Saannihitya’ is stated to provide access to Swarga after one’s life. Essentially, Brahmasara Sarovara and the adjacent Sannithisara are deemed as Kurukshetra. Puranas clarify that far well before Maha Bharata Battle, King Kuru built Brahmasara and Sanniti sara Sarovaras. However, there is a misconception that Dwaipayana / Parashara Sarovar is Kurukshetra itself as that sarovar was actually where Duryodhana and Bhima fought the last leg of Maha Bharata Battle. Factually speaking, Brahma sara and Sannihitisara are at Thanesara township off Kurukshetra by a mile. Brahmasara Sarovara and the adjacent Sannithi sara are approx. 5 km wide and as much of length each. Parashara Sarovara is approx 13km from Thanesara. Surya grahana snaanas are normally performed at Thansara Sarovaras or specifically at Jyoti sara where Lord Krishna along with Yaduvamsheeyas arrived from Dwaraaka as per the Dashama Skandha of Maha Bhagavata before the Maha Bharata Battle. It is said that apart from Surya Grahana days, Somavati Amavasyas also yield Maha Phala on performing Snana-Dana-Puja to Surya Deva. Incidentally, portions of Bharata Pita Magatma Gandhi’s ashes were formally immersed in the Kurukshetra Sarovara in 1948. The Sannihita besides Brahmasara has special significance for Pitru Tarpanas: Vishnu Dharmottra script underlines: "Punah Sannihityaam vai Kurukshetre visheshatah, Archayeccha Pitrustatra sa putrastwanrunobhavet/ (At the Sannihita Tirtha inside Kukukshetra, whatever Pitru Tarpana and Shraddhas are dutifully executed are highly fulfilling in reducing ‘Pitru Runa’ or the indebtedness to Pitru Devatas.) Also Yamana Dwadashi, Krishna Janmashtami, Vijaya Dashami of Navaratras are noteworthy for worship at this Tirtha. Thanesara or Sthaaneshwara Tirtha already referred to in the earlier pages on Kedarnath where Shiva-Vishnu Identity was established is so significant that even sprinkling of water on one’s head, let alone a snaana, would demolish bodily ailments; in fact, King Vena the erstwhile form of Prithu Chakravarti of Dhruva’s lineage was cured of his leprosy by such sprinkling of this water! [ King Vena was an evil doer and Maharshis of the day forcibly churned his body to destroy the evil in it and Prithu Chakravarthi the epoch making Conquerer of the entire Universe emerged and eventually he controlled Bhu Devi ran away from his control in the form of a cow but Pruthu subdued her and forced her to yield that kind of milk as various beings ranging from Devas to all celestial beings, Danava-Rakshasa- Daithyas, Rishis, humans, Nagaadi Patala vasis etc in the form that they desired like Devas sought Amrita, Danavadis desired blood, Manushyas asked for foodgrains, Nagas wanted poison and Rishis opted for Tapas! Hence Bhudevi is since named as Prithwi after Pruthu Chakravarthi!] Pandavas worshipped Sthaneshwara before Maha Bharata battle for victory. Chandra Kupa (well) is in the midst of Brahmasara Sarovara land where Yudhishtara installed ‘Vijaya Stambha’ after the victory at the Battle. Bhdra Kali Mandir is not far from Sthanu Tirtha’s Shiva Mandir is one of the 51 Shakti Peethas aforementioned as at Kurukshetra where Devi Sati’s right ankle bone fell. Bana Ganga Tirtha some kilometer from Brahmasara is the Place where Arjun of Pandavas hit his arrow to let a flow of water spring from Earth to quench the thirst of Bheeshma Pitamaha the grand father of Kourava Pandavas. Quite near to Thaneshwar is Naabhikamal Tirtha where Brahma was materialised from the Lotus top that emerged from Lord Vishnu’s navel where Brahma’s one of rare temples in Bharat besides a Vishnu Mandir too are situated. From Kurukshetraya a less than a km are Karna Kheda where Dana Karma gave away considerable charity to Brahmanas before the Great Battle of Kaurava Pandavas of Maha Bharata. From Karna Kheda is the Aapaga Tirtha where Pitru Tarpanas are performed especially on Bhadrapada Krishna Paksha Chaturdashi afternoon. In the adjacent neighborhood of Kurukshetra are Narakataari where Bhishma the grand father of Pandavas ad Kaurava cousins was laid down on Shara Shayya or bed of arrows awaiting the arrival of Uttarayana to end his life as he had the boon of so doing by his mother Ganga Devi. Kubera Tirtha is on the banks of Saraswati River where Kubera the Lord of Wealth performed a famed Yajna. Markandeya Tirtha near Kubera Tirtha again on Saraswati River Banks performed worship to Surya Bhagavan and attained final Salvation after living through ‘Yugaantaras’ and beyond Kalpas. Dadhichi Tirtha near Markandeya Ashram is the Illustrious one where Maharshi Didhichi- the son of Bhrigu Maharshi the Brahma Manasa Putra or the mind born son of Brahma gave away in charity to Deva Chief Lord Indra Deva the Maharshis backbone from which Devas materialised Vajrayudha to destroy Vritrasura the most invincible Demon Son of Vishwarupa Maharshi the son of Twashata in a Brahma Yajna. Dadhicha mastered the Narayana Kavacha. Aditi Kunda was the Ashram of Devi Aditi the wife of Maharshi Kashyap the mother of Devas who gave birth to Yamana Deva the Avatar of Vishnu. Besides, there are also Soma Tirtha, Karna Vadha Tirtha, Jayaghara where Arjuna killed Jayadratha who killed the famed Abhimanyu and took his revenge by stopping Sun set as an illusion created by Lord Krishna asArjuna swore that Jayadradha would be killed before Sunset. Parashara-father of Veda Vyasa- Hrada or the Ashram of Parashara and the Sarovara nearby where Duryodhana on the last eighteenth day of Maha Bharata Battle challenged by Bhima, Duryodhana to come out from hiding and entered into a duel or one- to- one -battle and finally got killed by Bhima. Jyotisara Tirhta is the Place where the epoch making Bhagavad Gita was rendered to Arjuna which is meant for posterity too.
Lepakshi: Some 120km away from Bangalore of Karnataka and actually located in the Anantapur District at Hindupur (Andhra Pradesh) by 15 km is the magnificent Place of architectural work in rock sculpture of Vijayanagar Kings. Lepakshi is justly proud of a huge Nandi bull made of single granite stone of 4.5 mts. of height and 8 mts plus of length positioned just before the Temple complex facing an open air Shiva Linga shielded under a massive rock serpent of five hood rock structure while the Shiva Linga is surrounded by a three rounded coil formation. This Nandi is a unique specimen in Bharat, next only that of Gomateshwar. Another significant aspect of the Nandi is a massive ‘Kasu mala’ or a necklace, a bell chain of earrings and jewellery all in rock. More importantly are three Temples of Shiva/ Virupaksha, Vishnu and Veerabhadra, the best of them perhaps is that of Veerabhadra on a hilloc named ‘Kurma shila’ of tortoise shaped rock. The fantastic creations of these master pieces of art in stone were created by the courtesy of Amara Jakkanna and his followers of Vijaya Nagar Empire. Besides the highlights of art on rock at the Temple already mentioned are the Hanging Pillars, Print of Durga Paadam, typical designs of Lepakshi sarees etc. The depictions on the pillars of the halls are exquisite with scenes of Ramayana and Maha Bharata. An interesting story at the Temple pertains to one of the Master Sculptors annoyed the King who instructed to pull out his eyes; even before the instruction was carried out, the Sculptor himself pulled out his own eyes and the blood marks spilt out on the walls and the blots are seen even now.

Lohargala: or ‘Loha garji’ is one of Rajasthan’s popular Tirthas near Navalghad Railway Station off some 12 km being the unique place for ‘Asthi Visarjana’ or immersion of mortal ashes brought in pots to ‘Brahma Tirtha’ and its seven water way branches. The legendary background states that since Devatas were greatly fond of Brahma hlada, they requested Lord Brahma to hide it, lest sinners in Kaliyuga would gradually erode it into its sanctity with their sins and blemishes. But Himalaya Mountain despatched his son to Lord Brahma called Ketu and in response to the supplication Brahma agreed that although Brahma hlada would be invisible, its tributaries would flow as Sapta dharas. After the battle of Maha Bharata, Bhima desired to sanitise his mace from the sin of killing his grand father Bhishma, Gurus, cousin brothers, uncles, and such close relatives. On way to Pushkar Tirtha, Bhima and Pandavas decided to leave behind their arms and armoury and proceed to Pushkara Tirtha. On their return, they discovered their arms were dissolved with the flows of Brahma hlada and thus the Flows of the invisible Brahma Hlada are since named Lohargalas or the purified throats of the loha or metal! Thus the pots containing the ashes or mortal remains of the dead bodies are instant purifiers of the sins left behind of the departed souls after the ‘asthi visarjana’! At this place of piety and purity, there are special days of Chaitra Somavat Amavasyas and Bhadrapada Amavasyas when Melas are organised but otherwise each arrival of ‘asthis’ is denoted as a Day of Liberation! At Lohargal, Surya Deva is the Principal Araadhya Devata or the Principal Deity for it is He who is the Prime Link or Chief Messenger between the departed Soul and the Pirtu Loka! Thus there is a Surya Mandir and not far from there is a Surya Kunda, besides some 45 Mandirs in the vicinity, including a Tapakeshwar Mandir since the mountain water constantly drops water on the Shiva Murti!

Madurai: Situated on the banks of River Vaigai with historical links with the Kings of Pandyas and Cholas and with illustrious architecture and monuments, Madurai is the famed Abode of Devi Meenakshi and Sundareshwara the alternate forms of Shiva and Parvati. This City which is also known ‘Naandamada Kudam’ or the Assembly of Scholars, and the Centre of Four Towers viz. the Temple, is well connected by Road, Railway and Air. Meenakshi Temple is ancient in modern setting with Four Entry Gates, 14 Gopurams (Towers) of 175-180 ft. of height plus besides 27 smaller Gopurams and an estimated 35000 Sculptures, nominated for the Seven Wonders of the Modern World, possessing two principal Sanctums.
or Garbha sthalas with two golden vimanas or Shrines. Although there are four Dwaaras, normally the Eastern side though popular, is stated by Puranas as somewhat inauspicious since there is a concern of Brahma Hatya Paataka, as that mighty sin was committed by Indra who killed Vritrasura, a Brahmana and Deva Raja had to hide himself in a lotus stem at Mansarovar Lake and finally emerged from a non-Southern side of the stem latter with the redemption from Brahma to qualify for scrapping the sin; this is why an alternate gate was since made for entry-exit! At the entry point itself there is a Ashtha Shakti Mandapa called Nagaar Mandapa which is supported by eight pillars on which are painted on the ceilings the sketches of Ashhta Lakshmis. To the right side of the Mandapa, there are the Murtis of Ganesha and Subrahmanya where shops are placed and behind it are the idols of Shiva, Brahma, Vishnu’s Mohini Swarupa and Anasuya. Further to a Dark Mandapa not open to visitors is the Swarna Pushkarini Sarovara around which are the Pancha Pandava Murtis, beyond which is the Purusha Mriga Mandapa or half man and half animal images. Just opposite that is the Meenakshi Mandir, before which is a small Subrahmanya Mandir with his two Devis. While performing Parikrama of Meenakshi Devi’s celestial Idol which is well ornamented and beautifully dressed are the Murtis of Jnaana Shakti, Kriya Shakti and Bala Shakti as also Subramanya Mandir and Tirumala Balaji with his two consorts on either side. Sundareshwara Temple with dwaar palakas before, and on entering it one encounters with silveren Nataraja with his right foot up (as compared to Nataraja at Chidambaram kshetra’s Vighraha of Nataraja whose left foot was raised). Opposite to Sundareshwara Swami Mandir is a Swarna Shikhara and there beyond is Swayambhu Sundareshwara Maha Linga with golden ‘Tripundra’ decorated on the countenance. Outside the Mandir are wonderfully looking Eight Pillars with ‘Shankara Leelas’ depicted along with the figures of Veerabhadra and other Shiva Ganas. In the Mandapa, Shiva Bhakta ‘Kaaraikalamma’ is also depicted. In the Navagraha Mandapa, the Navagraha Murtis are presented.. While performing Parikrama around the Sundareshwara Mandir, one would find the darshan of Hanuman, Ganapat, Danapani, Saraswati, Dakshina Murti, Subrahmanya and so on. There is a small Mandir of Devi Durga seperately around an old root of Kadamba vriksha still preserved and it is stated that it was under this tree that Meenakshi and Sundaresha were wedded! To the south-west of the Main Temples, are kept the Utsava Vigrahas or the Temple Parikrama Idols, besides Ganga-Parvati Idols made of Gold and on the western side there is a Chandanamaya Maha Linga. Right before the Main Temple of Sundaresha is installed Nandi Deva from where the Sahasra Stambha Mandapa is situated, before which are the Murtis of Deva- Devis and Shiva Bhaktas among whom there is a highly attractive and artistic Murti of Veenadhari Saraswati too. At this Mandapa itself, there is a peaceful looking Shyamala Sundara Nataraja installed; here again Shiva Bhakta Kannappa’s Idol is arranged. Right opposite the Meenakshi Mandir is built a Shata Stambha Mandapa with 120 pillar on which are portrayed the Raja-Rani Vigrahas of those in Authority then. At the eastern side of the main Temples is a Meenakshi- Sundaresa Kalyana Mandapa called the New Mandapa named Vasanta Mandapa where every Chaitra Month, the Kalyana Mahotsavas are celebrated and the Vigrahas of the Deities at the ‘Panigrahana’ Function are displayed. These Kalyana Celebrations are observed for Ten days as these are known as Utsava Nagari Festivals. During Vaishakha Shukla Panchmi, celebrations for eight days are observed too. Ashadha-Shravana Months are full of festivals since special pujas are organised for Devi Meenakshi while Shravana Month is dedicated to ‘Shankara Leela Smaranotsavas’ of 64 types are depicted with corresponding picturisations. Besides Bhadraka-Ashiyija Nava Ratra Mahotsavas are popular too. Amavasyas and Punima days are special. Nataraja Abhishekas are done in Margaseersh ‘Ardra Nakshatra’ while Kala Bhairava Ratha Yatra on that Ashtami is organised too. Pousha Purnima is noted for Meenakshi Rathotsavas and Maagha Smaranotsava by Shiva Bhaktas and Phalguna Madana Dahanotsava are too executed. The legendary aspect of the two famed Temples of Sundaresha and Meenakshi at Madurai is as known as follows. At the Temple site now there was a ‘Kadambavana’ at the times of Pandya King Malayadhwaja and his wife was Kanchanamala. The King noticed that there was Swayambhu Shiva Linga which as believed by the Public had proofs of Devas worshipping unvisioned to any. Once Bhagavan Shankara appeared repeatedly in the dreams of the King and instructed him to build a Temple; one evening a serpent made the King follow to a specific place and stopped with hissing of its hood several times and disappeared. The King then decided to build a model Temple naming Bhagavan Shankara as Sundaresha and appointed Pandits for regular worship and Abhishekas as per Scriptures and gradually Bhaktas poured in. The King who turned himself a fulfledged Shiva bhakta took to long meditation and a hazy profile of Shankara appeared. Then King got confused and made a request to that Figure to bless him with a noble child as he had none. Kanchanamala became pregnant and a girl child named Meenakshi was born. But soon enough the King died and the Queen took over the role of a Queen Mother on behalf of the daughter. Meenakshi grew up as a Parama Bhakta of Sundaresha and spent all the time in the Temple itself. The Queen decided to wed Meenakshi with the Celestial Figure of Sundareshsa and within days Meenakshi really merged into the Lord and eventually a separate Mandir was contructed by the Pandyan line of Kings as Meenakshi!

Madurantakam: Considered as significant by Yatris, especialy the followers of Ramanujacharya who assumed ‘diksha’ as a Sanyasin at this Vakula Kshetra where a Vakula Vriksha is still in place, Madurantakam is proud of its legendary past. In this erstwhile form of Vakularanya, there was a hermitage of Vibhandaka Rishi from where interesting references were obtained: in SatyaYuga, Lord Vishnu directed Brahma putras to worship him and get identified with himself at this Sacred Sthala. During Treta Yuga, Lord Rama after killing Ravana and installing Rameshwar Maha Linga passed through Vakularanya and instructed Hanuman to set up a Rama Temple with his parivar for worship by posterity. Eventually, Ramanujacharya’s diksha followed near the Rama Mandir under the Vakula Tree by way of Pancha Samskara of ‘Taapa’(Sapta samudrankana), ‘Pundra’ or Tilaka, ‘Namadheya’ or assigning a suitable name, ‘Mantradaana’ or according ‘Mantropadesha’ and finally ‘Yagna’ / Viraja homa and so on. There are interesting references in Tamil/ Telugu books kept in the well preserved Library at the Kondada Rama- Janaki Temple of date about an ‘Anikut’ built across a violent water body creating floods in paddy fields causing enormous losses in the adjoining rural economies. A British Expert named Mr. Place for Flood Control was commisioned for constructing a strong and expensive bridge and as plodded by local engineers called on the then Vaishvanava Head of Madurantakam who advised to build a Janaki Mandir; jokingly the British Expert replied that most certainly he would do so in case the new bridge could with stand the powerful spate during the next flood season. The bridge got ready in time and the floods too were round the corner. One fateful night, the spate was so severe that Mr. Place had no sleep in the other side of the most powerful spate ever and floods at both sides were certain to submerge including the fairly distant places where he was staying himself; next morning he resolved to initiate the construction of Janaki Temple which is now in position!

Maha Baleshwar: This Kshertra which is some 120 km from Pune in Maharashtha is an important Tirha Sthaan for several reasons: it is the most ancient Place where Trimurtis viz. Brahma, Vishnu and Maheshwara performed long tapasya before Srishti or Creation of the Universe; it was the most sacrosanct Place where Lord Brahma performed Yagna before he was authorised to do so by Vishnu and Maheshwara on the understanding that the Univerese hence to be created by Brahma would be preserved till periodical interregnums between one period viz. Yuga to another and get destroyed by Rudra Deva; it was also the Place where two Daityas named Ati Bal and Maha Bal attacked Vishnu but though Ati Bala was destroyed Maha Bala had the boon of invincibility by any male power. But this limitation was finally resolved as Devas headed by Brahma and Vishnu payed to Adi Maya who in turn killed Maha Bal too; yet another qualification of Maha Baleshwara pertains to the fact that the famed Krishna River as originated as a part of the Pancha Nadis viz. Krishna, Savitri, Venya, Kakujjati or Koyna and Gayatri Nadi; Krishna is of Vishnu Swarupa, Venya is of Shankara Swarupa and Kakujjati as also Gayatri were of Brahma Swarupas. Such was then legendary magnificence of Maha Baleshwara. At the Maha Baleshwar Mandir, the Shiva Linga is in the form of a Rudraksha as split at places and is is full of water always oozing out from the Linga and it is strongly believed that this water flows out from all the five rivers mentioned. The Place where Lord Brahma performed the Yagna is some two km away from the Mandir and from there the forest really looks fearful as it is infested with wild animals and serpents. There there is a cave inside which there is stated to be a Yagna Vedi. In Maha Baleshwar, there are also two other ancient Mandirs of Ati Baleshwara and Koteshwar too which are older than the Maha Baleshwar itself. Nearby there are also Krishnabai Mandir where there is a Brahma Kund which not only collects the water from the five rivers mentioned above but also of Saraswati River. The Swayambhu Shiva Maha Linga at Maha Baleshwar is one of the most Sacred Spots. Quite apart from being one of the Sacred Places, Maha Baleshwar is an ideal and excellent holiday resort hill station of some 5 hour drive of 180 km from Mumbai and 120 km from Pune, bound by green valleys and high peaks of 5000 ft. popularly called by tourists as Wilson Sun Rise Point as also known for Arthur Seat Point, Kate Point, Needle Hole Point and Three Monkey Point of Three Natural Stone Formations akin to Three Monkeys signifying Mahatma Gandhi’s sayings of: Do no evil, speak no evil and hear no evil!

