Message from Acharya Swamigal to NRI’s devotees

Namaami Bhagavadpāda Shankaram Loka Shankaram
Sadāshiva Samārambhām Shankarāchārya Madhyamām
Asmad Ācharya Paryantam Vande Guruparamparām

It is Dharma, which guides and protects every individual, every family, every region, every nation and the whole world. In order to understand that Dharma properly, we need merit acquired from previous lives. We should perform good deeds and earn merit in our present birth also; we should do it in multiple ways. This is the message of our Dharma. What we achieve should be measured on the scale of Dharma. It may be satisfactory and even honourable from mundane point of view to measure attainments on the basis of wealth, position and degrees; yet it is Dharma alone to which we ascribe truth and honour. In every Indian’s mind there is that resolve to sacrifice various pleasures and comforts, and do good things in life in order to protect Dharma and to act in accord with Dharma.

The thought of Dharma, the study of Dharma and the experience of Dharma is not just to see Dharma in books or in images; we look at them in relation to life; that is Dharma. Beyond books and recitations, we relate Dharma to any circumstance at any time, be it among friends or in the environs we live; thus our unwavering strong effort and faith grow further. Though we may say we protect Dharma, it is indeed Dharma which protects us. Though we may talk of Dharma as an attainment for the sake of our satisfaction and joy, Dharma is indeed the true guide in life at every stage. Starting from necessary peace of mind, followed by clarity in mind, and resulting in attainment of all good things, it is Dharma which acts as protective shield and guide. In order to propagate Dharma in various ways, through Japa, through observance of rituals, through practice of Dharmic ideals in our lives, we are undertaking several ventures and implementing several programmes so that Dharmic thought can always be remembered, never to be lost sight of.

Dharma is very important in our lives. We should put in more and more efforts in order to derive the satisfaction of participating in understanding and appreciating Dharma, in recognising the glory of Dharma and in putting Dharma to practice.

The episode known as Yaksha Prashna in Mahabharata relates to the exchange of questions and answers between Yama in the guise of a Yaksha who poses 126 difficult questions to Yudhishthira who gives the most fitting answers to those questions.

Background: One day during their incognito vanavasa (living in the forests), Yudhishthira felt very thirsty and there was no water in sight to quench his thirst. Sahadeva, the youngest of the Pandavas climbed up a tree and spotted a lake at a distance.

When he reached the lake to bring water for Yudhushthira, he heard a voice that said “Beware! Don’t touch the water before you answer my questions.” Without paying to the cautionary, Sahadeva started collecting water from the lake. As soon as he touched the water, he fell dead on the bank of the lake. Seeing Sahadeva not returning, Nakula was sent to search for him. He too met the same fate as did his elder brothers Arjuna and Bhima who followed him. Finally, Yudhishthira went to the lake and he was shocked to see all his brothers dead. Yaksha revealed to him his terrible form and warned him that he should answer his questions before helping himself to the water in the lake.

Yudhishthira gave him appropriate replies and Yaksha was pleased. Then, Yaksha said that he would bring back to life one of his brothers. Yudhishthira wanted Nakula to be brought back to life. Yaksha asked him why he was asking Nakula, the son of Madri, to be brought to life instead of Bhima or Arjuna who were his own brothers being Kunti’s children. Yudhishthira replied that his father had two wives Kunti and Madri both of whom he treated equally as his mothers. As he, Kunti Devi’s son, was alive, it was only just and equitable that Nakula, the eldest son of Madri, should also be alive. Yaksha who was none other than Yama, the god of death, was very pleased with Yudhishthira’s attitude and brought back to life all the brothers of Yudhishthira.

