Parasakthi, the Primordial Mother, is seated as Lalitha Maha Tripurasundari, on the peak of Maha Meru as Sripuravasini. Reclined on the Pancha Brahmakara and being an integral part of Sri Kameswara, it is She who bestows power to Brahma, Vishnu and Rudra for enabling them to do their task of creation, protection and dissolution. In order to grant the Purusharthas to the jeevas, She has chosen to be present in Kanchipuram, the holiest among holy places which is the Prithvi kshetram among the centres marked for the five elements, which is also regarded as one of the seven divine cities that grant Liberation. She resides as the embodiment of Sri Kameswara who is hailed as Sri Ekambareswara, as Maha Vishnu who is adored as Sri Varadaraja, as Bilakasa in Sri Kamakoti and also as Sri Kamakshi with all Her powers and prowess. It was here about 2500 years ago that Sri Adi Sankaracharya rejuvenated the Sri Chakra. Recently, the entire complex of Sri Kamakshi temple has been renovated and given a significant facelift. What more, the Dwajastambam is adorned with gold plate, a new golden palanquin has been made, the silver chariot has been refurbished, all the temple towers have been painted anew and a new mandapam for the devotees to wait and rest has been raised. The gold plate has been redone and expanded on the Vimanas atop the main sanctum sanctorum and that of Sri Adi Sankara. All the sannidhis have been tidied up appropriately. We are happy to inform that the Jeernodharana Ashta Bandhana Maha Kumbhabhishekam will be done for the Ambal in the main sanctum, the Tapas Kamakshi and the Bilakasam on Thursday, February 9, 2017, between 9.00 and 10.00 a m (Punarvasu nakshatram, Meena lagnam, Nazhigai between 5.04 and 9.24, on the 27th day of the month of Thai of Swasti Sree Durmukhi year) This Kumbhabhishekam is being done with the blessings of Sri Sri Sri Chandrasekarendra Saraswathi Mahaswamigal and by the divine hands of Sri Kanchi Kamakoti Peetadhipathi, Jagatguru Sri Sri Sri Jayendra Saraswathi Sankaracharya Swamigal and Sri Sri Sri Sankara Vijayendra Saraswathi Sankaracharya Swamigal.

We request all the devotees to participate in this holy event and receive the abundant blessings of Sri Kamakshi and the grace of Sri Acharyas.