Mahi Sagara Sangama: The unique importance of this Maha Tirtha -near Vadodra in Gujarat State- is vividly described in Skanda Maha Purana’s Koumara Khanda. The Purana describes its legendary background as follows: Lord Brahma convened a Conference of various Tirthas which were well known by Devotees from all over Bharat. Skanda Deva was also present and so did Dharma Deva. Brahma said that it might not be fair for Him to unilaterally decide on the Supremacy of a particular Tirtha and hence the invitees could air their special features considering the Sacredness, Boons secured by the Devotees from the respective Gods, and the general popularity and the turnover of the devotees at their respective Tirthas. The Mahi Sagara Tirtha Representative said that his Tirtha was unparalleled; in the past King Indradyumna did such Tapasya that Prithvi who was the ‘Sarva Tirthamayi’ (the bearer of all the Tirthas) herself acknowledged the Supremacy of Mahi Sagara and none else could make a claim over the Maha Tirtha! Dharma Deva, the elder son of Brahma Deva, reacted sharply against what Mahi Sagara said and condemned the highly self-opinionated views; he said that virtuous persons never made statements like that since that tantamounted to boasting, ego and a blatant display of ‘Ahamkar’ which was against the established norms of morality, especially referring to the merits of others. So saying, Dharma Deva gave a curse that the Tirtha be destroyed! On witnessing the proceedings at the Conference, there were ‘Hahakars’ or Great Commotions. Skanda Deva objected to Dharma’s ‘Shaapa’ (Curse) and defended the fact that there was indeed no other Tirtha in the Universe that was comparable to Mahi Sagara. In turn, Dharma Deva became ready to resign, which meant that the entire World would become irreligious, full of Adharma and lawless! Narad intervened at this juncture that on the one hand, Dharma Deva’s role was outstanding in upholding virtues while Skanda Deva was actually the Son of Bhagavan Ishvar and the Commander-in-Chief of Deva Sena. Any friction between these two illustrious personalities might jeopardise Universal balance and as such the compromise formula suggested was that Mahi Sagara Tirtha be declared as a Gupta (Secret) Kshetra and as an Unknown Destination; but any devotee observing fast and worship on Amavasya falling on Saturdays in the name of the Mahi Tirtha would be reaping worth ten times more of Prabhbas Tirtha, Seven times of Pushkar Tirtha Yatras, and eight times of Prayag. This was also acceptable to Brahma, Dharma and Skanda and all the Sacred Deities represented at Mahi Sagara including Paramatma Vishnu, Maha Deva and Maha Devis. Mahi River flows from Maalava mountain still its merger into the Western Arabian Sea till a ‘Vijaya Stambha’ or Victory Column as Devas requested Skanda Kumara to celebrate and set it up to signify the termination of Tarakasura by the valour of Skanda. Skanda experienced extreme remorse to have killed Tarakasura a Brahmana by birth. Then Lord Vishnu advised that the only Prayashchitta or Purification would be to set up a Kumarswar Complex containing Three Vishuddha Shiva Lingas viz. Pratigneshwar, Kapileshwar and Pancha Mukheshvar-Tatpurusha, Aghora, Sadyojata, Vaama Deva and Ishana-all in the presence of Brahma and Devas. As Kartikeya after the Linga Pratishtha, he recited Shata Rudreeyam and an ever pleased Maha Deva appeared and demolished the former’s Brahma Hatya Maha Pataka on the termination of Tarakasura. Since Kumareswar Complex was set up already, Skanda Deva agreed to the request of Devas to put up a Victory Tower named „Viswanandak” and before it a Siva Linga. Skanda put in His ‘Shakti’ and created ‘Patala Ganga’ in a Well atop the Victory Tower, where on Magha Krishna Paksha Chaturdasi, human beings would take bath in that Well, offer ‘Pitru Tarpans’ and worship to Vijaya Sthambheswar with Flowers and Sandal Paste; these acts would be as significant as Gaya Shradddh and Vajapeya Yagna Phal respectively. In fact, the Tarpan and Worship could as well be repeated every Pournima and Amavasya in the Mahi Sagar Sangam for similar results. When this Victory Tower and Procedure were announced, Indra, Brahma and Vishnu were highly enthusiastic and appreciative. Meanwhile, a Demon named Pralambasura, who ran away from the army of Tarakasura, hid himself in Patalaloka and persecuted the Devotees of the Siva Lingas set up by Skanda as a Purification of Brahmahathya Sin; this information was given by Kumud, the son of Sesha Nag, the Deva Serpent to Skanda who utilised the Shakti named arrow, tore apart a line through Prithvi and smashed the Demon Pralamb and his associates. As a follow up, Brahma and others set up a ‘Siddheswar Linga’ and Devatas themselves dug up a Sarovar and Skanda named it as ‘Siddha Kupa’( which incidentally was the route through which Pralamba and company were killed in Patalaloka); they all prayed to Shakti Siddhamba to be present and bless devotees, especially on Ashtamis and Chaturdasis. Again, in the Siddheswara Tirtha, Devas requested Lord Ganesh too to stay at the Siddha Kshetra in the form of Sidhha Vinayaka. In fact, Devas and Brahma set up Seven Siddha Entities viz. Siddheswar, Siddh Vat (Vriksha), Siddhambika, Siddhi Vinayak, Siddha Kshetraadhipathi, Siddheswar Tirtha and Siddha Kupa.

Manasarovar-Kailasha Yatra

Kailasa parvate Rama! Manasaa nirmimat param, Brahmaana nara shardula tendem Manasah sarah/(Vishvanitra addresses Shri Rama to say: ‘Rama! Atop Kailasa Mountain, a highly Sacred Sarovara got materialised by the mind and thought of Brahma and thus has come to be renowned as ‘Manasa Sara’- Valmiki Ramayana) Jannmoushadhi tapomantra yoga siddhairetarih, Jushtam kinnaragandharvair – apsarobhi vritam sadaa/(Only blessed persons who are Siddhas and Tapodhanas, Parama Yogis, besides Kinnara, Gandharva, Apsaras and such Celestial Beings could have their abodes at Manasarovar). Hari Vamsha which is a component of Skanda Purana makes a detailed reference to this outstanding Maha Tirtha and an unparalleled Siddha Kshetra). This Manasovara Yatra is for sure a far tougher Yatra hardly comparable to Badarinath, Muktinath and Kedarnath as the time duration involved in this is far longer; it might well take up some three weeks as it involves halts at Nepal and Tibet and visa restrictions. Yatra to destinations like Manasarovara-Kailasa, Amarnath, Gomukha, Swargarohana and such Tirthas are to be negotiated to heights of minimum twelve thousand feet above Sea level and breathing could be very difficult often having to even carry the weight of oxygen supplies. To reach Manarasarovar there could be several routes to be followed such as via Kashmir to Ladakh, Nepal to Muktinath, via Darma Dare and via Gangotri. Some of these approach routes would not only be circutous, but risky having to negotiate freezing cold, subject to vagaries of rain, slippery, lonely routes and such hardships of slopy climbing, besides hunger and thirst, apart from attacks of animals and tricksters quite apart from the risk of losing the way. This yatra is however not as that death knocking as facilities are indeed available like the help, vigil and intermittent presence of Army Authorities, periodical shops for provisions and some food, medical assistance, guides for general assistance, availability of hired labour, dharma shalas or resting places, riding by mules or yaks, personal carriers called ‘dolies’ and so on. The Yatra routes could be normally the Leepu Marg from Tanakpur Railway Station-Pittorgad-Kanaleechina-Askot- Balavakot-Dharchola- Khela-Paang-Sirakha-Jupati-Malpa- Budh-Garabyang-Kalapani-Sangchum-Lipu ghati-Pala-Taklakot in Tibet-Mancha-Rakhsastaal-Gusul on the banks of Mansarovar-Jyukumpha-Barkha-Bangudu Mandi- Darachin. The best time for this Lipu Marg is from first to end June and this is perhaps the shortest route. Now the Kailas Parikrama or Circumambulation commences from Darchin/ Lingifu or Nandi Gufa- Gaurikund which is 11, 000 feet high from sea level-Jandalafu-Darchin thus the Parikrama distance totalling 20 km! Another ‘Marg’ is called Jouhar/Jayanti Marg: From Kathgodam Railway Station to Kapkot -90 km. approx. to Maani-Devbagadh-Shyama-Ramari-Tejam- Kuhati-Girgaon-Rathpaani-Tiksen or Manasary-Bogadyar -Rilkot-Milam-Pung-Chirchun- Thaajaang- Manithanga-Gurthang- Tirthapuru- Nandigufa- Derafu Bouddha Mandir-Gauri kunda. The best season for this Jouhar Marg is from 25th June to 15th August and involves less number of ups and downs and is also of nice scenic beauty. Yet another Marg is by way of Niti Ghat from Rishikesh Railway station to Joshua- Tapovan-Suraiyi Thota- Jumbha-Manlari-Bamba-Neeti-Hoti Ghati- Hoti- Jyutaal- Iyungul- Amlagtara- Gojemevaru- Dengo- Gurjnaam-Tirthapuri and further way from here to Gaurikund as in the earlier Jouhar Marg. The best time is from end June till mid-August. On this route, Yatris could have the benefit of visiting Haridwar, Rishikesh, Deva Prayag and Badar inath also. It is not necessary that the same route be followed both ways. Now a days of course, the services of quite a few Travelling Agencies with competing fees and facilities are available and those who could afford are mainly undertaking the Yatra either by Overland or by Air; The former way is less expensive as organised tours over 13 days from Kathmandu, Nepal and the latter comprising a ten days yatra ex Kathmandu is for 10 days and is more expensive (the going rates for the year 2014 are Rs. 80,000 and 135,000 respectively). The overland way for 13 days is: Day 1: Kathmandu-Day 2: Drive to Kodari to Nyalam-Day 3: Nyalam- Day 4: Acclimitasation and rest at Nyalam-Day 5: Nyalam to New Dongba- Day 6: Dongba to Manasarovar-Day 7: Puja/ holy dip at the Lake and drive to Darchen-Day 8: Kailas Kora and outer Parikrama from Darchen and on to Durapuk- Day 9: Parikrama continues and on to Drolma Pass to Zutulpuk-Day 10: Zutulpuk to Donga-Day 11: Donga to Nyalam - Day 12: Nyalam to Kathmandu- Day 13: Transfer to Kathmandu airport. In the overland way there are two packages- one with all facilities and one excluding some facilities; the latter is with three nights at Kathmandu, sight seeing at Kathmandu, coach for China border, Tibet visa, accommodation and coach fromTibet, trekking permit, oxygen cylinders, and all taxi charges but excluding travel insurance, horse riding during parikrama, air ticket to and fro Kathmandu and so on. This package is Rs. 80,000 as of 2014 Yatras during the prescribed timings of May-Sept. On the other hand, the helicopter rate for the 10 days Yatra costing Rs. 135,000 has its itinerary as follows: Day 1: Arrival at Kathmandu and sight seeing-Day 2: Fly Nepalganj-Day 3: Fly to Simikot / Hilsa toTaklakot-Day 4 acclimatisation and excursion, halt overnight at Taklakot- Day 5: Drive to Mansarovar;
Day 6: Start for Kailash Kora and commence Outer Parikrama from Darchen to Dirapuk - Day 7: continue Parikrama over Drolmala to Zutulpuk - Day 8: From Zutulpuk monastery, trek back to Darchen and drive to Takrakot - Day 9: fly back to Simikot to Nepal ganj and on to Kathmandu - Day 10: Back to Bharat. After crossing the Himalaya range and entering Tibet on passing some 20 km are two mountain tops one with Raksha Sarovar and another being Manasarovar. It is a legendary belief that Ravanasura performed severe ‘Tapas’ to win over Parameshwara residing on the Kailash Mount. Manasarovar waters are crystal clear of bluish tinge and the Lake is of the shape of an egg stated to have spread over some 15 km. This is one of the Fifty One Shakti Peethas where the right wrist bracelets of Devi Sati’s ‘jeerna sharir’ fell as Lord Vishnu’s Sudarsham Chakra sliced off the body parts at the Daksha Yagna so that Maha Deva’s fury would otherwise have continued at the sight of the body. The Devi at this Shakti Peetha is known as Gayatri and Maha Bhairava is called Sarvanand. In this heavenly Lake, thousands of swans fly along and across, some of crystal white colour stated to be ‘Raja Hamsas’ or Royal White Compexion and the rest of off-white colour. It is believed that at times, natural pearls too are available in the sweet and none too chilled cold waters of the Celestial Lake with plenty of multi-coloured stones and prism like pebbles. There is not much of greenery on the banks and in fact not many trees and flowers up the Mount. Mount Kailas is about 12 km up the Mansarovara. Even while approaching the Kailash Dham, one can have its darshan from a distance but the Dham becomes clearer from Kungarivingari Shikhar or top of Jouhar Marg if the clouds are not obstructing the view. The people of Tibet are full of devotion to the Dham and swear to complete Parikrama of the 20 km. circumference by ‘sashtangas’ or prostrations and heartfelt ‘namaskaras’ all the way. Like Lord Shri Rama at Saketa at the Ayodhya Dham, Goloka’s Vajra dhaam of Bhagavan Shri Krishna as described in great detail in Brahma Purana as also Maha Deva delineated vividly in Shiva Purana and Skanda Purana, Parama Shiva’s abode is Kailasa Dham on the unique Kailasa Mount; indeed this view among the Himalaya Shikhiras is stated to be unusually distinct and unparalleled! The description of Kailasa Mount is akin to that of the Virat Shiva Linga just as the center of a Lotus with sixteen petals all around as the ‘Shikhar Madhya Shringa’ or the raised horn of the Mount being the centre of literally counted as fourteen Shringas. In fact the central Shringa commands spontaneous awe, vibration and arresting attentiveness subdued by ecstasy and fullness of fulfillment. As ‘abhishakas’ or holy baths on the ‘Linga Mastaka’ are led into Gauri kunda. This Maha Linga Swarupa Maha Deva is of Black Stone and its sides are all covered with layers of iced milk. This mountain alone stands out as black but all the surrounding mountains are raw brownish. Kailasa Parakrama of 20 km. is possible within three days but perhaps reaching Kailasha Shikhir of the height of 19000 ft from Sea level is worthy of endeavour by dare devil- mountaineers! Incidentally, Badarinatha Murti which was brought by Adi Shankaraacharya from Tibet was installed at Badari Mandir. Adi Badari in Tibet is of immense significance where at Naani Ghaati Maha Deva’s Dhu Linga is stated to be present besides ancient Murtis of ageless primacy!

Mandapalli Shaneshwara: The famed Mandeshwara (Shaneshwara) Temple which is 24 km from Rajamandri is quite popular in Andhra Pradesh and several groups arrive here to ward off the ill-effects of Saturn Period passing through the astrological phases of the Seven Year retrograde period in one’s life. Mandeswara Shiva Linga is appeased by ‘Tailaabhishekas’ or Til Oil Abhishekas accompanied by Namaka-Chamaka Paraayanayas with Shuchi and Shradha or Cleanliness and Faith; after the Abhishakas are over and receiving the blessings, the devotees are normally advised to discard the clothes to ensure that the traces of ‘Shani’ are left behind as the Mandeswara Linga absorbs the ill-effects and washes the karta back to the stages of purity. The legend of this Mandeswara Linga is traced back to Sage Dadhichi’s unique sacrifice of donating his own backbone with which Indra materialised ‘Vajyayudha’ to kill Vritrasura and subsequently Kartabha daiya of this area. To avenge their father’s death the demon sons of Kartabha, viz. Aswartha and Pippala tormented the residents of the area especially the Sages engaged in Tapasya and yagnas on the banks of Godavari who approached Agastya Maharshi; the Maharshi in turn worshipped Mandeshwara Shaneshwara; the latter hesitated as his own powers were perhaps might fall short of the combined strength of the densed up evil forces of all the Daityas. Agastya readily agreed to supplement the Taposhakti of the Sages and thus Shani spearheaded the battle and destroyed the enemies what is more continues till date the warding off of the obstacles of his own devotees!

Mantralaya: The Mutt of renowned Raghvendra Swami, an ardent follower of Madhwacharya is at Brindavana the on the banks of Tungabhadra and near Mantralaya Road connected to Indian Railways besides road net work to Adoni by 50 km; Kurnool by 100 km and Hyderabad by 250 km. Raghavendra Mutt and Samadhi are near the Mangalamma Temple, and normally devotees worship there first and then enter the Rahavendra Swamy Temple which attracts lakhs of visitors every year. The famed Panchamukha Anjaneya Temple from Brindavan is apart by 23 km. There were severe floods of the River in 2009 at Mantralaya and Raghavendra Mutt at Brindavan was submerged but normalcy got recovered soon later.

Melkote/ Yadagiri: is considered as one of the most important Vaishnava Kshetras in Dakshina Bharat, besides Shri Rangam and Kanchi puram in Tamil nadu, Tirupati Balaji in Andhra Pradesh. Of the 108 Vaishnava Kshetras all over Bharat, Yadagiri’s Narayana Mandira is reckoned among the essential one. The utmost significance of this Tirtha is mainly due to Guru Ramanujacharya’s long association with and residence for about sixteen years. He was also responsible of ‘Punaruddharana’ or revival and reconstruction of this Kshetra. Besides the Main Temple of Narayana and the Utsava Murti of Parikrama-the original Sampatkumara Swami, there is a Panchatarani Tirtha also called Veda Pushkarini. Besides on the Mountain nearby there is also a Yoga Nrisimha Mandir. Paridhana shila is reputed as the Rock where Bhagavan Dattatreya took to Sanyasa; Ramanujacharya too is stated to have repeated his Sanyasa once again by assuming the Dhama again with a fresh set of Kamandalu, Kashaya vastra etc. after bathing at Panchatarani. Even the practice is followed by several Sanyasis of Vaishnava Faith. There is an intereting story popular in the Area: when once Ramanujacharya experienced shortage of ‘Tirumana’ or the ‘Sweta mrittika’ or white earth paste with which Vaishnavites decorate their foreheads with ‘Tilaka’ and kept on worrying in his night sleep; at an early morning dream, Bhagavan Narayana appeared and told that there was a plentiful stock of Tirumani available with Him and directed the Acharya to reach a specific Tulasi Vana in the Mountain garden. After his snaan and daily ‘Anushthana’, Mahatma Ramanuja ascended the mountain with his close associates and reached a Tulasi Garden as directed; he dug up down a foot underneath and discovered a Narayana Pratima along with Tirumani. The Acharya built a Mandir and installed the Idol formally with Veda Mantras! Another interesting story is in circulation about Ramanujaacharya in the Temple premises. When the Acharya arrived at the Melukote Mandir there was no Mula Vigraha of Narayana was missing and the Parikrama Vigraha named Sampat Kumara Swami was installed instead since the Soldiers of Delhi Badsha plundered the Yadavagiri Temple and took away the Narayana Vigraha and presumably gifted to Delhi Badsha. On realising the background, the Acharya visited Delhi and approached the Durbar; the Acharya was asked to approach the Princess as the Vigraha was gifted to her and she kept it as a memento! She not only agreed to return but also desired to accompany it to witness its re-installation at Yadaagiri. But alas! On her way itself she succumbed to a heart attack and died as though there was a dispensation of divine justice!
Mookambika (Kollur): From Kundapur or Chikmagalur by some 20 km is the popular Siddhi Peetha and Shakti Peetha named Mookambika Devi Mandir. It is also acclaimed as one of the Mukti Kshetras by Parashu Rama, besides Gokarna, Udi, Subramanya and so on. The legendary background was that there was a demon named Kaumasura who spread terror in the region on the banks of River Souparnika and even Devas could not suppress his misdeeds harassing Rishis and obstructing them to perform Yagnas which indeed were the providers of Amrit as he was puffed up by the boons of Shiva and was invincible except by a woman. Devas approached Devi Parvati for help and realising that the Asura drew his strength from his loud stotras to Maha Deva daily, she made him dumb to start with and eventually killed him, thus acquiring the Title of Mookambika or Devi with the power of tongue. After the installation of her by Devas as Mookambika, there was also a Swambhu Shiva Linga even as Devi resided in a Moola Chakra. Way back in the 12th century AD, Mookambika Temple was set up at the instance of Rani Chennamma and was further patronised by many Hindu Kings. Adi Shankara stopped over at Kollur to rejuvenate the powers of the Shri Chakra in which Devi Mookambika resides. The architectural beauty of the vast original Lakshmi Mandapa supported with four strong pillars of some 135 feet high are embellished with sculptures of Deities like Ganesha, Kumara, Mahishasura Mardini, Naga Devatas etc. A huge pillar called ‘Deepasthambha’ with hollow circulars with lit up lamps present a fantastic picture from a distance. In the Garbha Sthaana or the Santum, Devi Mookambika is seated in Padmasana pose with Shankha and Chakra in hands, before the Shri Chakra and the Swayambu Shiva Linga. Navaratri Festival for the Nine Days draws unmanageable crowds and even other wise there are Trikaala Pujas performed formally with recitations of Veda Mantras attracting devotees with orderly manner and lot of faith and devotion, some holding the signs of Sarpas to ward off Naga Doshas. The collection of invaluable ornaments gifted from ages right from Rani Chennamma who presented a priceless emerald which is ornamented to the Deity till date on special puja days, from Vijayananagar’s Monarch Krishna Deva Raya a golden mask, the earlier Chief Minister of Karnataka a silver sword, the earlier Chief Minister of Tamilnadu M.G. Ramachandran a golden sword and so on is indeed noteworthy.