We encourage the next generation (10 or above till 25 or so) to write about their favourite Yaksha’s questions with Yudhishthira’s answers from the great epic of Mahabharata in simple English (with a rationale on why it is their favourite question) which can be published in this section. Chaturmasyam at Orikkai (24-July-2021 till 20-Sep-2021)

The universe is the reflection of a mirror. The Truth is the supreme Brahman, the one without a second. The mind, senses and intellect are all able to only discern the reflection of the Atman. The identity of the brahman and the Atman is apparent after self-illumination. I offer my profound salutations to the auspicious Guru, who is an embodiment of DakShinamurti, and whose grace is responsible for the illumination.

Acharya Swamigal performed Vyasa Puja & Chaturmasya Vrata Sankalpam on Guru Poornima
24-July-2021 and Punah Puja on 25-July-2021 at Sri Mahaswami Manimandapam, Orikkai, Kanchipuram.

Aadi Perukku, was celebrated on 03-Aug-2021 with the blessings of Acharya Swamigal under the auspices of thanjavurparampara.com on the banks of River Cauvery right from the origin at Thala cauvery to different places including Allur near Trichy and Govindapuram.

Veda parayanam and pujas were performed to the punya nadhi Cauvery. Bhajans including odam- a specific form, and the traditional dance of Tamilnadu Gummi attam were performed by youngsters in celebration as an offering of prayer to the holy river.

Visesha pujas were performed at Palar river in Kanchipuram adjacent to Shrimatam camp at Manimandapam. According to the South Indian tradition, even if one is not residing on the banks of the river Cauvery, one can go to a nearby water body (pond, temple tank, lake etc), invoke the divine river in it and perform Puja. Cauvery Ashtottaram or Lakshmi Ashtottaram Archana is performed followed by Shodashopacharam, Naivedyam & Deeparadhana

Acharya Swamigal blessed the programme with Anugraha Bhashanam over video conference. Click to watch

Srimad Ramayana Navaham rendered by Sri Krishna Premi Anna from (6-Aug-21 till 14-Aug-2021 at Shrimatam camp (Click to watch)
On this happy occasion when our country Bharat has attained Independence, the people of this ancient country must pray whole heartedly and with one mind to Sri Bhagavan. Let us all pray to God to vouch safe to us strength of mind and energy to engage ourselves more and more in attaining spiritual knowledge. It is only by the grace of Almighty that we can safeguard the freedom that we have achieved and also help all the living beings on earth to lead a happy life.
It is worthy to note that luckily the Chakra of Bhagavan, who is the embodiment of Dharma, has its place in the centre of our National Flag. This Chakra reminds us of the moral values enjoined by Emperor Ashoka, who is historically famous as Devanampriyaha. Further, the Chakra makes us contemplate on the spiritual discipline imparted by Bhagavan Krishna in the Bhagavad Gita. That Dharma which shines in the form of a Chakra is clear from Lord Krishna’s reference to the Chakras as “Evan pravartitam chakram” in Verse 16 of the III chapter of the Bhagavad Gita. Also in Verses 14 and 15 of the same chapter Bhagavan avers that "The human body originates from food, food grains grow because of rains, rain showers because of performance of Yajnas (Vedic Sacrifices), these Yajnas are prescribed in the Veda and that the Veda has emanated from Brahman who is in the form of Akshara (Sound recorded as letter of the alphabet)”. Thus, the Dharma Chakra explains to us that the supreme Brahman is manifest in Vedic sacrifices. May this Independence, dawning with the rightful remembrance of Emperor Ashoka, grant us such fruits as Aram (Dharma or Righteousness) Porul (Wealth), Inbam (Happiness) and Veedu (Moksha - deliverance), by the grace of God.

There are three stripes in our National Flag. They are of dark green, white and orange colours. These colours seem to indicate to us, that military strength for protection from enemies and evil, wealth for welfare and prosperity, and knowledge for the sake of proper administration are essential for the nation. It may be remembered that dark green is the colour of Durga - the Parasakti who is the mother protector, Mahalakshmi, the goddess of wealth and prosperity is of orange colour (golden hue) and Saraswathi the source divine of all knowledge is white in colour. It is a happy coincidence that the colour of the three Shakthis (Goddesses of Power) are seen in the three stripes of the National Flag.