Mt. Abu (Arbudachala): Both Maha Bharata in Vana-Tirtha Yatra Prakarana and Maha Padma Purana in Adi Parva extolled the Arbudaachala Mahatmya or Abu Kshetra: Tato gacchet Dharmanjna Himavatsu- madhbutam, Priithivyam yatrat vai cchidram purvamaaseed Yudhishtara/ Tatraashtamo Visishtasya tripu-lokeshu vishrutah,Tatrepaya rajanimekaam gosahasra phalam labhet/ ( Dharmanjna Yudhishtara, then if you visit Himalaya Putra Arbudaachala (Abu), there there is a cave mouth where there is the most illustrious Vasishtha Ashram famed all over the three lokas; if a human being could manage even a night’s stay then he or she would be eligible for the MahaPhala of thousand Go daana!) Abu mountain- peak of some 9 km length and 4 km width is some 225 km from Ahmedabad where Bhagavan Shri Krishna halted at Maharshi Vasishtha’s Ashram en route Mathura to Dwaraka at Hrishikesha Mandir seen in the old way known as Dwarka Dwaar up to the peak. King Ambarisha performed his tapasya near that Mandir. Among the notable Places at Mount Abu are Suya Kunda with the adjoining Kanweshwara Shiva Mandir, Manikarnika Tirtha, Maharshi Gautama Ashrama where Naga Kunda is stated to be popular especially on Naaga Panchami celebrations are organised as also the popular Delwada Jain Mandirs including those of Adinath, Vastu paala, Teja paala, Parshava natha and Deva Rani Jethani; Yagneshhra, Agnin Tirtha, Kankhal Tirtha, Guru Dattatreyya Sthaana on the Mountain top, Achaleshwar Shiva Mandira, Bhrigu Ashram, Achalagadha Jai Mandira, and Arbuda Devi Mandira atop mountain top

the Pandava King: Punyaa Kankhale Ganga Kurukshetre Saraswati, Graameevaa yadi vaaranye punyaa sarvatra Narmadaa/ Tribhiihi Sdasrasvatam punyam sptaaahena tu Yaamunam, Sadyah punaati Gaangeyam darshan aadeva Naarmadam/ (Ganga in Haridwar and Saraswati in Kurukshetra are indeed ‘Punayamais’ or fruitful but Narmada River, be it in villages or forests is always replete with Punya. The belief is that Sarasvati River dips and ‘snaana’ for three days, Yamuna snaana for a week and Ganga snaana is instantly fruitful; but the very sight of the Sacred waters of Narmada bestows the same type of Purification and Punya!) Narada continues the explanation that Narmada is known for its worth in all the Lokas to one and all including Devatas, Asuras, Gandharvas and Tapodhana Rishis, especially those who observed continuous Tapas and attained Fulfillment. Those who take formal snaana and observe cleanliness of body and mind engaged in sincere meditation overnight would achieve the far reaching benefit of redeeming his past hundred generations. Those who bathe in the Janeshwar Tirtha with discipline and faith and offer Pinda daana to Pitrus would satisfy their Souls till the end of Pralaya in the world. Once one performs Snaana and Puja by offering flowers, Chandana, camphor light, Abhiseka, Naivedya and other such services to Rudra Deva on Amara kantak mountain, besides observing celibacy and control of Indriyas as also performing Tarpanas to Devas and Devarshis then again he and seven generations would be redeemed. The Reva Khanda of Skanda Purana quotes the conversation of King Yudhishtar and Agastya Maharshi and describes the origin of Narmada as in the days of yore, King Pururava of Chandra vamsha who ruled over the entire Bhu Loka as Indra was to Swarga. He asked Sages in a Conference as to what should be the singular solution to attain values of Life, fulfillment and happiness besides Salvation as the normal public is not adept in Yagnaadi Karma Kanda etc. Maharshis unanimously suggested that this sinful world, the ordinary ‘pra’ja could be redeemed if only the Holy Narmada was brought down to Earth. King Pururava then performed very severe and sincere Tapas to Maha Deva without food for years together and the latter obliged with his darshan and sought Pururava’s wish. Then Maha Deva who was reluctant first but finally asked Devi Narmada to descend from Swarga. Devi Narmada no doubt agreed but wondered as to who could bear the brunt of the fall from Swarga. Maha Deva instructed Vindhya Giri and the latter asked his son Paryanka Mountain to bear the brunt when Mekala Kanya Narmada descended to Earth. She rushed down with tremendous speed and sound as though there was a Pralaya and she submerged forests, hills, villages, Ashrams and land of about 1320 km. of length. The Sacred Narmada is the traditional boundary of Uttara Bharat and Dakshina Bharat between the Satpura and Vindhya ranges of mountains finally merging into Arabian Sea through Kambhat Gulf in Gujarat. The total River basin of nearly 4 lakh sq. Km area benefitting Madhya Pradesh, Gujarat, Maharashtra and Rajasthan. Far more than the material benefits of land fertility, industry and power, the Great Narmada facilitates reaping of Spiritual rewards enabling Snana- Dana-Japa-Homa-Veda paatha- Pitru Puja- Devaardhana-Mantropadesha-Ananta Phala by way of rewarding the enhancement of the Spiritual values of Human Life! Skanda Purana prescribes the Spiritual tasks on the most rewarding days, viz. Vaishakha-Maagha-Kartika Purnimas, Vishuwa Yoga timings, Sankranti dinas, Vyatipata and vaidhruti yoga timings, Amavayas, Manvaadi- Yucaadi-Kalpaadi Tithis, and Maatru-Pitr-Tithis. Narmada snana, daana, japa, homaadi pujas are stated to reap Ashwamedh yagna phala. Agastya Maharshi finally advises King Yudhishtara in Skanda Purana that any human being on early mornings renders the hymns of praise to Narmada would reduce down the brunt of accumulated blemishes of his or hers past sins and indeed the snaana-Baana Linga puja as prescribed shall fortify the path of ascent to Shivadhaama! Skanda Puran’s Reva Khand itself quotes two other versions of Markandeya to Yughishthar about the origin of Narmada River. One is that of King Pururava of Chandra Vamsha who did deep Tapasya to Maha Deva who granted to him the boon for the descent of Narmada from Swaraga.
and Vindhya Giri’s son Paryanka undertook the task of bearing the brunt of holding the mighty flow of Narmada Devi, as explained as earlier. Another version is given that King Hiranya Teja again of Chandra Vamsha too did the Tapasya to Maha deva with similar desire of ensuring ‘loka kalyan’ and the same was granted by Maha Deva who instructed Vindhya Raja and his son Paryanka. A third version is being now given that that King Purukutsa the son of King Mandhata of Surya Vamsha did Tapasya to Mahadeva who granted the boon to let Narmada Devi flow downfrom Swarga controlled by Paryanka the son of Vindhya King. Continuing the third version, Markandeya describes that as soon as Narmada landed on the Mount top of Prayanka, where in the past Pruthu Chakravarti performed Ashwamedha Yagnam Deva, Gandharwa, Yaksha, Marud, Ashwani Kumars, Piscacha, Rakshasa, Naga, Tapasvi Maharshis were non-plussed with joy and excitement and profusely thanked Purukutsa for his unforgettable efforts. Devas requested Narmada Devi to shake hands with her so that they too would be purified further. She replied that since she was still unwed she would not to like to shake her hands with any body; Devas replied that the best candidate for the wedding would be King Purukutsa himself as he was actually Lord Samudra himself but due to Brahma deva’s ‘shaap’ or curse, he was born in Martya loka. Narmada who was also aware of King Purukusa’s previous background readily expressed her consent to wed him and pushed off making roaring sounds rushing westward like a released arrow submerging deep forests, hill tops and green pastures; on her banks were sprouted Tirthas, Mandirs, and Holy Places as humanity in the concerned stretches performed holy dips, baths, tarpanas, and on its banks performed yagnas, homas, Pujas, daanas, ‘tapas’, japas and such several redeeming punya karyas eversince as the Maha Narmada set the tone of devotees for destroying sins of varying magnitude. Meanwhile, Narmada Devi the sister of Naaga/ Serpent brothers absorbed her after her merger in Samudra respectfully into Rasatala as per the instructions of Vishnu to King Vasuki, Maha Vishnu Purana describing Surya/ Chandra Raja Vamsha details reference to Gandharva-Naaga battle in Rasaatala as six crores of Gandharvas descended there for hunting the priceless ‘Ratnas’ on the Naaga heads. Naagas prayed for protection in desperation and Lord Vishnu instructed King Purukutsa to destroy the warring Gandharvas and protect Naagas. In turn, Naagas expressed gratitude to Purukutsa to wed Devi Narmada who has already made up her mind to wed him. As a wedding gift, Naagas gave a boon to the newly weds that whosoever bathed in Narmada or even took her name would be saved from the fear of snakes and their poisonous bites: Narmadaayi namah Pratarnamaadaayi namo nisha, Namostu Narmade tubhya traahimaam visha sarpatah/ (Devi Narmada! My salutations to you in the day time or night; do kindly safeguard me from fear of serpents and their poisonous bites!). This recitation while entering dark or even well-lit places especially while eating food should save from any kinds of poises thanks to Narmada and Purukutsa!

Nathdwara: Not far from Marwad and not even from Ahmedabad is the most famed and highly popular Tirtha on Ahmedabad-Delhi line at Marvad Junction of Western Railways with excellent road connections. Also there are decent and comfortable places to stay at Nathdwara. The most important Mandir which is ever crowded is of Shri Nathji, reckoned as one of Bharat’s outstanding Vaishnava Peethas run by Vallabhacharya Vamsa Tilakaayata.Shrinathji’s miracles are described as many: Once when there was an apprehension of Muslim Rulers invading Vraja Bhumi, the Pratima of Shri Natha was taken to a safer place in Mewar and when was being moved out, the bullock cart by which it was being brought, broke its axis and gave way at the Bilwara Village. It was then presumed by those responsible for the shift decided to install the Pratima there itself; since its installation, the miracles displayed were so many that today, mere darshan with faith of the yatris has proved as definite fulfillments. Shri Nath’s puja is performed with great ‘Nishtha’ or purity of body and soul at the Temple. In fact, the visitors get moved being replete with joy and and vibration of body and heart! As the darshan is provided in intervals of time, many devotees are desirous of repeat darshans in spite of waiting their turns in meandering queues. The Mandir affords to spend fortunes on its upkeep thanks to its rapidly increasing income and assets. The Prashad at the Temple is as delicious and sacred as at Jagannatha Mandir at Puri, as here too the Prashad is fully devoid of ‘sparsha dosha’ or the blemish of touch! Nearby in the vicinity of the Mandir are the Idols of Navanita Laala, Vithalnatha, Kalyana kaaraya, Madanmohana, and Vanamaali at their Mandirs. In one Temple Devi Meera bai is also seated blissfully. Kankaroli’s Dwarkaadhheesha and the Chaturbhuji Rupanarayana Mandirs are also not too distant from Nathdwara.

Pandarpur: Another very auspicious and popular Tirthas in Maharashtra is Pandarpur which is keenly worshipped and frequently visited by Bhaktas and by Yatris especially on Ekadashis, more so as this happens to be the Dham of Vithoba and Rakhumai (Devi Rukmini) besides the permanent Places of Tukaram, Namdeo, Ranka banka, Narahari and such other illustrious Sants. Maha Bhakta Pundareeka was originally responsible for the installation of the Idols on the Sacred banks of River Bhima also called Chandrabhaga. The installed Idol Vithoba carved in black stone stands on the legendary stone which Maha Bhakta Pundarika threw at Bhagavan to stall his entry into his room where his beloved parents were about to sleep, even with his full knowledge that Bhagavan himself was waiting the Bhakta’s door step! The Idol is standstill with both Bhagavan’s hands resting on his ‘kamar’ or both sides of his back. Devi Rakhu mayi is installed an a seperate Mandir in the vicinity. Mandirs of Balaram, Satyabhama, Jambavati and Radha Devi are outside nearby. On the banks of Chandra bhaga River are the Chandra bhaga Tirtha, Soma Tirtha and so on as also Narada Mandira and Ten Shiva Lingas, besides Vishnu Pada Imprint besides the Mandirs of Gapalji,Janabai, Ekanath, Namdev, Jnaneeshwar and Tukaram. The legendary background of Pundareeka’s installation of Vithoba is as follows briefly: A youth named Pundarika was living in a forest village with his aged parents named Janudeva and Satyavati and originally he was quite an obedient son but after wedding, he started ill treating them to a point that they decided to leave for Kasi even till their death. Pundarika came to know of the plan and he too decided to accompany the parents along his wife. On way to Kasi, he harassed the parents to their great discomfort. In a village on way, the were too tired and halted for a few days at an Ashram, even as Pundarika intensified his mal treatment to his parents. One night he dreamt that two maidens named Ganga and Jamuna provided great service at the Ashram; but after all it was not dream but reality. Pundarika tried next morning to talk to them and indeed their names were as per the dream. They gave him a curt talk and said that a person who treated his parents ill were like worse than animals as even beasts would not treat the parents as he did. Pundarika felt a shock and suddenly realised that parents were like Gods and since then there was a sea change in him. His bhakti to parents as well as to Vishnu got intensified; he had since treated the parents like Gods and Lord Vishnu was so pleased that he appeared at Pundarika’s door step. Even while the latter realised that Vishnu himself was standing out, he did not want to disturb the parents who were about to sleep after their meals so affectionately and devotedly he gave to them just then. To ensure that Vishnu should not enter the hermitage, he threw a brick outside to let the Lord know that the parents be better not disturbed! The Lord correctly got Pundarika’s message and waited at the door step. After the parents slept off peacefully, Pundarika came out and aplogisingly fell at the feet of Vishnu and mumbled ‘Oh Lord, I did not want to leave on your arrival as I was just putting my parents to sleep! Do pardon me! The Lord was so moved that he offered to grant a boon to him and rightly Pundarika asked that he be near to the Lord for ever! The latter agreed to do so and said that by he be henceforth known as Vittoba since Pundarika addressed the Lord by that very name and the Place wherever the bhakta would install his Idol be known as Pundari pura!

Pithapura: Nearly 8km from Annavaram is Pithapuram which is famed for two reasons - as Pada Gaya and as Shakti Peetha; as Pada Gaya this is enlisted as Bharat’s Five noted Pitru Tirthas viz. Gaya shira Kshetra in Bihar, Yajapura Vairatini in Odisha, Siddapur in Gajarat’s Matru Gaya Kshetra, Badari’s Brahma Kapala and this Paada Gaya Kshetra at Pithapur. The Shakti Peetha is at Puruhuta Devi Mandir where the left hand of Sati Devi’s body fell in the Temple of Kukkuteshvara Shiva and Raja Rajeswari Devi. Ryali: Connected with the legend of ‘Kshira Sagara Mathana’the Temple of Jagan Mohini Keshava Swami at Ryali some 25km from Rajamandry which is well known for bestowing the devotees various boons of promotions and instant transfers of employment in Service. Right opposite the Temple of Jaganmohini is the Temple of Uma Maheswara Swami which is also related to the legend of Samudra mathana as Maha Deva retained the ‘halahala’ in his throat! Pancharamas: The legendary background of the Pancha-Aaramas is Unique: Pursuant to Daksha Yagna which basically was performed out of hatred and envy of Daksha Prajapati for Parama Shiva who was indeed his son-in-law being the husband of Sati Devi, the latter unfortunately was uninvited but still attended the Yagna despite Shiva’s reluctance. As Daksha ignored her presence and worse still critised her dear husband by her own father openly, Sati Devi could not bear it and immolated herself in the homa kunda. On knowing about this disaster, Maha Deva went in such rage that he instantly threw a piece of his ‘jatajuta’ and created Veerabhadra and asked him to accompany Chandika Devi to totally devastate Daksha Yagna and kill Daksha too; he made his appearance later at the scene of havoc and having pulled out the body remains of Sati Devi danced in dreadful frenzy when Vishnu realised that there would then be Pralaya or the Great Termination of the Universe, pulled up his Sudarshana Chakra and sliced pieces of the body to ensure that the pieces are scattered all over in indiscriminate direction far and wide. All the Devas, Dikpatis, Rishis and so on then endeavoured to calm down Maha Deva by intense prayers to him. Time had healed his anger and he left for Tapasya for many, many gaps of years. Meanwhile a very dangerous Asura named Taraka secured a Shiva Linga that he always carried and meditated to it so passionately that he secured magnificent powers of invincibility. As the Asura intensified his tragic destruction of Devas and Maharshis, they approached Lord Vishnu who felt that only a son of Maha Deva could annihilate and this could happen only with his remarriage of Devi Parvati. Indra and Devas created several situations of their wedding possible including the efforts of Manmatha and Rati Devi but all failed and most fortunately finally the wedding succeeded and Kumara Swami was born and eventually attacked Tarakasura. Kumara used his Shakti weapon and as per the continued counsel of Vishnu broke the body of the Asura into pieces. But each time Kumara did so, the pieces kept on grouping together and the Asura came alive again and again. Vishnu then advised that the Shiva Linga which the Asura carried round his neck would have to be broken into pieces too. As Kumara did accordingly by using ‘Agneyastra’, the Shiva Linga no doubt went into pieces but they got together by making loud sounds of ‘Namassivaya’. Kumara got frustrated and Vishnu asked him for forbearance; he then instructed Indra, Surya, Chandra and Kumara too to collect the pieces of the Shiva Linga so broken again in four directions at once and straightaway and install them at the same places as they would fall so that the Asura would lose all his powers of invincibility! That was the origin of ‘Panchaaramas’ as follows: 1)Amareswara installed by Indra at Amaravati in Guntur on the banks of River Krishna- all others being on the banks of River Godavari- as Amareshwara Linga with Bala Chamundika as Devi Parvati; 2)Daksharama installed by Surya as Bhimeshwara Linga is one of the largest Shiva Lingas of as muh as 2.5 mtrs. height and Manikyamba a (East Godavari Dt. here Godavari is called as Sapta Godavari Tirtha). Manikyamaba is also stated as one of the 108 Shakti Peethas. It was at this Daksharama where Surya and Indra prayed at this doubly famed Tirtha. Telugu Poet Venmulawada Bheema kavi prayed too. 3)Somarama was installed by Chandra Deva as Someswara Linga as Devi Rajarajeswari his consort at Bhimavaram (W.Godavari Dt.); the Shiva Linga here turns white on Pournamis and black on Amavasyas. 4)Ksheeranama was installed by Lord Vishnu himself as Ksheera Rama Lingeshwara and Devi Parvati at Palakol (W.Godavari Dt.) where Upamanyu Muni did Abhishekas here with milk and hence this name. 5)Bhimbharama was set up by Kumara Swami himself as Kumara Bhimeshwara Linga and Bala Tripura Sundari at Samalkota (East Godavari Dt.), some 20 km. from Kakinada the Port Town

Prayaga / Allhabad: Maha Padma Purana eulogises Prayaga in Uttara Khand as follows: *Jahnavi Ravisutaa Parameshhiputi Sinndhutrayaaharana Tirthavara Prayaga, Sarvesha maamanugrahaana nayaswa chordhwamantastamo dashavidham dalaya swadhaamnaa/ (Prayaga Tirtha Raja which wears the ornament of three Unique Rivers of Ganga from Vishnu paada- Yamuna the daughter of Surya- Saraswati the daughter of Brahma! Sarveswara! Be very kind to me and lift my stature and demolish the ten folded ‘Avidyaandhakara’ or the Darkness of Ignorance and enlighten me into knowledge of brilliance!) Vaageesha Vishnaveesha Purandaraadyaah Paapapramahaaya Vidaam Vidopi, Bhajanti yatteerananeela neelam sa Tirtha raajo jayati prayagah/ (Victory to you Prayaga Tirtha Raja! You are so illustrious that Brahma-Vishnu-Shiva- Indraadi Devas as also Rishi-Maharshis vie with each other to rejoice the Pure White and Blue waters of three Maha Nadis converging together!) Kaalindajaa sangamavaaapya yatra prayaagataa swargaradhuni dhuneti, Adhyaatma taptatrayam janasya sa TeerthaRaajo jayati Prayagaha/ (Victory to you Prayaga Tirtha Raja! Manushyas on accomplishing the Sangama of Ganga- Kalindini- Yamuna witness themselves the complete destruction of ‘Tapatrayas’ viz. Adhyatmika or Issues of Psychological and Mental nature, Adhi daivika or God made problems and Adhibhoutika or of physical ailments!) Padma Purana further states: Victory to you Prayaga Tirtha! You assume bright blue colour and its varying shades which indeed do pacify human beings from the cyclical tribulations of deaths and births. Victory to you Prayaga Tirtha Raja! Brahma and all the Devatas do frequent take reprieve from their own duties only to enjoy your comforting diversion and even Yama dharma Raja too sometimes frees himself from wielding his ever whipping ‘danda’ just to refresh and rejuvenate himself with the tranquility of the Sangama Raja. Victory to you Prayaga Tirtha Raja! Those persons who dive and bathe in this Sangama of three illustrious Rivers viz. ‘Brahmaminaptri Tripatha-striveni’ would reap the ‘Akshata Yaga Phala’ and make way to Brahma Loka! *Lokaanaam akshamanaa –naam Makhakritshu Kalou Swargakaamair japastutyaadhi shtotraitvachobbhih kathamamaramapada prapti chintaataurananaam pramukhamara phalam samyagaalochchhya saanga Brahmaadyaisteertha rajobhimatada upadishtoyameva Prayagah/ (In Kaliyuga, human beings no doubt are desirous of attaining Swarga but are unable to execute Yagjna-Yaagaas but could resort to Japa-Stuti- Stotra-Paatha and the like; at same time they are desirous of achieving Ashwamedhaadi Yajna phala too; so Brahma and Devatas thought over and materialised Prayaga Tirtha Raja to achieve the similar phala by merely but sincerely observe the bathing regulations and secure Salvation). *Grahaanancha yathaa Suryo Nakshatraanaa yathaah Shashi, Tirthaanaamuttamam tirtham Prayagaasyamanuttamam/ (Just as among the Grahas Surya is the outstanding and among the Stars the Moon, Prayaga indeed the the Unique among the Tirthas) Prayage tu Narao yastu Maagha snaanam karoti cha, Na tasya phala samkhysti shriunu Devarshi sattama/ (Those who perform Maagha Snana at Prayaga, they have no measure of Phala sampatti!) To know about the further ‘mahima’ or Unique significance of Prayaga, one might refer to Matsya, Kurma, Agni Maha Puranas also! The very fact that there is a Sangam of three Maha Nadis lends the credential of Prayaga to be the King of Tirthas in Bharat. As there are three distinct river flows have their confluence, this Tirtha rightly designated as Triveni distinguishes itself as Agni Swarupa or of Yagina Vedi; the intermediate region of Ganga-Yamuna is of ‘Garhapatayagni’; where as the region beyond Ganga viz. Pratishthanpur-Jhansi is of ‘Ahavaniyaagni’ and the Region beyong Yamuna ie. Alarkapura and Araaila is to be considered as ‘Dakshinaagni’. Hence those who decide to stay at Prayaga for three nights representing the Three Rivers signified as three types of Agni, would derive the benefit of three Sacred Rivers and three forms of Agni! There is a Magha month celebration at Prayaga and those visiting the Maha Tirtha are in this month are designated as Kalpa Vasis! Several such Kalpavasi Yatris residing at the Triveni Sangama make it a point to reside here during Soura Maasakarakrami upto Kumbha Sankranti and as per Chandramaana stay right up to the end of Maagha Month. Now every twelve years there is a Maha Kumbha at Prayaga when Brihaspati is in Vrishabha Raasi and Surya is in Makara Raasi; every such six years, Ardha Kumbha is observed and then again there is a strong arrival of yatris and a big Mela is organised at Prayaga.

Duties at Prayaga: Yatris to Prayaga Tirtha are expected to observe Upavasa or fasting, Japa, Daana, and worship. ‘Mundan’ is a normal duty for males and widows whereas for married women, ‘Veni daana’ or cutting of long head hair edges duly tied together smeared with Mangala Dravyas like turmeric powder and scented sindura powder are to be slashed with scissors and the hair pieces so cut along with recitation of Mantras blessing long marital life with longevity of husbands; there after ‘Mangala Snanas’ or Sacred and auspicious bathtings are performed again with Mantra recitals while leaving the discarded pieces of their hair edges so slashed formally to the flows of Holy Triveni Sangam. The concerned husbands who would have already bathed earlier should once again perform three dips in the flow by holding the shoulders of their wives. There after at the designated Sangama Sthala where the confluence of Ganga and Yamuna waters of brightness and blueish hues and distinct temperatures of coldness and mild warmth-with Saraswati as the under current, puja is to be performed with three dips again possibly or if travelling by boat, by sprinkling of the Sacred Sangam flows on heads.

Pinda Puja/ Tarpana and Pinda daana in favour of Pitru Devas would be the next duty to be observed on banks of Prayaga Sangam. Main Devasthaanas at Prayaga: Trivenim Madhavam Somam Bharadwaajam cha Vaasukim, Vandekshaya vatam Shesham Prayagam Tirtha naamakam/ (Triveni, Bindumadhava, Someshwara, Vaasuki naaga, Akshya Vata, and Sesha Naaga or Baladeva are the principal Tirthas worthy of including in the Prayaga Yatra itinerary. Veni Madhava is a renowned Vaishnava Peetha nearby Triveni Sangama adjacent to Akshaya Vata. This Bindu Madha in water form comprises twelve Madhavas viz. Shankha Madhava, Chakra Madggha, Gada Madhava, Padma Madhava, Ananta Madhava, Bindu Madhava, Manohara Madhava, Asi Madhava, Sanksashtahara Madhava, Adi Venu Mahaha, Adi Madhava, Shri Veni Madhava; these Madhavas are either Murtis, or Sacred Rocks or of Jala Swarupa Sthanas. Akshaya Vata is near Patalapura Cave as a dry tree bush on Yamuna River bank where several Murtis are on display like Annapurna, Maha Lakshmi, Gauri Ganesha, Bala Mukund, Maha Deva, Saraswati, Vishnu, Nrisimha, Rama Sita Lakshmana Hanuman etc. Besides these, the other Mandirs are Mankemeshwar Mandir of Shiva and Somanatha reachable by boat, Bindu Madhava already mentioned, Naga Vasuki and Bala Deva or Shesha Mandir, Shiva Kuti or Koti Tirtha, Bharadwaja Ashrama, all on Ganga Banks. Lalitha Devi Mandira as mentioned in ‘Tantra Chudamani’ is one of the Shakti Peethas at Prayaga where Devi Sati’s right hand finger fell following her mortal body parts slicing off by Vishnu Chakra and Devi’s name is called Alop Devi. Prayag’s Antarvedi Parikrama is stated to take a couple of days commencing from Triveni sangama Snana and Bindu Madhava worship followed by Yamuna bank’s Paapa vimochana Tirtha, ParashuramaTirtha, Govardhana Tirtha, Pischacha mochanā Tirtha, Manah Kameshwara Tirtha, Kapila Tirtha, Indreshwara Shiva, Takshaka Kunda, Takshakeshwara Shiva, Kaaliya hradha, Chakra Tirtha, Sindhu Sagara Tirtha near Kakaraghaat, and on the road to Pandava Kupa, Varuna Kupa in Gadhayi Sarai, Kashyapa Tirtha, Dravyeshwara nadha Shiva, Surya Kunda and so on. Thereafter, Hanumam darshana and Triveni Snaana would terminate the Antarvedi Parikrama. Bahir Vedi Parikrama is stated to be taken up about ten days but after this one has to undertake Antar vedi parikrama too. Kurma Purana details an account of Prayaga Mahatmya by narrating of Yudhishthara’s remorse and anguish on the conclusion of the Kurukshetra Battle where not only Kaurava cousins but even Bhishma, Karna his own elder brother, several uncles, Gurus and associates were killed; as he desired to perform ‘Prayaschitta’ or formal atonement/ expiation the Vedic way, Maharshi Markandeya suggested Prayaga Titha darshana and penance., since this Kshetra was protected against Evils by some sixty thousand bows and arrows in favour of Ganga and Sabita Deva riding seven horses protected River Yamuna, while Devi Saraswati flowing under ground has the protection of Brahma himself; Indra and Devas kept constant vigil, Vishnu is ever protective and Maha Deva resides on the Vata Vriksha / banyan tree on the banks of the Sangama. The Purana is quoted: Prayaagaam smaranaamasya sarvamaayaati sankshamam, Darshanaat tasya Tirthasya mnaamasamkirtinaadapi, Mrittikaa labhanaad vaapi Narah paapaat pramuchyate/ (The very thought of Prayaga would suffice to destroy sins; Prayaga darshana and naama samkirtana or even the touch of Prayaga sand would evaporate all sins). Along with the banks of Yamuna and Ganga are countless Tirthas each of which has a description; Kurma Purana highlights Yamuna’s southern side two Maha Nagas Kambal and Ashwatara who were great devotees of Parama Shiva stayed at that Tirtha and Snaanas there would ward off ‘sarpa badha’ forever. Another Tirtha named “Hamsa prapatana” near Pratishthaanapura and the belief is that Apsara landed there by Hamsa/ Swan and bathing there enriches beauty of body and heart; Koti Tirtha bathing and possibly death is stated to ensure Swarga nivasa for crores of years. On Ganga’s eastern side is Sarva Samudra Gahvara or Cave and stay there for three days and nights observing fast and celibacy and mental control performing meditation would fetch Ashwamedha Yagna phala. Sangama snaana in Maagha month for three days ensures enormous material fulfillment and at the termination of life the assured passage to higher Lokas. Those who could perform ‘karishagni seva’ or tapasya within a circles of flames of dried cow dung on the banks of the Sangama Place would bestow and preserve diseaseless body and physical fitness. Yet another Tirtha on the northern side of River Yamuna ensures Runa Vimochana or freedom from indebtedness.

Puri Jagannath: Shri Jagannadh is among the foremost four ‘Dhaams’ of Bharata Varsha, viz. Badarinath in Satya Yuga, Rameshwar in Treta Yuga, Dwaraka in Dwapar Yuga and Jagannadh in Kali Yuga. This Dhaam is called with several names such as Shri Kshetra, Purushottama Puri, Shankha Kshetra as it has the outline of Conch shell or Vishnu Bhagavan’s ‘Panchajanya’ as also as Shakteyas call it as Uddiyan Peeth since the navel of Devi Sati’s Yagjna Swarup fell here as one of the major Shakti Peethas. The legendary belief is that in the distant past, there was the worship of Neelachal and on its top there was Nila Madhava Temple and as the Mountain eventually came down to the ground level as the Nilachala Chhatra where Jagannadh Puri exists now. Skanda Purana gives the origin of this Purushottama Kshetra in details as follows from the Essence of Skanda Purana published vide www.Kamakoti.Org/ news:Sage Jaimini told the Munis at Naimisharanya that King Indradyumna, an ardent devotee of Vishnu was keen in having a ‘darshan’ of the Idol of Neela Madhava at the Temple situated in the Nilachal Mountain’s cave, on the coastal side of East Bharatavarsha, in the Utkal Region. The King asked his Priest to ascertain the route and arrange for the trip. One of the Pilgrims who returned from the famed Temple in the foothills of Nilachal Mountain (who perhaps was Bhagavan Jagannatha Himself) described the route to the Royal Priest that the Temple was in Purushottamaka Kshetra near a holy pond known as Rohin adjacent to a place called Odhra and that there was a Temple of Vasudeva besides which there was a hermitage called ‘Shabardeep’ leading to the path of Jagannath Temple. The Royal Priest’s younger brother Vidyapati was approved by the King to make an initial trip so that the King would perform the ‘Yatra’ (expedition) subsequently. Vidyapati and party undertook a tedious and tiring journey to the Ekamvaran forests at the foothills of Mountain and at the Shabardeep hermitage met Vishvavasu. Both Vidyapati and Vishvavasu visited the Place after a steep ascent of the Mountain and finally reached the Rohin Pond and after a bath had Darshan of Neela Madhava. Vidyapati was overwhelmed by the thrilling experience of Jagannatha’s darshan and prayed to Him to his heart’s content. Vidyapati was told by Shabar Vishvavasu that several Devas frequented the Temple and brought expensive gifts and garlands to the Lord; when Vidyapati returned back to King Indradyumna the former showed the flowers which never withered as they were celestial! But Vishvavasu gave the disheartening news to Vidyapati that the latter would not be able to have a darshan of Neela Madhava, although something better might happen! Vidyapati was advised not to disclose this fact to the King on his return to the Kingdom as the King might be highly discouraged. Even as Vidyapati returned and was describing the rapturous darshan that he had of Neela Madhava, Sage Narada appeared and desired to accompany the King on his way to the Purushottama Kshetra. The King and his large entourage set for the journey and reached the banks of River Mahanadi for an overnight stay before proceeding to the Jagannatha Temple next morning. The King of Utkal informed the senior King Indradyumna that there was a very heavy sand storm and the Idol of Neela Madhava was underneath a huge heap of debris. Luckily Sage Narada was with Indradyumna and consoled the latter and assured him that Lord Jagannatha was extremely merciful and that something memorable would happen! Next morning the King’s full entourage crossed River Mahanadi, worshipped Lord Purushottama at ‘Ekaamrechhetra’ and further proceeded to Kotishwar Mahalaya to perform Puja to ‘Tribhuvaneswara’. The latter appeared before Sage Narada and instructed that King Indradyumna should perform hundred Yagyas; that Lord Jagannatha would manifest Himself from under the debris; that a Vata Tree with four branches would have to be carved out by Viswakarma the Celestial Artist as Four Idols of Lord Jagannatha, Balabhadra, Devi Subhadra the sister of the former brothers and ‘Sudarshan Chakra’; that He (Tribhuvaneswara) along with Devi Durga would be present at the top entry of the conchshell shaped Purusha Kshetra; that Lord Brahma would install and consecrate the Holy Idols for the everlasting benefit of generations ahead and the dream and perseverance of King Indradyumna would become fruitful. Sage Narada assured that Lord Tribhuvaneswara’s instructions would be followed in full letter and spirit. From there the caravan moved to Nilakantha Mahadeva and worshipped Mahadeva and Durga. The King was anxious to reach the Place where Lord Jagannatha was under sand; he prayed to Him as though he could visualise the Idol and there emerged a voice from the rubble assuring the King that he would soon have His appearance. Since the first task to be performed was to organise the hundred Yagnas as directed by Tribhuvaneswara, Narad was anxious to take up the construction of the Temple of Lord Nrisimha as that was the Place to complete the Yagnas. Sughat, the son of Viswakarma completed the construction of the Temple within five days, while Vishwakarma made the Idol of Nrisimha which was installed by Narada. Thereafter the task of carving wood for the four major Idols of Jagannath, Balabhadra, Subhadra and Sudarshan Chakra was taken up and a Celestial voice came saying that the Idols would emerge on their own, that the oldest worker be sent inside the Main Gate which should be closed till the job was over, that the sound of drums be kept on continuously till the job was going on inside to cover up the sounds from there, that if somebody heard the sounds from inside he would be irrevocably deaf, and that somebody saw what was happening inside that person would be blind for ever.

On the fifteenth day, a Celestial Voice emerged that all the Idols were manifested. Thereafter the heavenly voices kept on giving instructions about the colour schemes of the Idols (Deep blue like clouds for Jagannatha, white for Balabhadra, red like rising Sun for Subhadra and deep red for Sudarshan), the ornament details and so on. As the Idols were getting ready with all finishing touches, Indradyumna was in trance and asked Jagannatha for nothing excepting salvation from the mortal life. Narada, the King and the entire entourage entered the Sanctum Sanctorium chanting ‘Dwadasaakshara Mantra’ (Om Namo Vasudevaya) in praise of the Lord Jagannatha, ‘Purusha Suktam’ addressed to Balabhadra, ‘Sri Suktam’ for Subhadra and appropriate Vedic Mantras for Sudarshana Chakra. Narada visualised the various articles required for the Consecration Ceremony and were secured by the King. A Palace was built for Brahma and three Chariots were readied for the three Deities; the required number of horses—sixteen to Jagannatha, fourteen to Balabhadra and twelve to Subhadra—were readied too. The mast on top of the Chariot of Jagannatha was made with Garuda Vahan (The Lord’s Carrier), that of Balabhadra had a plough, and of Subhadra’s chariot was a Lotus. Indeed the King was so fortunate that the wherewithall for the Function was instantly procured by Sages and Devas! Finally, at the ‘Muhurat’ time, Lord Brahma performed the Consecration on Suddha Visakha Ashtami on Thursday with Pushyami as the Nakshatra, as witnessed by Devas, Yakshas, Kinnaras and Maharshis! The famous nine day Ratha Yatra commenced on Suddha Ashadha Vidiya and returned from the banks of Bindu Tirtha on the eighth day. Sage Jaimini explained that Lord Brahma clarified to Raja Indradyumna about a doubt as to why Jagannath assumed the Wooden Form of Idols. The ‘Daru’ (Wooden) Idols represent ‘Duhkha vidarana’ or destroying of distress and bestowing of endless happiness; as Srihari is ‘Darumaya’. He therefore manifested in wooden form. At the time of ‘Srishthi’ (Creation) following Pralaya, Parabrahma (The Supreme Being) manifested in the Form of Vedas or the mix of ‘Sabda Brahma’ and ‘Artha Brahma’. Bhagavan Balabhadra is of Rig Ved Swarup, while Subhdras is of Yajur Veda Swarup. Nrisimha is of Sama Veda Swarup and Sudarshan is of A ntharva Veda Swarup. If a composite view is taken, the Deities thus represented all the Veda Swarupas and Jagannatha is the sum total and likewise all these forms are Jagannatha Himself. The ‘Vata Vriksha’ on the Sea Bed at the time of Pralaya was thus the depiction of Bhagavan and the Wooden Idols made out of the Tree are His Symbols! The Sacred Jagannatha Mandir is very wide and large within a courtyard with four major gates, the principal Mandir with four gates comprising three portions, one being the ‘Sri Mandir’ with its minaret which is the highest in which Jagannatha is set up with three huge and most impressive semi ready Vigrahs of Jagannatha in the middle, Devi Subhadra the sister and Baabhadra to the extreme left with their half carved hands shown up as though blessing the Universe; the second portion devoted to Jagan Mohana Mandir and the third portion as Mukha shaala including a Bhog Mandap. The Main Mandir has the Simha Dwara in the Eastern side, Ashwadwaar in the Southern side, Vyaghra dwaar in the Western side and Hasti Dwara in the Northern side. Facing right outside the Basic Mandir or the Sanctum is the Aruna Sthambha and having performed a Pradakshina or circumambulation of the Pillar, one enters the right side of the gate into the Sanctum to vision of the most thrilling experience of Jagannatha Tri- Vigrahas. Opposite the Sanctum, there is a small Vishwanatha Linga; to signify the Linga, the story narrated in the Jagannatha Temple is that a Brahmana had a dream that only after performing Vishweshwara Lingaarchana at Kasi only that Puri Jagannatha darshana and puja would become fruitful. Outside the Pradhana Mandir, an ascent by 25 stepped ladder would lead to a 25 divisioned view of Prakriti or Nature. From the second ‘Praakaara’ of the Main Temple Dwara one could view the Prasada Market within the Temple itself. Further in the Temple are Agajana Natha ganesh, Vatera Maha Deva, PataMangala Devi, Satyanarayana Bhagavan, and Vata Vriksha famed as Kalpa Vriksha, Bala Mukunda Vatapatra shaayi, Ganesha Mandir called Siddha Ganesha, Sarva Mangala Devi and so on. In front of the Jagannatha Nija Mandir is a Mukti Mandala with a Simhasana or Throne where Brahma himself used to be seated. Behind the Mukti Mandap is the Mukta Nrisimha Mandir and most significantly Vimala Devi Mandira, the Shakti Peetha of the Kshetra, followed by Sarasvati, Lakshmi Mandiras and in between that of Nila Madhava Mandir and many such other Temples. Special Festivals are organised from Vaishakha Shukla Tritiya to Jyeshtha Krishna Ashtami when Vigrahas of Madan Mohan, Rama Krishna, Lakshmi- Sarasvati, Pancha Mahadevas viz. Nila kantheshwar, Markandeshwar, Lokanatha, Kapala Lochana, and Jammeshwara Utsava Vigrahas are taken to Chandana Tataka or Sarovara for bathing and later on for Nouka Vihara or boat sail. On Jyeshtha Shukula Ekadashi, Rukmini harana by Lord Krishna is enacted in the Mandir itself. On Jyeshtha Purnima day, the Vigrahas of Jagannatha, Subhadra and Balarama are duly bathed and brought to Snaana Mandapa where 108 ghadas of Sacredwaters are engaged to bathe the Vigrahas; it is stated that after the bathing ceremony, Bhagavan Jagannatha gives the Swarupa as Lord Ganesha only for a fortnight the Mandir is re-opened. The famed Annual Ratha Yatra of Lord Jagannatha is scheduled to take place on Asaadhha Shukla Dwiteeya.

Three chariots which are large and roomy and the first one is to install Lord Bala Rama, the second one to accommodate Subhadra Devi and Sudarshana Chakra and the third one exclusively for Lord Jagannatha himself. By the evening the Chariots reach the Gundicha Mandir. On the second day the Idols are placed in the Mandir and provide darshan to the masses for seven days till Dashami and return. These nine days are called that Jagannatha and other Murtis provide what is called ‘Aadapadarshana’ and this darshan in a year is considered as most significant. On Shrvana Amavasya, Jagannath’s ‘Sevik Utsav’ or Services Festival is celebrated. On Shrvana Shukla Paksha Dashami ‘Jhoolan Yatra’ or Swing Travel Festival is celebrated. On Janmashtami the Lord’s Birth day is performed with great pomp and show. On Bhradrapada Krishna Ekadashi the Kaliya Serpent’s Damana is observed. Like wise, Bhradrapada Shukula Ekadashi for Parshwa Parivarta- ntsava, Vanmama Dwadashi; Sudarshana Vijayotsava on Ashwiyuja Purnima, Navaratri Festivities and Vimala Devi Utsava and so on are observed, besides on all significant days concerned. Incidentally, Jagannatha Maha Pradad Mahima is universally reputed as it is blemishless and consumed without restrictions of ‘Ucchittashtata dosha’ or eating of the remains of what others already ate or handled by others etc and hence the adage of Sarvam Jagannaatham! As regards the ‘Snaana prakriya’ or bathing at this Tirtha, major Places for the purpose are Mahodadhi or Samudra itself especially at Swarga Dwaara or the Sea Shore which is walking distance of a km. or so from the Main Dwara of the Mandir itself, besides Rohini Kund, Indradymma Sarovar, Markandeya Sarovar, Shweta Ganga, Chandana Taalaab, Lokanatha Sarovar, and Chakra Tirtha, all not very distant. Other impoant Mandirs in Puri are Gundicha Mandir already referred to above in the context of the RathaYatra about a Km. plus; Kapala Lochana in the SouthWest of the Main Mandir; Sakshi Gopal Mandir ( see the reference of Sakshi Gopal Mandir later); Amaramuth right before the Simha Dwaara or the Main Gate of the Main Mandir; Gambhira Math / Radhakanta Math on way to Swarga daara of the Sea, where Chaitanya Maha Prabhu lived for 18 long years; Siddha Bakul where Haridasa Bhajana Sthal is active; Govardhana Peeth or one of the Four Maths established by Adi Shankaracharya viz. Kanchi Kama Koti, Shringeri Sharadamba, Dwaraka Math, and now the Puri Math, besides of course Badari; Kabira Math at Swarga Dwara on the Sea shore where Patala Ganga Kupa or Well is and where Sant Kabir stayed for some time; Lokanatha Mahadeva LingaMandir within water also called Shiva Ganga and Chakra Tirtha and Chakra Narayana Mandir opposite Bedi Hanuman Madir or shackled Hanuman since once Hanuman left for Shri Rama Navami Celebrations to Ayodhya and returned and thus is chained eversince! Indeed this Purushottama Kshetra is distinct as Shankha Kshetra since it has the Form and Shape of a Conchshell.
like ‘Pancha janya’. This Shape is explained and represented by Maha Deva since on the Western side is Vrishabhadhwa, Eastern side is Neeka Kantha, Centre is Kapala Mochana and Arthaasani Devi on the North. This is also the Abode of Eight Devi Peethas: Vata Moolaa of Jagannatha Mandir is Mangala Devi, on the western side is Vimala Devi, Shankhaakara Prishtha or the Rear Form of Shankha is Sarva Mangala Devi, Eastern side is Marichi, Northern Side is Arthaasani and Lamba Devi, and Dakshina is represented by Kala Ratri and Chandika. Also, Vateshvara, Kapalamochana, Ksetrapaala, Yameshvara, Markandeshvara, Ishana, Vishwesha and Neela kantha on the eight places of the Shankha is another explanation.