For long, the Indian Nation has strived hard for winning freedom. By the grace of God, by the blessings of great men, and by the unique sacrifice of the people, independence has been won. Let us all pray to the Omnipresent God to shower his grace so that with the hard-won freedom, our country becomes prosperous, is rid of famine, and there are no social skirmishes and the entire nation lives in an atmosphere of amity and kindness.

Now that freedom has been attained by the nation, all of us must also try to develop Independence. If we understand ourselves fully, we may consider ourselves as independent. We are not capable of controlling the senses. We are unable to suppress desire and control anger, which always troubles us. Whichever thing in whatever measure we obtain does not lead us to contentment. Worldly sufferings cause worry to us. The mind gets confused on noticing these sufferings. What is the way out of all these? we must try to control, albeit gradually the mind which has been functioning vigorously for such a long time. Once the mind is set at rest, we will not need anything. That state of mind which ensures complete freedom is what we must attempt to achieve.

Every day at least sometime should be set apart for practicing the control of mind and bereft of other thoughts, we must meditate upon God. Then gradually, the mind will become calm, whereupon we will have the mental power to subjugate desire and anger. Spiritual knowledge will accrue fast for him who practices such meditation. Only these who attain such true spiritual knowledge can truly be independent citizens.

Any woman other than one’s wife must be respected as one’s own mother. We must regard other living beings as we would regard ourselves. Even at the risk of death, truth alone must be spoken. Petty social feuds must be averted totally, everyone must strive for improving his knowledge and his spiritual attainments and move with others in an atmosphere of kindness. We must sincerely wish that all people should live happily and peacefully.

Rig Veda & Yajur Veda Upakarma (Avani Avittam) was performed at Shrimatam camp at Orikkai on 21 & 22 Aug. 2021 with blessings of Acharya Swamigal. Every year, the Upakarma is performed on the day of Sravana (Tiruvonam) star in the lunar month of Sraavana.

After Upanayanam, study of Vedas commences on the first Aavani Avittam day. Utsarjana karma is done in the following Pushya (Thai) month, study of Vedas is halted and in the next six months, as much as possible of the six Vedangas, viz. Siksha, Vyakarana, Chandas, Niruktam, Jyotisham and Kalpasutram is studied. Then in the Sraavana month of the following year, on the day of Upakarma, Upakarma is performed and study of Veda mantras is commenced again.

This karma of starting study of Vedas is known as Upakarma. Only if Upakarma is performed in this manner, will the meagre store of Veda mantra with us have power. If not, it will become ‘yatayama’ like the food described in Bhagavadgita.

KKSF Youth Forum

This forum is meant for youth attending secondary schools or universities. About 15 members meet every Sunday. The classes are moderated by a senior member of KKSF. The participants read sections of Bhagavad Gita or other religious works, understand the meaning of the text and discuss how those teachings can be applied to their every day lives particularly in the context of the cosmopolitan environment they live in. The objective is to encourage networking among youth, help them enhance their understanding of these scriptures and promote leadership qualities.

Sri Sankari Classes for Children

Classes are held every Sunday for children in the age groups of 5 to 12. Children learn slokas, read stories from Ramayana, Mahabharata, Panchatantra tales and learn bhajans. To help in motivated participation, by all children quiz competitions and coloring and painting exercises are conducted. The children are encouraged to sing bhajans on all important religious celebrations such as Ganesh Pooja and Krishna Jayanti. Around 30 children participate in these classes.