Pushkar: (Rajasthan): Kurma Maha Purana in its 24th chapter on Tirtha Mahatmya narrates: *Tirtham Tri-those who die there bestows Brahma Loka. Those Dwijottamas sincerely memorise the name of Pushkar are blessed with instant relief of blemishes and enjoy celestial happiness along with Indra the King of Devas. This Pushkar Tirtha is such as worshipped by Gandharva-Yaksha- Naaga-Rakshasa-Siddha

venerate him so in his presence with Bahyaantara Shuchi or Internal and External cleanliness, ‘Brahma and secure the celestial vision of blemishless Indra too, then fulfillment of one’s desires and aspirations is very easy to obtain indeed.) Both Padma Maha Purana and Maha Bharata asserted: *Dushkaram reasons yet unknown) Yathaa Suraanaam sarveshaamaadistu Purushottamah, Tathaiva Pushkaram

Region and Pampa sarovara near Hospet are the Pancha Sarovaras]. The outcome of hundred years of Agnihotra Upasna on the one hand and residing and worshipping at Pushkara Tirtha on a Kartika Purnima night are near equivalent.) Padma Purana explains the legendary background of the Pushkara Tirtha: At very beginning of ‘Vishwa Srishti’ of Universal Creation, there was a Rakshasa named Vajra naabha who was engaged in the most cruel and wreckless activities; Brahma meanwhile emerged from the Naabhi (Navel) of Vishnu and the latter’s first wish was to perform Yagna and landed at Pushkar even with a part of the stem of the Padma / Lotus with which he killed Vajra naabha. As the lotus was discarded by him, there got a Lake manifested on the banks of which Brahma performed the first ever Yagnya. He carved aYagna Vedi in the vacant plot between three Holy Areas viz. Sarasvati in the west, Chandra nadi in the North and Nandana sthaan in the East and the region in between as the Yagna Vedi; he created three Pushkar Tirthas viz. Jyeshtha-Madhya-Kanishtha. All the Maharshis who made their Ashrams and Devas arrived and Bhagavan Shankar as Kapaladhari too arrived. But Devi Savitri delayed and since the Muhurta to commence the Yagna was round the corner, Brahma created Devi Gayatri and married her as meanwhile on noticing Gayatri left in an angry huff to a nearby mountain and performed another Yagna on the mountain top. It was stated that Lord Varaha got manifested from Brahma’s nostril top. Thus, at the present Pushkar Tirtha, besides Brahma, Gayatri, Varaha Bhagavan, Kapaleshvara Shiva, Savitri on the Mountain top, and Agastya Maharshi continue to stay at Pushkar Tirtha till date. Pushkar’s cynosure is the Brahma Temple, not far from Pushkar Tirtha, and Brahma’s right side is Savitri Mandir and to the left is the Gayatri Mandir; besides the Chaturmukha Brahma are the Idols of Sanakaadi Munis; in a small Mandir Narada and in another small Mandir are the idols of Kubera seated on elephant. Another Mandir of Pushkar is dedicated to Badari Narayana, but an ancient Varaha Mandir was destroyed and since got re-built. Yet another Mandir of the Tirtha is that of Atmeshwar Maha deva, also called Kapaleshwar or Atapateshwara Maha deva. Near by Pushkar there is a Shuddha vaapi named Gayaa Kund where Pitru shraddhas are performed. There is a Savitri Devi Mandir on a nearby mountain top. Yet on another hill top is the famed Gayatri Mandir reckoned as one of the Shakti Peethas where Devi Sati’s Manibandha or wrist ornament fell. In Pushkar Tirtha, there is also ‘Yagna Parvata’ where Brahma performed his illustrious Yagna; there is also the Agastya Ashram and Agastya Tirtha; it is stated that besides Pushkara Snaan, the snaana of Agastya Kunda would only complete Pushkar Yatra, since the Kunda snaan is a total wash off of one’s sins. The most essential snaana of Pushkar is in any case is that of Sarasvati River which is called ‘Praachi Saraswati’ also addressed by five names viz. Suprabha, Kanchana, Praachi, Nanda and Vaishalika. Pushkara’s bathing on Kartika Pournami is stated to be of paramount significance. Some 8 km. away from Pushkar Tirtha is the Sangama of Praachi Sarasvati and Nandaa River. Near by the Sangama, the Naga Parvat has several caves including Bhartruhari Cave and Shila named after him. Incidentally, the most popular among Muslim Yatris not only in Bharat but among the visitors from the Muslim World, especially in West Asia, Indonesia, the neighbouring countries is the Darga of Md. Chishti at Ajmir, which is a few Km away from Pushkar

Rajamandry: Hailed as the Cultural Capital of Andhta Pradesh, with the Adi Kavis of Nannaya, Tikkana and Yerrana who translated Maha Bharata, Rajamandri is a city of three long bridges across River Godavari. It is a Punya Kshetra celebrating Goavari Pushkaras and is also the Koti Linga Tirtha, Sapta Godavari Tirtha as the merging point of Tulyabhaga, Atreyi, Goutami, Vriddha Goutami, Bharadwaja, Koushiki and Vashistha. This is a Key City of Fine Arts, Dance, Drama and Films well conneted with the adjacent Kakinada as the harbors Kakinada and Vishakhapatnam.

Ryali: Connected with the legend of Kshira sagara Madhana of Amrit, the Avatar of Jatan Mohini is popular; the Temple of Jagan Mohini Keshava Swami near Kakinada and Rajamandri is popular with the Vigraha as of Romantic Face of Keshava and on the rear side with the enchanting profile and countenance of Devi Jagan Mohini!

Sakshi Gopal: is hardly 4-5 km away from Puri and that is why yatris normally worship at Jagannaantha Mndir and proceed to Sakshi Gopal and nearby Radhika Mandir too. One should normally perform snaana and then seek Gapala Darshana and puja offering Tulasi dala maalas to the Deity and fragrant flowers like jasmines to Devi Radha. There is an interesting legendary back ground stated in connection to the Sakshi Gopal Mandir: once an old Brahmana desirous of walking up to Sakshi Gopala Mandir from Puri and as in olden days there were neither buses or trains and not even proper roads. On way, the old Brahmana met a Brahmana youth and he too was desirous of Gopala darshana. The youth took great care to the Old companion and became friendly. In fact, the youth took excellent care and service to the aged Brahmana. They both had very fulfilling darshana and spent enjoyable time on the return to Puri. The old Brahmana was well to do while the youth was not only poor but an orphan too. On the return journey itself the old man decided to marry off his daughter to the youth and conveyed so on the way back. On arrival at Puri both reached the house and conveyed the wedding news to the daughter who readily felt happy, but the sons had other plans of a rich boy in the neighbourhood and even proposed to the boy and parents awaiting the father’s final return and consent. There came a tussle between the two families and the matter was referred to the King. The latter asked the Brahmana youth to whom the promise was made asked whether there was any evidence when the old man conveyed the wish to do so. The youth replied that Sakshi Gopala himself was the evidence. The youth went back to the Mandir and in great faith asked the Deity in privacy. A voice was heard that the youth should return and Gopala would follow the youth, but should not look back at any cost, lest only the Gopala Pratima would follow but not Gopala himself. The jingling sound of Lord Gopala’s anklets continued all the way back and the youth was happy to have really brought Gopala himself. The King and his court’s men besides the family members heard the jingling sounds and when the youth turned back finally the King and all concerned as also the youth were amazed to witness the Sakshi Gopala’s Idol standing still. The King then perfomed the wedding of the youth with grea pomp and show. He also made elaborate plans for installing the new Vignaha of Sakshi Gopal in a Vijaya Yatra in the premises of Jagannatha Mandir itself. In fact, the ‘Naivedya bhog’ daily offered to Jagannatha used to be first offered to Sakshi Gopal in the Main Mandir premises. But Lord Jagannath appeared in the dreams of the King that this new Vignah had actually entered the Satya narayana Idol at a Mandir some 5-6 km away from Jagannatha Mandir; the King then worshipped that Satra narayana Temple very often and that Temple got intensified in its popularity. Meanwhile the Sakishi Gopala in the premises of Jagannatha Temple lost its sheen as the latter was dejected without the company of Devi Radha. In course of time, the Mahapatra or the Head Purohit of Jagannatha Temple gave birth to a female child with the ‘Amsha’ of Vrshabheswari Kumari and she was called Lakshmi. She came of age gradually but her father Bileshwar Mahapatra started noticing that the Mala or garland of flowers as decorated around the Sakshi Gopal’s neck in the previous night was reappearing on Lakshmi’s bed; this coincidence came to be the talk of the town. The King installed a Radha Mandir in the premises of Sakshi Gopal and Mahapatra decided to marry off his daughter Lakshmi at the same Muhoorat of Devi Radha’s installation. But Lakshmi passed away at the very same time of Radha’s installation! As all these events happened on Kartika Shukla Navami, this day of the year is celebtated with the Darshan of Sakshi Gopal and Devi Radha as exist in the premises of Jagannatha Temple as also at the original Sakshi Gopal Temple off Puri!

Shabarimalai: Attracting perhaps then largest crowd ever in the world annually is the Hindu pilgrimage of an estimated 100 million undertaking the toughest journey in typical mountainous and thick forest range involving trekking of some 50 km - worse than even the Yatras to Badari, Kedar, Gangotri etc.as also Amarnath, Manasarovar of Himalayas for which some aids of trekking are in place- is that of Shabarimala Yatra! Shabarimala is at Perunad Village atop the mountain of Western Ghats in the State of Kerala at an altitude of 1535 ft where Lord Ayyappan Temple beckons. The traditional route is from Erumaly-Aludha River and the mountain range to Karivalam and Pamba River followed by trekking of Neelimala. But now one can reach Pamba River by road and take to trekking by Neelimala to Ganesh bettam, Shri Rama betta paa dam, Aranmula kottam and on to what is called ‘Tiruva bharana khosha yatra’ to reach the Ayyappan Temple. Shabarimala Pilgrimage is possible under restrictions and conditions: It bars entry of women from puberty to menopuase ie 10-50 years; yatris are required to observe Brahma charya or celibacy; the penance period of 41 days or as required; during the penance period, wearing a ‘maala’ or garland of Rudrakshas or Tulasi beads announcing the yatra well in advance; observing eating, drinking, smoking restrictions; restrictions of dress by wearing black/ saffron cloth; sleeping on floor; frequent visit to temples; reciting the name, hymn and mantra of Ayyappan and basically living like a monk during the period of penance. The Temple is open during Nov. 15-Dec.26 excepting the days of festivals of Mandala Puja on Jan 14 and Makara Samkranti, Vishu on April 14 and first days of Malayalam months- on each occasion for 6 days. Bhagavan Ayyappa Sanndihanam or darshan is by lighting the proverbial 18 steps on the staircase. Stampedes of yatri crowds are normal feature but when it is beyond the tolerable limits, casualities are not uncommon as happened in Jan. 2011, there were 100 died with above that number were grievously injured. The legend of the Tirtha was that Shabari an ascetic woman in the epic of Ramayana received Shri Rama, Devi Sita and Lakshmana at her hermitage and offered fruits in ecstasy the half bitten to ensure that those were sweet and ripe enough and the Lord accepted gladly. After this, Rama noticed a hazy figure of a Yogi and asked Shabari as to who was he; she replied that he was an occasional visitor to the Ashram and he was known by the name of ‘Shasta’. Then Rama went near him who said that he was in the habit of meeting and blessings to his devotees during intervals of his Tapasya and he blessed the King and family stating that their mission be fulfilled despite hurdles! Shasta was of the ‘Amsha’ of Skanda and the Deposit of Dharma and Nyaya or virtue and justice; he also announces the Mantra viz. Aham Brahmasmi or ‘I am Paramatma myself’ the high point of Advaita Thinking. It was at this moment of mythological Meeting that ‘Makara Vilakku’ is celebrated when Ayyappan would terminate his periodical spells of his Tapasya only to bless his devotees.

Shirdi: From Nasik is the most renowned and glorious Shirdi Sai Baba Mandir by some 6 km away, 15km from Kopergaon, and 300 km from Mumbai, which is of one of the richest Pilgrimage Centers in Bharat, drawing some 50000 devotees a day and lakhs of them on holidays and week ends. Sai Baba was perhaps born in 1838 AD but got immortalised in 1918. His early life was shrouded in mystery but his entry in Shirdi and settling in a Masjid named by himself as Dwaraka may happened in 1858 practising Muslim and Hindu rituals alike gifted with natural mastery of Scriptures of both and many other religious faiths. He taught the slogans and mottos of ‘Sabka Malik Ek’or God is One and ‘Alla Malik’ or God is the Supreme King. His miracles are innumerable especially experienced by those who come to know of him. His teachings have universal appeal based on ‘Love all and ignore none’ in the true spirit of Advaita or Monism. Shani Shinga pur: Some 70 km away from Shirdi is an exclusive Kshetra dedicated to Shani Deva where there is a Swayambhu or Self originated black stone whi powers signifying the Lord Saturn among the Nine Planets. The powers range from retribution to rewards, hastening the process of fructification in either of extremes but elongating the period of positive or negative occurences for long period of time- say two years and half in the House of each planet and seven years in his own, attracting the Title of ‘Manda Gati’ or of slow realisation of transformation in one’s life period; the process of change is tardy and long drawn either in poverty or prosperity! The local belief is that in this Place of Shani worship the result of retribution is instant and almost immediate and extreme; that is why pilferages and thefts are mortally afraid of and thus scrupulously avoided; little wonder there are no locks and doors at this place and neighbourhood for the sheer fears of instant results of returns! Tailaabhikaas or oil baths to the Sacred Stone signifying instant returns are regular and those performing oil abhishekas on their own leave their vastraas discardead after the worship.

Shringeri: Situated right on the banks of River Tunga and set up as a country wide chain of Shankara Mutts by Adi Shankaracharya who also built the Sharadamba and Vidya Tirtha Maheshwara Mandirs in the premises of the Mutt itself, Shringeri has come to be recognised prominently; the present Matha Chief too is the resident of the Mutt Complex connected with the other bank of the Temple Complex and regular Pujas of Chandramoulishwar are performed in the Mutt Complex. There is also a hillock at Shringeri with steps to reach a beautiful Shiva Mandir which was built by the father of Shringi Rishi named Vibhandak Rishi and it is said that the latter installed the Shiva Linga. From Shringeri within 5-6 km there is a Shringa Giri- its earlier name being Varaha Parvat- and that was the birth place of Shringi Rishi. This Parvat is the union or Sangama of four rivers viz. Tunga, Bhadra, Netravati and Vaarahi; actually, both Tunga and Bhadra Rivers at Shimoga itself. The above was the background of Shrigeri Mutt and today, the Samshana is a vibrant complex of promoting Sanatana Vaidika Dharma with several branches and Temples all over Bharat under the control of the umbrella of the Main Shringeri Mutt Authority.

Shyamalaji: is a Krishna Bhagavan’s Mandir of fame. This Tirtha is on the banks of Meshwara River. Besides the Main Murti of Krishna Bhagavan, in the same premises are the Temples of Rancchod, Girdhari Lala, and of Kashi Vishwanath facing which is a large Sarovara. In fact, Kashi Vishwanath Mandir is underground. It is stated that Raja Harischandra performed a Putra Kameshthi Yagna at the behest of Vasishtha Maha Muni and the Yagna was performed under the supervision of Oudumbara Rishi. Shamlaji was first named as Chaturbhujua Gadadhara Bhagavan installed by Harischandra himself. The present Shamalaji is worshipped by Brahmana an Vaishya Vaishnavites mainly. The celebrations at this Mandir continue from Kartika Shukla Ekadashi unto Margaseersha Shukla Dwiteeya

Siddapur: Maha Bharata as also Maha Padma Purana describing the Tirtha Mahima make a special mention of Dharmaranya Mahatmya: Dharmaranyam hi tatpunyamaadyam cha Bharatarashbha, Yatrapravishtha matre vaui sarva paapaih pramuchyate/ Archayitwaa pitrun Devaan nityato niyataaashhanah, Sarva kaama samriddhasya Yagjnasya phalamashnute/(Bharata sreshtha! This Dharmaranya is an Adi Tirtha of distinction and by even entering it all kinds of sins are demolished; if a person be being a limited eater and observer of Dharmic restrictions performs sincere worship to Pitru Devas and Devas shall indeed reap the fruits of performing Yagna karyas). The Center of Dharmaranya is Siddhapur which indeed is the Matru Gaya Kshetra or the Siddha Raja Kshetra, where the desires of yatris and devotees are fulfilled forthwith by not only the grace of Siddha Purushas like Maharshi Kardama and Kapila Maha Muni whose Ashrams are in position as also of Aoudichya Brahmanas whose centers are aplenty besides of their Kula Devata viz. Govinda Madhava. Siddhapur is on the Mt. Abu Road from 5-6 km en route Modhera and Ahmedabad. The Tirthas near by are of Saraswati and of Saraswati Mandira as also Brahmandeshwara Shiva Mandir where Matru Shraddhas are performed; Bindu Sagara on the banks of Saraswati River where Govinda and Madhava Mandirs are worthy of worship. It is locally believed that Sindu Sagara was indeed the place where Samudra Mathana took place here by Deva Danavas and Devi Lakshmi appeared here itself! Modhera: Is the ancient Abode of Matanga Devi who was believed to have terminated a Daitya named Karnata and is settled as Modheshwari; Matanga Devi is an Ashtadasha Hasta Murti or manifested as with eighteen hands each with weapons as also of a book, Aksha Mala, and Veena.
Simhachala: Some 16 km near Vishakapatnam in Andhra Pradesh is another significant Nrisimha Kshetra in Bharat at Simhachala or the Lion Giri viz. Varaha Lakshmi Nrisimha of 15th century built by Gajapati Raja of Kalinga, the present part of Odisha State and King Krishnadeva Raya of Vijayanagara also attended the Opening Ceremony Brahmotsavas as given in available Inscriptions. The Legend about this incarnation of Nrisimha is due to the curse to the Gate keepers to Maha Vishnu’s Vaikuntha by Brahma Manasa Putras viz. Sanaka Sanandana Sanat Sanatana Kumaras who were stopped entry; the respective Danavas were Harayaksha in Varaha; Ravanasuresa and Kumbhakarna in Shri Rama Avatara, and Kamsa and Shishupalain Krishnavatara, besides Hiranya kashipu in Nrisimha Avatara. The Bhakta saved from Hiranya kashipu in the Nrisimha Avatara was Prahlada. Special Festivals at Simhachala are of Akshaya Triteeya with Chandana Lepana or Alankara with Gandha and during Vaishakha Month. The main attractions at the Temple are a fantastic Stone Ratha and a 16 pillored Mandapa depicting Dashawataras and many Nrisimha Swarupas.

Sonpur (Patna): The Capital City of Bihar now has a hoary past as the erstwhile Pataliputra, the Seat of Learning and Fine Arts and the Capital of Ancient Pataliputra ruled by Magadha-Nanda-Maurya- Sunga-Gupta-Pala dynasties of the yore and the crucible various Hindu Faiths of Buddha-Jaina-Sikhs with the famed Takht of Patna Sahib and Maha Vir Jain Temple right now. Patna is also renowned for Patan Devi Temple of Patneshwari, one of the 51 Siddha Shakti Peethas where Sati Devi’s right thigh fell off as Sudarshana Chakra severed her body; Shitala Devi’s Temple popular to relieve the illness of Chicken pox and Small pox especially for children which houses the Pindaas of Sapta Matrikas; Devi Bhagavata mentioned that Jwarusura attacked children with pox and Devi Katyayani assumed the swarupa of Shitala Devi to cure them once or all; Agam kuna was dump well where King Ashok killed in cruelty all his 99 brothers and discarded their bodies so that he would only survive as the King; Agam kuna was also stated to be the place where Jain monk Sudarshana was thrown in the well by King Chand but instead of drowning the monk’s body floated on a lotus. Till date, Hindu marriages are performed at this Well as though the new couples are dumped in the Well of Sarovara. Apart from the interesting Mandirs to visit in Patna itself, Sonepur hardly 25 km from Patna approachable by a pretty long bridge across the River Ganges is famed to organise Asia’s larget Cattle Fair held from Kartika Purnima in November for some two months at the confluence point of Ganga and River Gandaki; the Fair is for the exhibition and sale of elephants, horses, donkeys, dogs, cows, bulls, buffalos, birds and so on, besides being a huge mela with social and entertainment activities drawing huge turn over of masses from far off places in India. As a major fall out of the Fair is the rush of Yatris paying respects to Hariharnath Temple right on the banks of Gandaki River believed to have been built up Lord Shri Rama the Ramayana Epic Hero when he accompanied Sage Vishwamitra to the Court of King Janaka of Mithila to break the ‘Shiva Dhanush’ to win he hand of Devi Sita. Another significant legend is related to the Sacred River Gandaki -where the Hariharnath Temple stands near the Cattle Fair Grounds by Maha Bhagavata Purana, Yamana Purana etc. about Gajendra Moksha; the elephant King Gajendra with his spouses and a massive collection of elephant army went into Gandaki banks and a fierce and huge and powerful crocodile caught nasty hold of Gajendra’s foot in a biting grip and they fought for years together for Gajendra to get rid of the awful grip. In their earlier births Gajendra was King Indradyumna the King of Pandyas who in similar situation of the King enjoying a river bath with his queens angered Sage Agastya in deep meditation by the noises and Agastya cursed that a crocodile would catch the King becoming an Elephant and torture for years together. Likewise, a Gandharva Chief Huhu was cursed by Devala Muni that in similar circumstances the Gandharva would become a crocodile and torture an elephant king to be finally restored of his original form with the grace of Vasudeva and his Sudarshana Chakra!

Sriperumbudur: This is the Sanctified birth place of Shriramanujacharya, where the Temple of Lord Rama with Devi Sita has been ancient existence as Bhutapuri. This Kshetra is also the Abode of Keshava in Yoga nidra as Sesa shaayi as also a separate Mandir of Devi Lakshmi. More over the Temple of BhuteshwarMaha Deva has been in existence even in more ancient ages. Maha Deva excelled in natya and performed Tandava Nritiya in total ecstasy when Parshada Bhutas laughed and made fun of him; the angry Maha Deva stripped them of Parshatwa and the latter approached Brahma. Brahma directed them to worship Narayana. After very long and deep worship, Narayana suggested to the Bhutas that Maha Deva was ever merciful and their refuge to him should be rewarding and eternal. They them bathed in the Ananta Sarovara and after purifying themselves begged Maha Deva of mercy and after securing it got trained in the Tandava Natya Siksha eversince! Thus Perambudur is as much a Vishnu Kshetra as a Maha Deva Kshetra! Now, at the adjoining highway is the Memorial of the Past Prime Minister of Bharat, Rajiv Gandhi.

Tanjavur: From Kumbhakonam to Tanjavur is 15km on the banks of Kaveri is the abode of Brihadeeshwara Temple built in a Fort. Chola King Raja Rajeshwar dreamt once that Maha Deva instructed him to bring a huge Brihadeeshwara Linga be brought from Narmada River and accordingly this Sand Linga was brought and got installed. But then the King wondered as to where a matching Vigrah of large size of Nandi be fetched from and Maha Deva again provided a hint about the Place distant by 250 km therefrom. This massive Nandi cut from solid stone is 13 feet high, 16 feet long and six feet of thickness, brought immense problem of transport! Opposite to the Nandi is the Huge Linga installed within 200 feet high Shikhara or tower on top of which was placed a Golden Kalasha which was a major task to lift atop as the kalasha was kept on a stone slab weighing 2200 maunds! Indeed there was no aid of cranes or other kinds of mechanical equipmen during those times and what was more there was no supply of mountain rock in the distant vicinity! Till date, thousands of architects and engineers overseas to witness these marvels of heavy stone work difficult even now! To the South-West of the Brihadeeshwara Linga is a Ganeswara Idol and on the western side is a beautiful Subrahmanya Mandir while at the North East isa Chandi Mandir. Towards the north of the high pedestal of Nandi is a Parvati Mandir while a pradakshina of the Maha Linga one would encounter a row of Shiva Lingas placed. Tanjavur is known for Paintings and a Saraswati Pustakaalaya or Library houses more than 25,000 collection of manuscripts of books in various languages which is stated to be exceptional in Bharat. The legendary background of Tanjavur was that this original name was Parashara Kshetra but a Demon named Tanja and many of his co-demons harassed Maharshis and the Public and a fierce battle with Devas broke out and Bhagavan Vishnu appeared on the sky as a morale booster to Devas and as the demons were all decimated, Tanja requested Vishnu as a dying wish that his name be immortalised with the Territory and as approved the name of Tanjapura sustained!

Thiruvannamalai / Arunaachalam: Asti Dakshidirbhaage Dravideshu Tapodhana, Arunaakhyayam Maha Kshetram tyarunedu shikha manaih/ Yojanaatraya visteerna mupaasyam Shiva yogibhih, Tad Bhave hridayam viddhi Shivasya hridayangaman/ Tatra Devah swayam Shambhuh parvatakaara taam gatah, Arunaachala sangjnaavanaasti Lokahitaavahah/ Sumerorapi Kailaasaadpayasou mandaraadapi, Maaaniyo Maharshaanaam yah swyam Parameshwarah/ (Skanda Puraana Mahenda Khanda - Aruna Mahatmyam) ( Tapodhana! In the Southern direction of Bharaa Desha, Dravida Region, there is an outstanding Maha Kshetra of Bhagavan Chandra Shekhara called Arunaachala with a stretch of three yojanas, which must to be worshipped by Shiva bhaktas as this be considered as of their own heart. Bhagavan Shankara himself had materialised in the form of a Mountain range as Arunachala. As this range of Mountains had been created by Shankara himself, it should be considered as superior to Sumeru, Kailasa and Mandarachala! Indeed, this Mountain range representing the Five Faces of Parama Shiva viz. Tatpurusha, Aghora, Sadyojata, Vaama Deva and Ishaana! The essence of Arunachala Matatmya as detailed in Skanda Purana is as follows: Both Brahma and Vishnu witnessed one ‘Agni Sthumbh’ (Pillar of Fire) which was dazzling to eyes and emanating extraordinary heat, without beginning or end. Brahma’s Four faces recited Vedas and He performed ‘Manasik Puja’ (Worship by mind) and so did Lord Vishnu. Bhagavan Siva appeared and was pleased by their eulogies; they requested that His huge Form of Fire of unbearable radiance and heat be please reduced as a Siva Linga so that worship became possible to all including themselves, Devas and human beings. The gigantic form of the Fire Pillar then got converted as a ‘Sthavara Linga’ at Arunachal. Most interestingly, even at the time of ‘Pralaya’ (Great Dissolution), the entire Universe was submerged in water and there was no trace of Earth visible, the Land of Arunachala was never even touched! This Place is in the South of Bharat and Arunachal (Tiruvannamalai) is in the form of Mountain Range comprising the ‘Pancha Mukhas’ or the Five Faces of Lord Rudra viz. ‘Tatpurusha’, ‘Aghora’, ‘Sadyojata’, ‘Vamadeva’, ‘Eshana’ which are visible till date. Nandikeswara told Markandeya that this Sacred Region is like the heart of Devi Prithvi. This Arunachal is expected to be Parameswar Himself and a fourteen kilometre distance surrounding the Mountain is as good as a complete ‘Pradakshina’ (Circumambulation) of Lord Siva. A large number of persons perform the Pradakshina on every full moon night barefooted and Pournami of Chaitra Month is a very special day as over hundreds of thousands throng the Temple and the Mountain displaying sincere devotion from all over the World. A ten day long celebration culminating on the day of Karthika Deepam or lights day is a massive crowd puller; on that evening a huge lamp is lit in an open vessel with three tons of ghee from the mountain top. Among the ‘Pancha Bhutas’ (Five Elements), viz. Earth, Water, Fire, Wind and Sky, the Fire is the symbol of Arunachaleswar as a corollary of the Agni Stumbh referred to as above. (The ‘Tiruvannaiavil’ / ‘Jalakantheswara’ Linga represents Water, Kancheepuram / Ekambareswara Linga the Earth, Kalahasti represents Vayu and Chidambaram represents Akash or Sky). Nandikeswar told Markandeya that at the commencement of ‘Ayanas’ (Fortnights) or Vishuvyog times, worship to Arunachal Linga would be very propitious. Early morning puja is performed with ‘Tulasi’ leaves, the mid-day puja with ‘Amalataasa’ and Bel flowers in the evening. By chanting the ‘Aghora Mantra’ viz. Aghorebhyyathagorebhyo Namasthey Asthu Rudra rupebhyyaha/Tat Purushaaya Vidmahe Maha Devaaya dhimahi, tanno Rudra Prachodayat/ a devotee performs ‘Abishekam’ (bath) with thousand ‘Kalasas’ (vessels) full of water. On ‘Sivaratri’, special puja is done with Bilvapatras by chanting ‘Shata Rudreeyam’, observe ‘Jaagaran’ (night long worship) and Puja with lotus, Ganera and such flowers as well as please the Lord with hymns, instrumental / vocal music and ‘Tandava’ (dance). The same kind of Puja is performed on birthdays, House warming, travel and such other Special occasions. Nandikeswara informed Markandeya further about Devi Parvathi’s Tapasya to wed Lord Siva, their happy union and the birth of Ganesh and Skanda. Meanwhile, a demon duo named Shumbh and Nikumbh obtained the boon of invincibility from Brahma Deva and distressed Devas, Sages and virtuous human beings. Vishnu accompanied by Devas approached Maha Deva and He assured quick action against the demons. Parvati who was of dark complexion, desired to please Siva, discarded her dark skin and assumed the form of Kali Kaushiki. As she was doing penance at Vindhya Mountain, the demon brothers desired to marry her and she killed both of them. Subsequently, she was attracted by the scenic beauty of Arunachala and performed Tapasya at the Ashram of Sage Gautama. She kept Devi Durga to stand guard and also appointed Subhaga and Dhundhukumari to watch in all directions while she was in penance. At the same time, Demon Mahishasur created havoc in Devaloka and dethroned Indra and Devas. He heard about her beauty and sent an emissary to propose a match with her and Devi Parvati’s representative had literally thrown him out. Mahishasur declared war. Powerful Danavas like Karaal, Dhurthar, Vichasunu, Vikaraal, Durmukh, Chanda, Prachanda, Mahamouli, Vikatekshan and Jwalasya were among the mighty demons that were lined up in offence. As there was considerable sound and confusion, Parvati Devi’s Tapasya was disturbed and instructed Durga Devi to terminate the demons. Being in a lonely cave on Arunachal Mountain Durga Devi seated on a Lion and jumped onto Earth like Kalika and made frightening sounds.
She created from her body crores of ‘Matruka -ganas’ who made such mayhem and slaughter of the Demons. Chamundi Devi slashed the heads of Chamunda and associates and finally Mahishasura entered the fray. Durga Herself jumped down from the Lion and by her several hands killed Prachanda with Her
Ugravakta with her Kuthar, Vikatakshak with Shakti, Jwalamukh with her mudgar and so on. As Mahishasura made his last bid on Durga Devi, the former looked to have controlled her for a while as he was changing his forms as a lion, tiger, Varaha, Elephant or Mahisha and his Original form. Finally however, Devi Durga overpowered and destroyed the Devil ‘Mahishasur’ who was felled with a huge sound of a thud and there were innumerable cries of joy and relief world wide. Devi Durga held the Demon’s head in one hand, sword in another and greeted Devi Parvati who praised the Vindhyanivasini Durga. Gauri asked Durga to wash off her hands with blood and Durga broke a mountain boulder with her powerful hands to create water reciting the Mantra, ‘Namah Shonadrinathaya’ and the waterbody so formed had become popular as ‘Papanashini’Tirtha eversince. Thereafter an extraordinary ‘Jyoti’ came to be viewed from the top of the Arunachala Mountain on every Kartika Pournami Sandhya (evening) without any oil, cotton, and firewood and thus the tradition had been carried on (on a man-made basis, of course) to signify this Holy Happening and the Maha Deep continued to be viewed by devotees doing ‘Giri Pradakshinas’. While doing the circumambulation, devotees are advised to recite: “My Namaskars (Greetings) to Siva who stays at Merugiri and Kailasa; to Siva who is the son-in-law of Himachal; to the merciful Arunachalanatha who is worshipped by Siva the mid-day like Sun, besides various Devatas like Varuna and Vayu; to Siva on whose head are positioned Ganga and Chandra as ornaments; to Siva whose ‘Maya’ makes us feel that your Swarup is confused as that of Narayana; to Siva who performs the magnificent Siva ‘Thandava’ (Dance) and creates ripples of happiness all over the Universe; to you Shambho, Siva, Eshana, who is worshipped by Devas, Gandharvas, Siddhas and Vidyadharas; to Siva the ‘Janmadata’ of Ganesha and Kartikeya; to Siva who is the husband of Devi Parvati; We are beholden to You to bless us and relieve us of all our physical, mental and ‘Daivika’ problems beyond our control.” Siva blessed Parvati to be present at Arunachal by the name of Apeethastani since she left Kartikeya to perform Tapasya without feeding milk to him! Nandikeswar narrated to Marandeya the background of Vrajangada the King of Pandya desha and how he became a staunch devotee of Arunachaleswara. The King was pious, charitable and Siva worshipper. Once he went by his horse for hunting deep inside the Arunachala forest and ran after a ‘Kasturi Mriga’ (Deer like animal), without being aware that the King had made a ‘Pradakshina’ of Arunachal. As Kasturi Mrig ran fast and was untraceable, the King stopped for quenching his thirst at a nearby pond; on return, he found the horse missing. He saw however a strange happening as two Celestial Beings came down from the Sky and recounted that they were two Vidyadharas, named Kanthishali and Kaladhara who were cursed by Sage Durvasa as they plucked flowers from the Sage’s garden and became the Kasturi Mrig and the King’s horse; the Sage was merciful to relieve them of the curse subsequently that a King would ride one of the accused as a horse and chase another as Kasturi and when a full Pradakshina was performed by the King, the horse and Kasturi animal, then the accused would get back their original positions as Vidyadharas. On hearing the entire background, the King became such a strong devotee of Arunachaleswara that he did considerable works in the Temple Complex and was wholly devoted to the promotional tasks of the Arunachalapathi. Once when Sage Agasthya and his wife Lopamudra visited the Arunachala Tirtha, they complimented the devotion of the King. Considering the dedication to the Tirtha, Bhagavan Siva gave darshan to the King and informed him that he was in his earlier birth Lord Indra but since he did an indiscretion on Kailasa top out of egoism he was cursed but since he was sincerely dedicated as Siva Bhakta, He was pleased to secure Indra’s original position. Thus Nandikeswar commended the unparallelled ‘Mahatmya’ of Arunachala Tirtha. The ‘Gopuram’ of Arunachaleshwara Temple at Tirunannamalai is stated to be of the largest expanse of any Temple in Dakshina Bharat; the ten levels of this high rise Temple has four gopuras at the four entrances of this huge complex, besides other gopuras too. The Sanctum is placed within the fourth enclosure and right at the first enclosure itself, there is a Sarovara in which yatris take their ‘snaanas’ or bathing where there is a Subrahmanya Mandir too. It is in the third enclosure crossing the fifth gate that Arunachala Maha Linga representing Agni among the Pancha Bhutas or the Five Elements of the Universe of mentioned as above. In the Parikrama of the Sanctum are the Idols of Devi Parvati, Ganesha, Nava Grahas, Dakshina Murti, Shiva Bhaktas, Nata Raja and so on. Ramana Ashram: is the renowned and quite impressive premises of Maharshi Ramana, an ascetic from childhood - who in fact lived in forests and later in the Arunachal Temple complex itself as a ‘Bala Sanyasi’ - where his body too got cremated as a Memorial; the Maharshi has huge following of devotees drawing extensive reach from all over Bharat and overseas as they have good facilities of comfortable living and food and large halls for prayers at the Gardens of the Ashram, as maintained by liberal donations. Ramana Maharshi was an ardent devotee of Arunachaleshwara and of Advaita Siddhantas closely followed by Shaivism and an admirer of Adi Shankara and his country wide following. Aroubinda Ashram at Pondichery: Like Ramana Maharshi of Tiruvannamalai / Arunachala Kshetra is the Arabindo Ashram of Pondicherry, a Centre administered erst-while French colony near Tamil Nadu on the shores of Bay of Bengal where the co-influence of ‘Mother’ of French Origin and Arabindo of West Bengal is predominant, fundamentally of course is of Hindu Monism; Intense Meditation of the Supreme on the express principles of Dharma and Nyaya or Virtue and Justice constitutes the basis of the Followings of Arabindo-Mother Combine.

Tiruvallur: Away by 15 km is the lesser known but legendary Varadaraja Temple of Veera Raghava Swami as Sesa saayi with his right hand kept on the head of Maharshi Shalihotra; this Temple also has a Lakshmi Mandir with her name as Kanakavalli or Vasumati. In the premises of the Temple is a Sarovar called Hutashana Tirtha and two other Mandirs of Shiva Linga and of Devi Parvati. The background of this Temple was that the two notorious Madhu-Kaitabha Daityas hid themselves in a dense forest then known as Veekshararanya and Bhagavan Vishnu came to know about this and landed himself in the Ashram of a Rishi named Shalihotra who was always in the habit of providing help to guests of virtue. He took extra care for the new Atithi as he was impressed by his conduct and Dharma readily participating in Agni Karyas and Karma kanda along with the Rishi. As time elapsed the guest one after their meals gave the biggest surprise to the Muni that he himself was Vishnu with the mission of killing the two daityas! After his mission was fulfilled Bhagavan blessed the Maharshi and bestowed him Vaikuntha Sthaana. Further miracles at this Place followed: Veekshanaranya King called Dharmasena was blessed with a daughter named Vasumati was of Lakshmi Swarupa and she came of age and got her married to a Prince Veeraagava and visited the Temple of Veeraraghava; both of them intensely identified with the Vigrahas and got absorbed into them; since then Kanakavalli and Vasumati came to be addressed by either name while the Prince’s name continued for ever! The Pousha Month’s Bhadrapada nakshatra is thus celebrated at this Temple every year eve since. There was a King named Pradyumna in Satya Yuga who prayed to Narayana for long time and eventually had his darshan of Bhagavan who granted his wish to secure a male child; besides he also blessed that the significance this Kshetra be intensified and there appeared a Hutaashana Sarovara to wash off the sins of Yatris.

Tiruvattar Adi Keshava: From Trivendram to Tiruvattar the distance is some 7 km where on the banks of River Tamraparni, the Temple of Adikeshava is popular. The height of the idol of Adi Keshava as Seshashyayi Adi Keshava. is as of some 16 feet; from one ‘Dwar’ or gate, the Bhagavan who is in a lying posture is visible with his Shri Mukha or propitious Face, the second ‘dwar’ displaying his ‘Vakshasthala’ or the region of his heart, and the third dwarf displays his lotus feet, with his body crushing a Rakshasa. The legendary belief is that the Demon prayed to Brahma and in his liberal mood, allowed free access to a ‘Kadali phala vana’/ banyan fruit garden to assuage his hunger; but the demon started harassing the Brahmanas and Rishis interfering in their ‘Dharma Karyas’ and the latter appealed to Vishnu who suppressed the demon; the latter appealed to Vishnu to always be under his body in that posture.

Tripunntarai: Being a suburb of Kochi, the then Capital of Cochin kingdom, in the banks of River Purna and the Palace Township of the King, Tripunittara is known in olden days as the Purna Veda puri or the Place of all Vedas; it was also called as the Pooneeram or the quiver to keep arrows in which Arjuna kept an Idol of Vishnu which Lord Krishna gifted to Arjuna and as the Place identified for the installation of the Idol, Arjuna was asked ‘Pooneeram terai’ or open the quiver! ‘Terai’ also denotes harbour or the mouth of the Sea, is Tripunattarai happens to be the Gate of the back waters of the Sea at the harbour! Being the Palace Hill Town, Tripunattari is also the erstwhile Capital of the Kingdom and continues still as the Culture Capital hosting the major dance forms of Kathakali, Mohini Attam and Fine Arts especially of percussion instruments etc. all developed and sustained for long under the Royal patronage. But more importantly as the Tirtha Place with famed Temples, like Poornantaresha Temple with Santana Gopala Moorti as the central attraction, Dharma Sasta-Ayyappan Temple and several Bhagavati Temples, Rama, Shiva and other Devi Temples. Santana Gopala Poornaantaresha Temple is indeed outstanding as is referred to in Maha Bhavagta Purana: a pious Brahmana lost his child even soon after it was born; he accused the King Ugrasena of Mathura as a Brahmana Dweshi, Vishaya maanasa, and Kshatriya bandhu - all typical disqualifications of an Ideal King as in the earlier ages there were kings like Prithvi, Harishchandra and Rama whose main concern was ‘Praja kshema’ and none else. Unfortunately, the Brahmana couple lost their children in succession and the frustrated Brahmana attempted suicide in the Royal Court when Arjuna and Krishna were also present as Ugrasena was the grandfather of Krishna. Arjuna felt very bad at the tragedy befallen to the Brahmana and announced that he would bring back the dead kids from any part of the Sapta Dwipas, as he had the boon of entering all the Dwipas. He then explored Jambu-Plaksha-Salmaali-Kusha-Krouncha-Shaka and Pushkala Lokas and as a desperation decided to offer his life by jumping into Homagni. Being his best friend and devotee Krishna prevented Arjuna to do so and together they searched the higher lokas like Vaayu-Agni-Varuna- Yama Lokas and even Brahma Loka. The then launched the search for Vaikuntha but the path to that Loka was of pitch darkness; Krishna accompanied by Arjuna with the help of the lustrous radiance of Sudarshana Chakra ahead landed with difficulty at Vaikuntha where Maha Vissdhu welcomed them as Nara and Narayana and blessed them with the boon of returning the Souls of the children of the Brahmana. It was at that time that Maha Vishnu himself gifted an Idol of himself to Arjuna and install it at an appropriate Kshetra and with an appropriate name; Lord Ganesha was commissioned by Maha Vishnu to assist Arjuna in this Mission. Ganesha discovered the suitable place at Poorna Vedapuri on the banks of Poorna River and at the Sacred Time of installing the Vishnu Idol, Ganesha asked Arjuna saying ‘Poornam terai’ to enable the Vishnu Vigraha to be installed and both of them named the Vigrah as Poornataresha Santana Gopala since who so ever worships the Lord in that form would indeed be blessed with auspicious and illustrious children! Tripunattarai is also famed for the Shiva Temple where Bhagavan Shiva is displayed as in the form of a Kirata or a hunter when Maha Deva once again sought to test Arjuna’s prowess of archery or Dhanurvidya of which the latter was rightfully proud of since he had the distinction of destroying ‘Matsya Yantra’ to win the hand of Devi Draupadi and even giving a historic twist of destiny in landing Draupadi to the dilemma of having to wed all the Pancha Pandavas simultaneously! Hence the test that Maha Deva gave to Arjuna the opportunity to examine whether his Kirata Swarupa’s arrow could just strike the wild pig at the same speed and finesse that would kill by Arjuna’s arrow as that of Maha Deva in Kirata form! As a gift of appreciation, Maha Deva gave the boon of ‘Paashupataastra’ to Arjuna. Such indeed was the mercifulness and magnanimity of Maha Deva, instead of Arjuna’s claiming the fame of equalling Arjuna’s equality! Shiva Swarupa is thus extolled: Dharaadhara shyamalaankam chhurikaa chaapa dhaarinam, Kirata vapusham vande Paraatmaanameeshwaram! (To Maha Shankara, with the body manifestation of blue sky like unique splendour and as in the Swarupa of a Forest Hunter, my sincere and faithful prostrations to you!)