Tilak Datta R Iyer, Pittsburgh, U.S.A - The topic I have chosen to write is on Lord Shri Rama and His relationship to Sanatana Dharma. If we understand Shri Rama’s qualities, then it is easy to understand and follow Sanatana Dharma. When Shri Rama was a kid, His mindset was to listen to His father, even when He was banished from the kingdom. He was still very young to go live in the forest. King Dasharatha was forced to fulfill Kaikeyi’s wish that he had promised. Her wish was to banish Shri Rama and make her son Bharata the king. Normally a kid, who had just been sent into the forest by his father would be heart broken, angry and revengeful. However, Shri Rama followed His father’s orders happily and perfectly. Even as He aged, the lessons He taught us increased. Shri Rama even advised Bharata to remain as the king, when Bharata came begging to Him to return to the kingdom. After the war against Ravana, Shri Rama returned to the kingdom with His wife Sita. However, Rama gave up His own wife so He would follow His dharma as a king, just because a commoner questioned Sita’s purity. Dharma of a king is to keep his people happy. When Shri Rama sent Sita out of the kingdom, He vowed to her to not have another wife. He kept this vow and remained Eka Patni Vrata. Shri Rama showed His dharma in that incident by being loyal to His spouse. Shri Rama was a loyal friend when He agreed to help Sugreeva fight against his brother Vali. He was compassionate to all human beings and even animals. He had no reservation in eating the fruit offered by a frail old woman Shabari. He gently stoked a squirrel while crossing the ocean. This shows Shri Rama’s love for all animals and human beings alike.

This is how Lord Shri Rama is a living embodiment of Sanatana Dharma!

Rishi Keshav, Cary, North Carolina, U.S.A - Sandhyavandhanam is the root of the wellbeing of all lokas. It is a way of generating happiness within. We learn to perform well generating inner well-being. This is the complete set of activities that integrate mind and body. It combines physical yoga, verbal chanting, and mental meditation and control I to help everyone get more refined. The initiate student is expected to perform it thrice a day, lifelong for his and worldly benefits. This is done during Sandhi kaalam, the times of transition between light intensity and night- dawn, noon, and dusk. Dawn and dusk are a critical time when inhaled vital energy, prana enters through both the left and nostrils simultaneously merge into sushma. This joining of svara, inhaled prana facilitates the individual with the divine. The core exercise is a meditation on mantras. Maananaat Trayatay Iti Mantraha- a mantra that protects the chanter causing subtle changes whether aloud or silently, produces vibrations. The Savithree-Gayathree mantras are set and have 23 syllables. Sandhyavandanam is a prayer to Sun. Through Sandhya practice, we learn several levels of training called Karma Yoga, Upasana Yoga, and Jnana yoga. This yoga gives physical strength and cleansing, Mental focus, Awareness, and Responsibility. Finally, with Samarpanam to higher forces, we relinquish our fears, concerns, anxieties, and worries. Let us practice the great ritual that gives lots of benefits to individuals and the world.
Shruthi Shravana, Cary, North Carolina, U.S.A - Andal is the wife of Lord Vishnu and the daughter of Periyazhwar. She is also known as Godhadevi, Kodhai, and Nachiyar. Andal is the only female among the 12 azhwars who has written Nathchiyar Thirumozhi, and Thirupaavai, and other praises and pasurams on Lord Vishnu which are widely sung by devotees on the auspicious month of Margazhi. Andal also wears a special type of hairstyle, which is called Andal Kondai in the modern days. Andal also has a parrot which is kept to her left shoulder. When andal was young, her father used to string thulasi garlands for Lord Vishnu. She used to wear the thulasi garland and picture herself before devoting it to God. When Periyazhawar found out, he had felt very guilty that his daughter did that and was highly disappointed. Lord Vishnu appeared in his dream and said he would only wear the garland worn and devoted by Andal. Hence Andal is referred to as சூடிககாடுத்தசுட்டார்க்காடி by everyone. She grew so deep into affection and devotion that she decided only to marry Vishnu himself. It is believed that Lord Renganathan married her later onwards who merged with her idol too. Kodhai till date is known for her care and devotion towards Lord Vishnu and her tamizh