Trissur: Trichi at British times and now as Trissur is titled as the Cultural Capital of Kerala which itself is called ‘God’s own Country’ and is the abode of Temples, varied religious faiths, Palaces, Churches, beaches, water falls, wild life sanctuaries and forts. Built as a hillock city around an area of 65 acres, this historic Place around the famed Tukkinnadu Maidan is proud of renowned Temples especially of Vadakkunathan, Parmekkuva Devi, Tirumambadi Sri Krishna, Guruvayur Temple, Shri Rama Temple, Koodalmanikkam Temple, Kodurgallur Bhagavati, Mammiyoor Temple, Tirukkur Maha deva, Tiruvallakku Shri Dharma Shaaasta, Tiruvanchikulam Temple, Arupathu Puzha Temple etc. The most significant of these are however are the three mentioned of these: Vadakkunathan Temple was referred to in Brahma Purana in the context of Parashuramas many battles to uproot Kshatriya Kings in view of their sustained evil acts and performed a Maha Yagna to purge his killings and as a dakshina to the Brahmins to have performed the Sacrifice so sincerely desired to reward them with land; he prayed to Varuna Deva to carve the land from the Sea and as advised him threw his axe into the Sea and Varuna allotted a piece of Land which now is Kerala the God’s own country! Of this massive area he carved for his Tapasya as also to worship Maha Deva, Devi Parvati and the Shiva Parivara where Vadakkunathan Temple viz. Vrishabhachala got materialised. Adi Shankaracharya’s parents Shiva Guru and Aryamba meditated for long for an excellent son to be bestowed and Vrishabhadheesha in their dreams gave the option to them to choose for a short lived but epoch creating Pandita Gyani as against or a dull and very ordinary son with unduly long life. The parents opted for a Gyani and named him Shankara! This magnificent Valakkunathan / Vrishabheshwara Temple to day stands despite ravages of time and onslaughts of aliens today as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, albeit with the evolution of modernisation, rebuilt as time evolved, in typical Kerala Architecture with Towers and wall mural paintings depicting legends of Maha Bharata. The Sanctum (Garbha Sthaana) displays a Big Shiva Linga covered by a huge mould of ghee of some 16 feet as collected from years of daily Abhishakas of ghee with three serpent hoods stuck on the mould and thus the Shiva Linga is invisible. The shrines outside the Garbha of Vadakkunatha Linga include a Maha Ganapati, Vattekaran (Hunter) Shiva, Nandeeshwara, Nandi...
Keshawa, Krishna as a Cow herd, Parashurama, Adi Shankara etc. The biggest festival in Kerala is the ‘Trissur Puram’/ Festival held during the period between mid-April to mid-May with the massive display and procession of some 50 elephants colourfully decorated along with ‘Pancha Vadyams’ - a symphony of five musical insummons of drums and pipe music sounds drawing surging crowds passing through the Vadakkunathan Temple and climaxing in the Tukkunaadu Maidan. ‘Pulikali folk art festival’ in the fourth day of Onam Celebrations in Kerala, and ‘Annayottu’ Gaja Puja and Elephant Feeding to invoke Ganesha’s blessings are two other popular festivals of Trissur. This City is also popular for excellent masterpiece architectural wonders of Churches like the Asia’s tallest Syro Malabar Catholic Basilica, the renowned underground Christian Cathedral, Assyrian Church of the East and so on.

Tuljapur Bhavani: Mother Bhavani is the Benefactor of Life, the Goddess of Power and Energy and at the same time the embodiment of boon providing mercifulness. Bhavani at Tuljapur is the traditional Deity of Chhatrapati Shivaji the most powerful and popular Ruler of Marathas in Western India of the 12th Century AD who adored the Devi with a Pratima of a meter high sature with a golden sword at the Bhavani Mandir; the Idol is made with eight arms each of these equipped with weapons while holding the head of a slain demon named Mahishasura. The Mandir which is situated on a hill called Yamunachala on the slopes of Sahyadri mountain range is the residing place of Devi who is tated to have slain two Rakshasas viz Matanga and of course Mahishasura the latter being in the deceptive form a buffalo. The Mandir attracts thousands of yatris every day and the crowds are indeed orderly and with patience in queues awaiting darshan and worship. Festivals are organised and jostling crowds are visible at the Mandir on all Tuesdays, and on all festival days like Gudi Padwa in Chaitra month, Lalitha Panchami, Ratha Saptami, Sankranti and Nava Ratri Festivals from Aswiyuja Shukla Prathama up to Dashami and so on with online Seva bookings in advance. Ritualistic worship with mantra-tantra is organised by priests on behalf of the bhaktas. The Mandir has elaborate arrangements for cctv and online facilities for communications and advance worship and darshan facilities.

Udipi: Inside the long stretch of Parshurama Kshetra right from Western Ghats of Bharat coastline down to the Arabian Sea, covering Gokarna to Kanyakumari, Udipi is also an important insider of the Kshetra where Chandradeva himself performed long Tapasya to Maha Deva and the latter granted his darshan in the form of Chandra sekhara Shiva Swarupa as at Udipi of the present day as Rajatapeetha pura, Roupya pitha pura and Shivali being nearest big Tirtha from Mangalore Railway station; from Mangalore to Udipi is of a distance of 25 km approx. Udipi is the illustrious Place of Madhvacharya Matha in the Ananteshwara Mandir as Achyutaparakashachraya the preceptor of Madhvacharya instructed the latter to be the Head of the Matha. Just as Adi Shankaraacharya propounded the Advaita Discipline of Hindu Thought that Paramatma is just One and Absolute Singular, Madhvacharya deviated from that thought and distinguished Paramatma from Jeevatma or the Atma Within viz.the Soul inside a Being with a Life-Span or a perishable Entity without being ever Permanent which Paramatma is. The Madhva Matha is thus the nucleus of the Dwaitya Thought essentially existent in the premises of the Ananteshwara Mandir. Krishna Matha is in the same premises being the North east of Anantshwara Mandira. On the ceiling of Krishna Mandir are the hanging decorations of silver leaves and golden flowers in garland forms. As one enters, there is an Idol of Madhvacharaya and before that is Lord Krishna’s Shalagrama Shila as also of Garuda, besides the same brass vessels with which Madhvacharya performed puja himself. On the four sides of Krishna Mandir are eight Mutts of the Sishyas of Madhvacharya; the core sishyas of the Acharya are in what is called ‘Atyokrishta’ parampara or the lineage at Palimar Matha, while Admar Matha is for the sishyas of Nrisimha Tirtha and so on. Abjaranya Titha is significant as that was the Sacred Place where Chandra Deva achieved Maha Deva’s darshan as Chandra sekhara. Indrani Tirtha on a hill top some 2km from Udupi is stated as the Place where Shachi Devi secured the Darshan of the Five Faced Durga as a Swayambhu Shala grama and a Mandir was set up eventually. Also there is a chain of Durga Mandirs in four directions of Udupi at Belur in South, Kaanarpadi in west, at Puttur in North, and at Kadiyali in South outside within a range of 1-3 km. Similarly there are four Subramanya Temples in the precincts of Udupi as Mangoidu, Tangodu, Mricchila kodu and Ariyodu- all being of repute. On the banks of Arabian Sea nearby, Madhvacharya also set up Badaa Bhandeshwara Bala Rama where Samudra snaanas are performed at the timings of Surya- Chandra Grhanas, Amavasyas, and other festival days. It is stated that Parashu Rama set up Seven Mukti Kshetras on the banks of Arabian Sea at Rajhatapeeth, Kumaraadri, Kumbbha Kashi, Dwajeshwara, Shankara Narayana, Gokarna and Mookambika.

Vaishnodevi: Off Jammu by some 25km. is situated Maa Vaishnodevi Cave full of material darkness and yet of unique splendour being the Holy Seat of Three Pinda Swarupas of Maha Kali, Maha Lakshmi and Maha Saraswati some forty yards away from the mouth of the cave. In the past, the approach was somewhat tricky and slippery as the bare feet were washed by the cold and flowing flow of the Sacred ‘Banganga’ but the exit gate somewhat near the Seat of the Three Pinda Swarupas has now turned to be the two way gate for the convenience of the visitors as the entry and exit hitting directly the raised platform of the Pinda Swarupas on which the priests are seated. In the past again, the ascent of the Mountain had necessarily via Adikumari Sthaan which was the first halt up the mountain from the base township called ‘Katra’ but now a comfortable paved path leading to pony riders is in place where trekkers could also avail of the facility almost up to the top near the ‘Sanctum Santorum’ or the ‘Garbha Sthaan’ thus enabling to avoid the somewhat circuitous diversion of Garbha Nivas; it is stated that Maa Vaishnodevi -the combined Shakti of Kali-Lakshmi- Saraswati- hid herself in the womb or Garbha to enable to suddenly pounce and attack the evil ‘Asuras’ who were invincible to Devatas who meditated to the Devi to exterminate the Potent Asura Chief and his gang. Yatris consider to be a duty to pass through the narrow path of the Garbha of hardly a few feet of crawling through as the ceiling hits the heads otherwise; one gets a sensation of the passing through the cave as though even fat or lean persons or children could just scrape through while the crawl adjusts as per the body size like elastic and stretched rubber. The legend states that Vaishno Devi emerged from this Garbha Nivasa. Lakhs of Yatris visit the Vaishnodevi for she is famed worldwide to bestow boons almost instantly on return from the Cave and soon thereafter. Helicopter services are available too, besides pony rides but pilgrims take vows to ascend by foot disregarding the labour and hardship involved!Near by Jammu and Kashmir are the Places called Poonch and some fourteen miles away up the high mountains is Boodhe Amarnath Mandir in which was installed a White Stone of Maha Deva with wells around the Temple on four sides and the belief is that the Sacred flow of melting Amarnath Linga is constantly deposited in the wells down here. Also, there is Pulastya Maharshi Ashram and Pulastya River too and this Place is considered significant next only to Amarnath further up. In Jammu again, Udhampur and River Devika and on its banks Shuddha Mahadeva Mandir are situated besides Gaurikunda Tirtha where Bhagavan’s Trishul with which He terminated Sudhantara Rakshasa; it is in the Devika River Vaishakha Snaanas and a Mela are popular locally.

Vemulawada: Situated some 35 km.from Karimnagar, Andhra Pradesh the Raja Rajeswara Shiva Linga Kshetra popular as Dakshina Kashi has a huge Temple Complex. The Nilalohita Linga has Devi Raja Rajeswari on one side and Lakshmi Ganapati on the other and faced by Nandeeshwara. In the surrounding areas this Temple is called Rajanna Temple affectionately and devotion. The Temple complex also has separate Temples of Ananta Padma Swami, Bhimeshwara, Kodanda Rama, Nageswara Swami etc.
Contructed by Chalukya Kings in 8\textsuperscript{th} century, it was stated that Raja Narendra the great grand son of King Parikshit of Pandava Fame was cured of leprosy by bathing in Dharma gundam (Pushkarini) and had a dream to install a Shiva Linga at this Place. Bhavishya Purana mentions that Surya Deva worshipped at the Kshetra and when as he once had a problem of movement, he overcame by his worship to the Shiva Linga here and thus has come to be named Bhaskara Kshetra eversince. JAINA TIRTHAS Ahimsa or Non Violence is the Core of Jainism and as many as over six million Jains are stated to exist all over the World but in Bharat, the major States are Hindi speaking or of the language of Kannada, Tamil, Gujarati and Marvari. In ancient times originally, Chandragupta Maurya pioneered the Jain Doctrine while Bhadrabahu was the historic head of the Jain community. While the basic philosophy of Jainism covers Ahimasa or non-violence, certain ancilliaries were defined too such as Anenanta vaada, Aparigraha, Syadvaada, Atma and versus Naraka; Karma and Karana, Dharma, Gunasthana, Keval Jnana Moksha, Dravya, Nava Tatwa, Mrityu, Samsaara, Satya and Brahmacharya. The Jain Religion has two kinds of following viz. Digambara and Swetambara; the followers are not necessarily too strict. However, the faiths generally are: Digambara:- Mula Sangh (Balatkara Gana or something like Hinduisms Arishad vargas like Kaama Krodhaadi Gunas; Kashthha Sangh, Taran Pant, Bisparti, Digambara, Tera Panth, Kanji Swami, Yapaniya and so on. The Swetambaras believe in Murti Puja gaccha, Karatara gaccha, Tapa gaccha, Tristutik gaccha, Sthaana kavaasii gaccha, Swetambara Teraa panth, Shrimad Rajchandra and so on. The Yatra up the hill of an elevation of 4450 ft. involves reaching the top of the hill-going around the hill top and the down hill totalling some 18 miles. A round trip through the Madhuvan Forest involves 30 km by dolis. Lord Mahavira performed twelve ‘chaturmasyas’ here and liberally sprinkled his vocal sweetness of religious thoughts and had enormous following of seven lakk hermits and nuns and virtually turned this into a focal center of Jainism. Being the Siddha Mahavir Kshetra, there are as many as ten temples on the five hills and two in the valley. The first one was dedicated to the twentieth Tirthankara namely Suvarnath at Vipulachala as that was the, the second hill Udaigiri has two temples of Maha Vira, the third hill Swarnagiri has three temples, and two cave carvings, the fourth Shraman giri three temples, and the fifth Vaibhava giri and in the valley has the rest of the Temples. Girnar: The Sacred Hill at Girnar near Junagarh of Saurashtra reveals a very interesting episode about the twenty second Tirthankar named Neminatha who desired to wed the Princess of Junagarh. As the bridegroom’s party approached near the Fort, he found all the cows were tied and disallowed to move freely; the bride groom enquired of the reason as to why the cows were tied and allowed to move free, the simple cowherds blurted out that a ‘go maamsa bhakshak’ or the ne who loved cow’s meat had arrived as the bridegroom. This statement put the bridegroom to shame and decided to retire to the Girnar Mountain and performed most severe tappa and finally retired and even had his ‘niryana’there. It was his followers who took to strict vegetarianism as one of the fundamental teachings of Jainism had built a Temple in his lasting memory! Since then, the Mountain had as a ‘Sammoda Shikhara’ or the Top Mandir Point practised as the Meditation Parikrama.

Mangi-Tungi: Near two ‘Parvata Shikharas’ or Mountain Peaks, some 80 miles off in a jungle near Nashik of Maharashtra, were built the famed Jain Temples. Shravana belgola: Three Kshetras viz. Belur with Chenna Keshava Mandira, Halebid with huge Hoyaleshwara and Kedareshwara Idols and Shavanabelgola called the Gomut Kshetra in Karnataka have brought world renown. All these Tirthas are blessed with Sacredness and enormous faith being the large crowd pullers day in and day out, in their own ways. All the three places are sprayed with Jain followings and Temples, but the outstanding Center of Digambara Jainism is a certain strike instantly. Shravan Belgola essentially means Shveta Sarovara and Jain Shramanikas or the dedicated Jain bhaktas around the white lake. The unique Cave-Tirtha of Swami Bhadrabahu’s footprints on the ground level and up the hill top the most awe-inspiring Bahu Bali’s 57 feet high elevation with total nakedness are indeed worth the visit and of lasting memory. Right on the hill inside in a large enclosure, there are fourteen Jain Mandiras in which age old idols are well arranged; these are of Chandranath, Adinath, Neminath and other Tirthankaras. Indeed the steps are steep and width of the hill, and there are provisions for ‘dolis’ to negotiate the climb especially by the weak and the aged.

Mula Bidri: Situated in South Canara District of Karnataka near Mangalore by 37 km is Mula Bidri where the popular Digambara Jain Temple of Tribhuvana Tilaka Choodamani / Saavira Kambada Basadi with thousand pillar ‘mandapa’, which is a very expansive dimension. This Mandir is specially significant as the Maha Grandhas of Digambara Jain Siddhanta Grandhas or the most hallowed Scriptures of the Religion like Shri Dhavala, Jaya Dhavala, and Mahabantha Tadapatra are stated to be preserved here safe which were as ancient as of thousands of years. Karakal: Very adjacent to a few kilometers to Mula Bidri is an ancient Jaina Tirtha with 18 Jain Mandirs. More significantly is the Bahubali Swami Idol of 32 feet height on a hill nearby. On yet another neighbouring hill, there are Temples on the four sides with Jain Figures.

Keshariyaaji: A few kilo-metres awayfrom Udaipur in Rajastan is a six-seven footer Murti of Shri Rishabhdeva is popular too among Jains, especially since that Tirthankar was the Founder Member as seated in padmasana posture. This hallowed Murti is traditionally worshipped by the constant application of Kesar or saffron and is thus named as Keshariyaaji.

Shri Mahavirji: There is a Railway Station named Shri Mahavirji on Mathura Nagda and four miles away from there is the most renowned and sancrosanct Digambara Maha Veer Jain Tirtha whose excavated Idol of the 24th Tirthankara of that name was installed. The Story behind the excavation was of low class labourer hit on a specified spot as a cow was in the habit of yielding milk at that very place; he dreamt that night that the spot under where the cow provided milk be dug up to find an idol and having recovered it gifted to the local Divan. The latter was unfortunately arrested by the King on some serious charges of the King; but the Divan was unfortunately arrested by the King soon and was sentenced with death by three firings of a gun; the Divan decided that he would install the Jain Idol if he was spared by the three firings. Eventually, the Divan got his post back and decided to triplicate the dug up Murthi and installed all the three on the three hill tops nearby. The Meena Gurjar crowd made the temples so popular that Jains from far and wide lined up eversince and even perform parikrama of all the three hills.

Badavani/Parshvagiri: Near Khandwa or Indore, Madhy Pradesh is this ancient Atishaya Temple of Rishabha Deva’s 84 feet high - far higher than Maha Bahu Bali’s 57 feet height at Shravanbelgole in Karnataka- on the Chulagiri hill. As this is called ‘Baavana gaja’ Murthi the Vigrah was dug up in 1223 AD. On this hill, there are 22 Jain Mandirs and Parikrama of the hill too is expected to yield fulfillment of one’s desires. Siddhavarakut: Near Omkareshwar on Narmada too there are several Jain Mandirs.

Muktagiri Siddhi Kshera: Near Betul of Madhya Pradesh in a hill jungle, there are some ancient hill caves and as many as 52 Digambara Jain Mandirs are known for several Jain Munis performing Tapas aiming for ‘moksha’ till date. In all these Mandirs, several idols of Jain Munis are installed and venerated till now.

Yuvanji: In Madhya Pradesh again at Chanderi near Lalithpur / Jhansi, there are thousands of Jain Pratimas of the yore, most noted being in some 25 Jain Mandirs with Stone Murtis of 20-30 feet height! Almost near the banks of River Vetravati, a tributary of River Yamuna, there is Devagarh on hill top again, there are countless Mandirs surfeit with broken Murtis but are admirable from the view point of artistic beauty.

Kundalpur: Near Sagar in Madhya Pradesh, there is a Kundalaakara mountain and on its top, there are as many as 59 Jain temples but the outstanding piece is a ten feet high Mahavir Tirthankara. Nainagiri is a nearby forest area on a hill top and on its way some 25 mandirs are spread out on the hill range, and the Jain hermits perform tapasa aiming at salvation.

Khajuraho: Several temples in Bandelkhand as encouraged by Jain community concentrations in and around Kajuraho is a standing proof at this outstanding place of worship and arts especially due to the encouragement of successive Chandela Kings. There are as many as 32 Digambara Jain Temples here, most significant significantly of Parshava nath, Adinath and Shati nath. The famed Inscription of Magical Square of Hindu numericals is at the Prestigious Parsha nath Temple at Khajuraho, which of course is famed for its wall mural paintings the world over.

Conclusion on Jainism:

The doctrine of Jainism was originally contained in Ancient Scriptures called ‘Purvas’, viz 14 of these. The Digambaras were essentially of the Monastic Order; their sub sects were Mula Sangha or the Root based and Kaashtha Sangha or variations of Uttara -Paschima Bharat. The Svetambara or the white clad have three Sub sects viz. Sthanakavasi or of Personality orientation ; Murti Pujaka emphasising either on Sanghas or Tapa-Rituals and Terapantha or non believers of Idol worship. In any case, this serious fall-out of basic Hindu Thought, even in its extreme form of Application some times, are common especially the concepts of Giri Pradakshina, Group Worships and Keenness to Study and Practice.
PRADHANA BOUDDHA KSHETRAS

To the followers of Lord Buddha, four outstanding Principal Tirthas have been selected viz. 1) where he was born, 2) where he attained ‘Bodh’ or Enlightenment 3) where he initiated explanations World-wide about his unique vision of Dharma and Nyaya or Virtue and Justice; and finally, 4) He attained ‘Nirvana’.

1) Lumbini: The birth place of the Lord is from Gorakpur-Nautanva Railway Line and from the latter by 15 km. approx. 2) Bodhgaya is near Gaya 3) Sarnath near Varanasi and 4) Kushi Nagar near Gorakpur by 45 km.

Beneath each of the Sthupas some had ‘Asthis’ or body remains of the Lord and also of ‘Bhasma’ the Sacred ash

Also other Sthupas: Angara Sthupa at Pippiliya vana; Kumbha Sthupa near Kushi nagar; at these places the famed places are Pavagarh, Rajagriha and Bet Dwaraka.

Besides the above Places, Bouddha Tirthas are popular at the following Sacred Kshetras:

Koushambi: At Bharvari near Alhabad where the Sthupa stands over the Lord’s head hair and nails. At Sanchi Hill visible from Vidisha Railway Station near Bhopal, the Sthupa attracts large visitorship of Buddhists but others and at Peshavar in Pakistan as made by Emperor Kanishka over Buddha’s eyes

Tenets of Buddhism

Buddhism is practised worldwide with some 550 million followers approx. of which some 370 million follow Mahayana, Thevada or Heenayana 150 million, and Vajrayana some 20 million world wide. There are some 10 million outside Asia too. In India the practice is essentially of Mahayana and to a lesser extent in Vajrayana. Teravaada is practised in South East Asia especially Sri Lanka, Burma, Laos, Thailand, Cambodia and some parts of Vietnam, Malaysia, and Bangladesh and to a minor count in China too. Vajrayana is predominant in China, Mangolia and Tibet. In Japan, the forms of Buddhist practice is essentially of forms are Jodoshu, Jodo Shinshu, Yuzu jushu, Nenbustu jushu shu, etc.

The Texts of Scripts of Buddhism and the practice of the Principles concerned are too complex, intensely distinct and profound as applicable to varied sections of Societies. But the basic Principles remain the same of ‘Buddham sharanam gacchhami, Dharmam sharanam gacchhami, Sangham sharanam gacchhami’ or Dedication to Buddha Deva, Dedication to Virtue and Dedication to Society. Thus there is an undercurrent of Self control and Constant practice of what the communities concerned have approved and practised.

II. Parikrama before wedding of Devi Sita and Lord Shri Rama

Sri Rama's route From Ayodhya to Janakpur was the route used by the bridegroom and his ‘baraatis’ or the Party as also to return to Ayodhya after the Rama-Sita marriage in Janakpur acquired the name ‘Ram-Sita Marg’ long ago. The route of the ‘baraat’ is an excellent Road and millions of pilgrims actually cover the distance on foot till date out of veneration!

But Shri Rama and Lakshmana guided by Maharshi Vishwamitra, however took another route to reach Janakpur after the slaying of Tataka in Tatakavan (Forest of Tataka).

1) Azamgarh: Uttar Pradesh: Shri Ram was only fifteen years old when he and Lakshman set out with Vishwamitra to annihilate the demons who were polluting and obstructing the sacred rituals of his Yagna (fire sacrifice). Their first halt was on the banks of the River Sarayu, twenty kilometers from Ayodhya. Valmiki’s Ramayan describes the tranquil setting against which, Vishwamitra taught the princes about the art of ‘bal’ and ‘atibal’ which endowed them with immunity from disease and eternal good health besides freeing them from pangs of hunger and thirst.

2) Balliya: Uttar Pradesh: Walking past Azamgarh, Shri Ram, Lakshman and Sage Vishwamitra reached Balliya where River Sarayu merges with the holy river Ganga. This haven on the banks of the Sarayu was the chosen place for sages who spend long hours in meditation. Shri Ram rested here in the night before he set out at dawn crossing river Ganga to reach Vishwamitra’s Siddhashram. At night, before the princes went to sleep, Vishwamitra narrated to them the story of Kamdhenu (God of Love) who was burned to ashes there by Lord Shiva.
3) Buxar: Bihar. - After crossing the holy Ganga, Shri Ram and Lakshman reached a dense forest where demoness Tataka lived. The dreadful forest was known as Tatavanan. Shri Ram ended Tataka’s reign over the forest by slaying her and freeing its inhabitants from terror. The forest stretched between Bharoli and Baksar in Bihar. Shri Ram performed the first task of his “avtaar” (incarnation) here by destroying the evil demoness.

4) Siddhashram: Buxar, Bihar. - Vishwamitra’s Siddhashram was located not too far from Buxar. Siddhashram, according to Adhytma Ramayan was a social ashram where religious instruction was imparted to people. Shri Ram and Lakshman sojourned in the ashram for three days after Shri Ram killed Mareech and Subahu, the demons who were tormenting Vishwamitra by spoiling his Yagna with bones and blood. Lakshman destroyed the demon while Shri Ram took on the mighty Maricha, son of Tataka. There are villages existing today on the banks of the River Ganga with the names Marich and Subahu.

5) Ahilya Uddhar: Ahiroli, Buxar, Bihar. - Three kilometers from Buxar in the northern direction is the village Ahiroli. Rishi Gautam had his ashram here. According to Ram Charita Manas it was here that Shri Ram delivered Ahilya, the beautiful wife of Rishi Gautam, from a curse of her husband, which had turned her into stone. When Shri Ram and Lakshman left Siddhashram they crossed River Ganga and River Sonbhadra and set foot on the soil of Ahiroli village, which still exists in Buxar district.

6) Sonbhadra River, Patna, Bihar. - Parev and Trigma are two places of significance. They have a distance of five kilometers between them. When Shri Ram and Lakshman crossed River Sonbhadra, they reached a place before Patna where they spent a night before moving on to Janakpur.

7) Vishala Nagri, Hajipur, Bihar (near Patna). - Shri Ram and Lakshman crossed River Ganga and reached this town with Rishi Vishwamitra who guided them to a garden to rest for a while in its fragrant surroundings.

8) Ahilya Ashram, Darbhanga, Bihar. - Valmiki’s Ramayan says Gautam Rishi’s ashram was in Mithila. Ahilya resided there as Shila. The place was therefore named as Ahiyari after her. Thayavalk (Jagvan), Shringi (Srimgya), Bhringi (Bhairav) and Gautam Rishis lived there.

9A) Vishwamitra Ashram: Bisaul, Madhubani, Bihar. - Bisaul was Rishi Viswamitra’s place of residence. After reaching Janakpur Rishi Vishwamitra stayed there and he set up his ashram in a garden.

B) Phulhar Village (Jamuni), Madhubani, Bihar. - Shri Ram was situated in one of Raja Janak’s prime gardens. It was in Jamuni (Madhubani) and was celebrated for a Gauri Temple where Sita prayed regularly. After paying obeisance to his Guru Vishwamitra when Shri Ram entered the floral section of the garden, Sita, who was present there, got her first glimpse of Shri Ram.

10 A) Matihani: Janakpur, Nepal. - In the vicinity of Janakpur was Matihani from where, according to folklore, mud was collected and taken to create the venue for the marriage of Shri Ram and Sita. Matihani has become a sacred place as even today maids are for their marriage take mud from here.

B) Janakpur, Nepal. - Janakpur was the capital of Raja Janak’s kingdom. It lies 20 kilometers from India’s border and is known for a temple of Ma Sita which attracts pilgrims round the year.

C) Rangbhoomi: Janakpur, Nepal. - It is believed that the Dhanush Yagya (competition for lifting of the bow) or Sitasyawamvar, as is popularly understood was announced before an invited royal gathering in a huge maidan (field) close to the present Janaki Mandir. It was here that Shri Ram picked up the Shiv Dhanush and broke it into two halves with ease. The important places in Janakpur include Matihani, Rangbhoomi, Dhanusha Mani Mandap. All of them are associated with the legend of Shri Ram and Sita’s marriage.

11) Sita Marhi, Bihar. - According to beliefs, Mithila, one of the principalities of Raja Janak’s Kingdom was passing through the trial of drought and famine. Following royal tradition, Raja Janak took out the golden plow and went to an arid field to plough the soil and appeal to the gods for rain. While performing the ritual, the plow got stuck in a deep groove in the soil. The king’s men rushed to pull the plow out of the depth of the soil and lo and behold there was a girl child waiting for help. The childless king happily adopted her as his daughter and named her “Sita”, the Sanskrit term by which the cutting side of the plow is known. The name of the village, Sitamarhi, is derived from the name Sita as a result. Travelers going to Janakpur in Nepal invariably stop at Sitamarhi for a “darshan” (sighting) of the land where Sita manifested in the soil.
12) Sitakund Motihari, Bihar: It is said that the “baraatis” (procession of the bridegroom’s family) while returning to the kingdom of Ayodhya after the Ram-Sita marriage stopped at Sitakund Motihari for a little rest. They bathed and freshened themselves in the Sita Kund. One of Sita’s bangles fell in the kund (pond), it is believed. The baraatis (Bridegroom’s family) offered a puja (worship) to Lord Shiva here. Sitakund is located 20 kms from Motihari in the South Direction. It is a well-known place in the Northern Indian Belt. Then the baraatis arrived at Derwan, Gorakhpur, Uttar Pradesh is not far from Sitakund. The baraatis (Bridegroom’s family) had camped at this place and hence the name Derwan. The word “Dev” in Hindi means camp.

13) Dohri Ghat, Mhow, Uttar Pradesh: The true meaning of Dohari is Do Hari, i.e. Two Haris. One commonly used name in the worship of Lord Vishnu is Hari. As per Valmiki Ramayan, the baarat was on the way to Ayodhya when the earlier Avtaar (incarnation) of Vishnu, Parshuram, stopped the baaratis at this place on the banks of the river Sarayu. Parashuram tested Shri Ram and realized who he was. Both the Haris (Parashuram and Ram, the two Vishnu avatars) met here and Parashuram returned to Mahesgiri Mountain after offering his respects to Ram. Raja Dashrath and the “baraatis” then continued their journey back to Ayodhya with Shri Ram.

Shri Ram’s Vanvasa Parikrama:

It is more difficult to chart a route for Ram’s journey during his period of exile. Firstly this is pan-India journey, secondly, Ram, Lakshman and Sita also wandered in the Dandaka Forest for more than 10 years. This mighty forest would encompass in today’s date almost the entire state of Madhya Pradesh including parts of Gujarat and Maharashtra on the West and Karnataka on the South. Hence this makes it even more difficult. Still we have charted a basic route, which can be seen here in this map. There are many places that Ram visited during this 14 year period during which he had the good fortune of meeting with some of most enlightened sages and beings of that period. They were of course very delighted to meet with Ram themselves with many of them having been foretold the coming of Ram, they waited for years conducting severe penance for that fortunate time to arrive.

1) Ayodhya, Uttar Pradesh: was the capital city for the Isvaku Dynasty (Suryavanshi) of Kings. This was also the city where Son of Dasrath, Shri Ram was born (appeared). In twelve kilometers vicinity of Ayodhya there exist holy places like Vedi Kund, Sita Kund, Janauara etc. that are also part of the journey of Shri Ram’s ‘vanvas’ (exile) route. It was also from Ayodhya that Shri Ram started his journey along with Sita and Lakshman. Ayodhya was a majestic city comparable to any international city of modern times almost eleven kilometers in length full of parks, gardens, theatres and modern infrastructure and facilities for its citizens. The citizens of Ayodhya loved their Kings. It was at Tamsa River, Uttar Pradesh that Shri Ram along with Sita, Lakshman and Sumantra Minister (Mantri) rested on their first night. The modern name for Tamsa River is Madhar River and the place from where she flows is called Gora Ghat. This place is about twenty kilometers from Ayodhya. On the banks of the Tamsa River there is a place known as Purva Chakiya. The citizens of Ayodhya followed Shri Ram until this spot after their dearest Ram departed from Ayodhya. Shri Ram, Lakshman and Sita disguised themselves and left this spot in the middle of the night so that none of the people would be able to follow him.

2) Sultanpur, Uttar Pradesh on the banks of Gomati River that Sage Valmiki had an ashram. It was from here that Shri Ram crossed the Gomti river. The old name of Sultanpur was Kushannathpur, which was named after the son of Ram, ‘Kush’. Vadrathi River, Pratapgarh, Uttar Pradesh The present day name Sarkani River which is situated around 8 kilometers from Pratapgarh in the Eastern Direction. Shri Ram had crossed this river near the town of Mohanganj, as per Valmiki Ramayan. Sandika River (Sayi River), Mohanganj, Pratapgarh, Uttar Pradesh is situated at a distance of twelve kilometers from Pratapgarh. This is place is also commonly known as Dev Ghat. Shri Ram has crossed this river from this spot. There is also a Shiv Temple here that was established by Bharat. This place has been mentioned in the Valmiki as well as Tulsi Ramayan. Further, Balukini River, Pratapgarh, Ramkaleva, Uttar Pradesh is approximately 15 kilometers from Pratapgarh in the Southern Direction. Shri Ram had crossed this river here as has been mentioned in the Valmiki Ramayan.

3) Prayag (Allahabad), Uttar Pradesh: A) Shringverpur or the current name Singroro, the capital of Nishad Raj Guha. This place is situated around twenty kilometers North of Allahabad. Shri Ram has rested on a bed of grass here. The next morning he crossed the Ganga River from here and proceeded to the Bharadwaj Asram. The incident of “Kevat Prasang” took place here. B) Sita Kund, Shringverpur, Prayag. This holy pond is around two kilometers from Shringverpur. It was from here that Shri Ram sent back their beloved minister Sumantra to Ayodhya. C) Sangam, Prayag: This is the divine meeting place of the three holy rivers of Ganga, Yamuna and Saraswati. Shri Ram himself praised this spot for its spiritual powers, which could uplift mankind. Bharadwaj Rishi had his ashram here. Shri Ram had rested in this ashram for a night. Ram Charita Manas as well as Valmiki Ramayan give a lot of importance to this place. D) Yamuna Ghat, Simri, Prayag: Shri Ram along with Lakshman and Sita crossed the Yamuna River. In the Valmiki Ramayan the reference to Lakshman constructing a boat to cross the river has been made for this place. After resting overnight on the Simri Ghat Shri Ram crossed the river using the boat made by Lakshman. There are many places on the banks of the Yamuna related to the exile period of Shri Ram like Akshay Vat, Sita Rasoi (Jasra Bazaar), Rishiyan (the abode of Rishis), Murka (Hanuman Mandir).

B) Valmiki Ashram, Lala Pur, Chitrakoot: After visiting Sage Bharadwaj’s Ashram, Shri Ram reached Valmiki’s Ashram and he spent the night here. It was here that Sage Valmiki himself suggested to Shri Ram to make Chitrakoot his home for a few days. C) As suggested by Sage Valmiki, Shri Ram reached Chitrakoot Dham. Shri Ram made his ashram on the Kamadgiri Mountain near the Mandakini River. There were many sages, holy men and Rishis who had made their ashrams (abodes) near the Kamadgiri Mountain. It was this divine spot where Shri Bharat met with Shri Ram and took his padukas (slippers) with him to Ayodhya to place on the throne. Chitrakoot has many places of pilgrimages in its vicinity like Madakini River, Bharatkoop, On the banks of the Mandakini River – Spatik Sheela, Hanuman Dhara and Atri Ashram, Gupt (Secret) Godavari. All these sacred places strengthen the place of Chitrakoot as a one of the most important places of pilgrimages while tracing the footsteps of Shri Ram’s journey of exile.

After the visit of Bharat to Chitrakoot, many citizens of Ayodhya had started to visit this place. Many of the holy men and sages in this area started to feel disturbed by the presence of so many people and it then that Shri Ram decided to leave this place. Hence all in all Shri Ram would have stayed in Chitrakoot for only about one or two years only. The majority of his exile period he spent in the Dandak Forest. D) Amravati, Chitrakut, Uttar Pradesh: Around 7 kilometers from Atri Ashram, in the middle of the jungle, there is a beautiful place called Amravati. One of the ancestors of Shri Ram called Ambrish had conducted an intense penance here for many years. After leaving Chitrakut, Shri Ram came to Sage Atri’s Ashram. It was here that the Sati Anusuya (pure and chaste wife of Sage Atri) gave the sermon of “Pati Vrata Dharma” (service to husband) to Mother Sita. After resting in Sage Atri’s Ashram for one night, Shri Ram spent the next night at the place of penance of Ambrish (his ancestor). It was in this forest that Shri Ram killed the Rakshas named Viradh. In the vicinity of Avamart there is a village called Jamunihaiyi. There is a very dark and dangerous looking pit called ‘Viradh Kund’ (pond). This pit is situated three kilometers from Amravati. After killing the demon Viradh, Shri Ram had buried him here.

After the slaying of Viradh, Shri Ram visited this ashram. It was here that he had the divine ‘darshan’ (sighting) of the God Indra. After having the ‘darshan’ of Shri Ram, Sharbang Rishi with the help of his Yogic Fire destroyed his body and attained salvation.
6) Ramtek, Nagpur, Maharashtra: Ramtek is a beautiful mountain near the city of Nagpur. Shri Ram stayed here for some time. This mountain is also connected with the writer Kalidas who wrote the famous poem ‘Meghdoot’ according to some historians. C) Panchavti: Nasik: On the banks of the Godavari River there is place popularly known as Tapovan, which is the actual Panchavti of the Ramayan era. It was here that Shri Ram, Lakshman and Sita resided here in a small hut. The incident of the cutting off the nose of Demoness Shupnaka took place here. It is from here that ‘Nasik’ derived its name as the Sanskrit name for nose is ‘Nasika’. Khar, Dhooshan, Trishara and 14,000 other Demons were slain by Shri Ram in this area after they attacked Shri Ram on hearing about this incident from their sister. The kidnapping of Sita by Ravan, The slaying of Mareech and the Slaying of Jatayu by Ravan all took place in a forest known as Jansthan in this area. Before leaving he had requested Shri Ram to visit the Ashram of Shabri. B) Shabri Ashram: Sureban, Near Ramdurg, Belgaum: Around 14 kilometers in the Northern direction from Ram Durg, near the town of Gunga is placed called Sureban. This is place where Shabri, who was a disciple of Sage Matang lived. She had waited long years for her dear Ram to arrive, and on his arrival she fed him berries which she had tasted herself to make sure that they were sweet. This angered Lakshman but Shri Ram pacified him because he could see her intense love and devotion towards him. It was Shabri who then instructed Ram to approach Sugreev in the search for his beloved wife.

10) Hampi, Karnataka: A) Hanuman Halli: Koppal, Hampi: This was the place where Hanuman met Shri Ram and Lakshman for the first time. In fact Sugreev had sent Hanuman to meet with them in order to make sure that they were not the spies of his brother and archenemy Bali. NASA has used modern satellite technology to photograph this bridge and they have actually unearthed an ancient bridge connected India to modern day Sri Lanka!

15) Dhanushkoti: Skanda Purana in reference to Setu Mahatmya describes: ‘On the shores of the Southern Seas is the most sacred and boon-bestowing Dhanushkodi which is also the high point of destroying ‘Maha Patakas’ like Brahma Hatya, Suraapaana, Swarna harana, Guru-Shishyadi gamana. This is also the provider of plentiful prosperity and Kailasa Moksha Prada. It uproots indebtedness and poverty for ever. Incidentally, Dhanushkoti partially got submerged into Sea owing to recent cyclonic devastation and partly ascribed to Shri Rama’s own arrows. This historic meeting point of three high Seas of Hind Sagara-Bay of Bengal and Arabian Sea is the hallowed Tirtha for Sacred Snaanas, Shraddha-Pinda pradaanas and Daanas.

The Legend continues to state that Lord Shri Rama after killing Ravanasura and his generation except Vibhishana who was subsequently made the King of Lanka, there followed a series of awe-inspiring incidents like Devi Sita’s Agni Pariksha, Hanuman’s despatch to Kasi to fetch a genuine Shiva Linga for installation at Raneswara, his delayed action to do so, Devi Sita’s installation of Sand Linga, and travel by Pushpaka Vimana back to Ayodhya for the most auspicious Shri Sita-Rama Kalyana at Ayodhya!

Asya hastau cha paadou cha manaschaiva susamyatam, Nirvikaaraahkriyah sarvaah sa Tirtha phala-mashnute/ (Indeed, it is to those Yatris whose hands and feet are in tact and mind is under full control, besides those whose actions are full of virtue and just, the fruits of Tirtha-Yatras ought to be fruitful always.)
